Then we have all heard by now that Pastor Kloth has resigned his call here at Olivet. This will mean that he will preach his farewell sermon on October 4. This is also Holy Communion Sunday, which will mark a fitting conclusion to his services here. Pastor Kloth was installed July 7, 1957, so he will have been with us two years and three months. It was not really a surprise that he resigned, for Pastor Kloth has had three calls since he came here - one to Kansas City, one to Ringsted, Iowa, and now the present one to Indianapolis. We know, too, that it is only natural that he would desire a parish of his own and a parsonage for his family. Our hope is that as he has been helpful to us, we too, pastor and lay folk, have been helpful to him. At some future time we shall set a date for a fitting farewell for them. At that time we shall have time to express more fully our appreciation.
