

H. H. Hokamp Of Arlington Dies

Services were held Saturday for Herman H. Hokamp, 89 years of age, of Arlington, who died Wednesday night at Dodge County Hospital in Fremont.

The services were held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church north of Arlington, the Rev. Carl Hellmann officiating, with interment in St. Paul's Lutheran Cemetery.

Mr. Hokamp is survived by two brothers, August and Fred Hokamp of Arlington, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Jensen of Laurel.

The Reckmeyer Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Jensen

Burial Co. Rd. 4-12-62

Christiansen Rites Conducted Monday In Decatur Church

Harry A. Christiansen, a resident of the Decatur community since 1927, died April 6 at the age of 75 years.

Services were held Monday in the Decatur Methodist Church with the Rev. Francis St. Amant officiating. Mrs. Betty Huffman and Miss Rita Richards sang with Mrs. Ray Halstead as pianist, and Masonic rites were conducted at the church.

Otto Schuler, Ross McCluskey, William Yager, Bernard Connealy, Rolin Hightree and Ray Halstead were the pallbearers and burial was in Laurel Hill cemetery in South Omaha.

Mr. Christiansen was born December 28, 1886, in Omaha, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Christiansen. In 1914 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Tombrink of Omaha and they were parents of four children.

He was director of the Whitman-Mullen National Farm Loan Association until 1927 when he sold his ranch at Whitman and moved to Decatur. In 1928 he moved to the farm which had since been his home.

Survivors are his wife and sons and daughters, Robert of Tekamah, Charles of Decatur, Mrs. Anton Lovesky of Bradenton, Fla., and Mrs. Harley Perkins of Omaha.

The Ladies Aid Society and Eastern Star of Decatur served dinner at the church Monday to members of the Christiansen family.

Louis Petersen of Uehling Died Oct. 1

Louis Petersen of Uehling, who died October 1, was buried at the Elim Lutheran Cemetery following funeral services at the Elim Lutheran Church in Swaburg October 4.

Mr. Petersen was born May 12, 1887, on a farm near Herman. Most of his life was spent in the Uehling community.

He was married to Dora Marie Anderson at Fremont in 1905. They lived on a farm until they retired in 1949 and moved to Uehling.

Mr. Petersen was baptized in the Lutheran faith and was a member of the Elim Lutheran Church.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Alvis of Hooper; daughters, Mrs. Earl Wagner of Hooper and Mrs. George Nelson of Craig; eight grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; brothers, Anton of Hooper and Julius of Fremont; sister, Mrs. John Ladd of Fulton, Calif.

He was preceded in death by a son, a grandson, three sisters and a brother.

H. Skov Nielsen, 86, Died Tuesday

H. Skov Nielsen passed away at the Memorial Community Hospital on October 16th, where he had been confined since Oct. 7th, following a fall at his home.

Mr. Nielsen was born in Jutland, Denmark August 28, 1876. He came to the United States at the age of 9 and his parents located in Nebraska. In 1893 he came to Blair to attend Blair High School and Dana College. After attending the Fremont Normal School he taught in public schools in Nebraska, Iowa and Wisconsin. From 1908 to 1929 he managed the Lutheran Publishing House. During the next ten years he was associated with the Blair Horse Collar Company, and then returned to various duties at the Publishing House, besides teaching Danish at Dana College. He retired from active work in January of 1961.

Mr. Nielsen was married to Anine K. Jensen of near Orum on September 28, 1902 and it was the first marriage to take place in the First Lutheran Church building. They observed their 60th wedding anniversary last September.

He is survived by his wife, Anine; three daughters, Mrs. Bruce Melvin (Elna) of Greenbelt, Md., Mrs. A. T. Sheeley (Alyce) of Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Dagny Hinton of Springfield, Minnesota; and a son, Harold, of Milwaukee. Also 8 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the First Lutheran Church on Friday, October 19th, at 2 p.m.

James Ryan Died Thurs.

Services Held Monday at Blair Methodist Church

Funeral services were held today (Monday) at the Methodist Church for James Ryan, 76 years of age, who died Thursday at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha.

The Rev. Dale Westadt officiated at the First Methodist Church with interment in Blair Cemetery. The Herman Masonic Lodge was in charge of services at the cemetery.

Mr. Ryan, a retired Washington County farmer, was born Feb. 25, 1886 in Blair, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan. On June 9, 1909 he married Miss Hannah Jensen. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan retired a few years ago and moved to Blair, residing at 2163 Lincoln Street.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Hannah Ryan; one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Pence (Clarice) of Blair; six sons, Russell of Blair, Perry of Menamonie, Wis., Kelly and Robert of Blair, Curtis of Omaha and William Ryan of Blair.

Also brothers, Will Ryan, Omaha, Van H. Ryan, Norfolk; sisters, Mrs. Clarence Jensen of Fremont, Mrs. Rudolph Mencke of Blair and Mrs. Mike Larsen of Omaha.

Pallbearers were Milo Jensen, Gene Rvan, Dick Nelson, Myron Tofte, Paul Pieper and Harold Ryan.

The Campbell Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

1-11-62
HANSEN—Mrs. Bina S., age 82 years, 2102 Ave. C, Council Bluffs, Ia., Wednesday. Widow of the late John Hansen. Survived by daughters, Miss Barbara and Miss Elizabeth, both of Council Bluffs, Ia.; step-daughter, Mrs. Neoma Anderson, Fort Dodge, Ia.; sons, Paul, Grand Island, Neb., Leslie, Council Bluffs, Ia.; step-son, Elijah, Council Bluffs, Ia.; six grandchildren; sister, Mrs. Ove Anderson, Blair, Neb.; brothers, Peter Nelson, Lancaster, Cal., Hans Nelson, Los Angeles, Cal.; Jacob Nelson, Philip Nelson, both of Potter, Neb.
Services Saturday, 10 a. m., at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, Council Bluffs. Interment Cedar Lawn Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the above mentioned church.
MEYERS FUNERAL HOME
545 Willow Ave. 322-0293

The Rev. George Pallesen will officiate. The Bendorf Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements and burial will be in the Blair Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Dr. Clifford Madsen, P. V. Hansen, Henry Wolsmann, Norman Bansen, Marius Hansen and Rev. John Nielsen.

Louise Christensen Buried at Lyons

Funeral services for Mrs. Fre Christensen, age 73, were held January 2 at the First Methodist Church in Oakland. Mrs. Christensen died December 30 at Oakland Memorial Hospital.

Louise J. Christensen was born southeast of Oakland December 1889, to Walter and Anna Hansen. She received her elementary schooling in the rural schools of that area and attended high school in Oakland. She was trained for Salvation Army work in Omaha and spent some time in Chicago, Ill., and Seattle, Wash., in the work.

She was united in marriage to Fred A. Christensen of Lyon February 5, 1913. In 1958 she celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary. To this union were born seven children. Two of her children, Glen and Lois Jean, and her husband preceded her in death.

Mrs. Christensen was a lifetime member of the Methodist Church and was active in W.S.C.S. work receiving an honorary life membership pin in the society several years ago. She was a charter member of the Belle Creek Extension Club and a member of the woman's Club of Lyons and the Oakland Garden Club.

Survivors include her children Forrest of Des Moines, Mrs. E. Appleby, Jr. (Elaine), Mrs. Carroll Cordes (Rachel) of Scribner, Myron Christensen of Oakland and Donald Christensen of Lyons and twelve grandchildren.

Rev. Ross Louthan officiated at the services. Music was furnished by Mrs. Charles LeMaster of Sioux City, Ia. Pallbearers were All Paulson, William Paulson, Edmund Going, Warren Robertson, Vernon Gallup and Ernest Pearson.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. at the funeral home.