Dr. Christensen will open the series on the first day with three lectures. The subjects of his lectures are: "Possessing Our Possessions," "Thoughts on the Atonement," and "Living in the One Church." The lectures will begin at 10:30 a.m., 2:00 p.m., and 7:30 p.m.

Dr. B. M. Christensen

Pastor Karl J. Wilhelmsen

Pastor Wilhelmsen will lecture in the morning and afternoon of the second day. His subjects are: "Preaching with a Purpose" and "The Pastor and Parish Evangelism."

The convocation is open to pastors and any students who may be interested. The lectures will be given in the lounge of Men's Hall.

Arnold Jensen Wins Oklahoma Fellowship

Arnold Jensen, senior chemistry and mathematics major, has recently received a fellowship to Oklahoma A. and M. He will begin his graduate study at Stillwater this September in the field of organic chemistry. His duties will consist of laboratory instruction for general chemistry students and proctoring in quiz sections. Arnie has already had experience in this line, having served as laboratory assistant here in the chemistry department.

True Spring Signs

By Gerhardt Mengers

This season has a way of getting into my pen, but I have noticed many true signs of the season since the last edition of the Hermes. I'm positive that Spring is here to stay—for a while anyway. I just can't be wrong this time. The signs are too conclusive.

One of the more noticeable signs of the season is the increased interest in writing poetry by the freshman class. This class has, with a little encouragement by the English department, taken to the literary field of romantic poetry. Some of these poems rival that of the masters. The shortest poem of the class's talented poets expresses the thoughts and feelings of many of the campus.

LOVE
Love, I love it.
by _____

I asked a few of the class what their reaction to the assignment was. It varied from the short, but informative "groan" to the fits of ecstasy or "a chance to express myself in verse; besides I was tired of writing themes."

Poetry is not the only sign of Spring. The students who have been here long know that the sight of the car of one of our faculty is a surefire guarantee of Spring. When the faculty member brings the auto out of hibernation to view the floating clouds and to hear the singing birds, then the old-timers nod their heads and pack up their winter clothing.

Green grass, budding trees, warbling birds, and loafing students—all true signs of Spring.

Proposed Amendment To Student Body Constitution Enacted

Constitutional amendments were the order of the day for a student body meeting held Thursday, March 30. Amendments dealing with the name of the student body organization, election of homecoming committee, hours for voting and changes in the constitution were proposed and enacted. Reports from the Rec Room and D.P. scholarship committees were heard. As the meeting was adjourned it was suggested that President James Hansen appoint a committee to create interest in student body activities. This suggestion was prompted by the poorest attendance of this year at a student body meeting.

Sophs and Seniors Plan Class Parties For April

The sophomores and the senior classes are planning their annual parties to be held in the near future.

April 22 is the date set for the sophomore class party to be held in the gym. It will represent a radio station in which several amusing programs will be presented. A lunch is to be served at the close of the party for a nominal fee.

The seniors, this year, will hold a picnic for the student body on April 29. The place will be announced when found.

The respective planning committee say that these are two enjoyable events which should not be omitted from your April calendar of activities.

Midwest Region L.S.A. Holds Little Ashram

The annual Little Ashram of the Midwest Regional L.S.A. will be held at the Covenant Cedars Bible Camp April 21-23. The theme of the Little Ashram will be "Now Is the Time." Pastor Emory Pokrant, Kearney, Nebr., will give the keynote address on Friday morning on the topic, "Now Is the Time to Pray." Saturday morning Pastor J. W. Henkel, Auburn, Nebr., will speak on the topic, "Now Is the Time to Worship," and Dick Bennett, from the Division of Student Service at Chicago, will speak at the banquet to be given the same evening. His topic will be, "Now Is the Time to Work—Through L.S.A.A." Pastor A. C. Baughman, Fremont, speaking at the Sunday morning worship service will center his thoughts on "Now Is the Time to Witness."

Bible studies will be given on the book of Colossians Saturday morning by Pastor Alvin Petersen, Lincoln. Dick Bennett will also preview highlights of the National Ashram to be held this summer.

The Dana L.S.A. will have charge of the registration at the camp. Those wishing to attend may give their names and the initial dollar registration fee to Silas Kaldahl.

Rev. Mueller to Talk At Rally April 21

Pastor E. W. Mueller of Chicago, who is assistant executive secretary for the Division of American Missions of the National Lutheran Council, will be the speaker at a young peoples' rally to be held on the campus April 21, at 7:30 p.m. All men and women who are especially interested in Christian service are invited to attend this meeting as well as pastors and young people from nearby churches.

Pastor Mueller's specialty is centered on rural church work and in conducting research findings on Lutheran strength in ten midwest states and also Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New York. "If the church, like a mighty army, is to move forward in a great home mission advance, she must take careful count of her strength and resources in the various sections of the land." He has done a considerable amount of traveling for the purpose of encouraging Christian service in the rural community, and towns with a population of 2500 or less.

Last summer, Pastor Mueller organized a conference in Rock Island, Ill., at which the main topic for discussion was, "How Lutheran Colleges Can Serve Rural Communities."

Besides speaking at the rally here, Pastor Mueller will be the speaker at the morning convocation in Pioneer Memorial and will be visiting on the campus during the day.

ELECTION RESULTS

The candidates for Lilac Time king and queen are: John Hansen, Blair; Robert N. Hansen, Greenville, Mich.; and Paul Laursen, Ord, Nebr., for king; Elaine Madison, Poy Sippi, Wis.; Joyce Nelson, Fremont; and Edith Skobo, Blair, for queen.

Pastor R. Youngdahl Speaks at Morning Convocation April 5

Rueben Youngdahl, pastor of Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church in Minneapolis spoke here at the regular morning convocation on April 5.

"Happiness is not a place or a thing," said Youngdahl, "it is an attitude." The brother of Minnesota's governor pointed out that this attitude could be obtained through Christ.

Youngdahl's church was recently selected as first choice in a series of articles in "Christian Century" magazine on the twelve leading protestant churches in America.

Graduate Exams Are Completed by Seniors

Seniors pondered the fickleness of memory and mourned their deficiencies following completion of the Graduate Record examination held April 11 and 13.

General educational tests were followed, Saturday afternoon, by the advanced test, designed to plague each individual in his particular field of endeavor.

Approximately 40 Seniors gathered in the library during the two-day testing session.

The tests, designed to measure the ability of students to enter graduate school, indicate the relative standing of Danians compared to members of their own class, and to college seniors all over the nation. Results also indicate, to some degree, the effectiveness of the college's faculty.

Si Korshoj Donates $1000 to Sports Area

Friends and alumni of Dana have demonstrated concretely their interest in college athletics by cash donations and other expressions of assistance.

The Dana College athletic area fund was given a substantial boost recently when President Morton received a gift of $1,000 for the athletic field from Mr. Si Korshoj of Blair. Mr. Korshoj is a Dana alumnus from 1927-29, and it was his construction firm that built Pioneer Memorial.

During the Easter vacation work on the athletic area progressed rapidly with the assistance of donated labor and equipment. The Hancock Farm Implement Co. of Herman, Nebr., donated grass seed and gave technical suggestions for the best method of seeding the area. Tyson-Long Company of Blair loaned equipment, as did Mr. Merton Jensen of Blair. Mr. Carl Jensen loaned his tractor, drill and donated a day's labor. The contributions of these individuals and companies enabled the college to speedily progress the work with a substantial reduction in costs.

After expressing his sincere thanks for the assistance rendered Dana, President Morton announced that with Mr. Korshoj's gift, the athletic area fund has now $4,120.00 in cash or pledges, raised since last fall, in addition to $914.04 which was raised some years ago.

Dana Is Host to NACC Meet; Governor Speaks

The Nebraska Association of Church Colleges held their annual meeting Saturday, April 15, on the Dana campus. The Association to which Dana is host, is an organization of long standing composed of all of the church colleges in the state.

Governor Val Petersen addressed the assembly at the morning session. In the afternoon meeting, discussions consisting of six faculty departmental groups and a single student group were held. The annual meeting of the association is "an opportunity for the students and faculties of church colleges to get together and share experiences and discuss common problems in the field of Christian higher education," the association president, Rev. R. E. Morton, said.

The twelve Nebraska colleges represented were: Concordia Teachers College, Seward; College of St. Mary, Omaha; Creighton University, Omaha; Dana College, Blair; Doane College, Crete; Duchesne College, Omaha; Hastings College, Hastings; Luther Junior College, Wahoo; Midland College, Fremont; Nebraska Central College, Central City; Nebraska Wesleyan University, Lincoln; and York College, York.

E. Mitchell Speaks at First Lutheran Rally of Washington County

Everett Mitchell, Director of Agriculture for the National Broadcasting Company, was the speaker at the first Lutheran Rally of Washington County which was held in Alumni Memorial, March 28. Mr. Mitchell, who is a member of the Oakland Lutheran Church in Chicago (U.L.C.), speaks each Saturday to a radio audience of approximately seven million people on the National Farm and Home Hour.

The college choir and band, directed by Prof. Neve, participated in the program, the first of the Lutheran rallies to be held in Washington County. These meetings are planned by one pastor and one layman from each Lutheran congregation in the county. The time and place of the next meeting have not yet been announced.

Grasp Your Opportunity

A number of the news items and features in this issue deal with Christian activities on and off the campus. This is not an unusual situation. We are happy that Christianity on this campus is not simply a quiet introspective affair, but is also brought out in action. To have less at a Christian college would be a tragedy. The regular chapel and dormitory devotions, although not usually publicized, and the L.S.A. all contribute an important share in creating and developing Christian unity and strength. The many staunch, strong faithful students, some preparing for the ministry and others for lay positions, are an inspiration and help-living witnesses for the Church.

We do not mean to intimate that all problems, secular as well as spiritual, are solved simply by virtue of attendance at Dana. But Christian Higher Education means more than a tinge of religion in class or rigidly scheduled devotional periods; it is more than this. Moreover, opportunity is gladly provided for help with all manner of spiritual problems. Whether this help be direct as in discussion with one of the faculty clergymen, or the pastor of First Lutheran, or the association with Christian friends in Christian activities, it serves a highly desirable and necessary need.

Dana was organized and designed to help its students and faculty spiritually. Avail yourself of the opportunity.

In a recent editorial the Hermes called attention to the deplorable condition of the much-neglected Recreation Room.

It is gratifying to note that a committee formed to investigate this situation and empowered to make recommendations to the Student Council has completed its report.

Elsewhere in this edition you may read the recommendations.

Board of Trustees Meet

Members of the college Board of Trustees gathered from near and far this week for meetings in the conference room, Pioneer Memorial. Although the agenda was primarily concerned with the budget and not with policy, several topics discussed are of more than financial importance.

Approval of application for North Central accreditation in the fall of 1951 was given the administration, said Board Chairman Rev. Ervin Bondo, who further added that it will be the administration's decision to determine if application should be made at that time.

Revealed also, was the Board's recommendation that no large sum be spent to completely modernize and renovate Old Main. It was decided that sufficient funds be used to maintain Old Main in good operating condition, but that in the long run it would be wiser to construct new facilities and therefore concentrate funds for that purpose, whenever feasible. This recommendation will be brought before the 1950 synodical convention.

Members of the board expressed their approval of the work done in the athletic area. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Si Korshoj for his $1000 donation to the athletic area fund.

Mr. Clemens Vig, because of ill health, tendered his resignation, which the board accepted with regret. Mr. Harold Holm of Racine was elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Vig.

Acting-president of synod Jersild attended his first board meeting as ex-officio member during this session.

The Kingdom of God

L. Mortimer Nielsen

"The Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit." This is the description of the nature of the Kingdom of God given by St. Paul in Romans 14:17.

Jesus answered Pilate's question as to His kingship with the answer: "My Kingdom is not of this world." Yet many people insist, in spite of this declaration of Jesus, that His Kingdom will be a visible Kingdom, organized after the pattern of earthly kingdoms.

We as Christians will fulfill our responsibility to the Kingdom by yielding ourselves to the rule of God; by fighting against the evil forces of opposition; by proclaiming the gospel and by testimony and prayer.

In the reply of Jesus to the Pharisees, demanding to know when the Kingdom of God would come, He answered: "The Kingdom of God cometh not with observation; neither shall they say, Lo here! or, Lo, there! For, behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

In the second petition of the Lord's prayer, we pray: "Thy Kingdom Come," and in the explanation of how this is done we find that God's Kingdom comes "when our heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy word, and live a godly life here on earth, and in heaven forever."

Finally, to the question, what then, is the Kingdom of God? it may be said that it is, essentially, the peace of God which passes understanding, the peace formed by the Holy Spirit in the hearts and lives of men through faith in our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. The Kingdom can be established by the way of the Cross, as the Cross alone is able to destroy sin, and through this victory is peace made possible.

Pray for this peace if it is not yours already.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Chintz: Our Blue-eyed Blonde

ELVA JENSEN

This week's campus spotlight is shining on that handsome, blue-eyed, blonde from Kenmare, North Dakota,—none other than James L. Hansen. James L., who is better known as "Chintz" (Chintz, not Chintzy, that is) was born in Kenmare and has lived there ever since. He was born on August 9, 1930, which makes him all of nineteen years old and a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hansen's little boy is president of the sophomore class this year and can also be seen working in the bookstore. (Well, at least, he can be seen in the bookstore.) He also served on the Student Council last year.

Chintz says his major will be history and his minor will be political science. His future plans are undecided, however.

Chintz had no favorite likes or dislikes that he could name at the moment at which I was interviewing him. He is interested in sports and has played intramural basketball and at present is serving as the sports editor of this newsy newsheet. The Danian staff also claims him as sports editor.

Views of the News

—Jack Christensen

A lot of smoke but not much fire. This is what Senator McCarthy's reckless charges of "Reds in the State Department" has so far amounted to. But there is a possibility that he may uncover something substantial, and while that possibility remains the administration leaders are rapidly acquiring new ulcers. In any case McCarthy's charges can't be brushed aside until the F.B.I. has explored his documents. In the meantime much unpleasant publicity has come to the State Department at a time when it can ill afford it. Consequently the State Department and U. S. foreign policy have become the issue for the 1950 Congressional Campaigns.

So far the record of Secretary of State Dean Acheson hasn't been too good. True, in a recent speech he revealed his carefully formulated policy toward Russia, a policy which calls for total effort in the cold war while still seeking a peaceful means of settling all differences. But what about before this? Since Acheson has been in office, we have been insulted and kicked out of China. The situation in Germany has come to a sickening deadlock—a situation that will have to be cleared up sooner or later, but toward this end no work has as yet been done. Secretary Acheson has lost the confidence of many citizens and with good reason. If the United States is to maintain its important position in world affairs, it is necessary that we have vigorous and effective leadership in the State Department. Secretary Acheson has sadly failed to provide that leadership.

Two respected voices in U. S. affairs have spoken up to bolster defense and peace moves. General Eisenhower has pointed out U. S. defense measures and suggested a larger budget, while Bernard Baruch has called for a central non-partisan agency to wage total peace until the cold war is won. The administration leaders say that the measures now taken are completely adequate, but the opinions of these two prominent men can not be ignored.

"Sower" Reveals Highlights

The 1950 Sower, as most of you know, is Dana's literary anthology of the best (in our opinion at least) of the writings of this year's student body. The deadline for manuscripts was Saturday noon, by the way, and the tentative date for distribution has been set at May 18.

The only major change in editorial policy this year is that the booklet will contain only one of the writings of the editor (due rather to a lack of manuscripts than of conceit—the associate editors, fortunately, have not been so reticent). In accordance with tradition the colour of the ink on the cover will also be changed. We have asked the publisher for wine-coloured ink, and in view of this choice Herb has suggested that Miss Falk write a short invocation to Bacchus by way of introduction, but this suggestion has not yet been acted upon.

In order to raise the scholastic value of the publication the editors have included several essays of literary criticism by such eminent campus critics as Tony Cruz and Arthur Simon. The short story is liberally represented; Bruce Jensen, Charles Andersen, the Cruzes, and your editors are among the contributors. A few choice quotations show the broad range of subject matter:

"The Sergeant crouched in front of the foot locker and shook the dice next to his ear."

"But the question remained unanswered as Mike's lips found Connie's, and he held her close in the stillness of the night."

There are several stories about children (the maternal instinct ran high this year in English 202) and one interesting soliloquy, still under consideration, reads not unlike a Freudian nightmare!

Selections from the writings of eight of our campus poets have already been chosen, pre-eminent among them: Carol Petersen, Doris Bartl, Tony Cruz. Charles Christensen, winner of a Langland Award, while experimenting with a laboratory dog, found himself taking a short trip into the infinite void, and he has written a very nice report of his experiences. Another of his poems is entitled "Lautus ero," meaning, he tells us, "I will be cleaned" (in the best Latin sense, of course).

Now we are sure you want your copy of the Sower, and the number of copies is definitely limited, so order your today from our business manager, Paul Skovlund. The price, while they last, is 50 cents plus postage, if any.

Faculty Study Plan Outlined

Pres. Morton announced that the Board of Trustees, in their recent meeting, outlined a graduate study plan for the members of the college faculty. Under the plan the faculty members will receive a stipend from the college for graduate work during the summer months. The program is in line with the Aid to Growth plan of the North Central Association, and in formulating the plan the Board of Trustees is acting upon one of the suggestions made by Dr. Neal in his N.C.A. report of last year.

A similar program is being considered for seminary faculty members whereby they would receive aid during the school year for graduate study.

Gift of Books Welcomed

One of the things that helps cheer a conscientious librarian with limited funds available is related by our Miss Hoidahl:

Shortly before Christmas, there came a letter from a gentleman in Chicago, asking if the Dana College Library could make use of some books from his library. In response to our letter saying that we could, especially in certain fields, there has come to the library from time to time since then, from Charles A. Heinze of Chicago quite a number of books of fiction, travel, biography, and business—welcome additions indeed to our book collection. Just how Mr. Heinze found out about Dana College is not known to us but we are glad that he has us on his book mailing list.

Cupid Unleashes Attack

Cupid's sharp marksman-eye proved itself again during the Easter holidays when his well-aimed arrows found their marks among three lady Hill dwellers here. Targets of his attack came into view with the announcements of the engagements of Esther Erickson, Denver, Wilma Christensen, Cozad, Nebr., and Joan R. Peterson, Portland, Me.

The partner victims who fell are respectively: Ezra Larsen, a former Danian now teaching at Storm Lake, Ia., Wilbur Quelle, teacher training student at Midland College, and Arthur Sorensen, Trinity Seminary junior.

BUNGLINGS By BECK

It happened. A very hepped-up, very lucky Madcat quintet upset the favored Lyle Morgensen-coached Robots 29-27 to win the 1950 intramural crown. Verlan Hansen of the Robots went to the showers via the foul route not long after the half. Don Peterson got 12 points for the Madcats while Jack Kitterman led the Robots with 10.

I didn't see the game. It was in the bag; the Robots just couldn't lose. I was also gone all day Sunday. But when I got up to the dorm at 10:00 Sunday night and saw Jack "Hot-Shot" Kitterman beating his head against the water fountain, I began to suspect that something might have happened. Everyone knows that my buddy Jack is one of the most level-headed fellows on the campus. I was astounded. I looked him in the eyes. "Jack," I said, "what is wrong?" He barked and then bit me on the leg.

Undaunted, I sought out Phil Christensen, another Robot stalwart. "Philip," I asked, "why is Kitterman beating his head against the 4th floor water fountain?"

Phil crawled out from under the bed and looked puzzled. Then he said, "I thought he was using the 3rd floor fountain!" I looked out the door. Verlan "Diz" Hansen and Bob "Beady-Eyes" Hansen were taking turns at that one. Art Simon and Jim "Big Wheel" Hansen had, so I was told, moved their belongings to the dormitory roof. Jim Jorgensen has locked himself in the Bio Lab. I went back to see Jack. As I came down the hall toward him, he growled. It finally dawned on me. "Jack," I exclaimed, "you didn't lose—AGAIN?"

For the sake of any innocent, unblemished souls who may read this I will not quote Mr. Kitterman's reply.

Well, Jack, if you weren't a senior I'd say—"Better luck next time."

*For the benefit of those who aren't aware of it—Mr. Kitterman has narrowly missed being on the top team for the last two or three years. Before now we, his buddies, have been able to say, "If at first you don't succeed..." but now we can't even say that.

Coach Peterson Announces 1950 Grid Schedule

Dana's mentor, Paul Peterson, has released the tentative 1950 football schedule. The Viking gridders open against Tarkio here on September 22 and finish with Concordia November 10. Midland College will be Dana's Homecoming foe on the home field October 27.

Dana meets:

Sept. 22	Tarkio	here
Sept. 29	Nebraska Central	there
Oct. 6	Norfolk	here
Open	Oct. 13
Open	Oct. 20
Midland	Oct. 27	Homecoming
Fairbury	Nov. 3	there
Concordia	Nov. 10	here

Pete says that the two open dates will most likely be played against Luther College of Wahoo, Nebraska, and Buena Vista College of Storm Lake, Iowa.

Plans Made to Fete 1932 Gridders, 1950 NIAA Champs at Annual Banquet

During the past few weeks, Coach Peterson has been making plans for the annual Athletic Banquet, but this year's plans are much more extensive than any previous year. The Dana athletes plan to be hosts to the undefeated 1932 football team and the undefeated 1949-50 NIAA basketball team.

It will be the first time in the history of Dana that attempts have been made to bring together again the 1932 champs. These champion Dana gridders wayer the 1932 champs. These 6-0; Creston, Iowa, 18-12; Nebraska Central, 18-7; Concordia, 20-0; and Hebron 30-7.

Old grads that were on the varsity squad that year are: Clarence Vig, Mert Jensen (fullback), Nell Johnson (quarterback), Stan Jensen (halfback), Roy Christensen (end), Waldon George (tackle), all of Blair; and Harrison, Logan, Ia.; Milton Petersen, Los Angeles; Luther Lincoln, Oakland, Calif.; Albert Petersen, Vineland, N. J.; Lorentz Thorngren, Audubon, Ia.; Edward Andersen, Oakland, Cal.; Jack Sides, Logan, Ia.; and Robert Larsen, Spencer, Ia.

Five football players-turned-pastors were also on the squad: Rev. Wesley Andersen, Rutland, Ia.; Rev. William Larsen, Minneapolis; Rev. Dolliver Thorgensen, West Branch, Ia.; Rev. Verner Carlsen, Kenmare, N. Dak.; and Rev. Erwin Bondo, Des Moines.

Another teammate, Aage Nommenson (guard), is now living in Copenhagen, Denmark. He has been contacted, but he will most likely miss the gathering of his old teammates.

Girls Finish 1949-50 Intramural Basketball

The girls' basketball tournament came to a close when Team 3 defeated Team 4 4-25, and Team 2 won over Team 1 32-26. The tournament was very exciting and sportsmanship was at its best. Lois Petersen, Colleen Crees, Norma Nielsen, Colleen Wilson, and Dorothy Lauritsen were high scorers during the tournament. Softball will soon be under way.

Spring Work Nears Completion on Athletic Field

About all the work that is possible has been done on the new Dana Athletic field. Over Easter vacation the grading was completed and members of the "D" Club helped with the seeding. Some work is still to be done, however, and the members of the "D" Club, especially, are urged to volunteer their services.

Dana's Nine Lose to Wesleyan, 5-4; Thinclads Fade in Triangular Meet

1950 Gridders To Train at Okobojo, Iowa

Coach Paul Petersen reports that definite plans have been made for the use of the Okobojo resort park in Northern Iowa for the 1950 football gridders. The squad will workout from Tuesday, August 22, to Sunday, September 3. Besides working out in the usual football pre-season fashion, the players will do clean-up and repair work on the grounds of the park.

Golf Team Readies for Spring Season

So far the Vike's golfing schedule is quite small, but the season looks bright anyway as the team boasts such golfers as Jim Youmans, Jack Kitterman, Lyle Morgensen, Ray Christensen, Lenny Christensen and Jim Sorensen. Freshman Darrel Nelson, too, potentially is the Dana sparkplug. He looked in top shape last fall and has been improving, even, this spring. Dana has just one meet planned so far with Creighton on April 29.

Dana's Vikings had to take low spot on the totem pole when they met Concordia and Wesleyan in a Triangular track meet in Lincoln Friday. Dana totaled only 42½ points while the Wesleyan Plainmen had 70 and Concordia 57¾. Del Miller was the standout of the event, copping both dashes.

Dana's nine went down to defeat at the hands of the Wesleyan nine, 5-4, after leading the Plainmen through eight innings of play. The nine from Lincoln made use of a 3 run ninth inning to cinch the game. Bob "Lefty" Hanson was on the mound for the Vikes and seemed to be in no trouble until the expensive ninth inning. He had a total of 15 strikeouts throughout the entire game and only gave up 4 bases on balls. Bob Nelson was the high hitter for Dana. Kropp, Gustafson, and Squires were the battery for Wesleyan.

Intramurals & Track--

By Dirty

Once again, after the end of the regular season, the intramural teams engaged in their annual tournament. After several inter close squeaks the Madcats emerged as tournament champs. One of the outstanding characteristics of the games was the large number of fouls called. Several teams were forced to play out the games with four players.

It's always tough to make predictions about track performances because so many things enter into consideration. However, it looks like Dana will have another strong track aggregation this year. Work was done on the new athletic field over vacation and the thinclads will finally have a place to work out.

Besides twelve returning vets, several promising freshmen and newcomers have turned out. Bill Hansen and Rol Seegars look good in the sprints. Ralph Fabricius will also add depth in this department. Lloyd Lorensen seems a good bet in the 440 and also works in weights. Two new milers have turned up in the persons of Bob Coffey and Lyle Kohler. Darry Nelsen will work in the high hurdles and broad jump. Kenny Petersen will also broad jump. Gerald Borglum will compete in the two-mile. Olie Ahlquist seems to be an excellent prospect in the pole vault while Linwood Frederickson has reported for the hurdles.

Daisy Maes Drag Males to Sadie Hawkins Party

After many long weeks of desperate plotting the Dana Daisy Mae's finally arrived at the gym March 25 dragging their male captives. Attired in the latest Dogpatch styles, complete with patches and gunny sacks, the couples arrived to celebrate the annual Sadie Hawkins Day sponsored by the freshman class.

The guest of honor for the occasion was Salome, present in her royal pen in one corner of the gym. Top Dogpatch talent was displayed by a boys' quartet, a girls' trio and a hill-billy band.

Committee Submits Tentative Proposals For Recreation Room

The committee appointed to study the recreation hall situation has embodied in its report to the Student Council a series of recommendations designed to return that room to its former state of usability.

The proposals are tentative, and are not binding upon the council, but serve as a basis for further examination. Alternative possibilities were given in case it was necessary to keep costs to a minimum.

When the student council has agreed upon a plan, the matter will be brought before the student body for deliberation.

The tentative plan proposed, together with an estimate of costs, is listed below:

- $300 for new lounge and two love seats (or purchase a second hand lounge.)
- $25 approximately for curtain to separate lounge area (or no curtain to reduce costs).
- $100 for movable game cabinet (or rebuild a desk).
- $30 for games (ping pong paddles, nets, chess, carom board, puzzles, dominoes, chinese checkers, darts, etc.).
- $15 to renovate and repaint radio and phonograph.
- Return card tables. Paint folding tables. Return armchairs and wooden tables.
- Repair holes in ceiling.
- $25 for new paint job.
- Obtain coke machine, if possible.

Members of the committee are: John Hansen, chairman; Glennis DeVasure, Paul Jersild, Darrell Nelsen and Edie Skobo.

ket, stepped forward to receive their prize as the best-dressed couple. Voluminously garbed as leading lady of Dogpatch, Jeanne Ardis Nielsen received first prize in the girls' division while Kenny Christensen (6'10") won first place among the boys.

After a lively evening of games, the Dogpatch citizens devoured cookies and sipped Kickapoo Joy Juice, their national beverage.

Venetian Blinds and Hymnals Purchased for Old Main

New venetian blinds and a complete set of 45 music edition hymnals have recently been purchased for Old Main Chapel through the joint efforts of the student body and the Dana L.S.A. Fifty dollars were donated for the purchase of the hymnals by a former student of Dana who wishes to remain anonymous. The remainder of the cost of the books was supplemented by the L.S.A. and the student body.

The blinds, purchased in Omaha by the L.S.A. and the student body, help to eliminate to a certain extent the former, harsh barrenness of the room.

History Club Adds Andersen Speaks at Several Volumes to Annual Palm Sunday Breakfast at Midland Library's Shelves

The History Club has recently purchased several new books for the library. All of them have to do with the history of the United States. Two of them are specifically about individual states; they are; Building Minnesota by Blegen, and The Story of Wisconsin by Thwaites. Three of them are about our frontier history; namely, Western America by Hafen and Rister, Farthest Frontier by Warren, and Prairie Schooner Detours by Paden. Two by Madariaga are about the Spanish American empire. They are entitled Rise of the Spanish American Empire and Fall of the Spanish American Empire. Several others, including histories of Iowa and Illinois, have been ordered but have not yet arrived.

Approximately sixty Danians journeyed to Fremont April 2, for the annual Palm Sunday breakfast with the L.S.A.'s of Midland and Luther colleges. The meal and the program, sponsored by the Midland L.S.A. were held in the Community Room of the city auditorium.

LeRoy Andersen of Dana presented a challenging message on "Palm Sunday Christianity." Also included in the program was a welcome by Rev. Baughman of Midland, scripture reading by Norlan Hansen, regional president; prayer by an L.S.A.'er from Luther, a welcome by Herb Ringo, president of the Midland chapter, and a marimba solo by Jeanette Owen of Midland.

This fellowship is rapidly becoming a tradition of the Easter season among these Christian colleges.
