MRS. WILLIAM WILBUR DIED MONDAY AT CROWELL HOME

12-17-70 ✓
Mrs. William Wilbur, long-time Blair resident, died at Memorial Community Hospital Monday, December 14th. Mrs. Wilbur and her husband had been residents of Crowell Memorial Home for several years. They will be remembered by older residents as having lived in south Blair at the south end of what is now 16th Street. Many years ago, after they had lived in the vicinity for a long time, a street was created which skirted their property and it was named Wilbur Drive, a name which the street still holds today.

Edna D. Wilbur was born in Harrison County, Iowa on February 26, 1891. As a young woman she was married to William Wilbur and they moved to Blair many years ago. The couple had no children.

She is survived by her husband and by three brothers and a sister. The brothers are William Thomas of Arlington; Edward Thomas, of Utah; and Joe Thomas of California. The sister is Mrs. Lura Barnes, of Omaha.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow, December 18th at the Campbell Mortuary and interment will be made in the Blair Cemetery.

The Rev. Guy McClure, Administrator of Crowell Memorial Home will conduct the service. Pallbearers are Robert Sylvis,

Arnold Rosterman, Robert McMillan, Richard Kubie, Reynold Kubie and John E. Hansen.

Limits on quail in Nebraska are 8 daily and 16 possession.
