THE DANA MESSENGER

April 28, 1967

Number 23

Leading Theologian Will Appear in Kiva

"Kiva," Dana's version of the "coffee house," will be open this Saturday in the basement of Alumni Memorial Auditorium.

Special guest for Saturday evening will be Dr. George Forell, one of America's leading theologians.

Dr. Forell will speak on "The New Morality" beginning at 8 p.m. Saturday in a public lecture in Doctor's Auditorium and will attend Kiva that same evening. Sunday he will be guest pastor at regular student congregation services.

Free expressions in song and verse by students and faculty members is encouraged for the evening. Coffee and conversation will serve as refreshers. Kiva will open at 10 o'clock Saturday evening and close 1 a.m. Sunday. There is no cover charge and coffee is free.

History Students Plan Annual Dinner

The History Department Dinner, held annually for all interested in history, will be held on Thursday, May 11, at Ross's Steak House in Omaha. Transportation will be provided into Omaha.

All history and social science majors, minors, and their guests are invited to attend the dinner party. The only stipulation is that each pays for his own meal.

Please turn in your reservation before Monday, May 8, to Sheryl Claussen, Box 149. Also note if you would be able to drive.

Film On Indians Will Be May 1st

On Monday, May 1, "The Exiles" will be shown in DHA at 7:00 p.m. and 9 p.m. The movie depicts the story of a group of "relocated" American Indians, young adults, as they went through a typical night in Los Angeles — "fourteen hours of drinking, card playing, picking up girls, and fighting."

"The Exiles" is both an aesthetic explosion and an extraordinary sensitive depiction of the details of an alien life. The most powerful scenes of the movie are those in a bar, on a street in the city, and those scenes of the Indians performing ancient, ritualistic dances upon a hilltop overlooking Los Angeles.

Students Explain LIFE To Church

Members of The American Lutheran Church are finding out what a church related college is all about.

As a preliminary to the Lutheran Ingathering For Education, students are appearing before many of the member congregations. They present brief 10 minute talks about college life at a church related school.

The primary purpose of this venture is not to belabor the LIFE program, but to familiarize the members of the individual congregations with the church college nearest them.

The Development Office is currently participating in this program by sending students to speak in congregations in Eastern Nebraska.

Producer Kent MacKenzie states that "The Exiles" does not propose to reveal the total problem . . . My picture does not touch on either of the extremes of life, the Indian who has done well or the consistently delinquent Indian, but focuses on just one segment of the Indian population that is a part of the total problem."

The film is sponsored by the History Club. Admission is 50c.

Festival Colored By Magic of 'Carnival'

The excitement of "Carnival" colors, the atmosphere of May Fest weekend, May 5-6. The senior class has planned their festival around the magical world of the "Big Top."

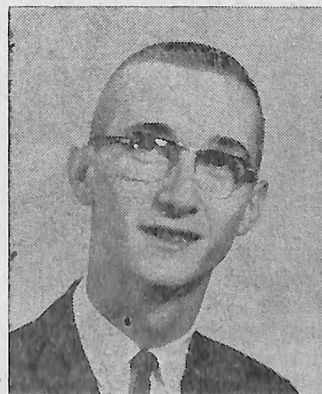

Friday night the celebration begins with a banquet, served from 6 to 7 p.m. At 8 p.m. AMA will resound with the joy of the music and story of "Carnival" produced by the Dana Drama Department, under the direction of Chuck Emmons. There will be only one performance and admission will be free to all, compliments of the senior class.

Saturday night, couples will dance to the music of Carl Jay's Sextet from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the student campus center. Intermission will bring the crowning of the festival's royalty—May Fest King and Queen.

Jim Wardrip, senior class president, promises a weekend of surprises. As a sneak preview of the excitement to come, Jim disclosed during an interview that two Bengal tigers and one black panther has been borrowed from Ringling Brothers just for the festivities. They will be housed in the student office and are sure to create a certain atmosphere.

Jim did not care to specify the dress code for the evening discriminating between formal or semi-formal. But it is to be remembered that the "cats" will be there with "tails."

Student Members Elected To Faculty-Student Senate

DICK COFFEY

CURT LORIMER

Dick Coffey, Bob Whitney (not pictured), and Curt Lorimer were elected to serve on Faculty-Student Senate in a general election held April 25.

The Faculty-Student Senate, established during the 1962-63 school year, serves as a board of appeal in cases of disciplinary action. The Senate consists of three elected students and three appointed faculty members who together conduct a hearing and make a recommendation to the Dean of Students. Appeals can be made to the Senate, established through the initiative of Student Council with the approval of faculty and administration, through the Dean of Students or the Dormitory Council.

Students Celebrate Jewish Passover

Fifteen Dana students and Mr. Hutton of the religion department, attended a Jewish Passover meal last Tuesday at the invitation of Rabbi Brooks who conducted the ceremony held at the Temple Israel in Omaha.

Passover celebrates the deliverance of the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt. The ceremony is filled with much symbolism. Before the actual Passover meal there was a ceremonial meal including bitter herbs, lamb and unleavened bread. This was followed by soup, and a chicken dinner with strawberry shortcake for dessert.

The entire ceremony lasted about three hours. Wine was an important part throughout the celebration. (Children were served grape juice and each participant was to drink at least four cups of it at indicated places during the ceremonial activities.

Lyrical songs were sung, some in Hebrew and some in English. Children took an active part in the ceremony by reading questions which were answered by the Rabbi. The Dana attendants found Passover not a somber but a joyous celebration and enjoyed the occasion in learning.

The Dana Student Faces The Tests

I like tests: in which there are two correct answers to the question—one of which is acceptable. (You should have known it!

in which graphs, charts, footnotes and other readily accessible material is required to be memorized rather than used as a tool in the manner for which they were designed. (Pedanticism)

in which specific opinions are required for given opinions over the material covered whether correct or incorrect. (the Pavlov dog complex) in which the questions give me a preview of what we will be discussing in class later in the year. (Cart before the horse)

in which I can be categorized at a specific level and any answer resembling the "correct" one will be sufficient to keep me there.

in which I must know the details and not the concepts involved. (Read it, don't understand it)

And finally, I like tests which result in a bell shaped curve for the class. (All of my classes are normal! !)

Barricades of Wisdom*

*"You have exactly 3 minutes, after you have read this message, to ask her to Mayfest, *Remember. You can't make a fur coat out of the feathers of a goose!"*

Reflections on Vietnam

Why should you worry or give a damn
About what happens in Viet Nam?
Why is it any of your concern
If men and women and children burn?
Only a pacifist, saint or fool
Believes in stuff like the Golden Rule . . .
You know the answer—you know it well—
"This is a war and war is hell!"

Yes, war is hell for the men that fight,
Pawns on a chessboard, brown and white:
War is death in a sea of mud
To the sound of bullets and stench of blood:
War is madness told as the truth,
Torturing women and crippling youth. . . .
But you know the answer—you know it well—
"This is a war and war is hell!"

Try to project what your thoughts would be
If you left your home as a refugee:
Try to imagine the sense of fear
When the napalm scatters and flames appear . . .
What kind of feelings would it inspire
If you watched a child with its flesh on fire?
Could you find words for the pilots above
Who boast about morals and Christian love?

War is a gamble played with Fate
Where the stakes are high and the hour is late:
War is the writing seen on the wall
Which threatens to come and engulf us all . . .
It's time to worry and time to care,
It's time to pity and time to share;
It's time to consider the Human Race
And see ourselves in the other man's place.

Richard I. Briggs

On Campus

Jess A. Student

Ed. note: The following letter was written by a former student Robert "Bobo" Christensen. He is now serving in Vietnam as a Lance Corporal in the U.S. Marine Corps. Bobo was on leave when he read a copy of the Hermes and wrote this reply to Jess A Student before returning to war.

Dear Jess,

One of the major difficulties between the student-faculty relationship is the conflict of the feelings each have for one another. If a student doesn't care for the subject he is required to take, he immediately forms a dislike for the subject which in turn leads to a dislike of the instructor.

It doesn't take long for an instructor to realize this and before you know it, the instructor has formed a dislike for the student because the student, in the eyes of the instructor, is deliberately adding nothing to the class. After this wordless feeling forms the instructor falls back on the old standby—"It's his education so if he wants to waste it that's his business, I'll still get my salary no matter how much he gets out of the class." Just as the instructor falls back on his standby so does the student. He says to himself—"Self, this is only a subject they force you to take and it won't do you any good in the future."

Now is when the instructor should take the leading hand and try to enlighten this student. I'm sure most of the instructors consider themselves a little more mature than their students. This being the case, they shouldn't feel as if they are lowering themselves to help this uninterested student. The instructors decide what type of psychological warfare they will use on such students.

Cheerleaders Selected For Next Fall

The cheerleaders for '67-'68 were elected Monday, April 24, in Borup Coliseum under the supervision of the Pep Club and Elections Commissions. Next year's varsity squad includes two veterans—Paul Westfall from Western Springs, Illinois, and Jari Uecker from Whittier, California.

New to the squad are freshmen Mike Collins from Council Bluffs, Iowa; Lois Jacobsen from Hooper, Nebraska; Pat Kamtz from Hampton, Nebraska, and Kathie Reisner, Glenwood, Iowa. Paige Yowell, Herman, Nebraska is the alternate.

The girls performed three yells individually, in pairs and as a group. The students present at the try-outs then voted. The seven girls they chose will elect a head cheerleader and begin working in preparation for next year's sports seasons.

MINOR IN COACHING PLANNED FOR TEACHERS

An urgent need for training in coaching has made it necessary to offer a minor in coaching here at Dana. The primary purpose behind the 22-hour minor is to supply training in coaching for those planning on a teaching career in another field, yet seeking knowledge in the coaching area.

The trend in smaller schools has been to hire classroom teachers and then also assign them to coach rather than hire a physical education instructor. The minor in coaching will prove valuable to teachers who may be faced with this problem in the future.

Concordia Wins A Double-Header

The Dana Vikings, although ahead at one time in both games, dropped two last Saturday, losing a conference doubleheader 6-9 and 8-11 at Concordia. The games were mainly offensive battles as both teams had good hitting.

Highlighting the Dana hitting were men such as Gerry Quirk who went 4 for 4 in the first contest and Ken Luce who did likewise in the second. Mike Moore showed his usual hitting proficiency in coming through with a double in the first game and slamming out a home run and another double in the second.

Viking Trackmen Break Westmar's Winning Streak

The third annual LeMars Invitational meet, held April 25, was captured by the hosting Westmar team with 114 points. Dana's Vikings grasped 47 points for the second high score

Leon Bracker captured first place in the 440 yard run with a time of 52.3 seconds; he was followed by Viking Bob Rasmussen with a time of 52.6 seconds for second place. Tim Hansen also won a first in the high jump with Second baseman Don Perekovich did some fine hitting as did third bagger Flip Larson.

Dana used pitchers in the two games with junior Keith Benson pitching in each. Benson, who was later relieved by Al Thomas, started the first game and got the loss. Benson, also pitched in the second game, replacing Mike Moore, who took the second game loss. Moore had in turn relieved starter Rog Mollar.

The Vikings, now sporting a 2-2 conference record, travel to Fremont April 29 for a doubleheader with traditional conference rival Midland.

Dana's relay teams captured second in the 880 yard relay and first in the mile relay. The 880 relay team, Bill Neal, Gene Williams, Leon Bracker, and Ron Lammers, posted a time of 1:34.2. The highlight of the meet was the mile relay victory by Dana, as Westmar had been unbeaten in the event for several years. Team members Max Boustead, Dan Watts, Bob Rasmussen and Leon Bracker boasted a time of 3:31.1 and were awarded the event's trophy.

The Viking track squad has been quite successful to the present. In previous meets they have downed Omaha University, 74 to 70, and captured a triangular meet with Tarkio and J.F.K. (Dana-95; J.F.K.-53; Tarkio-26.) The team placed second in another triangular meet with Doane and Midland (Doane-94½; Dana-57½; Midland-29.) The Vikings only dual meet loss came at the hands of Concordia, 81-63.

Tennis Champions Defeat Dana Team

The tennis team played a tough Westmar team, last year's conference champions, and lost 7-0. The Dana team played better tennis with every match and showed their team positions could be switched around without hurting the lineup.

Those playing were: Singles No. 1. Joe Cathcart, Westmar defeated Dana Chuck Elvert. No. 2 Rick Hoff, Westmar defeated Dana Ron Perry. No. 3 Denny Silk, Westmar defeated Dana Les Hayes. No. 4 Bill Thalman, Westmar forfeit. No. 5 Keith Oveson. Westmar defeated Curt Lorimer. Doubles: No. 1 Oveson and Silk defeated Perry and Hayes. No. 2 Cathcart and Hoff defeated Lizer and Elvert.

Marines Recruit Officer Candidates

Captain Bruce S. McKenna, Marine Corps Officer Selection Officer, will visit Dana May 2 and will be in the Campus Center from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to interview students interested in Marine Corps Officer training. Freshman, sophomore, or junior men may qualify for the Platoon Leaders Class which leads to second lieutenant's commission upon graduation from college.

However, this visit Captain McKenna will be particularly looking for interested senior men and women to apply for Officer Candidate School beginning in August, October, and January.

Officer Candidate School lasts ten weeks for junior and senior men. Freshman and sophomore men attend PLC 6 weeks for two summers.

Qualified juniors and seniors are eligible for the Women Officer Candidate Course which meets each summer in Quantico, Virginia. Woman candidates receive $408.84 in addition to free room and board during the nine-week course.

Religion Major
To Be Offered

The Religion Department has announced that a Religion major will be available beginning next fall. The major in Religion will require 27 credit hours in Religion beyond Humanities 105-6, 205-6. Included in the 27 hours must be Religion 201, 202, and either Religion 343 or 411. Greek 407 may also be included in fulfilling the required amount of credit hours and will be listed as Religion 407.

Students wishing to study for the position of parish worker will find the new major valuable as the ALC recommends course work equivalent to a Religion major for certification as a parish worker. Those planning to enter the deaconate or a field of teaching in the Christian Day School will find similar requirements existing.

A Religion major is also recommended for Pre-theological students with broad supporting courses in the areas of the Social Sciences and Humanities; a program preferable to heavy concentration in only one area of these fields.

Four Students Prepare To Live-Out Weekend Live-In

Linda Hendrickson, Arnold Beerenstrauch, Darlene Haecker and Joyce Mackie will participate in a Live-In in the inner city of Omaha this weekend, April 28-30. This experience is the second of its kind sponsored by the Nebraska Council on Religion and Race. The program's purpose is to provide a chance to personally experience the problems involved in combating the ills of poverty.

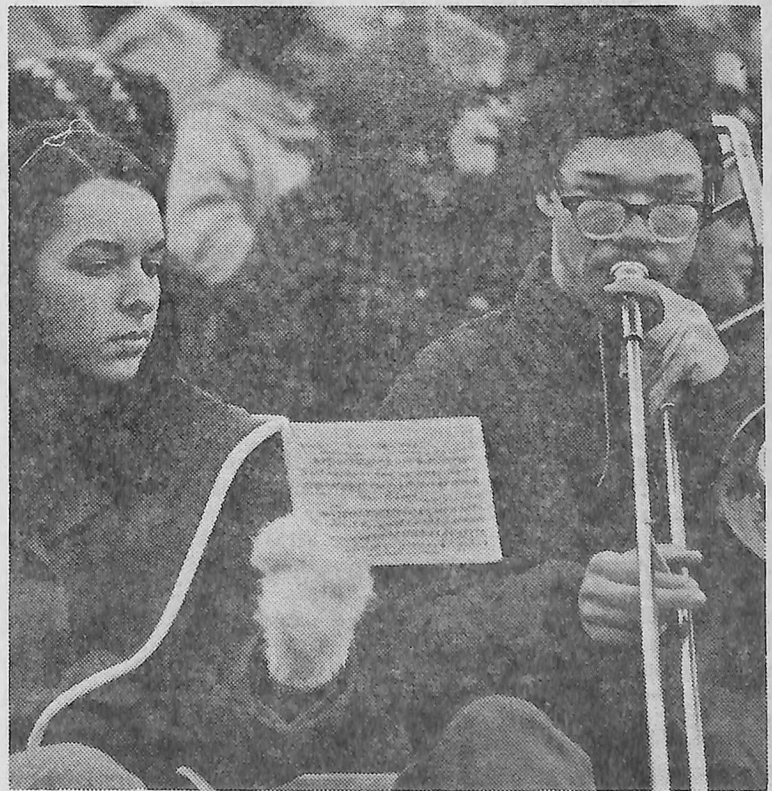

Friday afternoon and evening the participants will undergo intensive orientation. They will be meeting with young people of the community Saturday afternoon. That evening each participant will stay with a family in the poverty ridden area. The Live-In will conclude on Sunday afternoon with an address entitled "Living Out the Live-In" by Mr. Rodney Wead.
