Dana Host to Regional L.S.A.A. Conference

Lutheran Students of Nebraska and Kansas to Confer Here
November 3, 4, and 5

The Dana College Lutheran League will be host to the Lutheran Students' Association of the Mid-west region on Nov. 3, 4, and 5. This is the first time that Dana has had the privilege of being the meeting place of the L.S.A.A. Conference. The occasion will bring several fine speakers of wide renown to our campus. It will also be an opportunity for Dana students to become acquainted with Lutheran students representing several other schools. Invitations have been extended to six Nebraska educational institutions: University of Nebraska, Luther College, Hebron College, Midland College, Wayne State Teachers' College and Peru State Teachers' College. There are also four Kansas institutions which are expected to be represented: Kansas State Teachers' College, Bethany College, Kansas University, and Kansas State College.

The conference committee, meeting in conjunction with L.S.A.A. officers and advisors, decided to use the 1939 Ashram topic, "The Faith of Our Day," as the theme of this conference. The program features Dr. C. P. Harry, National life-time advisor of the L.S.A.A., as the main speaker. A Fellowship Supper on Friday evening will mark the opening event of the gathering. Saturday's schedule includes a Bible study to be conducted by Rev. Philemon Smith of Wausa, Nebraska, and various discussions on choice and timely topics. The conference will close with communion and Sunday morning worship in the local church.

Persons in charge of various committees are: Luella Nielsen and Kenneth Peterson, registration; Helen Rebecca Anderson, meals; Paul Neve, lodging; Leonard Andersen and Iver Iversen, social program; and Edward Hansen, music.

Registration will begin at 4:00 P.M. on Friday. There will be several interesting exhibits displayed by the various L.S.A.A. groups. Social periods will be sponsored on both Friday and Saturday evenings to which all L.S.A.A. organizations represented will contribute talent and suggestions to increase the sociability among the conference groups.

"Dana Promoters" to Meet in Omaha "Dana Boosters" and "Thousand Men Club" to Be Organized into "Dana Promoters"

Activity among the Dana alumni is becoming a reality instead of an occasionally-talked-of issue. On November 1st, a committee of five members is meeting in Omaha to more definitely organize the Dana alumni into an organization called the Dana Promoters. This organization has borne the title of "Thousand Men Club" as well as "Dana Boosters." The confusion that arises from the attachment of so many names to this organization is to be settled by permanently adopting the name of "Dana Promoters."

At this meeting the constitution will also be revised. The committee in charge is composed of Rev. M. L. Kirkegaard of Omaha, Nebraska; Rev. Clifford Madsen of Kansas City, Kansas; and President L. Siersbeck, as well as two laymen to be appointed later.

For many years pastors as well as laymen have voiced their desire to have a definite organization of alumni to promote improvements in our college. Enterprising graduates see and realize the need of growth in the number of students, improvement of the library, and of establishment of an accredited standing among other colleges. Renewed effort along these lines is much needed.

It is of special interest to the present students of Dana that when they join the ranks of the alumni, they may have an outlet or means by which they can continue to have the welfare of Dana as one of their goals. To have a living organization of educated people who have like interests and desires is something that is definitely needed.

Dana Male Quartet Sings at Beresford

The Dana Male Quartet began a series of fall appearances by singing for the mission meetings held at Beresford, S. Dak., on Sunday, October 22. President Siersbeck was the guest speaker for the occasion.

The group drove up on Saturday afternoon with President Siersbeck and returned to Dana Sunday evening. A very warm reception was accorded the speaker and singers by the pastor, Rev. A. V. Neve, and a large and appreciative audience attended both the meetings in which the Dana representatives took part.

On Sunday, November 5, the quartet is scheduled to present a morning concert in Rev. F. G. Rasmussen's church near Fremont.

Banquet Saturday Evening Is Climax of Homecoming

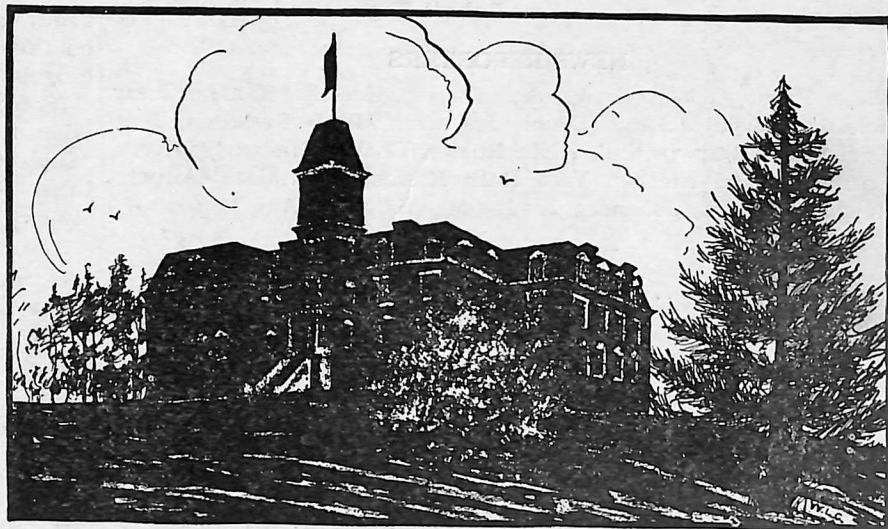

P. V. Hansen of Blair to be Toastmaster
Rev. Chr. Justesen, Chicago, Main Speaker

The 1939 Dana Homecoming banquet begins Saturday evening, October 28, at 6:00 o'clock p.m., in the college dining hall. As evidenced in former years this is one of the most celebrated activities of the school year, giving special attention to former students and what has gone before.

The subject for this year's banquet is "The Bridge," and the main speech, to be given by the Rev. Chr. Justesen of Golgotha Lutheran Church in Chicago, is on the topic, "Spanning Yesterday and Today." Mr. Paul V. Hansen, our school secretary, will act as toastmaster.

If we think of a modern bridge, we naturally give a little thought to the builders of that structure. These men, "The Builders," will provide Mr. Arthur Tingley, the first speaker, with his subject. Dr. J. P. Nielsen, the second speaker, has been thinking about the "Natural Resources," which are so necessary to its construction. George Pallesen will have as his subject, "Iron," the main natural resource. "Daring," which will be President Siersbeck's subject, will bridge for us the gap in the building process. In our age the "Golden Gate Bridge" in California symbolizes the very peak of attainment in the world of bridges. This magnificent structure will furnish Bob O'Hanlon of Blair his subject. Then Miss Bernadine Otto will speak upon that one quality which all good bridges must have, "Endurance." Rev. Chr. Justesen will sum it all up in his address, "Spanning Yesterday and Today." Interspersed among these talks will be a vocal solo by Mr. Robert Hogzett, piano solos by Professor Elwood Kraft, and two numbers by the Dana Male Chorus.

In order to make this year's Homecoming celebration a success, the following have assisted the general chairman, Mr. Anker Jensen, on committees: program, Edward Hansen; publicity, Harold Sorensen; food, Helen Rebecca Andersen; decorations, Paul Neve, and entertainment, Carl Wildrich and Arthur Tingley.

Officers Chosen for History Club

Subject to the approval of the History Club the following have been recommended to serve as officers this school year: Paul Neve, president; Marie Mikkelsen, vice-president; Alvin Reuter, treasurer; Ione Christensen, secretary; and Luella Nielsen, librarian.

Tentative plans have been made to have Rev. Chr. Ludvigsen of Moorhead, Iowa, speak to the club on his recent trip to Denmark. This first meeting will be held in the girls' reception room on November 10. All those interested are invited to attend.

Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" will be presented by the club this year for the third time. The play will be given in connection with a musical program on December 20.

Nyholm Adopts Danish Custom

Dana has become bicycle conscious. Students consider bicycling good exercise and a speedy mode of transportation, but they aren't alone in this. Rev. Nyholm seems to think so too, because he has become one of the fad's leading exponents—maybe it's because bicycling is quite a Danish custom. He pedals as far as Dan Greeno's house every morning, but isn't quite up to making the hill yet.

Two students, Ramelia Hallock and Reuben Iversen, have their own bicycles at school. Others have to rent them in Blair. "Bicycles built for two" are popular Sunday afternoon entertainment.

Sunday Afternoon Hour to be Held

On Sunday afternoon, November 5, the first Sunday afternoon Hour will be held in the Dana College Chapel at 2:30 P.M. A special program is being planned. Prof. Kraft has promised some piano solos as a part of this program. Members of the local congregation are invited, as well as any friends of the students. If this Sunday Afternoon Hour proves to be successful, others will be planned throughout the winter.

Luther League Hears Dr. B. M. Christensen

President of Augsburg College
Addresses Pastors' Conference,
October 17, 18, 19

Dr. B. M. Christensen, president of Augsburg College and Seminary, addressed the Pastors' Conference, Wednesday evening, October 18th, at the First Lutheran Church.

Luther League scheduled for that evening was cancelled in order that the students would have the opportunity to hear this challenging and inspiring message. Dr. Christensen began by pointing out that life is characterized by a quest for fellowship. He reached the climax when he showed us that fellowship based on God is the highest form of which man is capable. This fellowship has two forms, namely; Monastic and Congregational, the former being isolated from the world, the latter "In the world but not of the world." He pointed out to us that the congregation is a school of fellowship where we should learn to share our material possessions, our spiritual talents and, not least, our guilt and merit.

Pres. Siersbeck at Sioux City

President Siersbeck spoke at a Lutheran Reformation Rally in the Augustana Lutheran Church in Sioux City on Sunday evening, October the 29th. Needless to say, such a rally would be inspiring and beneficial to any Lutheran Church member.

BRING IT TO THE FORE

Hermes comes to you today, while the spirit of Homecoming is still in the air, bearing a hearty greeting and best wishes to all the sons and daughters of Dana and to her friends. Hermes would say more. Your presence on this occasion shows a desirable spirit of devotion and interest, but a greater diffusion of this attitude is urgent.

You of the alumni received and many of us are at present receiving the moulding influences and abiding values that Dana college confers. We are fortunate. Furthermore, it is our firm conviction that Dana offers much that it is difficult to acquire elsewhere intellectually, spiritually, and socially, but more especially in the healthy combination of these three. But the enrollment should be increased and her influence advanced.

Many of the young people of our church are in ignorance of or are misinformed concerning our school. You will not have to inquire far to learn the truth of this statement. The virtues of a small college (especially the first two years), the advantages of a college over a business school, the significance of a Christian college, the excellence of our faculty, the quality of our students, and so many other attributes are regrettably unknown.

You can do something about this situation. You know and have experienced the benefits. Share them with others. Expand and enlarge upon that veneration which drew you back to your alma mater. These thoughts are but seeds; your testimony will be the fruit. Your testimony will be seeds; their gratitude will be the fruit. H.L.A.

WELCOME HOME!

Alumni and friends of Dana College, we bid you welcome to our 1939 Homecoming celebration! We sincerely hope it will be a real homecoming for you—one which will be a happy memory long after it has ceased being a reality.

You know, home can be defined as the social unit or center formed by a family living together. We often speak of the big Dana family, but we hope we are more than a social unit. We should be a Christian household—held together by spiritual bonds as well as social ties.

We realize that our family here is bound together by a mutual loyalty to the school, by a common desire to see her successful in all she attempts. We become excited over a football victory, we enjoy a Lutheran Student Conference together, and interest ourselves in a peace contest. When one of us is successful, we all rejoice.

Are you interested in our welfare too? Are you happy over our victories and sorrowful over our mistakes? You know that you are still part of our family although you are no longer at home. We like to think of you as older brothers and sisters who have gone out into the world to make places for themselves. We like to hear of your successes. We enjoy your visits. That's why we have a Homecoming each year. That's why we're glad to see everyone of you now. Even though some of your faces are unfamiliar to us, we know you are part of the family—that's all that's necessary. L.N.

Chapel Gleanings

"That's no fun. Let's do something new." Or, "Where can we go tonight?" Typical; often heard from the young people of today. The automobile, radio, theater, and roadhouse have trained youth to require something novel, different all the time; and unless this objective entertainment is furnished, this amusement which must arise from an outside source, which must be manufactured and put up in a nice package—unless this can be had, youth is bored.

Youth is becoming regimented into a mob; it is losing itself in objective pleasures. There needs to be an awakening in each individual—an inward movement which will inspire a sparkling zest for life, an interest in things about him, so that his life will be life—his life—and not just a languid, indolent part of a mass. (Some thoughts resulting and taken from the Chapel address on "Subjectivity," given by the Rev. Ethan Mengers on October 17, 1939.)

Our advocate before God has never lost a case.

Make the most of your time. "I ain't got long to stay here." (Negro spiritual.)

Why do we always try to plan our affairs without reckoning with God? All things are exposed to Him.

We should not suppress the small voice within us but pray to Christ that He will increase its importance in our daily lives.

Candid Campus Chatter

by
By Becky Anderson

WALKS OF LIFE: Ethan Svendsen as if he's going around a corner....Johnny Wallace as if he just got off a horse....Paul Neve as if he would rather sit down....Frank Hengeveld as if he works with strings....Anker Jensen as if his feet are in a bigger hurry than his head....

"Does this college boast of a choir?" inquired Maynard Hansen.

"Well," said P.V., "I can't say we boast of it. We just suffer in silence."

THIS 'N THAT: The "Swill Department" in the kitchen, under the direction of "Swosh" Petersen and "Swish" Wallace, has recently been organized....Elaine Petersen dropped a cup on Friday the 13th, and—it bounced!...Norman Bansen can't wait until it snows. He wonders if classes will be dismissed so he can watch it...."Nellie" Boe says he can crawl out his "transhant" (he really means transom). And this time it isn't his Eastern accent that's at fault....Why was Ione Christensen's face red when Patty Ann came into the library saying, "Where's Ione?"

"In what order do the Gospels come?" inquired Prof. Nyholm. "One after the other," replied Milton Petersen.

Miss Wind: "Is it true that it is bad luck to have a black cat follow you?"

Harold S.: "Depends whether you're man or mouse!"

RELIGION

"And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee Lord: this shall never be unto thee." Matt. 16:22.

If you will turn to the 16th chapter in Matthew you will find that the best of men are frail,—yea helpless. Even Peter, the rock upon which the church is built, falls into sin by speaking these words to the extent that Jesus rebukes him saying, "Get thee behind me, Satan." This is the more striking in the light of the fact that only shortly before Peter had confessed to the Lord that He was "the Christ, the Son of the living God," it having been revealed to him not by flesh and blood, but by the Father who is in heaven.

So swiftly in the life of a Christian do inspirations of God and the temptations of the devil succeed each other that we must be on guard constantly. Like Peter we fall into sin so fast at times that we are not aware of it.

We would all do well to remember that though we are children of God, yet we await adoption: though we are redeemed, yet redemption is a reality only to be realized in the future; though we are saved, yet we are commanded to work out our own salvation. It is not a matter of "once always." A.K.

SO YOU THINK YOU KNOW WORDS

Secretive is accented on the second syllable even when it means "disposed to keep secrets." The second "e" in centipede is long.

The "g" in plagiarism is soft, not hard.

Illustrate is accented on its first syllable; illustrative is accented on its second syllable; illustration is accented on its third syllable.

Although harder to pronounce than the usual way, interesting has four distinct syllables.

The "e" in en route is pronounced with a vowel sound as in arm.

Stenographer is accented on its second syllable, but stenographic is accented on the third syllable.

Comparative should be accented on its first syllable.

Protest as a noun and perfect as an adjective are both accented on the first syllable, but as verbs, they are accented on the last syllable.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MISS JOHNSON

Miss Caroline Johnson, language teacher, was pleasantly surprised at her home Friday evening, October 13, when the faculty called to help her celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent in visiting and playing games after which lunch was served by the faculty ladies.

As a remembrance of the occasion, Miss Johnson was presented with "The Autobiography of Edna Ferber."

NO HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The student body will not sponsor a Halloween party because of its proximity to Homecoming. An all-school party will perhaps be held later.

The "Grand Rapids Herald" carried a cartoon of Rev. Dolliver Thogerson atop the 80 ft. steeple of his church in Edmore. The article went ahead to explain that Rev. Thogerson with the aid of members of the congregation painted and redecorated the entire church building this fall, even to the extent of the steeple.

HIGHLIGHTS OF FORMER HOMECOMINGS

During an afternoon of browsing through old files of the HERMES some information concerning former homecomings was brought to light. In 1931, for instance, red and white were adopted as the official Dana colors. Previous to this there had been much doubt among the students and alumni.

"The Spirit of Dana" was the theme of this homecoming at which Rev. Carl A. Nelson was the principal speaker. Airplanes and beacons were used as decorative motifs. The 1931 homecoming drew the largest crowd in homecoming history up to that date. More than 300 guests were present. Paul Rasmussen officiated as toastmaster and Rev. L. Siersbeck delivered the alumni speech. Members of the committee in charge of the celebration were Esther Fogdahl, Ruth Johnson, Esther Nelson, Severin Sorensen, and Robert Larson. This homecoming was held in the spring—on February 15.

Attorney Niels Debel of St. Paul, Minnesota (living in Albert Lea at that time), was the main speaker at the 1927 banquet.

Rev. Christian Justesen, our banquet speaker this year, also delivered the 1930 address. The committee in charge of this homecoming was headed by Cornelius Hansen. Other members were Elsie Jensen, Aliene Miller, Dorothy Jensen and Millard Petersen.

HEARD IN THE CLASSROOM

Dr. C. B. Larsen says the Hebrew scribes of ancient times were so conscientious they even copied the fly specks into their manuscripts.

Honors for this week's prize "classroom boner" go to Dr. Swansen. "Chaucer got his ideas from French models"—then while he gulped and blushed a bit—"I mean literary models, of course."

When Professor Kraft asked his public school music class whether they'd rather have a big or a little test, they naturally chorused, "A little one!" "O.K." he fired back, "but they say no matter how thin you slice it, it's still baloney."

Before Greek class Monday, Thorvald Hansen was reviewing the vocabulary with "Mickey" when they chanced upon the word "pous" which means foot. Thereupon Thorvald interjected, "Mickey, do you have sour-pous?"

A Christian radio station has been established in Shanghai. Since 80% of the Chinese people cannot read this station provides the only means whereby millions of them may hear about the Saviour.

Older Brothers and Sisters

Agnes Nielsen and John Gebuhr were married October 14. Edward Larsen and Lela Sondergaard are married and living in Kimballton, Iowa. Mr. Larsen is teaching in Audubon. Ruth Madsen is now married to Thomas Mason and living in Denver, Colorado. Amy Petersen is also in Denver. She is in nurses' training there.

Edith Carlsen is teaching at Boelus, Nebraska, and Lillian Larsen at Shelby, Iowa. Clara Jo Sorensen is taking nurses' training at the Clarkson Hospital in Omaha.

Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Petersen are the parents of a baby daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Olsen (Ruth Vig) have a new son.

Editor of Hermes
Dana College
Blair, Nebraska.
Dear Sir:

I am sincerely thankful to you for the little breath as it were from Dana which I received recently in the form of your nicely edited little paper, Hermes.

I was a student at Dana myself at one time. That was before it attained its rank of college. I was registered as a student of the academic course. Beginning there in the fall of 1905, I attended Dana for nearly three and one half years. I completed the stenographic course during the winter of 1909, graduating in the spring of 1910.

Again let me thank you and your staff for your kind consideration of me to send me the sample copy of Hermes. You may look for my subscription very soon.

Very friendly and respectfully yours,

Walter B. Hansen.

Dr. H. F. Swansen Continues Research

Dr. Swansen, in his research work on an article to be published soon in the coming issue of Studies and Records, a Norwegian publication, spent Saturday, November 21, in the library of Luther College, Decorah, Iowa. Luther College, which is Dr. Swansen's alma mater, was celebrating Homecoming, thereby giving him the opportunity to attend the banquet which was held that evening. He was also able to celebrate the 25th anniversary of his graduation along with four other members of his class who were there.

While there he and Mrs. Swansen were guests of Dr. and Mrs. K. T. Jacobsen. Dr. Jacobsen is the librarian at Luther College.

Peace Oratorical Contestants Named

Harold Andersen, Bjorn Berg, Kenneth Peterson, and Alvin Reuter are the contestants in the Peace Oratorical Contest. As yet no subjects have been chosen. The local contest will be held soon after the Christmas holidays. Prizes will be given, and the winner of this contest will represent Dana in the state contest.

STUDENTS FEAST ON ROAST CHICKEN

"Mmmmmmm—Roast Chicken! Stuffed!" These were the comments made by the students Sunday, October 22. It came about this way. "Pop" and Bill Merrill went out to the Dana farm Saturday morning and killed chickens. Twenty-three of them! When it came to cleaning them, Lydia and Leonard Nielsen offered their services.

Sunday morning "Pop" and "Mom" were up bright and early, ready to put the stuffing in. Then these chickens were laid out in pans and put in the ovens. They came out done to a turn, ready for the hungry horde to eat. They were good, weren't they?

KITCHEN MISSES BOB AND CHARLIE

"Where's Charlie?" "Where's Bob?" Friday the 13th took its toll of the kitchen staff. Bob Hogzett had the misfortune to lose part of his thumb in the meat slicer, and Charlie Morehouse was down with an attack of appendicitis. Leonard Nielsen substituted for these boys during their absence.

CHEMISTRY NOTES

The general chemistry students are coming out of their daze of the first realization of how complicated the study of the elements is, and are settling down to hard work. Most of them are trying for the first time to actually put their "book knowledge" into practice.

The national cooperative test taken by the general chemistry students at the end of last year indicated a percentile rating of 80 for the class; the national average was 50.

New light shades have given the laboratory a more business-like appearance.

FACULTY MEMBER ILL

Among those sick from colds last week were Miss Wind, biological science teacher, and Mr. Hartwig of the English department. Both were unable to meet their classes for several days.

NURSE TAKES EXAMINATIONS

Miss Maralee Miller, the school nurse, went to Omaha October 17-19 to take her state board examinations.

WHAT IS CULTURE?

Culture is a development wrought by contacts with that which is superior. This superiority or eminence effects a challenge to our mode of living, urges us on to greater heights, to refinement, and to appreciation of the superb. The process is evolutionary. The sense of values expands and rises in direct proportion to the extent of our associations with these elevated entities. Said progression will then become apparent in our demeanor, our interests, our pleasures, and our social contacts.

"Who's Who" finding that it required 50,000 unskilled laborers to produce one son distinguished enough for inclusion in that volume, as against 1,600 skilled laborers, 700 farmers, 100 professional men, 20 clergymen, and 5 missionaries.

SEMINARY NEWS

Students of the seminary and their professors joined the pastors of the Nebraska and Iowa districts in conference at the First Lutheran Church in Blair, Oct. 17, 18, and 19.

Pulpit supply and Sunday school work have kept several of the seminary students busy so far this year. Anker Jensen has been supplying in Underwood, Ia., Edward Hansen in Harlan, Ia., Leo Andersen in Audubon and Council Bluffs, Ia., Eric Christensen in Hill Creek, Nebr., and Carl Wildrick has begun Sunday school work in the Pleasant View school house.

The seminary misses Emory Petersen who is now convalescing in the Nebraska Methodist hospital, Omaha. He suffered a broken leg and index finger and subsequent difficulties, but is now doing quite well.

LUTHER LEAGUE NEWS

Stanley Larsen addressed the regular meeting of the Luther League Wednesday evening, Oct. 25. Mr. Larsen emphasized the fact that we must open our eyes: first, in order that we may see ourselves as sinners. Peter was here given as an example, who after his fall saw himself as he was and had to say to his Master, "Depart from me for I am a sinner." Secondly, we must open our eyes that we may make a wise choice of a master: Christ, the victor, or Satan.

Sheridan Svendsen led the devotion.

We were urged by the president to cooperate with the committees in preparing for the LSA Convention to be held here November 3 to 5.

Democracy can never be spread by a dripping sword; that democracy is something that must come from within a country through education of its people. When these people are engaged in a war against a foreign enemy, there is no opportunity for the developing of democracy.

Too much free speech can bring about the end of free speech.

TEACHERS SELECTED FOR CCC CLASSES

Five Dana students have been selected to conduct several classes composed of the boys from the local CCC Camp. They are: Thorvald Hansen, teaching English and civics, Harold Sorensen, arithmetic, James Keay, spelling, H. Leonard Andersen, typing, and Leonard Hansen, shorthand.

The first classes were held on Monday night at the CCC Camp. The English, civics, arithmetic, and spelling classes will be held every Monday and Wednesday night at the camp, and the shorthand and typing classes will be held at the college every Tuesday and Thursday night.

All of the classes except shorthand and typing are taught in separate grades, according to the previous training that has been acquired in these particular subjects. To find their present level in the subjects, an intelligence test was given.

Dawn Patrol

The war on pheasants having been declared last Sunday morning, two Dana College boys enlisted in the ranks of the hunters who were marching to the battle. With sure step and clear eye they left for their destination, hoping for once that their opponents would be there at the desired time to supply the opposition.

After several hours of marching through corn, thistle, wheat, oats, hay, and barley fields, they finally neared one of the pheasant airdromes, and several of the smaller bombers (pheasants) took off for safer quarters. The blaze of the shot-guns however brought one of the fleeing birds to the ground, and thereafter the step of these two hunters was somewhat lighter. At least, they hadn't been entirely beaten. The walking, however, continued for some time with an occasional blast from their anti-aircraft guns aimed at some scurrying pheasant.

Truce was declared around 12 o'clock to enable the two warriors to store away provisions for the afternoon raid, to be conducted on another front. This change of battle field brought greater successes and happier smiles. Later in the afternoon, an armistice was reached and the sandbur-covered lads headed for home hoping to be able to resume war-fare next year and perhaps gain a better rating as "hunters."

FARM NEWS

Last Saturday a number of college boys were busy husking the corn on the farm. The work was completed and a total of approximately 150 bushels was husked.

The group working were Eldon Farrens, Robert Miles, Ernie Kjersgaard, Bjorn Berg, Harland Danielsen, Herbert Jeppesen, Reuben Iversen, and Maynard Hansen.

Eldon Farrens was reported lost in a path of tall thistles, while the rest of the crew shucked another round. He was just taking his mid-afternoon nap.

Some of the feeder pigs are now ready for market. Monday afternoon the group was sorted and the top-market hogs will be shipped to Omaha.

The flock of 225 Austro-white pullets are doing very well for this time of the year. They are laying in the neighborhood of 120 eggs per day.

Last Thursday Mr. Spry, the agricultural teacher, took his students to Mr. Ed Holstein's farm to look over and judge six 4-H Baby Beef Calves that are to be exhibited at the Ak-Sar-Ben Horse Show in Omaha. They had three Herefords, two Shorthorns, and one Black Angus. The students were Charles Nielsen, Herbert Jepsen, Leonard Nielsen, Robert Miles, and Berkeley Petersen.

Then they went to Mr. Rasmussen's farm to look at a herd of fifteen herefords which are also to be exhibited at the Ak-Sar-Ben. Mr. Rasmussen said he won third prize on his carload lot at the show last year.

He showed the group 200 head of feeders in the feeding lots, his electric motor on a large grinder, a car with tracks and the two long concrete feeding bunks, which are large enough to feed about 80 head at one time.

The students gained experience judging beef steers and viewed the necessary equipment for feeding large herds of calves by one person, eliminating the necessity of hiring several men.

Mr. Spry plans to take his Agriculture students to the Ak-Sar-Ben Tuesday, October 24, to watch the judging of the baby beeves and the car load lots.

Dana Vikings Wallop Hebron Knights 26-6

Season's Best Football Displayed by Coach
Olson's Lads Before Large Homecoming Crowd

OUTSTANDING VIKINGS WHO SAW ACTION LAST NIGHT

Playing "Heads Up" football in all four quarters, Dana's Vikings completely outplayed and outfought a stubborn Hebron aggregation before a large Homecoming crowd last evening on Blair High field. To the tune of 26-6.

With the "Old Grads" cheering lustily at every Dana attempt, Olson's lads found it comparatively easy to make six sustained drives toward the visitors' goal, four of them resulting in touchdowns.

Although Hebron refused to let the Vikings score in their first sustained drive early in the initial quarter, the Red and White team redeemed themselves by shoving two touchdowns across the visitors' goal line in the second period. The first one by Jensen through the visitors' line; the second one resulting from a lateral, Phipps to Petersen on the Hebron five yard line, the latter scoring standing up. Dana added the first point after touchdown by smashing through the Hebron line. Paul Petersen's placement attempt after the second Viking score was slightly wide of the goal posts, and the score at halftime stood 13 to 0, Dana over Hebron.

Hebron kicked to Dana to start the second half with Bob Jensen making a beautiful 45 yard return, finally being stopped on the Hebron 35 after it seemed that he would break in the clear for another Dana touchdown.

On a series of line plays, the Vikings marched to the Knights' five yard line where the visitors' line tightened, throwing a Dana ball carrier for a loss. On the next two plays the locals were penalized and were forced to concede the ball to the opponent.

Hebron failed to gain the necessary yardage and was forced to punt to midfield where Dana again started a drive for the visitors' end zone.

Two first downs put the Vikings deep down in Hebron territory where a series of line plays was culminated by Bill Phipps scoring the third Dana touchdown. The try for point was good, and the Knights chose to receive with Petersen of the Vikings doing the kicking.

Many of Dana's starting lineup were resting on the bench by this time, but substitutions did not seem to hinder the functioning of the Viking machine, and Hebron could not keep the Danes out of their territory. At the same time, the Dana line refused to let the opposition through for any consistent gains forcing them to punt the majority of the time.

In the fourth period the visitors displayed fairly capable football, breaking loose for occasional gains, one of them being a beautiful 72 yard run by Butler, right halfback on the Hebron squad and a very adept ball carrier. The Knights' try for point after touchdown failed and Dana chose to receive, running the kickoff back to their own 40 yard line.

For the sixth time the Vikings started a march for the Hebron goal line finally succeeding in the closing minutes of the quarter when Merrill plunged across from the two-yard line. The play for point failed when a pass was grounded.

Throughout the final period both teams had possession of the ball a good many times, but for the most part of the quarter, the game was played in Hebron territory.

Everyone that saw action for the Vikings played clean, hard football with a determination to win. For the visitors, Cannon and Butler were outstanding by virtue of their performances in the backfield.

Final score, Dana 26—Hebron 6.

GIRLS PLAY BADMINTON

The four girls' physical education classes under the direction of Coach Olson will engage in an intra-mural badminton tournament. Both single and double games will be played. A champion will be determined from each class.

The championship play-off will be held in the latter part of November on a Friday evening. Students and faculty members will be invited to attend.

Playoff in Touch-Football is Held

In a hard fought battle which went into a fifteen minute overtime period, team 2 and team 4 tied for the six-man touch-football championship of Dana College. The score was 6 to 6, but the score only partially indicates the furiousness of the contest.

Team 2 scored first, with Alvin Reuter taking a pass from Darwin Soll and carrying it over for their six points. But Berkeley Peterson came back to block a punt and then raced the remaining distance to tie up the score. Thereafter the two teams waged battle on even terms, with both aggregations threatening to take it over but failing to do so when they came close to pay dirt.

HAIL DANA

While yet our land was wilderness
And sturdy pilgrim reared
With brawny arm his lowly home,
A flower divine appeared:
O hail, fair Dana, hail to thee!
Our song to thee we sing:
May always we thy name revere
While truth to us be dear.

To all who would thy truths embrace
To manhood mold each heart.
Thy message true impart;
Be thou their guiding star throughout,
O hail, fair Dana, hail to thee!
Thy children guide aright;
May they in faith and hope and love,
Praise him who dwells above.

And when we launch our little barks
On Destiny's deep sea,
As ivies to thy walls do cling,
Our hearts do cling to thee.
O hail, fair Dana, hail to thee!
Though time thy walls may claim
Thy spirit live, another throng
Rise up and sing our song.

The game as a whole was a fine exhibition of passing, with Russel Lund, Berkeley Peterson, and Darwin Soll doing most of the heaving for the teams.

The other team is composed of Berkeley Peterson, Leonard Hansen, Kenneth Larsen, Russel Lund, Herschel Hansen, Merl Nielsen, James Keay, Andrew Jensen and Iver Iversen.
