Alumni Support--

Give up? The letters on the front page could stand for a number of things, such as

Dana Comes First

Dana College Fight

Dana's Collegiate Faculty

Dana College Farm (Remember it?)

But it doesn't. It stands for

DANA COLLEGE FOUNDATION

It's the newest organization on College Hill, and is growing by leaps and bounds. It portends to be the largest organization associated with our College. It will be a terrific force in the growth and progress of the future Dana College.

Approximately 12,000 individuals and families have been contacted for membership. If it were possible for each one to pledge $100, can you visualize the great possibilities? If each one could pledge $50, can you see the potentialities? If each one could pledge $25, can you imagine the progress? If each one pledges $10, can you see the future of Dana College? The strength of the foundation lies in the fact that it is a specific annual income on which to depend, and which will supplement all other incomes for the operation and progress of our college.

We alumni are in the best position to evaluate the need of such an organization, and it is an added responsibility to help in its successful promotion. The Washington County Alumni Chapter had the first opportunity of acceptance or rejection, and the acceptance was inspirational. Sixty members pledged over $1000. And there are many others who have indicated pledges. During the months of February and March President Morton will contact several other chapters, and we hope the acceptance will be equally as enthusiastic. So let's support the D. C. F. It's the Dana College Future.

In Memoriam

A friend has passed from among us. He was one of the most interested of alumni in Dana College and Trinity Seminary, and often it was his initiative and his driving power which spelled victory for a project or program which would aid in the forward progress of our Alma Mater. He was continually exhorting us all to support our college by spiritual as well as material methods, and, he was first to do himself what he asked others to do.

Dr. N. C. Carlsen, D07, T10, was truly a pioneer among us. Since 1910—forty long years—he gave unstintingly of himself for the furtherance of our Church and all it embraces. He was indefatigable in his efforts to promote Christian Higher Education—thus, Dana College—because he realized the values which were gained through it by the young people who would eventually be potential leaders in our government.

How many of us have not felt a tinge of pride and admiration when he chanced to be on the campus and spoke to us by name, asking how we were getting along, and how our parents were, and we, having some small concept of the problems and responsibilities resting on his shoulders, marvelling that he remembered us and that he would take the time to inquire about these things from us.

Yes, we shall miss him, but we shall also be grateful and proud that we knew him and that he was among us. He was a great man—not in terms of national prominence or stature, but in terms of service to his God and for the manner in which he carried out the tasks which his God had laid out for him. Let there be more like him from among us who will serve so diligently, so faithfully, so forcefully, for the furtherance of Christianity and Christian Higher Education.

REPORT ON D C F

President Morton to Visit West Coast Alumni Groups

The Dana College Foundation has had a very good start, reports Pres. R. E. Morton, who is also Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Foundation. There are now 153 members in the Foundation, of whom 128 joined the organization since its launching early in December of last year; the other 25 members are those who contributed to the Foundation after its approval by the 1949 convention of the Church.

As of February 13 the total of annual pledges is $1,945.50 which has been pledged by 119 members. Contributions received to date amount to $2,715.50. Of this sum, $1,300.50 has been contributed since the Foundation's launching, and $1,415.00 prior to that time.

President Morton is very optimistic about the Foundation's future, and he believes the organization will grow vigorously in the next few years. The immediate goal in membership, he says, is 1,000 members. One of the most effective methods of securing members, the Foundation has already learned, is through meetings of the Alumni in areas where there are larger numbers of them, or where there are many friends of Dana. The first of these meetings was held last December 17 when the Washington County Alumni Association held a dinner meeting at the college as guests of the Foundation. Sixty alumni joined at that time, pledging an annual contribution of $1,090.00. President Morton leaves February 19 for the West Coast where similar meetings of alumni groups are planned. The first of these meetings is scheduled for Feb. 23 in Olivet Lutheran Church, Los Angeles, for alumni and friends of Dana in the metropolitan Los Angeles area. On Feb. 27 he will attend a Foundation meeting in Fresno for alumni of the San Joaquin Valley area. Pres Morton is at Castro Valley on March 5 for the gathering of alumni and friends of Dana in the Oakland-San Francisco areas. On March 7 he is at Petaluma and then at Ferndale. He is at Eugene, Oregon, March 13, and then at Portland, March 15. Alumni groups in other parts of our country are making plans for Foundation rallies, among them the Chicago Dana Club which will meet March 26 at Golgotha Lutheran Church.

The real strength of the Foundation, President Morton states, is the fact that most members make annual contributions to the organization. It is not a plan for a single, isolated gift, but contemplates continued contributions year after year. Many colleges like Dana have similar organizations. Among mid-west Lutheran colleges that have Foundations are: St. Olaf, Carthage, Luther, Concordia, Gustavus Adolphus.

The Dana Foundation is an organization of alumni and friends of Dana who are personally interested in the program of higher education in the smaller liberal arts colleges of our country and particularly in Christian Higher Education. Membership in the Foundation is open to anyone who is in sympathy with the ideals of the college, and is not limited to alumni only. Fourteen states and Canada are already represented in the list of members. Foundation members can designate where their contributions shall be used. Some of these special projects are the library, new athletic field, endowment fund, classroom and laboratory equipment, new buildings, scholarships. Undesignated gifts are used wherever necessary, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

Did You Know That--

C. B. Larsen, now Professor of New Testament in Trinity Seminary, is the author of the book, "Religion and Relations."

The first Dana mail box, a wooden structure, lasted from November, 1895, to February, 1917. (Oh, if it could only have spoken.)

Dana College had a women's basketball team in 1921, which wore black suits with the letters D C in red and white on their blouses, and that it was composed of the following:

Margaret Hansen, Forward
Ruth Staugaard, Forward
Mary C. Hansen, Center and Captain
May Petersen, Guard
Hanna Bengaard, Guard
Miss Jacobsen, Coach

In 1921, the cost for room, tuition, and board, for 18 weeks was $125.50.

The Dana College and Trinity Seminary Alumni Association came into being in 1911. The first officers were: H. W. Bondo, President; N. H. Debel, Vice President; Atle J. Hansen, Secretary-Treasurer. The first membership roster contained fifty names.

Raymond Olsen, 35-37, holds the basketball individual scoring mark for one game on the Dana floor—30 points. This better the record set by Merten Jensen, D34, when he scored 29.

On January 28, of this year, a new record for most points scored by any Dana Basketball team was set against Nebraska Central, when the score read: Dana 85—Central 26. Dana has never lost to Nebraska Central in basketball.

The first issue of HERMES was published in February, 1918. Seven hundred fifty copies were printed, and the paper was edited and published by C. B. Larsen and Anders Jorgensen. This issue was a private undertaking. It was printed in the form of a booklet, approximately the size of the ALUMNI QUARTERLY, but with a cover. The design on the cover was by N. M. Hansen, and contributors to the publication were James N. Lund, Anders Steensen, P. S. Vig, Agnes Nielsen, Prof. L. A. Laurson, R. Hermansen, and V. R. Staby.

As far as is known, this was the first and last issue until March, 1920, when the resuscitation was accomplished with the following staff members:

John C. Romer—Editor in Chief
Einer Romer—Assistant Editor for English
Marie Brandt—Assistant Editor for Danish
Silpa Petersen—Alumni Editor
Elmer J. Bonnensen—Local Activities Editor
Harold C. Jensen—Art Editor
Elizabeth Jacobsen—Business Manager
Anders Jorgensen—Advertising Manager
Joseph Girtz—Circulation Manager

The subscription price was fifteen cents per copy, fifty cents per year, and the publication was a quarterly.

There are at least three Phi Beta Kappa members listed among Dana Alumni:

C. B. Larsen—1915
Herman Jensen—1916
Fred Lund—1918

Marius Hansen, D20, received a patent on a coat and hat hanger.

Chris Nelson, D13, invented the "Esquimo Pie."

1950 Concert Tour

The Dana College A Cappella Choir will leave on its twenty-sixth annual concert tour on March 2. Under the direction of Professor Paul Neve D41, it will give concerts in Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, and members are anticipating renewing friendships with alumni and former students in all places where concerts will be given. The tentative itinerary is as follows:

March 2— 8:00 P.M.	Our Saviour's Church	Callender, Ia.
March 3— 8:00 P.M.	Nazareth Lutheran Church	Cedar Falls, Ia.
March 5—11:00 A.M.	Trinity Lutheran Church	Albert Lea, Minn.
March 5— 8:00 P.M.	Community Lutheran Church	Geneva, Minn.
March 6— 8:00 P.M.	High School Auditorium	Farmington, Minn.
March 7— 8:00 P.M.	Main Street Lutheran Church	Hutchinson, Minn.
March 8— 8:00 P.M.	High School Auditorium	Luck, Wis.

March 12— 7:30 P.M.	High School Auditorium	Sleepy Eye, Minn.
March 13— 8:00 P.M.	Bethlehem Lutheran Church	Jacksonville, Ia.
March 19— 8:00 P.M.	Dana College Auditorium	Blair, Nebr.

Vikings Rolling to Second Conference Championship

The Viking Basketball team is undefeated. As yet it has not lost a game in conference play, and is well on its way to a second successive NIAA Conference Championship. When the members of the team want to really go all out in their playing, they are almost unbeatable, as Midland found in the second half of the game on the Dana court. Overcoming a 12 point margin at the start of the second half is no easy task, yet the Red and White did just that, and in less than five minutes playing time, and went ahead to stay.

The first game with Midland proved to be a different story, as did the two encounters with a tall, rangy Westmar five from LeMars, Ia. Those are the three games on the "lost" side of the ledger up to date, and there is a good possibility that it will not grow. With four conference games remaining, it may well be that the Dana club will sport a 12-0 conference record.

Second Semester Sees Largest Senior Class in Dana History

243 college students and sixteen seminarians opened the second semester on January 23. Approximately twenty more are special music or correspondence students. Last semester there were twenty-two enrolled in an evening course, and the possibilities of a like course for the second semester are good.

Nine second semester registrants are new students, and five have attended Dana previously—Amy Andersen, Brush, Colo., John Hansen, Blair; Herbert Hjortsvang, Chicago; Anton Kirkegaard, Siloam Springs, Ark.; and Alvin Svendsen, Superior, Nebr. In addition, three part-time students are registered.

The senior class gained ten new members during the change of semesters, and now, with a total of forty-four members, it is the largest fourth year class in Dana history.

Honor Roll Released—Three Students Show Perfect Record

Forty-seven students attained honor roll rating—2.25 grade point average or above—for the first semester. One of every 2.5 seniors was included, and three attained a 3.00 average, which is summa cum laude, and as close to perfect as possible. They were Peter Thorslev, senior from Kenard, Nebraska; Charles Doidge, junior from Redwood Falls, Minn.; and Jeanne Ardis Nielsen, sophomore from Harlan, Ia.

Kaldahl Heads Dana Chapter of L.S.A.A.

Silas Kaldahl and Jeanne Ardis Nielsen, both of Harlan, Ia., were elected president and secretary, respectively, of the Dana Chapter of the LSA at a recent business meeting.

Dean Rasmussen Appointed to Committee on Education

Elmer M. Rasmussen, D39, Dana College Dean, was recently appointed a member of an advisory committee in cooperation with the State Department of Education. Chosen because of his previous background in education at Dana College and at the University of Nebraska, Dean Rasmussen will serve on the Committee of Evaluation and Research.

Seminary Quartet Visits Parishes in Nebr., and Ia.

A Seminary Quartet, together with either a student or faculty speaker, are taking weekend trips to congregations in the vicinity to present programs. The quartet is composed of Art Sorensen, Norlan Hansen, Paul Johnsen, and Ried Neve.

Welcomed Additions Received for Library

Dr. J. M. T. Winther, T98, Pastor Emeritus, and our first missionary to Japan, donated six cartons of books to the Dana College and Trinity Seminary libraries prior to his departure for Japan.

Two albums of photographs taken of the resistance movement in Denmark during World War II have been received, together with several volumes, from Sister Bertha of Eben-Ezer Mercy Institute, Brush, Colorado.

A memorial edition of nine volumes, which includes all the most important works of Kaj Munk, Danish pastor and patriot, has been given to Dana College by Bishop and Mrs. Fuglsang-Damgaard.

To all these friends we express sincere appreciation for their kindness and thoughtfulness. The gifts will be duly marked and placed as welcome editions in our beautiful and fast-growing library.

Traffic Court in Operation On Dana Campus

As alumni and visitors know, the parking problem on the campus is becoming more and more acute. There are fire department regulations to which it is mandatory to adhere, and there is also the problem of protecting areas of the campus from the inevitable ruts and grass-killing qualities of automobile tires. Consequently, the student body took steps, recently, to solve this situation, by appointing a traffic committee, which will operate in cooperation with the administration.

Students and Faculty Meet for Sunday Afternoon Discussions

A committee of students and faculty members is conducting Sunday afternoon discussions, which are proving a very interesting and worth-while method of spending an hour or so. The purpose of these discussions is to stimulate student thinking on vital issues, such as Communism, Morals, etc. At one of these discussion periods, Sam Reynolds, member of the Citizen's Committee for the adoption of the Hoover Commission Report, spoke to the group and answered questions.

Gustavian Male Chorus Visits Dana Campus

Sunday evening, January 29, Dana College was host to the forty-voice Gustavian Male Chorus from Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minn. It was a very enjoyable evening both from the standpoint of fine music as well as the wonderful fellowship which was had in the reception room of the Ladies Dormitory after the concert.

Lounge for Visiting Artists, Furnished by Faculty Women

The Faculty Women's Club has been active in a project of redecoration of some of the less conspicuous rooms on the campus. The guest artists' lounge, off-stage in Alumni Memorial, was thoroughly cleaned and furnished with a table, a lamp, drapes, and a new couch cover. The couch in the Ladies Lounge in P.M. was also furnished with a new cover. The project committee is under the leadership of Mrs. J. P. Nielsen (Gertrude Jensen, 28-29, 33-34), Mrs. Paul Neve (Lela Nielsen, D42), and Mrs. T. I. Jensen (Edith Sorensen, 30-32).

Spiritual Emphasis Week Brings Guest Speakers to Dana

The Rev. A. R. Petersen, member of the Lutheran Bible Institute faculty, Minneapolis, was guest speaker during Spiritual Emphasis Week, Feb. 5-12.

The Rev. W. E. Wallner, Chicago, conducted services on Friday, Feb. 10, and on Sunday morning at First Lutheran Church. Rev. Wallner has lived behind the "Iron Curtain" in Europe, and gave first-hand accounts of life in that sector of our world.

Blair Freshman Wins Chemistry Award

John Greene, freshman of Blair, has been awarded the "Handbook of Physics and Chemistry" by achieving the highest numerical average in the first year chemistry group. The leather-bound book, awarded by the Chemistry Department on the basis of the first semester's work, was contributed by the Chemical Rubber Company, publishers.

Vikings in Review

As we are entering into the time of year when the Dana College Choir makes its annual concert tour, it is fitting to review the part which music has played on the campus during the past years.

The first vocal musical group representing the college was the Dana Male Choir, originated in 1913, and consisting of eight members.

tours were made among the congregations in territory adjacent to that of the college.

The first tour of the A Cappella Choir was made in the spring of 1925 through Iowa, southern Minnesota, and southeastern South Dakota. In 1929 the first Denmark tour was made. Leaving Blair on May 25, and giving concerts on the way to the east coast, the choir sailed on June

DANA MALE CHOIR—1913

Frank Nielsen, J. H. Vammen, J. P. M. Magnussen, K. M. Matthiesen
Theodore Lund, N. T. Lund, Franklin Rasmussen, N. P. Nielsen

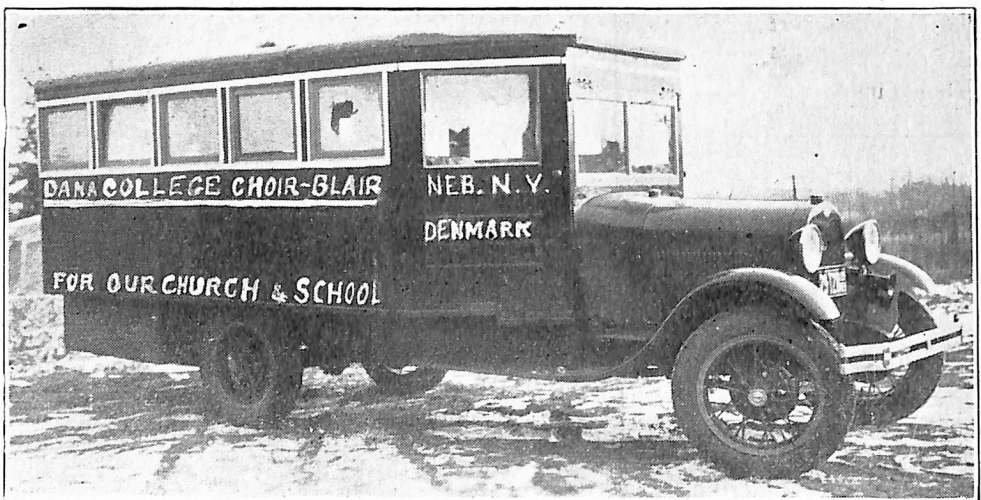

In 1914, Miss Agnes Nielsen (now Mrs. Silas Andersen) organized the Dana College Choral Union, which in later years became the Dana College A Cappella Choir. Under succeeding instructors, Miss Carrie Sinamark (now Mrs. Hans Jersild) and Miss Helen Andersen, the choral work was continued and short concert

13 from New York. On the fourth of July the choir sang at the great Danish-American celebration in Rebild Park, following which a very successful tour was made through Denmark until the return trip began on August 7.

In the summer of 1935 the second tour of Denmark was made. This, too, proved

An Early A Cappella Choir

Denmark Bound

to be an unqualified success from every viewpoint. The singers met large and appreciative audiences everywhere, and the Danish press was unstinting in its praise. A special feature of this second tour in Denmark was the reception given the choir in Copenhagen by Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, United States Minister to Denmark.

In 1919, the Choral Union consisted of twenty-seven members. One year later the Union had added nine members, making thirty-six, which was the largest group up to that time.

In 1922, a Male Chorus of twenty-six members was organized. The organizer and director was Elmer Christensen, now pastor in Green Bay, Wis.

The following is a list of instructors and professors in the music department since 1899:

Alice M. Foght	1899-1901
Emma C. Larsen	1900-1901
Anna Nielsen	1902-1903

As this issue goes to print, we learn that the Dana Viking Basketball squad has been chosen by a district committee to meet Peru State Teachers College in order to decide a representative for the national NAIB Tournament to be held in Kansas City. The game will be played on the Peru court March 7.

Dana has been chosen on the strength of its showing thus far during the season, as it is undefeated in conference play, and is picked to repeat as champions in the NIC Conference. Peru is likewise picked to repeat as champions in the NC Conference.

The squad is working hard and diligently under Coach Paul Petersen, and with the support of the student body and alumni, we know that they will do Dana College proud.

A Personal Letter to Dana Alumni

I am planning for the coming school year. I stand ready to excellently serve young men and women of your acquaintance who are interested in furthering their education. I can offer them courses leading to a Bachelor of Arts Degree, a Bachelor of Science Degree, a Bachelor of Science in Education, in Business Administration, and in Commercial Arts Degree, and two to four year pre-professional courses in medicine, dentistry, law, engineering, agriculture, social service, and nursing.

Three types of students make good in college and profit by a college program. First, the student of highest scholastic ability; second, the student endowed with certain high specialty abilities; third, the good average student.

I want these students to receive the full impact of a Christian liberal arts education. But I do not know who they are. If each one of you would send me the names of two or three promising freshmen, and would personally speak to them about me, we would have the prospect of enrolling the best and most talented freshman class we have ever had.

I must depend on you in helping me accomplish this goal. It is with a great amount of confidence that I ask your help in selecting future members of our family, and to act as my representatives in educational counselling in your community. Will you do it?

Yours now as in days gone by,

Alma Mater.
