Dana and Blair Bandsmen Will Accompany Soloist

Sigurd Rascher, acclaimed as the greatest living concert saxophone soloist, will appear in Blair at the high school auditorium, April 28, 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Rascher has played with over 150 of the best world Symphonies and recently returned from a tour of Che.

It has been said of him, that he is the only saxophonist to extend the range of the saxophone from 2½ octaves to 4 octaves. The NEW YORK TRIBUNE says, "Rascher gives convincing impression of interpretative musicianship, remarkable fluency, skill and full warm tone."

Rascher will play with a select group of bandsmen chosen from the Dana College and Blair high-school bands. The concert will feature Sounds of the Tiawana Brass, Barber of Seville, Man of la Mancha and, of course, the solo artistry of Sigurd Rascher. Dr. Wayne Wise and Al Rembolt will direct the combined bands.

While Mr. Rascher is in our area he will be giving a Master class in Saxophone at a morning session in A.M.A. Friday the 28. At 1:30 the same afternoon in A.M.A. a lecture, recital will be presented by Rascher accompanied by Alan Brandeis.

The day sessions are at no cost with the evening program at 75c for student tickets sold in advance or $1.00 at the door.

Leading Theologian, Forell To Discuss New Morality

Dr. George Forell, Director of the School of Religion, University of Iowa, will speak on "The New Morality" April 29th at 8 p.m. in a public, free lecture held in D.H.A.

Dr. Forell, born in Breslau, Germany, attended school and college in Germany and Austria before finishing his formal education in the United States. He received his Th.D. from Union Theological Seminary in 1941 and was ordained in the Lutheran Church in America. He served various congregations until 1947 when he began a teaching career as Associate Professor of Philosophy at Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Petersburg, Minnesota. Since that time he has served in Theology and Philosophy departments in various colleges including the University of Hamburg in Germany where he was visiting Professor of Theology under the Fulbright Act.

George W. Forell

Dr. Forell has become one of America's leading theologians and lecturers. Among the list of his many publications appears the text Dana is presently using in the Christian Thought course.

After the lecture, Dr. Forell will attend Kiva and will enter informal discussions as it may arise. He will also be the guest speaker of the Sunday services, April 30.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE

- April 26: Reader's Theatre
- April 28: Dr. Hanson

BOOK SALE SATURDAY

The History Club will hold a book sale in the Student Center concourse between 10:30 and 3:00 on Saturday, April 22.

Constitution Awaits Regent Acceptance

For the first time in its history the student congregation, EKKLESIA KOINONIAS, will be sending a delegate to the Central District Convention of The American Lutheran Church in Kansas City, Missouri, April 24-27. Stanley Nielsen, president of the Congregation, will attend along with Pastor Jensen.

The newly proposed Constitution of the Congregation, which was accepted on Sunday, April 16 as a working guideline until final approval can be received from the Board of Regents in the fall, has as one of its major goals membership in The American Lutheran Church.

Attendance at the District Convention will be the congregation's initial effort in carrying out this responsibility. To the opening offering of the convention (which is to go to student scholarship) the Congregation will be giving $75.00.

LETTER TO EDITOR . . .

Students Displeased With Arrangements

A number of students were rather disappointed at the manner in which the performance of Hunt and Wrightson was handled last Monday evening. It was a policy for that night to seat only those with reserve seat tickets in the best locations. Why was this done, and will this become a regular habit for all important entertainment events? We're not saying that the people in charge sold out the students, but why was it handled this way?

First of all, there is the still true student argument that Dana is supposedly for the students themselves. If our off-campus friends can choose their seats, then why can't we? After all, we do pay for part of this type of event in a round-about way.

It has been said that those in charge couldn't pass up the $500 which was offered for 250 reserved seats. Did they think that the dynamic duo who performed were a pair of dry lecturers and that students wouldn't attend? All they had to do was look around and see the great number of students who were there.

Perhaps we could give a suggestion which would alleviate the grief this situation caused. If the school is going to have more reserved seat programs for outsiders, why not enable the students to get reserved seats, too. Surely this would not be that much more work for the publicity crew. The student could pick the ticket up at the information desk and be assured of a good seat. Perhaps in this way the impossible could be accomplished—everyone would be happy for once!

Cow Path Cutters Becoming Extinct

As visitors tour Dana's campus, one of the most important points which they pay particular attention to is the appearance of Dana's campus. This is particularly true during Parent's Day.

One unwelcomed site among many college campuses is the "cow path"—the final result which occurs when the temptation to cut across the grass is greater than the pride for the appearance of that campus. Erling A. Rasmussen, Dean of Men, is pleased with the cooperation of the students in which he stated, "I would like to commend all the students at Dana for the fine cooperation exhibited through their efforts to use the sidewalks as opposed to cutting across the grass. This shows the pride and dignity becoming of a Dana student."

Let's keep our pride, and work even harder to make Dana an exception to the ordinary college campus with its "cow-paths."

Sunday, April 23 Is Parents' Day

Hundreds of parents, past, present and future Dana College students are expected to arrive in Blair on Sunday, April 23, for the ninth annual Dana Parents Day. The day has been specifically planned to give parents an opportunity to become better acquainted with the campus, its facilities, its faculty and staff.

The scheduled events include:
 10:30 a.m., Parents Day Worship Service Borup Coliseum

11:45-1:30 p.m. Dinner for all guests (by reservation only)
 Campus Center Dining Room

2:00-3:00 p.m., Dana Parents Organization Annual Meeting
 Borup Coliseum

3,15-5:00 p.m., The President's Reception (open to all visitors)
 Campus Center

7:30 p.m., Music Department Production of "King David" Alumni Memorial Auditorium (free admission)

In addition to the scheduled events of Parents Day, visitors will have an opportunity to meet informally with members of the faculty and staff. All campus facilities will be open for inspection throughout the day.

French Major Offered In '67-'68 Curriculum Changes

This is the first in a series of articles to acquaint you, the students of Dana, with the new courses to be offered beginning with the Fall semester of 1967.

These will include: a Study in Ornithology; Victorian literature; Personal-type writing; Practice in Journalism; History of the American Frontier; Latin American History before 1800; Latin American History after 1800; Historiography; courses in Imperial Russia and of Soviet Russia will also be offered. In addition to these, Folklore; two semesters of History in Music; the American Indian; and Spanish History will be included.

A major in French will also be available beginning with the Fall semester. The new major will provide additional courses and offer more time needed to intensively learn the French language. Miss Sarah Penick instructor in French, points out that this will be of great value as it then qualifies students to teach the language here in the United States or abroad.

Knowledge of the French language or any other language can also be used in interpreting or translating in such vocations as those available at the United Nations. The ability to speak a foreign language is also considered a valuable asset by many companies today, and can mean an economic increase or an overseas job.

A major in a language will also become more important and useful as the world tends to become more international in its organization. The administration and faculty have, for these reasons, found it necessary to offer majors in the French, German, and Spanish languages.

ATHLETE OF WEEK . . .

Eitzmann Looks to Future In Teaching Physical Ed.

Our athlete of the week is Roger Eitzmann, a 22 year old senior from Hardy, Nebraska. After lettering two years in football at Fairbury College, Rog came to Dana at the beginning of his junior year. He has been defensive captain of the Viking football team, both years at Dana.

Working from his middle linebacker position Rog led the team in tackles in his junior year with 102, and set a school record for tackles in a single game with 23 against Concordia. He also is working as assistant coach of the baseball team this season.

Rog is a physical education major with a biology minor. After graduation, he plans to work for his Masters Degree in physical education at the University of Nebraska. He plans to start out as a high school coach with hopes of later going on to coaching at a college or university.

MIDLAND GOLF TEAM DOWNS DANA SQUAD

Midland dropped the first two matches, but came on strong to win the last three and dropped Dana in a dual meet 10½-4½. Dana's Charles Featherstone took the first match 2-1 over Jeff Draemel. Keith Limbo easily downed John Sweeney 2½-1½ to win the second match. Midland's Ron Peterson defeated Dick Loeber 3-0 in the third match. Bill Joe and Don Monson downed Dana's Dennis Kiefer and John Dalton respectively to win the fourth and fifth matches. Both had convincing 3-0 victories.

Moller Is Credited With Dana Victories

Pitcher Roger Moller got credit for both victories Saturday as Dana opened the Tri-State College Conference race by snaring a double header from Yankton, 7-6 and 8-5.

Moller, who entered the first game in the seventh inning, squelched the Yankton threats to allow Dana to overcome a 6-3 deficit. The Vikings pushed across four runs in the bottom of the seventh on four walks, a double by Mike Moore and a two-run single by Roger Johnson.

Moller started the second game and went the distance, boosting his record to 2-1. Moore, a freshman from Council Bluffs A. L., went four-of-six at the plate, and stole four bases in the two games.

Tiger Team Takes Dana Tennis Meet

Midland College took its second tennis win in a row last Friday with a 5-1 win over Dana. The Warriors won all of the singles matches except the fifth match. Ron Perry was downed 6-0, 6-1, by Gene Starmer in the number one singles. Gary Pavela took Leslie Hays 6-0 and 6-1 in the second match. Dana's Chuck Elvert fell to the Warrior's Jerry Vidlak in the third singles test 6-1, 6-4. In the number four singles, Dana's Dennis Jeppson took the first match 9-7, but Jim Shirck came back to win the last two 6-1, 6-4. Curt Laviner of Dana won the fifth singles 6-0, 6-1, over Midland's Steve Gerriker. Perry and Hayes were defeated 6-1, 6-1, in the first doubles match. The second doubles match was rained out.

Elizabethan Eve Tonight In AMA

All students are invited to attend the Annual Elizabethan Evening tonight at 8:00 p.m. in A.M.A., presented by the Shakespeare Class under the direction of Dr. Engelman. The program presents both high drama and farce in scenes from THE MERCHANT OF VENICE and THE TEMPEST. Contributing to the Elizabethan atmosphere are the colorful costumes and music of the period. Special attractions are songs by the Madrigal Singers of Dana with solos by Susan Schweer and David Shelstad.

Dana Gets $25000 To Study Smallpox

Dana College has received a grant of $25,000 from the National Institute of Health for the study of smallpox epidemics among the Indian tribes of the Missouri valley of North and South Dakota during the 18th and 19th centuries.

Dr. Donald J. Lehmer, Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, will work with Dr. William Bass of the University of Kansas, a physical anthropologist, and Dr. Carl Pottoff, of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine, as consultant on medical aspects of epidemics.

ASF Program Will View Art—Old and New Together

"New and Old Together," a lecture by Arne Gadeberg, graduate exchange instructor and student from Denmark, is to be presented Friday evening, April 28, at 8 o'clock as the last in this year's programs by the Dana Chapter, ASF. The illustrated lecture features the 20th century abstract art that has been created for a 12th century Danish church and shares a place in the edifice with art from the Renaissance. Mr. Gadeberg's father is pastor of the Zealand church. The lecture, open to the public free of charge, will be given in Doctors' Auditorium.

Preceding the lecture there will be half an hour of dancing on the green in front of the Dana Hall of Science by the Dana Folk Dancers and songs of Scandinavia by Janet Winkel, Sharon Boone and Naomi Kenyon.

BANSEN LECTURES GIVEN AT NYSTED

Professor Norman C. Bansen of the Department of English presented two lectures at the annual Special Interest Conference at Camp Nysted, Nebraska on Tuesday:

"The Virgin Islands, Where Denmark Is Remembered" was presented in recognition of the 50th anniversary of the sale of the islands to the United States; it was illustrated by slides taken by Mr. Bansen during a trip through the Caribbean area. "In Those Days: Writing About the First Hundred Years" was a challenge to Nebraskans to put into writing their experiences and those of their families.

The conference was sponsored jointly by The American Lutheran Church and the Lutheran Church in America.

Opera At Omaha

Omaha University's Opera Theatre will present "Scenes" in Alumni Memorial Auditorium April 30 at 8:00 P.M.

Various selections from well known operas will be performed. Among these will be a quartet from LA BOHEME by Puccini; a duet, "Hello, this is Lucy", from THE TELEPHONE by Menotti; "Cesttoi, mon pere!"; a duet from Thais by Massenet; and "Cara, sei tu I mio bene"; a Septet from IL BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA by Paisiello.

Other composers whose works will be represented are Mozart and Giordano.

Gladys Hamstreet May will accompany the vocalists.

The Omaha University Theatre is brought to Dana by the vocal department through Mildred Slocum.

Admission to the performance is free.

AMERICAN ACADEMY RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE

Rev. John W. Nielsen and Rev. Richard A. Jensen will attend an American Academy of Religion Conference April 22 in Lincoln.

Two papers will be presented. Professor Russell W. Palmer of Omaha University will present "Methodology in Barth's Approach to Ethics", and Professor Frederick E. Blumer will present "The Christology of Friedrich Gosarten."
