Cheryl Donahoo, a senior from Millard, Nebraska, is studying to become a teacher on the junior high school level. She is working on an English major and a history minor.

While at Dana, Cheryl has been on the cheerleading squad for two years, an active member in choir, student council, dorm council, and a member of Alpha Chi. Free moments are spent with good books and sports.

Vivian Jenkins, a senior from Omaha, Nebraska, is working on a double major in art and music. After graduation, Vivian would like to go into the Peace Corps, and then into parish work in the mission field.

During her years at Dana, Vivian has been active in AWS, MENC, choir, folk dancing, a Freshman class officer, the Homecoming committee, and director of student congregation's choir.

1964 Homecoming Queen

Crowned queen of the 1964 Homecoming last night was Miss Linda Money. Trumpeters Gary Riggs and Jim Wilkens announced the queen and two attendants, and Naomi Peterson provided the organ recessional. The 1963 Homecoming Queen Roxanne Marquette Dorn crowned Linda. The pages for the evening were Carol Weckmuller, Lynn Weckmuller, Steve Stone, and Eric Johnson. Flowers were presented to the queen by Lauri Neve.

Linda, of Blair, Nebraska, is a senior art and physical education major. During her years at Dana, she has participated in band, cheerleading, choir, folk dancing, and has been on Homecoming, May Fest, and Winter Fest committees. This year Linda is director of the Dana Folk Dancers.

Following her graduation at Dana, Linda hopes to become a teacher on the junior high level.

Special entertainment was provided by Robert Hale. A welcome to the alumni was presented at the beginning of the evening by Dr. Madsen. Master of Ceremonies for the evening was David Copperud.

Four Percent Decide For All

The first Student Body Meeting of Dana College was held October 7, 1964. In fifteen minutes, twenty-four students agreed that $1,067.50 would be spent this semester on the care and handling of "responsible" students. The following is the approved budget for the first semester, 1964-65.

General:
Conference	$ 300.00
Supplies	50.00
Cheerleaders	100.00
Miscellaneous	242.50
	$ 692.50
Intramurals:
Officials	$ 80.00
Plaques	60.00
Score Book	10.00
	<hr/>
	$ 150.00
Social:	$ 200.00
Religious:	25.00

More than sixty-six per-cent of the Student Council were absent from the meeting. Four per-cent of the students are determining how the other ninety-six per-cent shall live. If your rights are trampled into the ground, if your freedoms are lost—complain, protest, be angry! You may lose a friend in the process, but then apathy was never a friend to begin with. Student government can only be effective when ALL the students become INVOLVED ALL the time.

It is now less than a month before the national elections. The campaign so far has been one of bewildering and puzzling exhibitions. One side slings some mud at the other, and the other states that the mud was slung in the wrong direction. There have been false assumptions and accusations, rumors, misprinted quotes, and countless other petty concerns—both parties are guilty. But since the writers of this short missive lean a great deal to the side of the Democratic Party a brief description of the Democratic Party will follow. But a word of explanation: the picture of each candidate is distorted by the other. One calls the other a "Fink" and then the "Fink" calls his opponent a "Rat Fink." So the voters are presented the choice between a "Fink" and a "Rat Fink." Some choice!! What happens is that the voter is so confused that he doesn't even vote and says "What the heck!"

Also, we are a people in a statistical and analytic period. More and more weight is given to the statisticians' findings. The information below is from a statistical viewpoint and it is this that must be kept in mind—statistics do depict a trend or direction or prevalent feelings and action. Let us look at the following:

Agriculture—Gross farm purchasing power has increased by four billion dollars. Unnecessary farm surplus has been reduced by the Emergency Feed Grains Act of 1961. Farm exports has increased 5.5 billion dollars.

Consumers—For protection of the public an increase in Drugs and Cosmetics Acts, Air and Water, Pure Foods Acts, to mention only a few.

Foreign Aid—Tighter travel policies, purchasing sharpened, use of government-owned surplus property, self-help abroad.

Education—Improvement of elementary education, Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963, improvement of college housing, increased help for adult education, increased help for the handicapped.

Some other areas of brief mention which have been improved by the Kennedy-Johnson administration and the Democratic Party: equality for all Americans, foreign policy, health, housing and community development, justice, labor, natural wealth, senior citizens, space, veterans, war on poverty, and youth.

It is for these steady improvements and willingness to move forward into a changing and challenging generation that makes the writers consider only the Democratic Party and President Lyndon B. Johnson. As John Steinbeck recently said, "America wants not a candidate, but a President. And we have a President." Let us continue.

Choir Presents Concert for Alumni

Because of requests from the alumni to hear the present Dana a cappella choir, the 1964-65 choir will present a brief concert after the banquet. This concert will be held in DHA, Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. There is no admission charge. Everyone is invited to come.

Thank You

May I use Hermes to express appreciation to all our friends on campus for the prayers, thoughts, flowers, cards and good wishes received during my wife's stay at the hospital and during her convalescence at home. All such regards received have been deeply appreciated and cannot possibly be forgotten.

Support the team: Mass Migration

Mass Migration? What is it? It's a riot and here are the details! The Dana Vikings are going to spoil Northwestern's Homecoming by beating them on October 24 and you can be there to see the game by becoming a Mass Migration Member! The Social Committee has chartered two Arrow Stage Busses with a capacity of 41 people each. These are not ordinary busses but have soft seats, radios and many conveniences to make our trip enjoyable.

Two dollar ($2.00) transportation tickets will be sold by your Student Council Representative beginning Tuesday, October 20. Social Committee must know by Friday how many are going so be sure and sign up so you don't get left out.

Let's support our school. So come on, everyone, buy your ticket early and become a Mass Migration Member!

Because it is Homecoming weekend, I'd like to say on behalf of the staff that we are glad to see all of the alumni, as well as all the visitors, back with us this year. There is quite a list of activities lined up for this weekend, which shouldn't be missed by anyone. Again they have been printed in Hermes for your benefit. Especially try and attend the game—to cheer the team on to victory!

Sometimes a student doesn't appreciate the ideals and opportunities which were presented to him at his "old alma mater," as perhaps some of the alumni are now realizing. Let this be a thought and a challenge to you students who are at the present time "becoming educated." You must have come to college for some reason, and you must have picked Dana for another reason, no matter what these reasons may be. Therefore, I suggest you find out what they are if you seem to lack knowledge on that subject. Dana has something to offer that doesn't fit exactly under the heading of "studies only." What is involved in getting that much coveted education? What does a Christian college have to offer to you? Perhaps you will find that there is more to the idea of Christian growth than you realized before, and that the administration and faculty are concerned that you grow in this area as well as scholastically. Let's appreciate what we have here while we are here, beginning with Homecoming, 1964!

Achievement Tests Given Next Week

All seniors planning to do Cadet Teaching in elementary education this fall and all juniors who have not taken the California Achievement Tests, or who have not achieved a grade placement of 11.5 in spelling or 12.5 in each of the other areas, must plan to take them October 22 and 24.

The tests will be given Thursday evening, October 22, and Saturday morning, October 24, in Pioneer Memorial 317.

Tweton, Skogman Earn Doctorates

Two of Dana's professors have earned their doctorate degrees this past year.

Mr. Jerome Tweton received his Doctorate Degree in History from the University of Oklahoma in May, 1964. Dr. Tweton said he has been working on it during the five years he has been at Dana; but he completed all the research work before 1959. His thesis was: "Government and Agriculture in the Era of Theodore Roosevelt."

The other 'new' doctor at Dana this year is Mr. Kieth Skogman. Dr. Skogman obtained the degree of Doctor of Education in School Administration from the University of Nebraska in June of 1964. Dr. Skogman began his research in 1956 and the completion period was about eight years. His thesis was: "Study in Conventional Versus Programed Instruction In English Grammar at Dana College."

Council Clips

Thursday, October 8, 1964, the Student Council held its weekly meeting in Pioneer Memorial 212. Several items were discussed and two reports on conferences were given (the reports appeared in last week's Hermes). The topics of discussion were student representation on faculty committees, plans for the new Student Union and a mass migration to the October 24 football game at Northwestern by bus.

A parliamentary request is being made by the council to the faculty in order that we might have student representation on the eight faculty committees. It is felt that this will give us a stronger say on faculty policy toward students.

The council committee on the Student Union, headed by Gene Nelson, off-campus sophomore, presented a short summary of what plans are being made to accommodate the student in our proposed new building.

The campus Social Director, Rick Houston, presented details about the proposed bus trip to Orange City, Iowa, and the Northwestern football game for Dana students. The cost will be divided between the social budget and the student's pocket. If you are interested, contact your housing representative for full details.

Dr. Madsen Extends Welcome To Alumni

One of the many publications which come to my desk makes the observation that: "Many of our oldest universities were founded upon hills where great scholars gathered students about them, creating an academic 'community.' The tradition of seeking a hill on which to build a college has persisted since the Middle Ages. This may be based upon a theory that the higher the site, the broader the vision."

Such an observation carries inspiration to us whose home is on Dana's majestic hills. All of us know and cherish "the old Indian legend," which is a part of Dana's tradition. When we dedicated Holling Hall on October 4, our student representative, Student Body Vice President Tim Jensen, put it beautifully when he pointed out that as each new building finds a loftier site it bears witness to our quest for higher levels of academic excellence and spiritual dedication.

As you return you will, we know, rejoice with us at the unfolding beauty and dignity of Dana's growing physical campus. But we are grateful for progress in other, more significant, areas. During the past year we have received unqualified approval and high commendation from the North Central Association of Colleges and universities following an intensive review of our entire program. Dana is now admitted to membership in the American Association of University Women. We have just received word that our teacher education program, on both elementary and secondary levels, is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, a coveted recognition still sought by many schools older and larger than Dana.

Together with these evidences of academic progress we sense a deepening of Christian maturity and churchmanship evidenced in our Student Congregation, gratifying daily chapel attendance and intensive participation by students and faculty in grappling with basic issues confronting today's Christian scholar.

Faculty committees and administration are engaging in an intensive study in long range planning which will, we hope, chart our course more clearly for the future. In today's college work the challenge before us is greater than the accomplishments which lie behind us. To meet this challenge we pledge our best efforts and plead for the highest measure of your confident support. May these Homecoming Days inspire us anew as we face the great adventure ahead.

Kirchhoff Greet's Returning Danians

Mr. Leo Kirchhoff is the vice-president of the Dana College Alumni Association. He is a resident of Blair. Mr. Kirchhoff is also the principal of the elementary schools of Blair. The following are his remarks for Dana's Homecoming, 1964:

As your newly elected vice-president of the Dana College Alumni Association, I welcome you to the 1964 Homecoming festivities.

Being a resident of Blair, over the past year I have been able to watch our Alma Mater grow. To you alumni who are returning after several year's absence, you will marvel at the small college that seems to have grown. Some of you may say that it is not the same as when it was small. You are right. It isn't the same and we wouldn't want it the same. Expansion and growth are healthy signs for any school. The college has made considerable physical progress of which we should all be proud. The new Holling Hall, which was recently dedicated for housing male students, and the recent addition of a new clock and scoreboard for the football field are but a few of the achievements of Dana College in the past five years.

The college has also made gains that you can't actually see, but they are still important to us as alumni. Last spring the administration applied for and was accepted as a member of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. This fall the administration and the education department, after a thorough examination, were accepted as members of NCATE, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education. What does this mean to alumni? It means that if you are in the teaching profession it will be easier to transfer credentials from one state to another.

Plans are already underway for homecoming activities for the next three years. If you have any suggestions or ideas, we would appreciate it if you would let the association know.

????? Last week's column proved very interesting to everyone, I am told, especially Dana's mystic cult. This column really isn't an extension of one of Sherlock Holmes' adventures. The book without a name, Mr. Watson, in last week's column is Goethe As A Scientist by Rudolf Magnus.

Tales of the Frontier by Everett Dick is not a book to be passed up if you enjoy being catapulted into the pristine untamed world of American traders and trappers, scouts and missionaries, renegades and bullwhackers. These tales are accompanied with a running commentary which places them in historical context and supplies essential background information. Reading time . . . 4 hrs. plus.

Democrat or Republican—any political buff will find Henry C. Lodge by John A. Garraty a good historical experience. Here, the fateful and dramatic struggle between Lodge and President Wilson over the League of Nations is shown in proper focus and in ALL its bitterness. ALSO unique about the book is the footnote commentary by Ambassador Henry C. Lodge, Jr., in which he DISAGREES with a number of the author's interpretations of his grandfather's role in the League of Nations debate. Reading time . . . 3 hrs. plus.

The Masks of God: Oriental Mythology by Joseph Campbell has many good illustrations. However, this book requires a working vocabulary on ancient historical terms. ALL you Dana History students (past, present and future) should take a crack at this one—it's a LIVE one! Reading time . . . 4 hrs. plus.

Other new books on our shelves include:

 - Cohn, Careers with Foreign Languages.

Social Committee Is Working for You

"I disagree with you, I don't think that the kids will come to anything like that."

"We need to plan something they are interested in and would like to do."

"Something different and fun is what we need."

These are a few of the problems that the Dana College Social Committee wrestles with at their planning meetings for the coming semester. This organization of students, cooperating with the Faculty and the Student Council, have come up with some exciting ideas for the coming semester.

October 24th is a football game at Northwestern and it is their Homecoming, so the Social Committee decided to schedule a Mass Migration to Orange City to support our team. Financial aid will be given by the Student Council.

A Halloween Dance, sponsored by the Senior Class, is being planned for October 31. Temporary plans are in progress for a Hayride with refreshments after Dana's last home football game, November 7th. The D-Club is sponsoring its annual dance November 14th and will feature a live combo. A Sock Hop is also planned for the end of the semester.

This committee of Marge Stansberry, Jani Johnson, Eunice Erickson, Lynn Dahlquist, Ken Quirk, Willy Knopp and Jim Carpenter were selected by Rick Houston, the Committee chairman. Working on a lot of new ideas, they hope that each student will take part and enjoy this planned entertainment provided for them.

Rover Reclines As Master Works

The other day I listened to a man bemoan the hardships of life. After about an hour of this, he climaxed his lecture with the clinching statement: "It sure is a dog's life!"

If this is a "dog's life," I haven't gotten in on it, because as far as I'm concerned, a dog has it pretty good. Canines pay no rent, taxes, or utilities. His every need is provided for by people. A dog can travel without a driver's license, can hunt without a hunting license, and can play without supervision.

Now if we must compare dogs and men, it would be logical to reverse the analogy. I can easily imagine that if Rover were forced to find his own food or shelter, and if there was a constant danger of losing all he had, he might feel that he's as bad off as humans. And if he happens to be a Beagle that has suffered governmental ear-pulling, he might be justified in his complaint that "It sure is a man's life!" I wonder if it would be so bad to be in "the dog house?"

Do You Need Money? Try Writing Poetry

The second annual Kansas City Poetry Contests—offering $1,000 in cash prizes—have been announced by Thorpe Menn, literary editor of the Kansas City Star, co-sponsor of the contests.

Six honor awards totaling $600 will be offered to college students for single poems. These are sponsored by Hallmark Cards, Inc., of Kansas City, Mo.

The Hallmark awards are offered in open competition on a national basis. These awards are open to students of junior colleges of undergraduate or graduate status.

Ten other prizes, totaling $400, are offered to poets of the six states surrounding the Greater Kansas City region—Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Arkansas. The Kansas City Star awards include one $100 prize, two $50 prizes, and five $25 prizes in open competition.

Information on submitting entries may be obtained by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to: Contest Directors, P.O. Box 306, Kansas City, Missouri 64141.

Closing date for submission of all entries is February 1, 1965. Winners will be announced April 29 at the last of the 1964-65 American Poets Series sponsored by the Kansas City Jewish Community Center.

All entries will be judged anonymously. Entrants must submit their work with no clue to authorship. The name of the author is to be enclosed in a sealed envelope attached to the entry.

Cross-countrymen Lose to Wesleyan

Nebraska Wesleyan's powerful cross-country team swept the first three places and went on to defeat Dana, 17-44, under partly cloudy skies last Thursday afternoon at the Blair golf course. The distance for the dual meet was three miles, with a smooth surface and 65 degree temperature.

Larry Stephens of Wesleyan took first place in 16:23, a minute slower than the course record of 15:21. Ralph Merriman and Bob Briggs took second and third with times of 16:36 and 16:47 respectively, followed by Dana's Dick Coffey in 17:07. After the next three places were swept by Wesleyan, Dana's John Seburg and Gary Hiemke finished 8th and 9th.

On Tuesday, October 13, the Dana harriers travel to Doane for a dual meet at 4:30 that afternoon. Doane, sporting a strong team in finishing second to Wesleyan at the Doane Church College Meet, will provide fierce competition as Dana still looks for its first win of the season.

Sioux Falls 'Tumbles' Over Dana Defense, 13-6

The defense led the way last Saturday afternoon as Dana squared its record at 2-2 with a 13-6 win over Sioux Falls. The Vikings wrecked the homecoming for Sioux Falls by capitalizing on their mistakes.

In the first quarter, Sioux Falls made the only serious threat by moving to the Viking 15, but were stopped on downs. The rest of the first period the two teams traded possession of the ball; one Sioux Falls drive was stopped on an interception by Larry Engdahl.

Midway through the second quarter Les Pedersen broke through the line to block Max Kroger's kick, and freshman Joe Jones carried it in for the score from twenty yards out. Kellerman kicked the extra point, but Dana was called for off-side and the second attempt was blocked. Sioux Falls drove to the two-yard line in the latter minutes of the second period, but Waggoner fumbled and Bob Longacre recovered.

Reserve quarterback Paul Refsell, filling a hole left by the injury of Ron Anderson in the first half, led the Vikings on a 59 yard scoring drive midway in the third quarter. Refsell, gaining 33 yards on 5 rushes and completing two passes for another 25 yards, made the score 12-0 with a run around right end. Kellerman kicked the PAT.

After Longacre stalled another Sioux Falls drive by recovering his second fumble, Sioux Falls drove to the 21 of Dana. Miller broke into the open, but was hit and fumbled on the 10. The ball was recovered in the end zone by Pedersen, but the play was nullified by a penalty for defensive holding. Waggoner then scored from the two yard line and Williams' kick was wide.

So the Dana defense told the story in the long run. Longacre, Engdahl, and Pedersen were equally heroic in the game.

The next game is the Homecoming game October 17 with Yankton. Game time is the same as always, 2:00.

Sport Talk With Ceejay

Watch the Homecoming game with Yankon Saturday. Yankton upset Midland, 13-7, last week, and since Midland was victorious over us, it should be an interesting game. Let's have a lot of people out for that game. And remember—The D-Club will be selling many chucklings—candy bars, popcorn, pop, etc.

Recognition should be given to the baseball and basketball players who have been working out this fall. Coach Lemon has instituted the program to get them in shape.

Please don't ask me about that pool table for Holling Hall. Mrs. Smith is still working on it diligently. Possibilities are also good for Holling Hall to have a stove downstairs in the kitchenette within a couple of weeks. We definitely will have one sometime.

Outstanding players on defense for the Vikings last week against Sioux Falls were Bob Longacre, Larry Engdahl, and Les Pedersen. Longacre made 12 tackles and recovered two fumbles, Engdahl made 12 tackles and intercepted a pass, and Pedersen blocked a punt and recovered a fumble, to go along with 10 tackles. An interesting sidelight on last Saturday's win over Sioux Falls . . . They outgained us in total offense, 270-144, and led in first downs, 15-7.

I guess my prediction on the World Series wasn't so good. At the time of this writing it was tied 2-2. Well, maybe the Cardinals in 6 games . . .

The Raiders aren't doing too bad these days in intramural football. They have outscored their opponents 96-12 in two games.

Blair kept its winning ways by defeating Ralston, 21-7, in the Homecoming game last Friday night.

Next cross-country meets for Dana are a dual meet with Doane October 13 and a quadrangular with Westmar, Northwestern, and Yankton October 20.

From early indications it looks like another fine year for the wrestling squad, with quite a few lettermen returning. Also, there are several outstanding Freshmen.

It doesn't, you know...
