ALUMNI-SENIORS HONORED AT RECOGNITION DINNER

Approximately four hundred persons attended the second annual Recognition Dinner held in the Campus Center on Saturday evening prior to Commencement.

Graduates of 1973 were guests of the Alumni Association at this annual event and Mrs. Karen Jensen Capel, Vice President of the Association, officially welcomed the graduates into the alumni ranks.

Awards and recognition were the main attractions of the evening and President Earl R. Mezoff began the proceedings by presenting Campus Service Awards to six outstanding 1973 graduates in recognition of their individual contributions to campus life.

Seniors receiving 1973 Campus Service Awards at the Recognition Dinner include Cheryl Harris, Onawa, Ia.; Gale Madsen, Luck, Wis.; Beth Nixon, Chevy Chase, Md.; John Nielsen, Blair, Neb.; Carin Christensen, Minden, Neb., and Bob Ehmen, Beatrice, Neb.

The 1973 Distinguished Alumnus Awards were presented to five deserving alums by five equally distinguished and deserving alums. Dr. C. C. Madsen, former President of Dana College, presented the first award to Miss Luella Nielsen, Associate Professor of English at Dana; Miss Florence Hansen, Director of the Social Services Department at the University of Nebraska Medical Center received her award from Mr. Paul Olson, a member of the Alumni Council; Mr. James Clemon, head editorial writer for the Omaha World-Herald, received his award, complete with song, from Mrs. Karen Jensen Capel; Dr. Stanley Bach, a member of the Alumni Council and a 1972 Distinguished Alumnus Award winner, presented a 1973 award to Dr. Merrill Reeh, noted ophthalmologist from Portland, Oregon, and Mr. Philip Kaldahl, chairman of the English Department at Bellevue High School, received his award from Dr. Raymond Weckmuller, a member of the Alumni Council.

At the conclusion of the evening, President Mezoff made a special presentation to Mrs. Ruth Carey. The Recognition Dinner marked Mrs. Carey's last major responsibility as Director of Food Service at Dana. She has now retired after fourteen years of service to the institution. Friends and associates of Mrs. Carey had gathered together a variety of gifts and expressions of good will and combined them into one large CARE package.

SPECIAL IN THIS ISSUE . . .

Dana's "Three Levels of Giving" program is now one year old and the list of 303 charter members is included in this issue of the REVIEW. We express thanks to all who responded to the original invitation to membership and remind those persons that membership renewals are now being accepted. Individuals who could not accept the first invitation to join are again urged to consider membership in the Century Club, the President's Society or the Tower Circle. It's been said before and it still holds true, "you'll be in good company."

Campus News Notes

Plans are now being completed for a variety of events in connection with Homecoming weekend, October 26-27-28. Alumni, parents and other friends of the College are urged to make plans now to be on campus for the weekend. Everyone is welcome, so let's get together in Blair on October 26th, 27th and 28th.

No definite theme has yet been decided for the weekend but it appears some emphasis will be given to the idea of a "Return to the River."

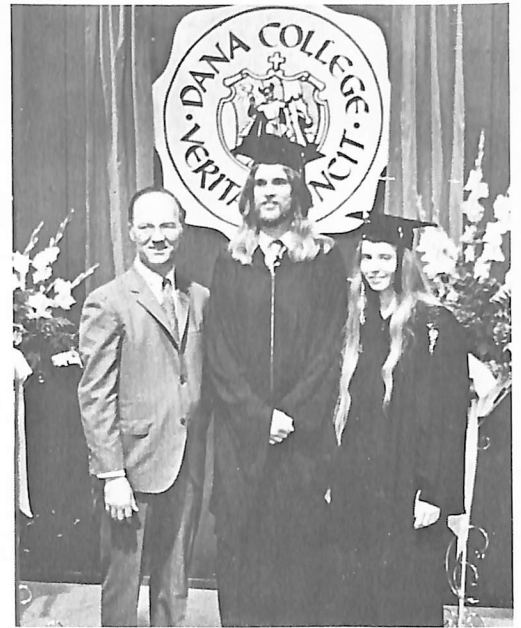

Mr. Dennis Henneman, Director of Theater, and members of the Dana Players are planning to present an old-fashioned "mellerdrama" as the featured entertainment of the weekend. Also included in the show, which will be presented on Friday and Saturday evenings, are brief burlesque-type appearances by faculty, alumni and students. Anyone wishing to participate as a performer is invited to contact the Public Relations Office at Dana.

Graduates and/or members of the classes of 1948, 1963 and 1968 will be observing 25, 10 and 5-year reunions during the weekend. Several new ideas are being considered giving more emphasis to the reunion classes. One which is expected to receive good response is a Saturday morning reception hosted by members of the College administration and faculty. This informal gathering will give alums and staff members an opportunity to "remember when" in a relaxed and informal atmosphere. Consideration is also being given to special class dinners at off-campus locations on Saturday evening as well as an All-Alumni Party during the late hours on Saturday night. Further details on these plans will be in the mail before the end of the summer.

Traditional events scheduled again this year include the coronation of the 1973 Queen, the Alumni Luncheon on Saturday noon, the football game (the Vikings will play Hastings College beginning at 2 p.m. on Saturday afternoon), a buffet dinner in the Campus Center, the Homecoming Dance on Saturday evening and a Festival Worship Service on Sunday morning.

The activities of Homecoming weekend normally end by noon on Sunday but this year events will continue through the day and evening as well. On Sunday afternoon, October 28, we will present the Copenhagen Boys' Choir in concert. This outstanding group visited the campus last year and performed for a capacity audience. By popular demand they're coming back again this fall. We were fortunate to schedule them for a single appearance at Dana on Sunday afternoon, October 28. On Sunday evening the Dana Players will present a final performance of the Homecoming "mellerdrama."

Top academic honors for the 1973 year went to students from Nebraska and Japan. Miss Jane Hendrick, right, of Omaha, was named Valedictorian of her class based on her cumulative grade point average of 8.81 out of a possible 9.00. Salutatorian honors went to Kaj Neve, center, of Tokyo. The two are pictured following Commencement with President Mezoff.

Two Dana students, Stuart Hansen of Marshfield, Wis. (right) and Jeff Hogden of Galesville, Wis. (left) recently completed a 500-mile bicycle trip which took them from the campus in Blair to their hometowns in Wisconsin. The Nebraska Arthritis Foundation stands to benefit from their trip as the two bikers solicited sponsors who agreed to pay them a pre-determined amount for each mile traveled. As final preparations were made for their departure on May 28, they reported having received pledges totaling approximately $1,000.
