

Richard Gnuse Is Killed As Farm Tractor Goes Into Creek

E-5-2-68

Richard Gnuse, 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gnuse, was killed last Saturday afternoon when a tractor overturned on him.

The accident apparently happened when the tractor came too close to a creek and toppled over. A doctor was called to the scene but Young Gnuse was already dead. He was reportedly partially buried in the mud.

He was born May 25, 1954, and was a member of Salem Lutheran Church in Fontanelle. He was an eighth grade student at Telbasta School.

Services for Richard Gnuse, 13, were Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Salem Lutheran Church in Fontanelle. Rev. Otto Spehr officiated.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gnuse, two brothers, Rod and Larry; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Otteman, Hooper; and August Gnuse, Fremont.

Wollmer and Warne Funeral Home in Hooper was in charge.

Burial was at the church cemetery.

Start Work On Tabulation For '68 License Book

Cliff Halbert's Washington County Treasurers staff has started work on tabulating the auto license numbers for 1968.

Each year the auto licenses are tabulated for the Washington County License Book. The entire list must be gone over to see if any of the licenses are now assigned to someone else and to add names to licenses that were not assigned before.

Last year, at the time the License Book was published, there were licenses up to G266. As of
