Shakespeare Students Stage Elizabethan Scenes, April 27 Annual Evening Begins at 8 p.m. in Auditorium

Dana's annual Elizabethan Evening will be presented on Friday, April 27, in the Alumni Memorial Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., under the direction of Dr. H. Engelman. Witty and dramatic scenes from The Merchant of Venice and As You Like It will be rendered in colorful Elizabethan costumes by the students of the Shakespeare class. The stage director is Lonnie Hayne.

Jane Jensen and Gary Lebeck, as Portia and Bassanio, are the romantic leads in "The Wooing of Portia"; her other suitors, the Princes of Morocco and Aragon, are played by David Barber and Hans Willadsen.

Also featured will be two delightful scenes in the Forest of Arden from As You Like It. JoAnn Urie plays Rosalind disguised in boy's clothes, and Jack Hill is Orlando, who does not realize this "stranger" is the girl whom he loves.

The dramatic finale is the presentation of Shylock's trial from The Merchant of Venice with Gerald Kruse starring as old Shylock and Sandra Warman as Portia, the "Daniel Come to Judgment."

Also featured will be Elizabethan music and the model of Shakespeare's Globe Theater, to which additional touches are being added this year, including the setting of a scene from MacBeth. Admission charge will be 25¢.

Welsch Guide for Nebraska Tour

Professor Roger Welsch is conducting a tour of eastern Nebraska, hitting parts of historical and geological interest, Saturday, April 28.

Such places as the oldest church building in Nebraska, Indian battlegrounds, the Mormon cemetery, stone quarries (where the group will gather fossils) and Fort Atkinson will be visited by the group.

The tour is open to any student on campus. Box lunches will be prepared by the kitchen staff. The group will leave from Mickelsen Hall at 9 a.m. and will return at about 4 p.m.

Anyone interested in taking this tour may contact Professor Welsch in Pioneer Memorial 301 for further details. Cost will be approximately $1 for incidental expenses.

Parents' Visitation Set for April 29

Sunday, April 29, is the day of the Dana College Fourth Annual Parents' Day. This day is set aside to give the parents of Dana students and parents of prospective students an opportunity to visit the Dana campus and to become better acquainted with the college.

The day's program begins with formal worship service at 11:00 a.m. at First Lutheran Church or the church of their choice. Following the worship service, all parents will be dinner guests of the college in the college cafeteria.

Beginning at 2:15 p.m., the Parents' Day Program will get underway in Borup Coliseum. Following the program will be the formal dedication service of the new gymnasium.

From 5:00-6:00 p.m. campus open house will be held during which parents and friends are invited to visit any and all buildings on the campus.

The evening program will feature Mr. Audun Ravnán, pianist, in concert in Borup Coliseum.

Yell-Leaders Picked; Jensen Re-elected

Three cheerleaders for next year were chosen on Thursday night, April 5. Re-elected to the squad was Judi Jensen, a freshman from Audubon, Iowa. New cheerleaders are Candy Bamesberger, Hampton, Nebraska, and Linda Money, Blair, Nebraska. Both girls are freshmen.

Tryouts will be held again next fall to choose the remaining members of the cheerleading squad.

Herbert Philbrick Relates 'Zero Hour for America' Communist Counterspy Here Monday

"I know what the communists are out to do in the United States!" says Herbert A. Philbrick, who for nine years worked with the communists while counterspying on them for the FBI. His testimony at the trial of the eleven top U. S. communists before Judge Harold Medina in 1949 cracked the communist defense and helped convict them of conspiring to overthrow the U. S. Government.

On Monday night, April 16, at 8:00 p.m., Mr. Philbrick will speak on the subject "Zero Hour for America." The lecture will be given in the Alumni Memorial Auditorium.

"Knowing how the communists operate," continued Mr. Philbrick in a recent interview, "as well as the techniques they use to spread their influence through the ranks of American citizenry, I want to warn that anyone, no matter how innocent, can unwittingly become a dupe of the communists. Quietly, imperceptibly, they infiltrate the most worthy organizations, involving innocent men and women in their schemes."

Philbrick Joins Party in '44

Unlike a great many Americans, Mr. Philbrick beat the communists at their own game before being caught in the great conspiracy. In 1940 he discovered that they had very quietly taken over the reins of a suburban youth group he headed outside of Boston, Massachusetts. Instead of resigning in the heat of his first anger, he went to the FBI for advice. They suggested he stay in and learn what the communists were going to do. After making the difficult decision to stay, Philbrick let himself apparently be argued over to the communist way of thinking, joined the Young Communist League in 1942 and two years later he was invited to join the Party. After taking this fateful step Philbrick gradually rose in the Party ranks until he was made a member of the Pro-4 group which master-minded communist strategy in the area.

As a member of the inner circle, Philbrick saw the communists trick innocent clergymen into signing petitions, circulate them among other reputable individuals who would add their names on the basis of the previous signers and then alter the wording of the petitions.

In his talk, Philbrick describes how he was innocently drawn in-

Waldorf College Choir Sings Sacred Concert

Tonight, at 8:00 p.m., the Waldorf College Choir of Forest City, Iowa, will present an a capella concert of sacred music at First Lutheran Church.

The sixty-six voice choir, under the direction of Professor Odvin Hagen, includes in its repertoire such selections as Bach's "Sing Ye to the Lord," "I Know the Touch of his Hand" by Dorothy Lowell and F. Melius Christiansen's "Oh, Darkest Woe."

This special concert will take the place of this week's Lenten worship at First Lutheran. A free will offering will be taken and given to the choir.

REMEMBER JESUS CHRIST

The Lenten season is fast coming to a close. Many of us have given up something during this season to make us more aware of and more like Christ in our everyday living.

Posters have been placed on P.M. bulletin board connotating the seven last words of Christ. Christ's last words on the cross were "It is finished." He gave His life for us, what have we given for Him?

The Lenten boxes were put through the campus mail seven weeks ago. I hope and pray that you have taken them to heart. $50 of the proceeds from these Lenten boxes will be sent overseas to the missionary Mark Thomsen to be used for purchasing books.

On April 16 or 17 someone from your floor, house or unit will be around to collect the Lenten boxes. A box will also be placed in the library for off-campus students.

Remember Jesus Christ and give generously.

Stewardship Committee
Chairman
Waldo M. Junker

It is the sincere wish of the HERMES staff that you have the best of Easter seasons.

Due to the days upon which Easter vacation falls, your next HERMES will be distributed on Thursday, May 3.

Vacation Starts at 12:20

Easter recess officially begins Thursday, April 19, at 12:20 p.m. Classes will resume at 8 a.m. Tuesday, April 24, 1962.

Students are to note that absences due to an early departure for Easter vacation will not be excused.

Director Dr. Rand On School Staff

An executive of the American Lutheran Church will serve on the staff of the Graduate School of Ecumenical Studies near Geneva, Switzerland, this fall. He is Dr. Sidney A. Rand, director of the ALC Board of College Education.

Dr. Rand said he has been asked to be a "tutor" during the fall and winter school term which begins Oct. 1 and ends on Feb. 15, 1963. Although he may conduct some Bible studies he will not be one of the chief lecturers. He defined a tutor as "one who lives among the students to serve as a bridge between all the different traditions and convictions which come together in an ecumenical school."

The college leader is a graduate of Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota, and Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul. He has done graduate work at Union Theological Seminary in New York and the University of Chicago School of Theology.

Previous to his present position with the ALC, Dr. Rand was president of Waldorf College, Forest City, Iowa; professor at Concordia College in Moorhead, and pastor of Lutheran congregations at Nashwauk and Trout Lake, Minnesota.

Answer to Warm Hearts

(Referring to the April 5 HERMES article "Weather Statistics Prove Cold and Warm Hearts")

Americans may or may not be the most warm-hearted, but the fact remains that "the hottest place known to modern man" is not Death Valley, California, but rather Azizia, Tripolitania, in Northern Africa, where a temperature of 136° F. was observed under standard conditions on September 13, 1922.

Also, Russians may have cold hearts, but the coldest temperature recorded in Siberia was -98° F., not -198 degrees. Soviet scientists in Antarctica recorded a record low temperature of -124° F. on August 17, 1958, about 400 miles from the South Pole.

From the reasoning used in the Hermes article of last week, it would appear that the most warm-hearted are the North Africans and the most cold-hearted are the penguins.

✝ Beneath The Cross

GOD HAS THE LAST WORD

Someone has said, "Easter is God's Amen." The "Amen" we utter as we conclude our hymns or prayers is more than a device to show we have reached the end. It is an affirmation of faith, meaning 'verily,' or 'truly,' or 'let it be so.'

Easter is God's "Amen," His crowning assurance that He will and can keep His promises. Viewed against the dark background of the Lenten story this assurance becomes the more amazingly meaningful.

God sent His Son to a world hardened in pride and arrogant unbelief. Enemies arose against Him. Even the devoted followers of Jesus drifted away until He turned pathetically to a faithful handful and asked in sorrow, "Will you also turn away?" One of His intimates denied Him; another betrayed Him; left alone, He was nailed to a cross to die between two thieves; in the abyss of His agony He cried out, "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?"

But God has the last word. God was in all of this, "in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself." This is the holy mystery, the amazing miracle of grace in the message of Calvary and Easter morning. The darkness of Lent gives way to this blazing vindication of the faithfulness of an omnipotent God. Here is a paramount demonstration of what Paul wrote to his young friend Timothy: "if we are faithless, He abideth faithful."

Easter is God's "Amen." Let it be so for each of us this year. Are we wavering in doubt, burdened by anxiety, uncertainty, unforgiven sin? Are we afraid to live or to die? There is but one power sufficient to make us 'more than conquerors in all of these things.' The Christ who died for us is the Christ who lives for us today and tomorrow.

It's still true as a Lutheran preacher said in Washington some twenty years ago, "Above all this chaos and human confusion something eternal is getting done." May confident faith in this eternal truth cleanse us and inspire us to renewed courageous dedication. "Thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Sioux Falls Displays Talent Here Friday

A delegation from Sioux Falls College, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, will be at Dana Friday, April 13.

These students will present a talent show Friday evening at 8:00 p.m. in Alumni Auditorium. Their performance here is done as a part of the talent exchange between the two student bodies, the same token by which some Dana students presented a program at Sioux Falls College in February.

An evening reception, to be sponsored by the Student Council, is being planned for the guests.

to a communist front organization and how he saw other "fronts" set up involving reputable and innocent Americans. He tells how to distinguish between worthy groups and "fakes" and what to do when such a situation is detected.

His famous book, I Led Three Lives, became an overnight seller. The television program based on this book is now a top-ranking filmed television show in the country, an unprecedented achievement for a documentary. The series which stars actor Richard Carlson as Philbrick is based on from-the-record dialogue and on-the-scene photography.

Philbrick points with pride to his wife who stood by him through the nine-year ordeal. "She is living proof that a woman can keep a secret," he says. With the exception of the FBI, Eva Philbrick was the only other person who knew all about her husband's activities as a citizen, a communist and a counterspy.

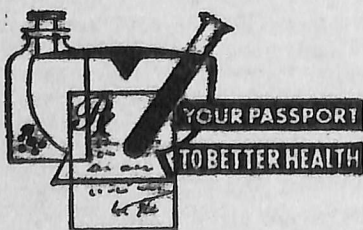

He now owns and operates a country store in New Hampshire. He lives there with his wife, five daughters and one son. He has time to indulge in his hobbies of photography and his home workshop, and to play his Hammond organ, an enthusiasm shared by his wife and daughters.

Dana students are reminded that the admission is by their activities card. However, all must pick up a special ticket at the Public Relations Office before April 14, or they will be required to pay the full admission price of $1.00 at the door.

'62 ALC Student Conference Is on Institutional Authority

Below is a summarization report of the 1962 ALC Student Conference by Dana's delegates who attended the meeting from March 30-April 1. The report deals with the three areas of discussion: authorities of the church, education and science, respectively.

Authority of Church

Dr. Paul Holmer, keynote speaker, spoke about the topic of faith. The predominant thought was that education does not result in Christian faith. He contrasted the language "about faith" with the language "of faith." If a person wishes to know "about faith" he should ask the man who has studied religion and can express his knowledge, but if he wants to know "of faith" he can only know that by experience.

Dr. Robert Jensen, the speaker in the church area, stated that the one who has authority must have the last word. Christ's rules for life leave no room for maneuvering, in contrast to the legal authority's dependence on "ifs." The Church as the body of Christ has the authority of Christ, but this authority demands obedience of faith and has no fear of any discovery. Nothing is to be kept separate from this authority.

Summarizing the discussion in the workshop, students expressed a need for more depth in their faith. One learns about faith through teachers, pastors, etc., but experiencing of faith must come as a result of God's confrontation of us.

Discussion topics included the authority of the Bible, Church, pastor, college and student. Christians are not to discredit the Bible, nor are they to idolize it. The Church is authority because it is the body of Christ and Christ is the supreme authority. The pastor's role is secondary to the response of those to whom he preaches.

Colleges oftentimes impose legalism to avoid offending college supporters, but this legalism should not be an ethical principle, but rather restrictions "necessary to maintain the social structure of the church college."

Authority of Education

In the field of education one group outlined the characteristics of the "Utopia Lutheran College." Its goal would be to confront students with the language of faith which includes knowledge and experience. The faculty is large enough to allow a student to be confronted with many viewpoints.

It would require only Freshmen Christianity courses. The student government would establish an honor system, academically and socially. Liberal hours would reign with the library open until midnight.

Dancing would be permitted and smoking would know no restrictions. Drinking would not be allowed on campus and state laws would be adhered to off campus. Regulations would be administered entirely by students with a board of review made up of equal number of students and faculty.

Authority of Science

Discussion in the area of science was centered primarily around the correlation of science and religion. Dr. A. van der Ziel presented the topic emphasizing the need for distinguishing between science and religion without completely separating the two.

The students were unable to discern the peculiar boundaries of science and religion as presented by the area speaker; however, the presentation prompted the students to investigate other sources and authorities for viewpoints.

In order to determine the actual authority of science, it is necessary to discriminate between facts, theories, hypotheses and speculation.

In addition, the speaker pointed out the necessity of recognizing the limitations of science. Science is a means of clarifying a problem or outlining a course of action; however, science cannot make the decision in the problem—science is limited by moral decisions.

INTRAMURAL SCOREBOARD

The afternoon and evening of April 8 saw two teams eliminated from the Men's Volleyball Tournament.

The two remaining teams, Road Runners II and Floaters I will play each other for the Tournament Championship either next Sunday afternoon or evening. Time of the championship contest will be announced sometime during the week.

The results of April 8 were as follows:

Raiders II defeated Raiders III; 15-5, 12-6. Floaters I defeated Ants; 8-9, 11-3, 9-6. Road Runners II defeated Stompers; 7-5, 14-6. Ants defeated Road Runners I on forfeit. Stompers defeated Dukes; 15-0, 15-8. Floaters I defeated Raiders I; 10-9, 7-6. Road Runners II defeated Raiders II; 15-10, 8-12, 14-4. Floaters I defeated Ants; 14-3, 12-6. Road Runners II defeated Stompers; 9-10, 9-7, 15-7.

Concordia Left in Dust As Vikings Win 80-55 First Conference Victory for Thinclads

Cindermen Journey to Lincoln For Plainsmen Invitational 'W Club' Sponsors Wesleyan Track Meet

Last Friday on Viking cinders the Dana Track Squad swept past Concordia College of Seward for their first conference victory. The Red and White copped the victory by collecting 80 points compared to Concordia's 55 point output.

Highlights of the afternoon were provided by speedster Wayne Peterson who covered the 100-yd. dash in 9.9 seconds, Bill Bracker who sailed 6-4½ in the high jump and Concordia's Dave Melber who tallied 21-7 in the broad jump.

The teams duelled under sunny skies but were hampered in running events by a strong wind in the back stretch which cut down hopes for any outstanding clockings.

The 880 relay was won easily by Olsen, Evans, Brekke and Petersen. Timers clocked this foursome in 1:39.7. Hard-running Ron Hough won the mile for Dana in 4:51.5 and Tom Frank captured honors in the 120 high hurdles with a fine time of 15.5. Gary Horton of Concordia ran a 2:11.4 half mile to edge out Dana's John Laughhunn in the final leg of the race. Johnny Seburg, Dana's 2-miler, came through with a victory over rival Al Fisk of Concordia winning in 10:51.5. In the hurdles Concordia's Dave Melber swept the 220 lows in 25.9. Dana's mile relay team of Barnes, Willadsen, Biesecker and Jensen ticked off a 3:50 time to end the running events.

In the field events Dana's Owen Vasby captured first place in the pole vault with 11-0 feet to edge out nearest Concordia competition.

John Boll of the Blue and White hurled the shot-put 40-1¼ to win this event and teammate Ray Brown's efforts were rewarded in the javelin by putting it out 162-5½. Phil Petersen of Dana nailed down honors in the discus by heaving it 123-11.

Dana cindermen will be busy on April 18 as they journey to Lincoln for the Nebraska Wesleyan University's "W Club" Invitational Track Meet.

Wesleyan's mentor, Woody Greeno, beginning his seventh year as track coach, terms this year's track prospects as "Fair." He will be working with a 13-letterman nucleus and with 28 other hopefuls having checked out equipment for the Plainsmen.

Dana will be competing not only against Wesleyan which took fourth place in the Nebraska College Conference last year, but also against Doane, Concordia, Hastings and Midland College.

After Easter, Viking trackmen will journey to Seward where they encounter Concordia on April 24. Two days later Midland's Warriors will be hosted by Dana on Viking territory.

Baseball Squad Stopped Twice and Win Once

Dana took its second straight loss of the season, bowing to Nebraska Wesleyan, 24-5, in eight innings last Saturday. It was the third straight win for the Plainsmen squad.

Seventeen runs were scored against Viking pitchers Brian Rich and Tom Winscot. The big men for Wesleyan were Gary Anstine, Eldon Lindquist, Gary Mouden, and Steve Dahl with three hits each.

Tuesday's baseball game with Morningside was called because of rain with the score tied 3-3.

Yesterday saw the Vikings split a double-header with Red Cloud State, Red Cloud, Minnesota, in an unscheduled tilt. Behind the efforts of winning pitcher, Marc Petersen, and three double plays, Dana won the first game, 6-5, only to drop the last, 11-1.

This Saturday the Red and White will host Northwestern and next Tuesday, Creighton. Both games will be played at Memorial Field in Blair and are tentatively scheduled for 2:30.

Tourney Play Picks 'Paddle' Champions

Winding up ping-pong tourney play last week, Bryce Olson and Everitt Petersen won three straight from Jerry Kirkegaard and Cliff Mays to capture the men's doubles championship.

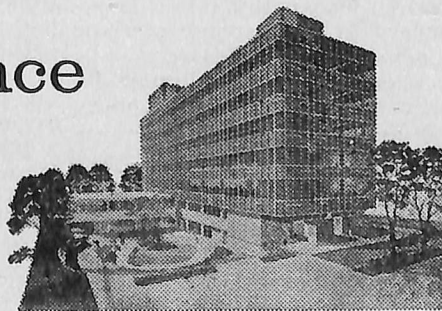

Winning the mixed doubles title were Julie Sandersen and Ron Christensen who defeated Carlene Benson and Larry Dolleck three in a row.

Jerry Kirkegaard eliminated defending champion Bud West in the quarterfinals and went on to win three narrow victories from Everitt Petersen.

Sonja Jacobsen defeated Donna Berryman in the women's singles to capture that crown.
