Mrs. Nels Larson Died at Oakland

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriet U. Larson of Lyons, who died April 2, 1963, in the Oakland Memorial Rest Home, at the age of 93 years, five months and 13 days, were held April 4 at 2 p. m. from the Piper Chapel in Lyons. The Rev. Thomas Holcombe officiated.

Harriet U. Anderson was born October 19, 1869, to Hans Christian and Hansena Maria Anderson, who migrated from Denmark and homesteaded near Basford. She was one of 14 children born in a log cabin. When she was seven years old her family moved to Washington county, near Admah, Nebr. Later her father moved back to the Basford community.

When she was 16, she went to keep house for an uncle, Jacob Anderson, where she survived the great blizzard of 1888. On the Jacob Anderson homestead she met and married Nels P. Larson, who had also migrated from Denmark, and was employed by Mr. Anderson. They were married on February 28, 1888, in Tekamah and then moved to a farm near the Bacon school.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, who died in 1940. Survivors include her three children, Mrs. Joe A. Swanson (Laura) of North Platte, Hans Christian Larson of Decatur and William Martin Larson of Lyons; two brothers, Edward and William Anderson of Wheatland, Wyo.; three sisters, Sophia Cox and Mrs. Lillie Cox of Sacramento, Calif., and Carrie Williamsen of Wray, Colo.; nine grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. — Lyons Mirror-Sun.

Mrs. Julia Wilson Buried Thursday

Mrs. Julia Ann Wilson, 93 years of age, of 551 North 23rd Street, passed away at the McBride Nursing Home in Blair on January 27, 1963.

Julia Hooks (Mrs. Wilson) was born at Edgewood, Illinois, on August 28, 1869, the daughter of Jonathan and Margaret Hooks. Her father died at the age of 44 years, leaving his wife and eight children to survive him.

Shortly after the death of Mr. Hooks, their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, invited them to move to Nebraska and make their home on a small farm in Washington County. And so, in 1874, Mrs. Wilson's mother packed up their belongings and with her eight children headed west for Nebraska by train.

Upon arriving in Nebraska, her mother purchased a small farm northwest of Blair in Washington County, and with the help of relatives constructed a two-room house, 20x40 feet. Mrs. Wilson attended the Summers School in the original log school house.

She was married to Robert H. Wilson on September 21, 1887. They farmed until October 1, 1916, at which time they moved to Blair, and to the same house that Mrs. Wilson lived in until just a few weeks before she passed away. Mr. Wilson preceded her in death in 1944.

Mrs. Wilson is survived by one son, Glen, one grandson, Raymond, and one great-grandson, Norman.

Funeral services will be held Thursday (today), January 31, 1963 at 2:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church with the Reverend Gilbert J. Reiland officiating. The Bendorf Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The pallbearers are: Robert McMillan, Harold Taylor, O. R. Foust, Willard Warrick, A. J. Skov and Wallace Husk.

Henry Christiansen Services Are Held
