

One Time Blair Man Died At Santa Monica

George Wallace Dixon, known here as "Bud" Dixon, died October 5th in the Santa Monica, California Community Hospital. He was a cousin of G. L. Dixon of Blair.

The deceased was born in Blair May 8, 1901 but has not lived here for many years. He resided in Chicago for a time and then moved to California where he had lived for years.

He is survived by Raymond A. Dixon, Harbor City, California and by Vert A. Dixon, Monterey Park, California.

CLIFFORD GILLILAND DIED IN OMAHA WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 29

Clifford E. Gilliland, a brother of John (Pete) Gilliland of Blair, died last Wednesday at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha. Death was attributed to cancer.

The deceased was a native of Blair, having been born here January 13, 1912. He grew up and attended school in Blair and joined the United States Navy in 1928. He spent 16 years in the Navy and then entered Civil Service work in Washington as a Custodial Engineer. Later he transferred to Omaha.

He is survived by his wife, Jean, who is not a native of this area, and by one daughter, Mrs. Jeri McGraw of Joppatown, Maryland. There are two grandchildren.

A brother, John Gilliland, of Blair and a brother, Benjamin, of Whittier, California survive. There are also two sisters, Mrs. Ada McDonald of Blair and Mrs. Vivian Larsen of Creighton, Nebraska.

Funeral services were held at Trinity Cathedral in Omaha Friday and burial was made in the Blair cemetery.

CLIFFORD GILLIAM DIES IN OMAHA WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 29

Clifford E. Gilliam, a brother of John (Pete) Gilliam of Blair, died Wednesday, September 29 at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha. Death was attributed to cancer.

The deceased was a native of Blair, having been born here January 13, 1913. He grew up and attended school in Blair and joined

FORMER COUNTY MAN DIED IN OMAHA HOSPITAL

Milton P. Larsen, one-time resident of the Kennard area, died October 2nd in an Omaha hospital, a victim of leukemia. Larsen, a member of the Omaha police force, was born at Kennard and grew up in that area. He was 30 years old.

He had been a member of the Omaha Police Force for nine years and had served with the juvenile unit for the past four years.

The deceased was the son of the late Earl Larsen, one-time farmer of the Kennard area.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia, and by two sons, Norbert E. (Buddy) who is 9 years old, and by Milton P. Jr., who is five. Also surviving is his mother, Mrs. Ardeth Larsen who also lives in Omaha.

Three brothers survive. They are Eldon of Omaha, Lynn of Elm Creek, Nebraska, and Arlen Larsen of Kennard. A sister, Mrs.

Bill Wrich (Joyce) also lives at Kennard. In-laws of the deceased man are Art and Wilma Klabunde, John and Robyn Thirtle, Jack and Gerri Shelhorn. There are 25 nieces and nephews.

In addition to his father, he was also preceded in death by a brother, Norman, a nephew Russell Larsen and a sister-in-law Sandra.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Omaha. Interment was made in the Springwell cemetery.

HERMAN INFANT BURIED OCTOBER 1

Graveside services were held Friday, October 1st for James Charles Kruse, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kruse of Herman. Services were held at the Immanuel Lutheran Church at Hooper. The child had died September 29th at an Omaha hospital.

Survivors are his parents, brother Kenneth, sisters Sally, Connie and twin sister, Amy.

Services For A. Hokamp To Be Thursday Afternoon

August Hokamp, a pioneer resident of Washington County, passed away Monday morning at the age of 95 years old, at the Dodge County Hospital following a lingering illness. Mr. Hokamp was born January 31, 1876 and spent his entire life on the same farm north of Arlington.

He was married to Martha Knecht, February 23rd, 1911.

Survivors are his wife, Martha and the following children: Mrs. Walter (Lora) Giesselmann, Blair, Nebraska; Mrs. Meta Breithaupt, Fremont, Nebraska; Albert Hokamp, Arlington; Mrs. Elmer (Norma) Katt, Herman; Martin Hokamp, St. Louis, Nebraska and Gilbert Hokamp, Arlington.

Fifteen grandchildren, five great grandchildren, one daughter, Esther, preceeded him in death.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church with the Rev. Donald P. Gesterling officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Grandsons will serve as pallbearers. Reckmeyer funeral home