GENERAL STATEMENT.

Dana College and Trinity Theological Seminary is owned and supported by the United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. It is a denominational institution and as such aims to serve, primarily, the interests of the Lutheran Church, but its doors are open to all who desire a liberal education based upon the Christian spirit. Its original scope was that of a school for the education of ministers of the gospel.

But at the third annual convention of the United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, held at Hutchinson, Minn., in 1899, it was decided to unite the two official schools of the church, the College at Elk Horn, Ia., and Trinity Seminary at Blair, Nebr., thus making the aim of this school not only to prepare young men for the ministry, but also directly or indirectly to train young men and women for other professions and occupations.

Its courses of instruction are according to approved models, and the instruction is in first rank. The English language is used as a medium of instruction, except in Danish language, history, and in literature and some of the theological branches.

The location leaves little to be desired in accessibility, healthfulness, and beauty of surroundings.

It is the object of those in charge to throw about the students such forces as favor a healthy and harmonious physical, mental and moral development.

and particularly to our Danish youth in America are the following words addressed:

It is to your interest to attend the institution that can do you most good, that is best able to aid countrymen in overcoming the perplexities so often handicapping young foreigners in this country, that fits them for the highest success in life, and does all in its power to attain the same.

We believe Dana College and Trinity Theological Seminary is that institution. Those in charge of the school are devoting their life to the culture of the Danish people in America, and will leave nothing undone to have this school retain its reputation as the leading Danish school in America.

GENERAL HINTS

The school year begins Oct. 2nd, and is divided into three terms: a Fall term of nine weeks, a Winter term of sixteen weeks, and a Spring term of ten weeks.

If you should wish information not given in this catalogue, address the President, and he will cheerfully advise you on any point of mutual interest.

While the faculty urges the importance and advantage of students entering the school at the beginning of the school year or at the opening of a new term, yet admission may be had at any time to such classes as will meet their personal needs.
