

E 10/21/65 ✓

12 Brothers and Sisters Have Reunion

For the first time in 31 years, the twelve children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman Giesselmann were all together for a reunion. They all gathered at the home of Mrs. Henry Stork in Fremont to attend the wedding of her granddaughter, Marilyn Struve to Gerald Vahle.

Their ages range from 54 to 78 years. The oldest three have observed their golden wedding anniversaries. All were born in Washington County but have moved to various parts of the U.S.A.

They are pictured above left to right (seated): Mrs. Henry Plugge (Esther) age 65, Ernst Giesselmann 72, Mrs. Herman Timme (Elsa) 68, Mrs. Ed Lallmann (Ida) 78, Mrs. George Lentz (Louise) 76 all of Fremont, Henry Giesselmann 74 of Arlington and Mrs. Henry Stork (Anna) 77 of Fremont.

Standing are: Mrs. Earl Strenger (Florence) 54 and Mrs. Kurt Weiche (Adela) 64 both of Fremont, Mrs. Albert Launer (Frida) 60 of San Diego, Mrs. Carl Sommers (Meta) 63 of Fremont and Mrs. George Stohlmann (Sophia) 70 of St. Louis.

First Meeting Of Family In 31 Years Is Held

T-10-14-65 ✓

The 12 children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman Giesselmann, pioneers in the Arlington area, met together Saturday for the first time in 31 years.

Attending were daughters, Mmes. Ed (Ida) Lallmann, Henry (Anna) Stork, George (Louise) Lentz, George (Sophia) Stohlmann of St. Louis, Mo., Herman (Elsa) Timme, Henry (Esther) Plugge, Kurt (Adela) Weiche, Carl (Meta) Sommers, Albert (Frida) Launder of San Diego, Calif., and Earl (Florence) Strenger; and sons, Henry Giesselmann of Arlington and Ernest Giesselmann.

Ages of the 12 range from 54 to 78 years of age. The oldest three have observed their golden wedding anniversaries. The reunion took place at the home of Mrs. Henry Stork, 340 E. 4th St., Fremont.

All were in Fremont to see each other and attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Marilyn Struve to Gerald Vahle, Saturday night.

HERMAN NEWS—

By Mrs. Sadie Brodersen

Several From Area Attended Rites For Edward Holstein

Edward Holstein, who was born and raised in Washington County, Nebr., and attended the Spiker School, passed away at his home in Alta, Iowa Thursday, October 7, at the age of 75 years. He was a brother of Sam Holstein of Blair, Victor Holstein of Arlington, Dewey Holstein of Fremont and Mrs. Mack Cameron. Among those who attended the funeral Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist Church in Alta were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Holstein of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holstein of Blair, Mrs.

Victor Holstein, Mrs. Howard Nelson and Warren Holstein of Arlington, Everett Holstein, Mrs. Carson Petersen and Mr. and Mrs. George Suverkrubbe of Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cameron, Mrs. Orville Hansen of Omaha, Mrs. Eugene Christiansen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hovendick, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fitch, William Cameron, Mrs. Ruth Jackson and Mrs. Sadie Brodersen.

KENNARD NEWS

T-10-14-65 ✓