

th Lippincott a red ribbon on use plants.

Top awards (or blue ribbons) for the Artistic Design displays were given to five Omaha ladies of the Montanella Park Garden Club. One went to Mrs. Matt Gruidel, chairman of the show; Mrs. Stanley Godwin, Mrs. Ed Micek, Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. R. H. Jacobsen, who received three blue ribbons. Mrs. H. Lyle Guyer, co-chairman of the show, also received a blue ribbon in this division. Mrs. Gruidel was awarded the Creativity Award. They also received red and gold ribbons for other Artistic entries. Mrs. Pat Gaither won a red ribbon and Mrs. Pat Hancock and Mrs. Wayne Miller received white ribbons.

The six judges for the show, accredited by the National Council of Garden Clubs, were from Omaha, Fremont, Tekamah and Cedar Bluffs.

The Burdess Orchid Gardens of DeSoto had an exhibit which was not listed for judging.

Relatives Attend Funeral In Mich.

Rudy Thaden, accompanied by

Book Review Given At Grange Meeting

Riverview Grange No. 392 met at the George Neale home in Ft. Calhoun on Thursday evening, May 18th with 25 members present. Mrs. Genevieve Slader of Ft. Calhoun gave a book re view by oria cea: pre: On his sister, Mrs Fred Beck of Bennington, and a nephew, Howard Kay, attended the funeral services of Harold Haskins at Constantine, Michigan held there on Thursday, May 18th. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dixon of Fremont, accompanied by the deceased's mother, Mrs. Dollie Haskins of Logan, Iowa, also attended.

Mr. Haskins is survived by his wife (the former Celia Thaden of the Fort Calhoun area); 4 children, Harold Jr., U. S. Navy; Ronald E., West Point Academy; Sheila and Garry at home.

Mr. Haskins, aged 48, World War II veteran, passed away at Toledo, Ohio Monday evening suddenly of a fatal heart attack while working as brakeman on the New York Central Railway.

He was born in Logan, Iowa.

Dora Klindt, Pioneer, Is Dead

E-7-23-64

Miss Dora Klindt died at the age of 95, July 21st at the Blair Community Hospital where she had been for several months. She was born February 17, 1869 to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Klindt at Ft. Calhoun. Her life spanned all but two years of Nebraska statehood. Her pioneer childhood was intermingled with the vigor and pleasures of the old days. Her after school chores included molding candles for the family use. She tracked deer into the woods and watched for early spring flowers and became imbued with the love of nature and land which never left her.

She was an active member of the Ft. Calhoun Presbyterian Church, a charter member of the Washington County Historical Society and the Ft. Atkinson Foundation and the Ft. Calhoun Women's Club. She served on the Cemetery Board for almost 50 years.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning at the Ft. Calhoun Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Wesley Harker of Omaha officiated. The Sievers Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements and burial was in the Ft. Calhoun cemetery.

Pallbearers were Albert Rathjen, Arthur Kahnk, Glen Lund, Ed Geesaman, George Rohwer and Ernest Kruse.