Four Year Scholarship Plan Established by Trustees

Four-year $500 Honor scholarships have been established by the board of trustees of Dana college for entering freshman students. These new scholarships are available to students in selected high schools within a radius of 100 miles of Blair and in high schools where young people who are members of U.E.L.C. churches are in attendance.

Concert Group To Book Artists

Concert artists, such as Percy Grainger and the Don Cossacks, will appear under the sponsorship of the Blair Mutual Concert association if plans now underway are successful.

Under the leadership of Dr. A. T. Jipp, president, the association plans to work with the college in an effort to bring quality entertainment to the Blair area. In the past the college has booked and underwritten all artists as a part of its lyceum program. Such a set-up, however, places too heavy a burden of expense on the college.

With the proposed plan memberships in the association will be sold beginning next month in the Blair area at $5 for a season of at least three concerts. Students will automatically become members of the association as part of their activity fee at a cost of $2.50.

Pryor Artists Booking association, Council Bluffs, Iowa, will handle the booking of all concerts and will aid in the formation of the Blair organization.

Pres. Morton stated that the new arrangement between college and community is a common one.

Seminary Quartette To Conduct Service

Bringing the Gospel in word and song, the Seminary quartette will conduct morning and evening services at Highland Park Lutheran church, Des Moines, Iowa on Sunday, Feb. 24. The quartette is composed of Hillerup Rasmussen, Edward Eskildsen, Paul Johnsen and Norlan Hansen.

The group will conduct the morning services using the topic "To Thee God We Praise." In the evening, the quartette will present a program of music and short devotional talks.

To qualify for this scholarship the student must meet the following requirements: 1. Rank scholastically in the upper 25 per cent of the graduating class. 2. Have above average record of participation in extra-curricular activities. 3. Be of good, sound moral character. 4. Recommended by competent persons, normally by high school officials. In the large metropolitan areas the highest ranking high school senior in a U.E.L.C. congregation, if he qualifies, will be awarded a scholarship since the churches have such a small representation in these large schools.

The recipients will receive $125 tuition credit in the second semester of their freshman year and of each succeeding year in which they qualify. To qualify for this scholarship each year the student must achieve at least a 1.50 grade point average in his freshman year, a 1.75 in his sophomore year and 2.00 in his junior year.

These new scholarships will replace the present Board of Trustee scholarships.

Club to Promote Christian Service

Male students met in Old Main chapel Monday after evening devotions to complete plans for the creation of a Young Men's Christian Service association on the campus.

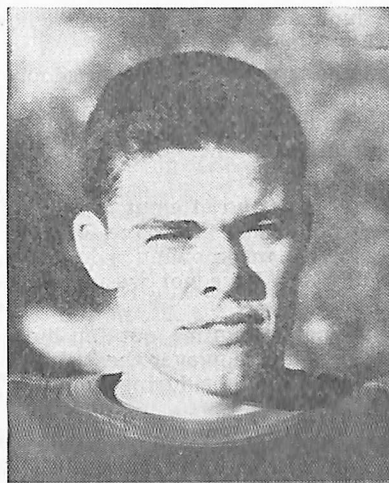

The new organization, which is an outgrowth of the Pre-Sem club, plans to carry on Christian service work and fellowship and is open to all interested students. Teams will be sent to the old people's homes in Blair as well as the First Lutheran Boy's club.

Bible studies on Sunday mornings will still be continued as a club project. Plans were also discussed for trips to Jewish synagogues and churches of other denominations.

Neil Moore Cops Title In Omaha Tournament

A tremendous right to the jaw, a figure lumbering to the canvas and the fight was over. So was the first climax to three years of hard work. By now it is obvious that the man under discussion is Neil Moore.

Last Saturday night when Neil punched husky Ted Mills, Kearney State football player, into submission in the second round of the Midwest Golden Gloves championship in Omaha, knocking his opponent to the canvas three times before he decided he would rather be down than up, the climax came.

Neil Moore

Looking back to his high school days, Neil had shown at that time a tremendous amount of natural ability and had learned fast, winning several fights and showing lots of spunk in those he lost.

In his sophomore year of college he set out on the trail of his goal in the light heavyweight class. Training long hard hours he worked to win the Midwest tournament.

He attracted the confidence of Frank Orent, former outstanding professional fighter, and Coach Keith Skogman. Aiding him with his training Neil entered the tournament at Lincoln this year and wasted little time in showing the power of his fists. With amazing force he pounded his way right into the championship with three knockouts.

He now had the chance to win the Midwest Golden Gloves light heavyweight championship. With the only thought in mind, that of victory, he drew a rugged Grand

Movie, 'Snake Pit', Showing Tonight

"Snake Pit" may be described as a movie which is partly an introductory lecture on psychiatry, partly an expose of overcrowding and neglect in state hospitals for mental diseases, partly a good old-fashioned freak show, but most of all Hollywood's first honest and unflinching look into the minds of the insane with all their terror, bewilderment and frustration.

Tonight the Literary club will sponsor the showing of this film, "Snake Pit", in Pioneer Memorial chapel beginning at 7p.m.

The themes of the film are loosely connected in the story of a girl named Virginia Cunningham who is committed to an asylum, suffers terribly from the conditions there, which are shown with brutal realism, and is finally put back on the road to sanity by an understanding psychiatrist.

This is the fifth in a series of films being brought to the campus this year. Admission is 25 cents.

Students to Pause For Brief Prayer

Dana college students will participate with other college and university students in a special observation of World Day of Prayer.

Each year the National Council of Churches sponsors a World Day of Prayer. In an attempt to make students at West Virginia universities realize the importance of this day, Sigma Theta Epsilon, National Methodist men's fraternity, last year got permission from the university administration to have instructors pause for a moment of prayer during a morning class period.

With success of the plan locally the fraternity decided to contact as many colleges and universities as possible asking them to participate in the project. Thus on Feb. 29 all participating schools across the nation will pause in their class work at approximately the same time to ask God's guidance in the future. The entire project attempts to be nondenominational so that all will take part.

Plan Activities, It Pays

Mediocrity results from lack of planning, but success comes with preparation.

The junior class must have had this for its motto in connection with the work on "The Mikado", for success came without a doubt. However, it was with months of "blood, sweat and tears" that all was accomplished. With a constant working spirit, planning knowledge and attention to details the result was dramatically, musically and financially rewarding.

Other organizations might take a hint from this and direct more effort into their future projects. It pays!

Let us say then—"Hats off to the junior class and all those who participated in the production of "The Mikado."

Planning is the by-word that more students would do well in adopting. It is interesting to note how often you hear someone say—"Say, am I pressed for time. I have so much work to do." Yet it is obvious that this person actually has plenty of time, but just has never learned how to make use of it.

To some it sounds silly to plan a day's work and attempt to accomplish so much in that day. Yet those who do just that have found it pays. There is a tremendously good feeling in knowing you have done all you should on a particular day and have not wasted time needlessly.

This does not mean that you should not take time out for bull-sessions, "farcing" and all other entertainment. However these things should be done in spare time, not 24 hours a day nor during time that you know you have work to do.

Someone once suggested that people would do well if they paused at the end of a day and examined exactly what they accomplished in the course of that day. Many would find that they wasted so much time that they would actually be ashamed.

Thinking students would adopt the following suggestion. Plan your day first of all to meet all the obligations you should, and then use the spare time in whatever way you think fitting.

Production Proves Successful

The brilliantly produced operetta, "The Mikado," was presented at the Dana auditorium Wednesday, Feb. 13, at 8:15 p.m. Phil Kaldahl and company worked hard to present a memorable production. The lilting music of Arthur Sullivan and humorous wit of W. S. Gilbert flooded the auditorium as the operetta progressed.

To choose a single showstopper is an impossibility with such performers, who captivated the approval of the audience. Don Olsen (KoKo) clowned, ad libed and bounced around as a veritable trooper. Joyce Petersen (Yum-Yum) smilingly sang herself into the hearts of her hearers, as her suitor, Nank-Poo (Rod Knudsen), also found a tremendous approval for his fluent tenor, Kathy Nielsen (Katisha) bewitched her spectators with her witchcraft and vocal abilities. The impractical ruler of Japan, the Mikado (Paul Johnsen), dashed in and knocked everyone down with a barrage of hilarious antics. Pish-Tush (John Bendorf), Pooh-Bah (Ray Wecknueller) and the two wards of the Mikado (Esther Lank and Marilyn Jacob) received praise for their vocal abilities and their fine portrayals.

The colorfully costumed choruses did their routines and sang in a manner that was appreciated by the audience for their seeming lack of fright or tension.

Frank Jespersen deserves praise for his oriental background and properties. Likewise the Omaha Central Opera orchestra, under the direction of Noyes N. Bartholomew, contributed immensely to the success and quality of the performance. Prof. Paul E. Neve, choral director, also deserves praise.

Letters to Editor

Dear Editor,

I cannot begin to thank all the people that worked on "The Mikado", for so many helped in so many ways. I want to thank all the members of the committees, the cast, the administration, maintenance department, the two deans, the kitchen crew and all others who helped in one way or another to make the production a success. A special note of thanks is due to Mr. Snowbeck, our adviser, who not only solved some of our problems, but also kept prodding us at our various tasks. It made us feel we had to work or avoid meeting him, so we worked.

Again, I want to thank all for their cooperation. And I believe that the production shows not only the value, but also the result of cooperation.

Phil Kaldahl

When people get down to bed-rock, food and water and sleep are not luxuries. So also is faith in God. It is literally true—there are no atheists in foxholes.

Girls Berate College Men

Dear Editor: Before entering college we had great expectations concerning the college man. Needless to say we were gravely disappointed.

What has happened to the rugged, outdoor man? He is no longer rugged. He eats soft food, sleeps too much, and considers the slightest physical exertion too much for him. He is never outdoors, his social life being centered around the parlor.

An energetic game of chess or a snappy bull session is all the exercise he gets. One glance at his apparel would make you doubt whether he is even a man.

Masculine individuality has become a mirage. It seems that everything he does is inspired by the group to which he belongs. His aims in life are determined by what others have decided to be worthwhile goals. He no longer has the power to think and decide for himself.

These are observations made by girls at Syracuse university. Will the men stand for denouncement such as this or is it true?

Ernest Thoughts

Libel was the word thrown at me last week by P. C. Johnsen, because he did not like the mention I made of him in last week's Ernest Thoughts, especially in reference to his dishonesty. Trial of the case was held Tuesday in room 301, Men's dorm.

I fought hard to uphold the rights of freedom of the press and to print the untarnished truth. Peter Zenger never fought more courageously for this freedom himself. But in my case justice proved its evil ways as the judge would not allow more time for the defense so the principles for which news men have fought so deliberately took a reverse step.

Welcome is due to two students who returned late this semester, Janet Justesen and Floyd Jorgensen. Glad to see you both back!

Be sure to read the article on scholarships on the front page. They appear to be a real deal for freshmen. I would suggest if you know any eligible prospective college students, it might not hurt to give them a line on these scholarships—$500 is $500.

More staff revisions were made this week on the HERMES. With the addition of a regular feature editor, I hope we can bring more and better features to our pages. Suggestions for such are always wide open, since we want to give you what you desire. — B. H.

News Flashes

The declamatory contest will be held tomorrow evening in Pioneer Memorial chapel beginning at 8 p.m. Entrants in the contest are Kenneth H. Christensen, Sylvia Siersbeck, Frank Jespersen and Kathie Bender.

Members of the a cappella choir will travel to Council Bluffs, Iowa, next Sunday to present a complete concert at Our Savior's Lutheran church.

Purchase of a much-needed spotlight for the auditorium was completed in time for use during "The Mikado" and will be available now for use at all productions. Also completed was a platform near the ceiling of the auditorium to facilitate the use of a spotlight directed upon the stage.

What has happened to the rugged, outdoor man? He is no longer rugged. He eats soft food, sleeps too much, and considers the slightest physical exertion too much for him. He is never outdoors, his social life being centered around the parlor.

Students Asked To Donate Blood

Students will be asked to donate blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile arrives in Blair March 5 through 6.

Anyone over 18 may contribute blood, but all who are under 21 must have parents written consent. Cards may be obtained from Mrs. Helen Nelson, nurse, to be sent home for signature.

The bloodmobile will be at the Methodist church on the fifth and at the Episcopal parish hall on the sixth.

The bloodmobile coming to Blair serves 40 counties in western Iowa and eastern Nebraska, and recruitment in Blair is handled by the American Legion.

Chris' Comments

John Christensen

Last weekend Neil Moore punched his way to the Midwest Golden Gloves light heavyweight crown in Omaha. This Saturday the Midwest team will leave for the national championship matches to be held in Chicago. Many an amateur boxer has worked his way up through the ranks of the Golden Gloves, and by the time he gains the national tournament you can be sure that he is a pretty good boxer. One of the things that makes the national rough is that most of the fighters who reach this position are planning on entering the ring professionally.

You can be sure that by the time they reach the national all the fighters have had their easiest matches. For Neil and the rest of the Midwest champs it looks like some rough tilts. Although there may be no Dana students in the crowd at these fights, one thing is sure, and that is that every Dana student will be pulling for Neil to wrap up a national title, too.

Next week the Vikings will play the last regularly scheduled basketball game of the 1951-52 season. Remaining games are the Tarkio game, Saturday night, the last conference game of the year; a game here February 28 with Tabor; and the final game of the year with William Penn on March 1. A victory over Tarkio Saturday would considerably boost Dana stock among Central Church College conference followers and also put a bright mark on an otherwise dismal record.

What to look forward to in the coming baseball and track season is hard to say, but all Dana rooters are hoping for better seasons than the past football and basketball seasons.

Omahans Defeat Dana Girls, 55-45

The Dana girls' basketball team, although leading by ten points at the half, were defeated Saturday night by the score of 55-45 by a girls' team from Omaha.

Bernice Christensen, Joyce Petersen and Clarice Fredericksen paced the losers with 16, 15 and nine points respectively.

Friday night the teams of Mari- on Andersen and Bernice Christensen battled it out for the championship.

Again the Iowa combination of Bernice and Clarice Fredericksen proved to be successful with Bernice's team running off with the game and the tournament by a score of 53-25.

Clarice led the scoring with 31 tallies; Bernice was second with 22. Ellen Olesen with 13 was high scorer for the losers.

Tarkio, Tabor Tilts Last Home Games

Playing their 16th and 17th games of the regular season, the Vikings take on Tarkio and Tabor colleges here on Saturday and Thursday nights, respectively.

Two losses to Tarkio this season, one in the Central Church College conference tournament 70-48 will be tossed aside as Dana goes all out to win this one. The other defeat 64-58 at the hands of Tarkio showed that both teams are capable of fine ball. Led by Bob Dodge, the Owls can put a 17-man squad on the floor. The Missourians are a fast squad and list eight freshmen on their roster.

Meeting the Vikes here Thursday, Feb. 28, will be the Tabor college ten from Hillsboro, Kans. Having defeated Sterling, Kans. earlier in the season, the visitors promise to bring a formidable crew. If scores mean anything, then Dana's humiliation at the hands of Sterling is an indication of a hard evening of basketball.

Intramural Box Score

In the past two weeks, 10 intramural basketball games were played. The results are here listed.

Quein Sabe vs. Harlem Earth Pacers

Both teams placed only three men on the floor for the beginning of the contest, which was won by the Quein Sabe 40-35. Mark Thomsen had 21 points for the winners while John Hansen and Joe Hancock each had ten for the losers.

Has Beens vs. Eight Balls

The Eight Balls are still behind the eight ball for they lost 31-25 to the lowly Has Beens. Dick Jensen hit for 18 points for the winners, while Arvin Quist hit for eight for the losers.

Scrounges vs. Harold's Club

The Scrounges keep rolling merrily along as they beat another intramural team. In the 31-18 game, the Scrounges' Red Jensen was high pointer with seven and Craig Nielsen and Ronell Raaum each hit six points for the Harold's Club.

Third Conference Win Gained; Luther Wins

Vikings Defeat Luther Humbles York, 73-65 Dana Five, 56-51

Victory over the York college cagers of York, Nebr., 73-65, by the Dana Vikings put the Danes in second place in Central Church College conference standings. The Vikings have a 3-2 conference record.

In the conference tilt on the York courts, Lloyd Lorensen hit for the Viking scoring honors with 18 points. Bob Nelson pushed through 15 and Gunnar Nyholm and Harold McKercher each racked up 13.

Leading from the start, the Vikings slowly widened the gap from two points at the end of the first period to 11 at halftime and 17 at the conclusion of the third quarter.

In conference tournament play at Tarkio in December, the Vikings whipped the York quintet 78-75. Later York retaliated with a 59-55 victory on the local courts.

Scrounges took the Skirts by a 29-16 margin. Red Jensen led the attack with ten points, while Duane Jensen scored six for the losers.

Holy Rollers vs Has Beens

Scoring 13 points, Bob Hansen led the Holy Rollers in defeating the Has Beens 21-13. Richard Jensen scored eight points for the losers.

Troopers vs. Quein Sabe

The Quein Sabe went down in defeat by a 30-23 count. Jack Scott paced the Troopers with 11 points and Gay Hafar put in six for the losers.

Harlem Earth Pacers vs Eight Balls

John Hansen scored nine points for the Pacers, but the Eight Balls won 24-11. Al Hansen scored seven points as the pacer of the Eight Balls.

Abekatte vs. Harold's Club

The Harold's Club had only four men in this game, but won by a score of 30-24. Craig Nielsen scored 12 for the winners, while Dick Jacobsen scored eight for the Abekatte.

Abekatte vs. Fakers

The Abekatte beat the Fakers by a 34-26 margin as Tom Nelson led the Abekatte attack with 17

Led by Don Machacek, who found the net for 27 points, the Luther ten edged the Dana squad 56-51 in a thrilling tussle here Tuesday night. It was a "fight-to-the-finish" game that saw the small speedy Wahoo team ahead all the way. Period scores were 27-19, 37-26 and 48-40.

Playing their hearts out against a tall Dana ten, the visitors time after time snared the ball and raced the length of the court to lay one up and add another two points. When they were not fast-breaking the Red and White, they were calmly waiting their chance for an opening and another two-pointer. The defense thrown up by the Red and White was completely baffled in the first half.

Then in the second half the Dana squad caught fire and broke the game wide open. Whittling the visitors lead to 55-51 late in the last frame, the Vikes desperately tried to send it into an overtime but again fell short in a heart-breaking finish.

points. Paul Jahnke poured 13 points through the nets for the Fakers.

Holy Rollers vs. Bachelors

The Holy Rollers nosed out the Bachelors 23-19. Bob Hansen hit nine points for the Holy Rollers, while Vaughn Christensen's eight points were high for the Bachelors.

Moore Wins Title

Island fighter, Miko Valasek, in his first fight at Omaha. Valasek proved a real test, but then the roof fell in on the Grand Islander, and Neil found his hand being raised in victory.

Ted Mills, an outstanding Kearney State football player, now stood between Moore and the title. In the second round of the fight a tremendous right to the jaw settled Mills to the canvas. The fight was over and Neil Moore was light heavyweight champion of the tournament.

Chicago will be the next stop for Neil as he travels next Saturday to compete in the "Tournament of Champions." Fighters from Cleveland westward will assemble to battle for their respective crowns. From there the winners go to New York for the National championship bouts and finally to Europe for the World's championship.

Fans from Dana, Blair and Nebraska will be watching closely and cheering for more victories.

Helping to set up the new soil testing laboratory is a Danish graduate engineer, Nels Bach.

Under the sponsorship of the American Scandinavian foundation Mr. Bach is observing methods of research and experimentation in America and will be at Dana for two weeks. He has done graduate work at the University of Copenhagen and holds the equivalent to a master's degree.
