Mrs. Geo. Rohwer, Sr., A Co. Pioneer, Dies at Age of 95

M=11-9-64
Mrs. George Rohwer, Sr., pioneer lady of Washington County, died Sunday, Nov. 8, at her home in Ft. Calhoun. She would have been 96 years of age on November 15th.

Catherine (Kate) was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Beekmann, early pioneers of Washington County. She was the first white girl born in the city of Blair and had resided continuously in this county.

In 1833 she went as a bride of George Rohwer to a farm one mile north of Ft. Calhoun. This farm has been in the Rohwer family for 110 years. Several years ago she received the Ak-Sar-Ben Family Award.

Her passing marks the end of an era. She was a woman of true pioneer type—high integrity, strong character and individuality. These qualities she instilled in all of her seven children. She was a long time member of the Ft. Calhoun Woman's Club and maintained her interest in the Schools until the end.

Her husband, George, died in 1928 and three of her sons, Harry, Carl and Albert preceded her in death.

She is survived by one son, George Rohwer, Jr., of Ft. Calhoun; three daughters, Mrs. E. S. B. Geesaman (Clare) and Miss Celia Rohwer, both of Ft. Calhoun, and Mrs. E. T. Jipp, Sr. (Helen) of Blair; 12 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Rohwer will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, November 11, at the Ft. Calhoun Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Jack Mauldin will officiate. Burial will be in the Ft. Calhoun Cemetery. The Sievers Mortuary at Ft. Calhoun will be in charge of services.
