

Interest Keen At Hesperian Society Meet

New Officers Elected As Literary Group Makes Fine Start.

The Hesperian Literary Society opened its 1933-'34 season in encouraging style on the evening of Friday, October 6.

The social spirit of the fairly large number present seemed to indicate that this year's student body favors the idea of an informal literary organization, and it is expected that the forthcoming meetings will be feaures by highly entertaining and worthwhile programs.

Vice-president Johannes Christensen presided in the absence of President Andrew Staby, who was unable to return to school this semester. Mr. Christensen sketched briefly the purpose and benefits of the organization.

The program opened with community singing led by Victor Magnussen. After the singing of "America, the Beautiful", "Old Folks at Home", and "Stars of the Summer Night", Mr. Magnussen stated that those songs were truly American literature. Continuing the program, Miss Shirley Larsen, accompanied by Miss Hazel Peterson, presented a vocal solo, "The Lost Chord". Jack Brody rendered a parody on the epic poem "Hiawatha", and Miss Vita Hansen concluded the program with a piano solo, "Berceuse".

A short business session was also held for the purpose of electing new officers. Miss Lily Jorgensen, last year's secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report. The officers elected for the first semester were Mr. Victor Magnussen, president; Mr. Milton Johnson, vice-president; and Miss Mary Jensen, secretary. Mr. Jack Brody and Mr. Waldon Halverson were appointed marshals. Mr. Stanley Larsen, elected treasurer, will serve for the entire year. The executive committee was vested with the authority to select the program committee.

In a statement following the elections, Mr. Magnussen assured the members that he would "do his best to help make the Hesperian Society a real factor in the advancement of the appreciation of literature at Dana." He further stated that that could only be accomplished through (Continued on Page 3)

Music Features First Broadcast

The first Dana broadcast of the year was presented over station WOW Tuesday evening, October 3, at 11 P. M. The program was musical in nature, and featured Mrs. G. J. Malmin in several piano numbers and Mr. George Robertson in a group of vocal solos.

The next program will be heard on October 17 at the same hour. President Nelson plans to present a broadcast concerning the founding of Dana.

On October 30, an athletic program will be broadcast under the direction of Dean Thomsen. It is planned to present the A Cappella Choir in the oratorio "The Holy City" on the November 14th broadcast.

Winter Semester To Begin Nov. 13

For young people who have been unable to enroll for the usual nine-month term at College, Dana will again offer a winter semester of eighteen weeks during which will be given fully accredited college and academic subjects. The winter semester opens November 13.

This plan, inaugurated by Dana College in 1929, opens the doors of educational opportunity for young people who for one reason or another have failed to secure a high school education, or who now wish to utilize the period of slack employment during the winter to take college work. It is planned especially to meet the needs of those who have not felt themselves able to spare the time or money to take college or high school work in the traditional manner.

With the low cost plan effective here too, as for the regular full-year students, the short term becomes especially attractive this year, and it is (Continued on Page 3)

Opening Services Of Seminary Held

Trinity Theological Seminary opened its forty-ninth year of activity with services and holy communion held in the First Lutheran Church on the evening of September 6.

Professor C. B. Larsen spoke briefly before the confessional service. Taking a text from the Book of Psalms he reminded his hearers of the need of seeking the strength of God. The spirit and tendencies of the times should serve as reminders to all, and especially to men preparing themselves for the Christian ministry, that we need as never before to realize that God is our strength; only by living in fellowship with Him is man able to serve the cause of His kingdom. Following the absolution Rev. James N. Lund officiated at the altar during the liturgy. Professors C. B. Larsen and J. P. Nielsen administered (Continued on Page 3)

Pep Band An Aid To Viking Spirit

This year it appears as though Dana will realize the fulfillment of a long-felt need—a well organized and efficient pep band.

Through the untiring efforts of a few who realized the importance of such an organization to the school, the band was organized early in the school year and is now rapidly rounding into form. The first appearance by the band was made at the Dana—Nebraska Central game, where the musicians were well received by the crowd.

The band is composed almost entirely of Dana students, which fact will aid the unity of the organization. A total of nearly twenty pieces are distributed into cornet, clarinet, saxophone, drum, trombone, and baritone sections. The clarinet section is the outstanding unit at present, but it is believed that enough new players will be acquired to round the other departments into balance.

Fine Progress Been Made By Massed Choir

Gaul's "Holy City" Is Oratorio Selected For Concert.

Gaul's "Holy City" is the oratorio which has been selected for presentation by the massed choir composed of the Dana A Cappella Choir, the choir of the First Lutheran Church of Blair, and the Blair High School Glee Club. The concert is planned for the latter part of November.

Nearly one hundred and fifty singers responded to the first rehearsal call, and new voices are being added to the chorus at nearly every practice. The rehearsals, which are being held in the Junior High School Auditorium, have been very successful, and encouraging progress has been made.

The Dana A Cappella Choir executive committee, composed of President Erland Nelson, Professor G. J. Malmin, and Choir President Alvin Carlsen, met on October 3, to discuss plans for the 1934 tour. According to tentative plans released, it is expected that this year's tour will be more extensive than that of last year, and will probably include points in Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. It is planned to utilize the choir bus and five private cars in making the trip.

The choir is rapidly rounding into shape as the new members are becoming familiar with the repertoire. Officers elected for the 1933-'34 season are: Alvin Carlsen, president; Mary Jensen, vice-president; Lilly Jorgensen, secretary; and Edward Andersen, treasurer. Viggo Carlsen has been appointed custodian of music.

Larsen Speaks At League Meeting

On the evening of September 20, the Luther League meeting opened with the singing of the hymn, "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone." Milton Johnson read scripture and led in prayer. A piano solo by Elsie Bondo was followed by a talk by William Larsen. Basing his message upon a text chosen from the 16th chapter of Matthew and the First Epistle of Peter, Mr. Larsen presented an enlightening discourse on the benefits of following in the footsteps of the true God.

Edith Pedersen, accompanied by Mary Jensen, rendered a violin solo, after which was sung the hymn, "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken." The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Total Enrollment At Dana Now 143

Dana College registration statistics published in the last issue of the Hermes were complete only to and including September 13. With the enrollment of many students since that time, the total now shows a considerable increase.

Film Of Passion Play Shown Here

The world-famous Oberammergau Passion Play was brought to Dana College students the evening of Friday, September 29, in motion pictures, by Mr. W. G. Olsen, of North Wood, Iowa.

The Bible story of the life of Christ was depicted on the screen, and included events familiar to Bible students, such as the Birth of Christ, Jesus in the Temple as a Boy of Twelve, the Baptism of Jesus, the Last Supper, the Crucifixion and the Ascension.

Characters of the story were portrayed by the original Oberammergau players, who many years have been studying the persons whom they represent.

A large audience attended the presentation of the film.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen are loyal supporters of Dana, and recently donated a large quantity of canned food to the school.

Annual Picnic Is Successful Event

In keeping with Dana tradition, the student body and faculty held their annual fall picnic at "Johns' Grove" on Saturday, September 30.

The afternoon was spent in playing pug ball, volley ball, and other games. In addition, a tug-of-war and a treasure hunt featured the program. Following the athletic activities, a short devotion was conducted. Rev. J. P. Nielsen led in prayer, following which, Professor Hartwig, in a brief talk, stated that our lives are not lived in earthly dwellings, but rather in our individual minds and souls. He stressed the value of cultural literature and art as aids to richer life.

As a fitting climax to the events of the day, a delicious supper was served by the committee and enthusiastically received by the students and teachers.

The committee, composed of Lily Andersen, Albert Olsen, Jack Sides, and Agatha Madsen, under the direction of Dean Wind, are to be commended for their efficient help in making the event a success.

The mission meetings at Dana this year were approached from a slightly different angle by Rev. L. Siersbeck. He dwelt extensively on biographical sketches of St. Paul, Luther, Vilhelm Beck, and Moody.

Rev. Siersbeck opened his series of talks on Sunday, October 1st. He spoke of the need of men and women to follow the Cross. Many are walking about as empty vessels, or "Haunted Houses" as Rev. Siersbeck termed them. They do not think for themselves and take all that men of the world present to them.

Paul was the first of the characters whom he discussed at length. Paul's early life was colored by his teachers who were anxious to see him become a scholar. Paul persecuted the Christians and did not see the Light of Life until he was on his way to Damascus when a voice out of heaven cried, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" It was with difficulty that this gifted man realized that God had called him to become a bearer of the Word unto all parts of the world.

Paul made several missionary journeys, and Rev. Siersbeck added several personal remarks which made the study of this man's life very interesting. Paul's influence on Christianity has added much to the revelation of God to man.

Luther was born of humble parents who taught him to obey the laws of the home and school. He received his A. B. degree and intended to study law, but he did not care for the law school and decided to enter a monastery. He saw the fraud in the selling of indulgences, which later brought about his act in the reformation. Luther was a learned man and taught theology at Wittenberg. He emphasized "justification by faith." It was not his intention to separate from the Catholic Church, but merely to bring the church to see its fallacies. Luther's home was an example to man. He loved his children and often sang for them in the quiet hours. His chief aim was to make man live the Life. Too many of the so-called Christians were living according to formulated rules of the church.

Reading Circle Sends Out Call

The Nordic Reading Circle which was organized at Dana ten years ago will hold its first meeting of the year on November 3 at Prof. Swanson's home. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to the student body and faculty.

The circle meets once a month to discuss selected Scandinavian literature which is read by the members between meetings. The purpose of the circle is to promote a higher appreciation of Scandinavian literature and culture. Although the discussions are held in Danish, deviations are made to accommodate those members who are not familiar with the language.

ALUMNI

They Both Went to Dana

Following are some of the 100% Dana homes that have recently been established.

On Washington Island, a rugged little bit of land in Lake Michigan, Dana is represented 100% in the home of Rev. Leo Andersen and his wife, whom we formerly knew as Esther Nelson.

Rev. Theodore Jensen and his Dana-found helper have gone to Farmington in the land of ten thousand lakes. Mrs. Jensen was well known on the campus and in the community, but she was Edith Sorensen then.

In the capital city of Nebraska you will find Skriver S. Nielsen and Mrs. Nielsen, nee Eleanor Sorensen. They are serving our Lutheran church in that city. Let's look them up when we are in Lincoln.

Who doesn't know Immanuel and Elna? Rev. and Mrs. Petersen live at Herman, Nebr., now and are seen occasionally on or about the Dana campus. You will find the Dana spirit prevalent in their home.

Last, but not least, there is the newly established home of Mr. and Mrs. Ingvard Olsen. They live in a place which holds fond memories for many Dana students, namely, the home of Mrs. Rosenbeck.

Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to all those who thus have set out on life together. "And when we launch our little barks On destiny's deep sea, As ivies to thy walls do cling, Our hearts will cling to thee."

SIERSBECK IS SPEAKER AT MISSION MEETINGS

(Continued from Page 1) the life of Vilhelm Beck and the Inner Mission Movement in Denmark. Beck had not intended to become a minister of the Gospel, but was finally drawn to the work. He preached Christ to all who wanted to listen and even to those who were not anxious to hear of the saving power lodged in the Word of God. It was hard for Beck to see that the grace of God was necessary for salvation but when he grasped that power, he was capable of passing it on to others.

The last sketch which was presented by Rev. Siersbeck was concentrated on one of our American evangelists, D. L. Moody. This man, who was not an ordained pastor, was so filled with that power of Jesus Christ that he gathered thousands and spoke to them of the saving power in the Word. Moody went to England and converted many who had not thought of becoming followers of Christ. Even men and women who had scorned Christian work came to hear him and went to their homes moved by that man's personal help and power.

The student body also heard the speaker every evening of the week in short devotional messages. He spoke of the need of men and women in the vineyard who were not afraid to stand up for Jesus Christ under all conditions and circumstances. It was Rev. Siersbeck's belief that there has been a falling away from the church and that we need new leaders and especially men who will "deny themselves and take up the cross." He said, "the world is so busy devising new inventions of warfare and still is speaking about peace." We need God in our lives.

OPENING SERVICES OF SEMINARY HELD

(Continued from Page 1) the Lord's Supper. The sermon of the evening was delivered by Professor Jersild. Using as his text the parable of the laborers in the vineyard (Matt. 20: 1-16), he spoke of the Christian ministry as labor in the vineyard of the Lord. They who labor in the service of God need always to bear in mind that the Master does not look on the merits of man: what we are permitted to do we do by the grace of God, and God rewards us not according to our merits but according to His mercy and love. Without the grace and blessing of God all our labors are in vain. Professor J. P. Nielsen, president of the Seminary read the closing prayer and closed the service with a word of welcome and exhortation to the students. Class work began the following morning, Wednesday, with September 27.

WINTER SEMESTER TO BEGIN NOV. 13 (Continued from Page 1) hoped the 1933 enrollment of winter students will show at least as large a proportionate increase over that of last year as has the enrollment of full-year students.

Under the low-cost plan tuition, board, room and fees will cost the typical student taking college subjects, approximately $122.00 for the entire eighteen weeks. The cost for those enrolling for academic subjects will be about $92.00.

During past years, a number of students who enrolled for the winter semester later became so interested in their work that they remained until the end of the regular school year. Other such students found it possible to continue their college work in the regular way, during succeeding years.

Calling attention to the ever-increasing need for college training in order to cope with every-day problems of the present time, President Erland Nelson declares that every young man or woman, who can possibly do so, should take advantage of the opportunity offered in Dana's winter semester.

Vikings Conquer Central College By 21-to-0 Score

Dana Launches Spirited Last Half Attack To Smother Quakers.

After a rather mediocre first half showing, Coach Olson's Vikings regained some of their 1932 form and scored three well-earned touchdowns to gain a decisive victory over Nebraska Central College on the home field last Saturday night by a score of 21 to 0.

With the exception of one scoring drive by Dana, the play was fairly even during the first half. The Vikings chalked up six first downs to Central's two, and lost their one big scoring chance through a fumble which Central recovered on their own 12-yard line.

A spirited Dana team took the field for the second half, and had little difficulty in handling the situation from then on. The action began with Dana gaining possession of the ball on Central's 43-yard line and from there, by a series of deceptive plays, advancing it to the 3-yard line. From that point Mert Jensen crashed the line for the first score.

The second touchdown came as a result of a sparkling 21-yard advance on a triple pass play ending with Jeff Hancock carrying the ball.

The third and final tally came in the closing minutes of play when Jensen stepped back and tossed a long pass over the goal line into the waiting arms of Hurd. The Vikings succeeded in making all three of the extra points by carrying the ball over the goal line.

Central failed to register a single first down during the second half. This was largely due to Jensen's well-directed punting. No less than six times did he kick the ball out of bounds within 10 yards of Central's goal. Dana, threatening the Central goal almost continually during the second half, completed eleven first downs in that period.

The passing combination, Jensen to Hurd, was clicking in fine style, seven out of fourteen passes being completed for a total of 94 yards.

The team appeared considerably improved over the last game, amassing a total of 189 yards to Central's 37. Thogersen, Bliss, S. Larsen, and Breitbarth looked good in the line, along with ends E. Andersen and Christensen who showed a marked improvement in their department.

Girls' Athletic Program Begins With 5-Mi. Hike

"D" Awards To Be Made On Point System Used in 1932-1933.

Activities of the Women's Athletic Association were resumed Saturday, Oct. 14, in the form of a five mile hike. Girls who took part in the trek were awarded athletic points for their efforts.

The point system which applied last year will again be in effect. Under the plan, points toward a "D" may be earned through participation in basketball, soccer, tennis, pugball, volley ball, hikes, and other games and stunts.

The W. A. A. is one of the youngest of Dana's organizations, it having been formed by Coach Olson during the 1932-33 school year. The association made good progress during last year and it is expected that women's athletics will enjoy a spot in the limelight at Dana during the '33-'34 season.

Vikings Use Shift Devised By Olson

The new shift employed by Dana for the first time against Nebraska Central is an innovation devised by Coach Olson.

Designed primarily for "effect", it has a tendency to "cross up" the opposing defense and thereby create a decided advantage for the ball carrier. In making the shift, the line and backfield move into position after the center has taken his position with the ball down.

Rumor—Coach Olson is collecting street car tokens for the next game. Why not give some of the boys roller skates so they won't have to walk back? Get it?

Midland Defeats Dana In Opener

Displaying a superior running and passing attack, the Midland Warriors were victorious over the Dana Vikings in the season grid opener played at Fremont, September 29th.

A crowd of twelve hundred fans saw the Midland squad roll up three touch-downs as Dana, outclassed in all departments of the game, except in punting, went down to her first football defeat since coming under the charge of Coach Rufus Olson at the beginning of the 1932 season.

While Midland did not stage a really concentrated drive throughout the entire game, her passing attack completely baffled the Vikings and incidentally, accounted for all three scores. The Warriors' offense was featured by unusually speedy back-field play and smooth-working interference. Engle and Wilson contributed capable assistance in the Midland line. Seven major penalties held the Midland attack in check at some crucial moments.

Dana won the toss at the start of the game and chose to receive. Being unable to gain, they punted to Midland. From then on until late in the second quarter, neither team made a dangerous advance. Near half time, a surprise pass, Koudele to Roether, produced Midland's first counter. Ellison's try for point kick was wide and the half ended, Midland 6, Dana 0.

The second half saw a more spirited Viking squad return to the field and carry the ball far into Midland territory. However, a fumble halted their advance, and Midland resumed their passing attack to successfully complete another score when Gardner raced over the goal line from the 4-yard line. Ellison's extra point kick was good and the third quarter ended with Midland in front, 13 to 0.

During the closing minutes of the last quarter, Rick Wilson shot a perfect 40-yard pass into the hands of Lloyd Jones who stepped across the line to register Midland's final score. The try for extra point failed.

The Viking line displayed poor blocking, and Midland was continually outcharging them. Dana's secondary defense was woefully weak in covering opponents' passes which was probably due, to a large extent, to the fact that Midland's backs were faster.

Captain Jensen played a fine defensive game and backed up the line to perfection. He was, by far, the outstanding performer on the Viking squad. Hurd turned in a good game at the safety position, executing several spectacular returns of Midland quick kicks. The work of Stanley Larsen was outstanding in the line, while Thogersen, Vig, Nommesen, Bliss, and Christensen played brilliantly at times.
