Urgency Keynote Leadership School

"Now is the time to do or to die, young Christians," stated Rev. Marcus Rieke, youth director of the American Lutheran Lutheran Church, at the banquet of the Leadership School held in Blair, May 5-9. This was the message which was reiterated again and again during the school.

The sessions were held at First Lutheran Church and the banquet was held in the college dining hall. Trinity Seminary dismissed classes during the week to enable its students to attend. Many Dana students attended lectures also.

The opening service was held on Monday evening with Rev. Rieke giving the main address. Dr. Carlsen, president of the U. E. L. C., welcomed the school on behalf of the synod.

After the morning devotions, the three main lectures were given. Rev. Holm, pastor in New Braunfels, Texas, began with a study of Biblical characters. Rev. Rieke presented his lectures, "We Are Saved to Serve," and Rev. T. A. Krueger, Kansas pastor, concluded the morning program with his discussion of methods of leadership.

The school closed Friday evening with a communion service conducted by Rev. M. C. Hagedorn, national president of the Luther League of the U. E. L. C.

Other evening programs included a talk by Rev. R. E. Morton, president of the college, and the showing of the highly acclaimed film, "The Way of Peace." It was shown to this group only 11 days after its world premiere in Constitution Hall in Washington, D. C. This production pointed out that the only way to peace is through the acceptance of Christ's message.

Program Tonight Will Include Original Works

This evening at 8 o'clock, the Literary Club is presenting a public entertainment open to all.

The program will feature a one-act play, "The Lost Silk Hat," by Lord Dunsany, and also a short play written by two of the club members, Fred Brengelman and Robert Videbeck.

There will be several presentations of readings of the works of other members including two short stories written by Norman Bansen and Fred Brengelman and a poem by Aida Limjoco.

As an introduction to the Irish play, Harold and Anne Andersen and Paul Thorslev will sing two Irish songs.

After the program, refreshments will be served.

This program is put on in order to fulfill two purposes: (1) to create interest in Irish literature and (2) to present an idea of the aims and purposes of the club itself, as a medium for the presentation of the talents of the students of Dana.

Engagement List Grows Longer

What would a Hermes be if there were no engagements to report? Press time found us with four additions to the seemingly unending list.

The first engagement announced after the last Hermes was printed is that of Lorraine Sandberg and Archie Madsen. Lorraine, a two-year Dana graduate of 1946, is teaching in Lyons, Nebraska. Homer Larsen revealed Ejvind Nielsen's engagement to Sylvia Dynnesen, an L. B. I. graduate, who is employed at the Old People's Home in Elk Horn, Iowa.

May Festival week-end brought the news that Mark Viere had given a diamond to Barbara Luther, of Des Moines, and the most recently announced campus engagement is that of Arlene Rudolph to Jim Youmans.

And so, as we did to the preceding couples, we extend our sincere congratulations.

Commencement Plans Include Senior Program, Reunions

Maynard Andersen Chosen to Edit 1948 DANIAN

Maynard Andersen was elected editor of the "Danian" at the final student body election, held May 5, 1947. Other newly-elected members of the Student Council for the school year, 1947-48, are Norlan Hanson, director of Religious Activities; Paul Larsen, director of Fine Arts; Marianne Lund, director of Social Activities; and Dean Madsen, director of Athletic Activities.

A vote proved the favor of the amendment that "Under general duties of the Student Council (M) shall have the right to approve the appointment or election of any student who is delegated to officially represent the student body in any off-campus activity except in sports."

Next fall, Alvina Larsen will take the office of president of the Girls' Dormitory as determined by a recent vote of the girls.

Open House Marks Nyholm Anniversary

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Nyholm celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary and Mrs. Nyholm's birthday with open house, Sunday, May 4.

The afternoon program consisted of two musical numbers. Mrs. A. M. Pedersen sang "My God and I" and Mr. Melvin J. Widman sang, "Bless This House." A short speech was given by Rev. H. C. Jorgensen.

In the evening, Sidney Jorgensen sang a solo. Dr. N. C. Carlsen and Rev. P. C. Jensen gave addresses followed by hymn singing.

During the course of the day, 125 guests were served.

Music Festival Set For May 25

Musical events will play a large part in the festivities closing this school year. Sunday afternoon, May 18, the beginning piano students will be presented in a recital in the chapel of Old Main.

The Spring Music Festival will be presented Sunday evening, May 25. The first part of the program will consist of a group of vocal selections by Mr. M. J. Widman and piano selections by Mr. Paul Neve. Miss Woeppel will present her speech class in a demonstration of choric speech. The college chorus, under the direction of Mr. Widman, will sing Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise." The soloists will be: Anne Lage Andersen, Rhoda Iversen, Arlene Rudolph, Paul Thorslev and Jack Jacobsen. Accompanists are: Paul Neve and Gerald Hatt. The girls of the chorus will be attired in pastel-colored formals.

On Sunday evening, June 1, the A Cappella Choir will present its home concert in the Blair High School Auditorium. That afternoon a recital of advanced vocal and piano students will be given.

A similar recital will follow on Tuesday afternoon, June 3.

The Senior Class Day will be June 2. Among special features is a chorus consisting of the members of the senior class, which will sing several selections.

Choir Sings Omaha Concert Sunday

The A Cappella Choir presented its first full concert since the spring tour in Bluffs Trinity Lutheran Church, Fremont, Nebraska, May 11.

On Sunday, May 18, it will sing at Our Saviors Lutheran Church in Omaha. And to close a successful singing year will be the home concert, Sunday, June 1.

Seniors to Receive Degrees June 3

Commencement days at Dana and Trinity this spring will take an entirely new meaning as plans now drawn up by a Faculty Committee are announced by President R. E. Morton. All activities of Commencement Days are grouped together into three days, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 1-3, to enable alumni, friends and parents of graduates to attend all activities with a minimum of time away from home. Another purpose in rearranging Commencement Days activities is to induce present students to stay on the campus until all events are over, instead of leaving early for their homes, thus helping to create a more festive atmosphere for the graduates.

Something entirely new, we believe, will be introduced during this year's Commencement Days. The members of the graduating classes of 1942, 1937, 1927, 1922, 1917, 1907 and 1897 will be invited to spend these days on the campus of their Alma Mater as guests of Dana and Trinity. We hope in this way to make the commencement days a real homecoming for old grads, as well as happy days for the 1947 graduates.

The new Commencement Day activities as arranged by the committee headed by Dr. H. F. Swansen, begin with the Baccalaureate Services Sunday morning, June 1, at 10:45 o'clock in the Auditorium.

Class reunion meetings are planned for 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, when each of the invited class groups can get together and renew acquaintances and exchange Dana memories and experiences. A class dinner at 6

Kansas Provides Flowers for Lilac Time Coronation

Events of Dana's annual May Festival week-end began Friday evening, May 1, with a concert by the Huron College Choir; continued Saturday evening with the coronation of the King and Queen; and were brought to a close Sunday afternoon after the Music Festival, presented by the music students of Dana.

Members of the Dana A Cappella Choir joined with the Huron Choir in singing the two closing numbers, "Send Forth Thy Spirit" and "The Benediction."

In the setting of the campus at Springtime, Joan Andersen and Dean Madsen were crowned Queen and King of Lilac Time by Dr. N. C. Carlsen in the College Auditorium, Saturday evening.

Before the coronation, tributes were paid to the candidates by Harold Jersild, Archie Madsen and Norman Bansen, representing scholarship, Christian character and extra-curricular activities.

The ceremony was followed by a program presented by students at Dana. Donald Hansen was the master of ceremonies.

In keeping with the theme of Lilac Time, the gym was decorated like the campus on a moonlit evening in the Spring. Lilacs, imported from Kansas, were intermingled with small green shrubs around the walls of the gymnasium. After the formal program, a buffet luncheon was served to the guests.

Letters to the Editor... The Fifth Column

Dear Editor,

Concerning this religion called modernism—
Everywhere there is progress. Glance back into the distant past and trace man's mental and spiritual evolution by correlating the Bible with science. Note that in the Bible the prophets cried out for justice but note also that primitive man realized that he was destined for something greater, for he could not bear to leave his fellow-beings to decay after death as other animals did. Man buried his own kind as a tribute to his own destiny.

Man struggles upward, ever attaining knowledge. Man learned to write. Man in the interest of humanity sets down the gripping story of the human trials and tribulations of people and nations. Certainly the Scriptures were inspired but no more so than great works are now. God has not changed His method of guiding man yet and never will. We ask for strength and we receive it, if we put forth effort deserving of that strength.

Today we are dealing with the old problem of salvation only to find we are confronted with much confusion between science and religion. Actually there is no confusion in the sight of God. Any man who believes in God must realize that no scientific fact, as long as it is true, can contradict God. Otherwise, it would not be true. The confusion comes out of man-made institutions. Therefore we must deal with these problems as we deal with any other task today—with modern methods. We must confront our actual problems with a religion respectful of the Scriptures but also fully aware of the advancement of human knowledge. Some say that a sincere Christian needs no other book other than the Gospel. We are not trying to convince the sincere Christian. Our task is to win others to Christianity. We know that many believers suffer profoundly from imaginary contradictions between their intuitive or sentimental faith and their science. They must be enlightened. The old symbolic language of the Bible taken literally no longer corresponds to the needs of the hour; one must employ the scientific language whenever possible to express the same ideas or reach the same conclusions.

Many churches have pioneered this field and are well on the way to meeting the problems—man's scientific conflict with the Bible. The Lutheran Church has at last opened its eyes and has begun its advance in the process of evolution.

Christ achieved the form, the life and the spirituality that man is striving for. It is our privilege to accept Him in order that we might live a higher life thus contributing to the evolution process that will bring man's ultimate destiny to the likeness of Christ.

As modernists, we are stepping out into the lead to break down all the chaos and conflict caused by a Christian standard based on a level Bible. We are teaching that Christ is a way of life; that only through Christ we, the individual, gain salvation and contribute to evolution. Civilization is based on society. Christ was concerned with the individual in society which made him a great leader in social adjustment. When you hear a so-called social sermon, apply it in your everyday living. That is what Christ wanted. That is what Christ died for.

Tulip Time At Dana

For those who have been at Dana before, the tulip bed in the northern quadrangle is a new and appreciated addition to the Campus beauty. The bulbs were given to us by Mrs. Anders Hansen of Elk Horn, Iowa, last fall. Mrs. Hansen is Allan Hansen's mother. Mr. Johansen of the Flower Shop donated the labor of making the bed and planting the bulbs.

Our thanks to these friends.

DANA SPIRIT OR BAT IN THE BELFRY?

We do not advocate stuffy etiquette for etiquette's sake, but we do hold that consideration for others is a Christian virtue that might well be re-emphasized at Dana. The disgusting tom-foolery in the dining hall when an attempt to make an announcement was made makes one wonder about all this much-praised spirit. We enjoy pranks, but also enjoy using our brains in planning them. An average moron can, with a minimum of effort, rattle water pitchers or grunt unintelligibly. Our guests must have been impressed by this brilliant display of Dana wit.

SEASONED CONVERSATION:

We do like intelligent fun and lively conversation in the dining hall and it is amusing to observe the antics of those who do not. This from a recent Christian Century: "A conversation is not un-Christian when it is seasoned with salt and interrupted with shrieks of laughter. In 'Jerusalem the Golden' do we not read of the 'shouts of them that feast'?" At Dana we have the shouts of them that feast being squelched by shrieks.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE

To Bob Videbeck for arranging a superior student music festival and to the participants who showed superior talent. We look forward to hearing more of our own musical talent.

To the faculty members who presented the forum on "Firebird Suite," correlating the fields of literature, music, art, and psychology in a striking way. We hope there may be several programs of this type next year.

THEY THAT WEAR SOFT CLOTHING:

The recent perturbation of an august assembly over Dana styles of dress brought to mind this statement found in Holy Writ: "But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in king's houses."

THE FIRST SHALL BE LAST

Whenever our copy is late we tell the editor that the Fifth Column is forth coming.

Seminary Sidelights

By Oscar E. Johnson

Another school year is nearly past. The summer plans of most of the seminary students have been revealed in earlier editions of the Hermes. The professors are also busy making their plans for the summer. Our dean, Professor Jensen, will study at Maywood Seminary at Chicago, beginning the latter part of July. Professor Nyholm will also spend the summer in Chicago at the University of Chicago, working on his Ph. D. Dr. Larsen plans to do some work at Princeton University. Dr. Mengers will represent our Church at the Lutheran World Convention at Lund, Sweden. He will sail for Europe the latter part of June. Professor Madsen will continue his graduate work by correspondence.

Seminary classes have been dismissed the past week in order to give the students opportunity to attend the Leadership Training School at First Lutheran Church. This has given the student body an introduction to the practical work of the ministry.

Seven applications for entrance into the Seminary have been accepted. They include Sidney Jorgensen, Poy Sippi, Wisconsin; Ray Paulsen, Blair; Reynold Tange, Blair; Harold Andersen, Blair; and LaVern Larsen, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Two former Dana students who have been attending Luther Seminary at St. Paul will return. They are Bob Bertelsen, who will come as a middler, and Ronald Jensen as a senior. With these applications the enrollment at the Seminary will be increased by three.

On Monday evening, April 28, the seminary student body sponsored a communion service for the seminary faculty and students and the pre-seminary students of the college. Dr. Mengers gave the confessional sermon and Professor Madsen conducted the service. This service was a gesture on the part of the seminary students to invite the fellowship of the faculty and pre-seminary students. As ministers and prospective ministers, the fellowship about the Lord's supper was a true expression of oneness.

The Christian Outlook

Last week many of us spent a most profitable week listening to the speakers of and participating in our Leadership Training School. The week was crowded with moments or rather hours of spiritual blessings. Many of us are very thankful that they stressed not only the need of full-time Christian workers but the dire need of good Christian laymen and women.

The week was Christ-centered and filled with the Spirit of God. The speakers preached "Christ or Chaos." They preached that chaos comes from those who have "a warped, crookedly conceived idea of God."

There has been, in the past decade, a cross. But it was a cross which wrought chaos upon many people who did not have the right knowledge of "The Cross." This Cross of Chaos was the warped, crooked, twisted, black cross which double-crossed the whole world, the swastika.

The instigators of this cross had a warped, crooked, twisted idea about the Cross of Jesus Christ.

Today the swastika is gone. Yet there are still many with a distorted view of the Cross and Jesus Christ. About Jesus Christ, your Saviour, your Redeemer, your God, the Son of God, who came into this world to be a ransom for many, who died that we might live, it is written, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man will hear my voice and open the door, I will come into him, and will sup with him, and he with me."

Rev. Jorgensen told us a story about a picture, the one of Christ standing at the door knocking. Previously many of us had thought of the beauty and the challenge of the picture. But he showed us what a sad picture it can be. If this picture portrays Jesus standing at the door of your heart, knocking, the picture is very sad indeed. Are you going to keep Him standing there forever?

"Admit Him, for the human breast
Ne'er entertained so kind a guest."

What is your answer to Christ's knocking?

"Come into my heart, Lord Jesus,
Come into my heart, Lord Jesus
Come in today, Come in to stay
Come into my heart, Lord Jesus"

"CHRIST OR CHAOS"!

News of the Day

The Plight of Germany

Is the United States trampling underfoot the ideals for which she fought, to wreak vengeance on a beaten enemy?

No sport will kick a man when he's down, yet our own country has permitted the outrage of another already so horribly beaten that it will take fifty years to restore her prewar agricultural and industrial independence, while restitution can never be made for the cultural heritage destroyed in the ancient castles and cathedrals.

Vast numbers of the young men of Germany died in battles not their own, fighting for a cause not theirs. The struggle for the barest Lebensmittel—necessities of life—must be carried on by the old men, the women, and children. The desperateness of their situation is aggravated by the lack of a diet nourishing enough to support a laborer. The pitiable lack of food and clothes is made doubly terrible by the crowds of refugees fleeing before the Polish conqueror. At the time the Polish people took control the German inhabitants of the part of Germany given to Poland were given twenty-four hours to leave their homes for Pole immigrants. They were allowed only the belongings they could carry in one suitcase. Livestock was left for the Poles or left to starve. Whole villages now lie empty in the Polish region and much of the land is not cultivated, while in west Germany two or more families now occupy every house not destroyed and others huddle in shelters of rubble. To the difficulty of producing food for such numbers is added the dearth of commercial fertilizers. Germany has never depended upon animal manure for the restoration of soil fertility; nitrate and potash plants have supplied the necessary soil nutrients. According to Relief Director Herbert Hoover, these plants are being systematically destroyed because of their military potentiality! How can a soil so constantly depleted continue to produce enough to feed this large nation? Either the German people must be supplied from outside or they must be enabled to grow their own food. For America to provide the Germans in the American zone with facilities for the production of their own Essmittel would relieve the much-too-heavy strain on the American pocketbook.

America has two choices. Either she can make a friend of Germany, or she can continue in her present course and make an enemy. If the German people can recognize Democracy as a form of government not returning evil for evil, but giving to every man, even the conquered, the right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," they will not accept Communism. If America is seen as a Capitalistic dictator, pillaging and destroying, they cannot be expected to accept Democracy. It might be well at this time to remember the words of Christ, "If thine enemy hunger, feed him."

Dana Cindermen Fifth in N.I.A.A. Meet

Vike Trackmen 2nd in Triangular

Dana's newly organized track team traveled to Omaha, Monday, April 21 for its first track meet of the season. The Creighton Blues racked up 93 points to take first place while Dana placed second with 53 points and Concordia trailed with 42.

Dana placed first in four events. Art Sorensen after taking first place in the open 440, anchored a trailing mile relay team with a 50.2 quarter to win that event for Dana. Jim Coffey gained an early lead in the mile run, set his own pace and came in first in that event.

Bud Robinson garnered another first for Dana in the high jump. He also racked up points in the broad jump, discus and javelin. Dno Rouse turned in a very good performance in taking second place in the pole vault and 220 low hurdles and third in the 440. Rouse also ran on the victorious mile relay team.

Others who collected points for Dana were: Bill Johansen, 880; Jim Hansen, 100 and 220; John Hansen, high jump; Hal Jersild, shotput; and Del Neary, pole-vault.

Dana at Conference Meet

After one day rest, the track team journeyed to Central City, Nebraska, for the big meet of the season on May 9. It was the first conference track meet of the newly organized N. I. A. A. Few outstanding records were set which was partly due to cold weather and a strong wind.

Dana finished fifth with 21 1/2 points; Norfolk walked away with the meet with 51 1/2 points.

The Vikings only first was Jim Coffey's mile run. Jim ran a nice race, coming from behind to win by a few yards. Although Don Rouse was bothered by a cold, he placed second in the low hurdles and fourth in the 440 as well as running in the medley relay. Maynard Andersen was close behind Don for a third in the lows.

Bill Johansen evidently likes third place. For the third consecutive time he finished at that spot in the 880 to add to Dana's points. Arnold Larsen added two more points with a third place in the two-mile run. Gene Mengers tied for fourth in the high jump. The relay teams performed well, the 880 boys placed second, while the medley team took a third.

Dana was definitely handicapped with injuries. Art Sorensen is out for the season with a pulled muscle which prevented him from running and although Bud Robinson competed, a sprained ankle kept him from doing his best in the field events.

This was probably Dana's last meet of the season. With the addition of adequate facilities and increased student body interest and experience Dana's track team should next year be much improved.

Dana in Finals of Tennis Tournery

The first annual tennis tournament of the N. I. A. A. was held at Grand Island, Nebraska, May 7. Dana's three-man team succeeded in reaching the final round of the doubles matches and the semi-finals of the singles. Freshman Fred Jensen of Spencer took the measure of his opponent in the first round of the singles but bowed out in the semi-finals to the Fairbury entree.

In the doubles event Ray Johnson teamed with brother Paul and worked their way to the final round where they were eliminated by the Fairbury team in a closely fought battle 6-4 and 7-5. The Dana team received a bye in the first round and took the measure of Concordia in the second round to gain their finals berth.

Vikes Trail Midland In Dual Meet

Dana cindermen traveled to Fremont on Wednesday, May 7, for a dual meet with Midland college. Although Dana placed in nearly every event, the final score was in favor of Midland by an easy margin. The Vikings hopes for a good showing were hurt considerably as Art Sorensen was sidelined with a badly pulled leg muscle.

Jim Coffey delivered again for Dana with his fastest mile yet to take first place. In the low hurdles, Maynard Andersen came through with a tie for first place.

Although Dana did not win the meet, the trackmen gained much valuable experience for future competitive meets this year.

Youmans-Madsen B.B. Co-Captains

Dean Madsen, sophomore from Bradgate, Iowa, and Jim Youmans, freshman from Falmouth, Maine, were recently elected by members of the basketball squad as honorary co-captains for the past season. Both players received an equal number of votes in the balloting.

Youmans led the Viking scorers during the past season and was the Dana strong man in the rebound department. Jim received recognition on the all conference squad for his court work.

Madsen, although not high among the scorers played sparkingly defensive ball and teamed with Youmans to sparkplug the Dana team. In addition to the honors thus bestowed upon him Dean was recently crowned King of the Lilac Time on Dana Hill.

Both Jim and Dean will be back at Dana next fall to bolster the Viking football as well as basketball squads for '47-'48.

Unmentionables Win V'ball League

Dana's intramural sports program continued with volleyball being the main sport. Heading the league of four men's volleyball team is the Unmentionables. Their first win was over Red Leighton's team, winning 15-6 and 15-12. They also trampled under Ray Hansen's team with a 15-4, 15-9 two out of three win. Their other win was over the Racinites.

Ray Hansen's team is in second place with two wins and a loss. They defeated the Racinites 15-9 and 15-5. Their other victory was a forfeit over Red's team.

Softball has also been holding a spot in the springline of sports. No organized schedule has been set up but a couple of teams of fellows have been playing some afternoon games on one of the ball diamonds downtown. Some good games have been reported.

To the North

There is a mad rush in the process. The reasons are many and various but can be boiled down to two—Academic and the perennial Spring Fever.

Everywhere fellas are in a dilemma—only fifty more pages of history notes or only a chapter in Social Psych. How about the chem experiments? They aren't up to date? And jeppers, my Biology Lab notes aren't up. Got to catch up on English Lit reading. These and about a million more things done and they'll be all caught up.

The second reason is by far the more popular and at times the former cause suffers. Let's look out the window and view the upper campus. Ah, love! young sweet love! You can see it everywhere. They make no bones about it. It goes on "Night and Day" Ask Pearson (Bill, that is) He knows!

All this rush is very nice, but at times it can be very tiring. I've looked at so many books that I see blue and so far as the inspiration of spring and sweet love, it doesn't do me any good. I'm here and she's there.

Communion Service Unites Theologians

A service of Holy Communion was held in the college chapel Monday evening, April 28. Those who worshipped and partook of the Communion were the Seminary faculty, Seminary and Pre-Seminary students and their wives.

Professor C. C. Madsen of the Seminary was in charge of the service. A heart searching message was brought by Dr. Mengers, as an appeal was made that God might search the individual heart before the partaking of Communion.

The college Chapel had been arranged especially for the occasion; a simple altar had been arranged creating a worshipful atmosphere for the service.

This was the second meeting this year in which the Seminary students and faculty have met together with Pre-Seminary students. The first meeting, earlier in the year, was an informal fellowship and discussion. Both meetings have helped to knit Seminary and Pre-Seminary into a closer bond of fellowship.

Bargains of the Year: Senior Rummage Sale

The Senior Class is planning to sponsor a rummage sale the last week of school for the purpose of raising additional funds for their class gift.

Any contributions of unwanted possessions are being solicited by the seniors. These articles will then be auctioned to the highest bidder at a time to be definitely set later.

History Club Hears Archeologist

Dr. O. W. Qualley, present Dean of Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, spoke to the History Club, April 25, on his own experiences in Archeological research in Fayum, Egypt.

He has spent a considerable amount of time in Egypt working in archeology and he was prepared to present first-hand information by means of his lecture and a number of slides that revealed the nature of the work involved in archeological research. The samples of papyrus rolls that he had with him were of interest to those who attended.

Dr. Qualley spoke also in the Chapel the following day on the origin of the Bible. He brought out the fact that in many instances Archeology bears out the truth of the Bible. This weakens the position of those who would discredit the Old Testament and call it a myth.

COMMENCEMENT PLANS

o'clock will bring each group together again, and at 8 o'clock the 1947 Senior Class will present its Class Day program and the Ivy Planting ceremony.

On Tuesday, a special Chapel Convocation, the last of the year, will be held at 9:50 a. m. at which one of the oldest living graduates of Trinity Seminary attending the Commencement Day activities will speak. A sports event is planned for 10:30 o'clock, with the second music recital at 2 p. m. Climax of the days' activities will be the Commencement Exercises in the Auditorium at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, June 3, when the seniors of Dana and Trinity will be awarded their degrees or diplomas, and terminal course graduates will be given their certificates. The "Kaffe-bord," now traditional at Dana following the Commencement exercises, is scheduled for 9:45 p. m.

The Faculty Committee has prepared a program which we believe is of special interest to all Dana and Trinity friends, and all alumni are invited to return to their Alma Mater for these days, whether they are members of the specially invited classes or not.

Visitors Speak Of Mission Field

All over the world there is a cry for helpers in the mission fields. In Africa, India, and in many other countries people are waiting to hear the Word of God.

This was the message brought by Miss Margaret Nissen of the Sudan, Miss Harriet Widman of the Congo, and Dr. Dagmar Pedersen of the Santal. Each one has spoken to us during chapel period and L. S. A. In less than 15 minutes they are able to paint a realistic picture of the intense need for more foreign missionaries.

To the South

Greetings from the girls' dorm! A rather restless dorm, at its best. Everything happens at once. There was the weekend of all the operas; then Oklahoma came to Omaha—and Dana had to get its representatives off for these events. Seems like there was a weekend used up by the May Fest, too. Anybody know about that? Rather—has anybody recuperated from it? It's great fun to try to get a formal made and pressed, work on at least one committee, go to everything that comes along, and maybe even study—all in less than a week. But it was worth it.

Then there was the Leadership School, (the best thing that has happened here for a long time). It was really worth missing study time to hear Rev. Rieke and the rest. We're all for a lot more of the same type! Now we are looking forward to—let's see—the faculty party—yes, the recitals—yes, the Home Concert—yes, Commencement—yes, and exams—no?

Now—what has happened in the dorm? Not much—not much fooling, not much noise, not too many parties, not much complaining, not much gossiping—and I fear—not much studying—not much of anything. Oh—we did have an election for next year's dorm president, but I won't tell you who got it.

"Firebird Suite" Is Background for Program

On April 22, several faculty members presented a program of interpretations of Stravinsky's "Firebird Suite."

Miss Woeppel summarized the story background for the ballet, "The Firebird," for which the music was written. Messrs. Widman and Neve explained the musical construction, the dissonance and use of chords. An impressionistic painting interpreting the music was explained by Rev. Thomsen. The painting illustrated a giant firebird setting fire to the forests, and included in the wing was a resemblance of the Princess. Soft blue colors illustrated the lullaby in the music. A psychological approach by Mr. Rasmussen concluded the interpretations.

Dramatists Present Three-Act Comedy Friday Evening

And "Lily! WHAT are you doing!"

There's just no telling what the crazy Lily is doing, either! Pauline Clausen does a splendid job of portraying Lily, a demented Negro maid, in the 3-act Comedy "Where There's a Will," to be presented May 23rd in the Gym.

With Marilyn Guyer as Mrs. Emerson and "Kenny" Weaver as her hen-pecked husband, Linda, their young, charming daughter (portrayed by Lorraine Nelson) and Wallace Taylor (played by Norlan Hansen) give poor Cupid a rough time!

A $5,000 inheritance bequeathed to shy, retiring Lora (Marjorie Jorth) makes the presence of Cupid quite unnecessary for Ralph Macy, a "buggy" book-agent, (Roger Hansen), Gates Austin (Eddie Anderson) and Edmund Lewis (Niels Carlsen.)

Jane Scott (May Skobo) and Sylvia Terry (Harriet Mortensen) scheme tirelessly to keep their men from following Lorna ($5,000). Mrs. Keith, Lorna's mother (Marilyn Juul), gladly forgets her chance for $5,000, much to the pleasure of Henry Hale, the lawyer, (George Anderson).

Don't miss it! Guaranteed to be the talk of the campus!

"See you there, Lily!"
