Tivoli II Will Feature Dances and Hypnotist

Homecoming Weekend, October 13-14-15 is called Tivoli II because it is the second time the idea has been used. The real Tivoli is located in Denmark and is recognized as one of the most beautiful amusement parks in the world. The Dana version, although somewhat smaller, will be none the less enjoyable.

The Committee plans to transform the circle in front of the Campus Center into a miniature version of the real Tivoli. The park opens at 8: p.m. on Friday, October 13.

In the Center of the park will be a large open air stage. The 1967 Homecoming Queen will be crowned at this pavillion. There will also be live entertainment from the pavillion throughout Friday and Saturday evenings. There will be 26 booths of various kinds featuring games of chance and skill, specialty food items and the like.

The Committee is in need of volunteer workers for Friday, Friday evening, Saturday and Saturday evening. Anyone wishing to work—by operating game or food booths—is asked to leave his or her name at Tivoli II headquarters and the dates and hours you can work. All work must be on a volunteer basis.

Two Dances

There will be two dances during Tivoli II. On Friday a dance will be held on the patio of Old Main, with no admission charge.

Saturday's dance will be in the concourse area of the Student Center, from 10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Mal Dunn's 11-piece orchestra will play. Admission is $2.50 per couple, $1.50 single.

Hypnotist Featured

Edwin L. Baron, a famous hyp-

Edwin L. Baron

notist, will appear on Saturday evening as one of the major attractions during "Tivoli II" Homecoming weekend.

Cooperating with doctors, Mr. Baron has used hypnosis to render childbirth painless, to help amnesia victims regain memory, to aid overweight persons to, reduce safely, and to help habitual smokers break the cigarette habit.

His appearance at Dana will be on the lighter side. With the cooperation of volunteers from the audience, will put his subjects through a series of mirth-making antics. The Dana appearance will be staged in Alumni Memorial Auditorium beginning at 8:00 p.m. on October 14. Tickets will be available at the door at $1.25 apiece, or may be purchased in advance for $1.00 at Tivoli II headquarters.

'My Three Angels' Will Open Season Of Four Dramas

The drama department has laid ground plans for the school year's main stage productions and is presently engaged in production of the fall play.

Cast tryouts for the fall production of "My Three Angels" were held this week. The play is a comedy about a trio of convicts in a French penal colony who earn themselves halos to wear with their stripes. It was written by Sam and Bella Spewack, (based on "Cuisine des Anges" by Albert Husson.) "My Three Angels" will be presented November 10, 11, and 12.

"Rumpelstiltskin" is to be staged as the annual Children's Play, attended by the various grade school students throughout the county. The dates of presentation for this play are December 12, 13, and 14.

The spring show, "Antigone," is slated for March 1, 2, and 3. The department also hopes to take "Good Friday" by John Masefield on tour April 5-14.

In addition to the four main shows, six chapel presentations have been planned. The first of these productions will be given October 25 during the regular chapel period. This first presentation, "Under Milk Wood" by Dylan Thomas, will be read by Jean Brehm, Joel Hermann, Boyd Horst, John Leithel, Kay Ringhand, and Norma Wilkins.

Mr. Hinneman, director of the department, believes a "good season is planned" and urges all interested in the production of the plays to contact either Bob Hansen, technical director for the year, or the department.

Five girls were chosen by the student body to make up the royal court for Homecoming this year. They are Bev Deepe, Chris Reuter, Eileen Taake, Ellen Thompsen, and Paige Yowell.

Bev Deepe is a twenty year old junior from Bruning, Nebraska. She is majoring in French and minoring in Spanish. She has been a member of the Student Activities Board, a cheerleader, a member of French and Spanish clubs, on the girls' volleyball team, and has participated in intramurals. Her favorite sport is volleyball, and she enjoys sewing, knitting, and horseback riding. Last summer she worked as a secretary in a bank, and she plans to be a high school language teacher. Bev stated that her philosophy in life is to "change the things in life that you can and accept the things you can't change for what they can teach you."

Chris Reuter, a nineteen year old sophomore from St. Paul, Minnesota, plans to major in either sociology or elementary education. She works in the library, is A.W.S. treasurer, and has been in pep club and on the Homecoming Committee. Chris likes to watch basketball and hockey and she likes to swim and sew. Last summer she was a nurses' aide in a St. Paul hospital, and she plans on a career as either a social worker or an elementary school teacher. When she was asked who her favorite author was, she said, "I couldn't really point to one author as my favorite, because my favorite type of literature is haiku poetry, and there are so many haiku poets. The reason I like haiku is because it says so much in such a little space and what is said is always a surprise."

Eileen Taake, 20, is a junior from Tilden, Nebraska. Her major is elementary education and her minor is psychology. She was vice president of her sophomore class, and she has been in pep club, in SEA, on the Danian staff, and on the Student Activities Committee. Her favorite sports are swimming and playing softball, and she enjoys writing letters and chatting with friends. Last summer she assisted in a remedial reading program in her home town and gave piano lessons, besides doing some traveling. She plans to teach the third grade. She said that she could think of no "favorite author, but she summed up her philosophy on life. "Whatever may happen, always remember that the Lord has a purpose in everything He does."

Ellen Thompsen, a twenty-one year old junior from Racine, Wisconsin, is majoring in elementary education and minoring in English. She has been a member of student council, international relations club, chapel choir, and tour club. She has also been an A.W.S. representative and on the publicity committee for A.W.S. Her favorite sport is tennis, and she enjoys hiking, traveling, painting, reading, and dual sports. Last summer she visited California for three weeks and worked for a silk screening manufacturing company in Racine. She would like to become an elementary teacher, teaching the third or fourth grade. Ellen mentioned four authors as her favorites. She enjoys Hemingway for his simplicity of style, Mark Twain for his fresh approach, and John Donne and Emily for their imagery.

Paige Yowell, a nineteen year old from Herman, Nebraska, is a sophomore majoring in art and minoring in French. She has participated in volley ball intramurals, pep club, drama, and the spring musical. She is a member of the social committee, a cheerleader, and was freshman secretary. Her favorite sports are football and basketball, and she enjoys horseback riding. Her summer was spent at her family's farm, where she did a lot of riding and spent as much time outside as possible. She has not yet decided on a career, but she would like to go into some field of art such as advertising or teaching. Her favorite author is John Donne, whom she enjoys because of his straight forward look and attitude. Her favorite work is his "No Man is an Island."

The Spyder Speaks

By Bob Siebert

Editorial comments printed in the Hermes reflect only the writer's opinion.

I hate to get the reputation of being a bomb carrying revolutionary or the angry young man on campus, because I am not. A little belligerent, maybe, but no more than that. Unfortunately, I did get a letter which implied that I was a revolutionary. (However, just getting a letter of any sort made me as happy as if they would have announced that a love-in would be held during the half-time at the game Saturday). Anyway the letter said, and I quote, "Where in the Hell do you get off saying that we need more spirit etc, when you've only been here a month? What do you think qualifies you?" - - - - and on and on. It was unsigned.

First off, my qualifications are that no one else wanted to do it. (Are you listening J. A. S.) Sort of a process of elimination. Second, even I can see that this campus has the same zest and spirit as a wet mashed potato sandwich. (Please don't consider this as a recipe, Mrs. Carry). Third and last I haven't been brainwashed, yet, into thinking that it can't change. Nuff said?

O.K. On to my tirade for this week, suitcases.

Have you noticed how many people bitch about the lousey spirit of the school and how it's a complete hangup on weekends when they aren't even here?

How do they know it's a hangup? And if they do know, why don't they try to change things? Vocal lamentations and breast beating seem to have little effect, so has anyone ever thought of organizing a group to look into matters or has anyone ever thought of talking to Steve Bohling, the Student Body President, or with the Social Committee Chairman to see exactly what could be done to remedy the situation?

There I go, off on a tangent. So back to my target.

Why do people suitcase? Cause there's nothing happening on campus. What happens on campus when the suitcases take off? Nothing, cause there's no one around to see that things do happen. Kind of a perpetual no-motion machine.

And why don't I organize somebody and get the ball into motion? Because I'm usually down at George's lapping suds and bemoaning the complete nothingness this campus is on weekends. H m m m m.

See you next week.

G. I. Bill Checks Go Up Next Month

Nebraska veterans now in school will soon receive automatic increases in their GI Bill education checks. The new amounts will be included in checks scheduled to arrive in November.

The rate increases were provided in Public Law 90-77, signed last month by the President. Payments to single veterans taking full-time courses have been increased from $100 a month to $130, veterans with one dependant from $125 to $155, and veterans with two dependants from $150 to $175. An additional $10 will be provided for each dependent in excess of two.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Will the person or persons involved in stealing the sign from the lawn of Bondo House, please return it at once! Isn't it a shame that there are those on Dana's campus who have complete disregard for the property of others?

BONDO HOUSE

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"I THINK THE TROUBLE WITH MOST OF OUR FRESHMEN IS THAT OUR HIGH SCHOOLS JUST AREN'T TEACHING THE FUNDAMENTALS."

Editorially Speaking - - - - -

Last Tuesday morning an unknown number of Midland Warriors invaded Dana's hill. The evidence of their brief story was a large M burned into the center of the Viking Field and a display of artistic painting on the Press Box.

The M-Print was not the first nor probably the last in a long series of arch-rival pranks between Dana and Midland over the years. Midland's Bell has been painted many times by Viking Invaders and Dana embossed on the streets of Fremont for all good Warriors to see.

The question of school rivalry has advocates on both sides with creating student enthusiasm and interest as its main virtues. (Heaven knows Dana can use a dose of this type of medicine.) However at the other extreme lies a point where school spirit ends and vandalism begins. Often the road in between is a narrow one and hard to stay on. The point being that, although I support a healthy show of Viking Spirit, we should not forget to use our better judgment in excepting this Midland Challenge.

A large crowd of Vocal Supporters at the game would be a good start. The Vikings defeating the Warriors would be an even better effort.

The Midland Student Council has shown their good intentions by financing the repainting of the box and resodding if necessary. Let's show our intentions by being good Dana supports in a constructive manner.

The Bondo XII Appear On The Campus Scene

Regents To Meet Next Weekend

Dana's Board of Regents will meet here on October 12 and 13. Items on the agenda include organization and the election of officers. An executive committee will be appointed to act for the board between meetings.

The Board will discuss faculty and staff appointments made since the spring meeting. Also, next year's budget will be studied. Final approval of a timetable and plans for the new library will be given.

Discussion of long-range plans for construction of a women's dormitory is on the agenda. The Regents may also study the proposal of a Fine Arts Auditorium as Dana's next academic facility.

President Madsen will report to the Board on the faculty, curriculum and academic matters of the college; registration information; business and finance 2nd campus maintenance; and general matters of student life on campus.

According to Dr. Madsen, "the Board members, while on campus, always appreciate the opportunity to visit with students. I hope many students will talk with them."

Who are the XII on Dana's campus? They are the BONDO XII of course. Just recently a sign was pasted in the front yard of Bondo House. The secret dwelling that any people have had a hard time finding. But no more, there's a sign now.

It all started when a member of Bondo began painting house siding, in a sad attempt to make a sign. The original Bondo sign met its doom when it was discovered enamel paint peels off siding when dry. What to do with a black six foot sign? Of course, take it to the vacant lot and dump it next door.

Thus, a new sign was created. But this time the paint stayed. The enamel paint, finger nail polish, and all. A sign and insignia are new members of Bondo House.

Student Leaders Discuss Issues At Twin Cities

By Steve Bohling

This past weekend (September 29-October 1) the Student Body Presidents of the ALC Colleges in the United States gathered in Minneapolis - St. Paul. The purpose of this annual convention was to discuss the topics for the Thanksgiving youth conference and to hear the "State of the Campus" from other Student Body Presidents.

The theme for the Thanksgiving conferences is to be "Hunger, the Key to World Peace." The idea behind this is that hunger is the cause of all the problems in the world. If we are able to feed everyone, the world will be a much better place in which to live. The war in Vietnam is the result of hunger, and perhaps instead of bombing the people, we should feed them. Perhaps it really makes a difference whether the people there are fed by Communists or by us, so long as they are fed.

Joe Bark, the head of the ALC Youth Department, is the man behind this idea. He wants students to attend the conference over their Thanksgiving vacation and to initiate programs leading to a solution of this problem. If you agree, I would urge you to attend to aid. If you disagree, why not go and play the part of the "Gadfly."

Concerning the "State of the Campus," we learn that Dana is about in the middle of the road. We are far ahead of some schools in that dancing has been legalized here and that we are not forced to attend chapel. However, some other colleges have progressed to the point of allowing the students a vote on the faculty committees and one college is even considering giving academic credit to students who wish to spend a quarter in one of our ghettos. I think we are reasonably well off here at Dana.

Snowbeck Is First S.A.M. Speaker

The first Society for the Advancement of Management (SAM) meeting this year was held on September 28, in the Presidents' Room.

Mark McKenzie, president of the organization opened the meeting by giving some of the background of SAM. SAM's objective is to bring college students and businessmen closer together. This is accomplished through guest speakers, by tours, and by films. SAM is a national organization, and Dana competes with the other university chapters on a point system for a performance award, given annually. Members receive national publications, plus SAMSCRIPT, a local chapter paper published by Jay Planalp. SAM awards three scholarships second semester to business administration majors. There is no required major to join SAM.

The guest speaker at the meeting was A. J. Snowbeck, Dana's business manager. Mr. Snowbeck said that Dana is a nonprofit organization, and that all the income gets spent either in the year it is received or in later years. The cost of faculty salaries and the expenses of running administrative offices are usually pretty well set before school starts. True management is involved in operating the educational buildings, dormitories, cafeteria, coffee shop, etc.

Budgeting for operations is relatively simple since costs are assumed to be about the same as the previous years and trends in expenses are considered. The budget comes close to total expenditures unless something is left out.

Mr. Snowbeck went on to say that in purchasing, the problem is not buying for the least amount. The problem is buying the right equipment for the need. The wrong equipment at any price is expensive.

To the seniors he added that in going out into the business world they will find that little attention will be paid to them unless they show they have good judgment and prove that they can carry out their ideas.

A question and answer period followed.

Dana Penalized 70 Yards; Plainsmen Run To Victory

Last Saturday Dana lost its first regular season football game to Nebraska Wesleyan University, 13-0. While the Plainsmen may have left the field unblemished on the scoreboard, it was not so physically for the Vikings gave them a tough fight all the way. Again it was their own mistakes and penalties that gave the Vikings the most trouble, with 70 of 85 yards possible stepped off against them; while Wesleyan lost only 20 out of 30 possible yards.

Defense was the big point of the game. In the first three quarters the Dana pass wish was so good that of 8 pass attempts the Plainsmen completed only one, two were incomplete and four times the quarterback was dropped for a loss. In the entire game Wesleyan completed only two passes.

Dana kicked off to begin the game, Wesleyan ran the ball to their own 34. Immediately the Viking defense showed their strength, holding the Plainsmen to less than a yard and dropping the quarterback once for a five-yard loss. Dana ran the Wesleyan punt to the mid-field stripes, but the Plainsmen's defense also being tough and the Vikings were forced to punt. A Viking penalty was called on the play, but the ball went into the goal and the penalty was declined. Wesleyan moved the ball back to mid-field, where their drive stalled and they kicked to the Dana twenty-two. Unfortunately, a personal foul called against one of the Vikings gave the Plainsmen the ball on Dana's 35.

Wesleyan moved to a first down on the 25. Then they tried for the down with fourth down and one yard. Dana held and it was their ball on the 16. The first play went for no gain, and a Dana penalty was declined. A five yard run, eight yard pass to Bob Woods, a fifteen yard run by Bill Sorensen and a penalty for delay of game had the Vikes start the second quarter with first and fifteen on their own 39.

On the first play of the quarter, an incomplete pass, quarterback Ralph Mayer was shaken up and replaced by Bob Lawhead. Mayer returned on Dana's next set of downs. Able to make only a small yardage, Dana was forced to punt. The two teams finished the rest of the ball exchanging punts after only one set of downs. Dana incurred two more penalties, both declined.

Wesleyan again received in the second half. Their receiver dropped the ball on the five, then picked it up and ran to the 27. Dana declined a Wesleyan penalty on their first down, then Rick Shiboda scooted to the Plainsmen's 46. After 3 downs and only 6 yards Nebraska Wesleyan punted to the Viking 25, but a penalty on their part brought the ball back to be kicked over. This time the ball hit on the Viking 35 and bounced back to their 45.

The first Viking play from scrimmage was a long pass to Wendell Whichter on the Plainsman's 34. Whichter was hit hard on the 31 and dropped the ball. Nebraska Wesleyan recovered the ball on the 34. They were unable to go anywhere and punted to the Dana 43.

Dana squeezed through a first down with fourth and inches. On the next play Wesleyan intercepted a deflected pass and ran to the Dana 34.

Tom Wicks was hurt on Nebraska-Wesleyan's first play and was helped off the field, but the Plainsmen were unable to make any yardage. In a fourth and long yardage Wesleyan tried to get a first down on the Dana 45. Then, over on its own 28. Unable to move beyond the 36 Dana punted into Wesleyan's goal.

On the first play from their twenty the Plainsmen moved 20 yards to their 40. A personal foul by a Dana player gave Wesleyan first down on the Dana 45. Then, with third down and inches, Jim Revels dropped the Wesleyan quarterback for a five yard loss. The Plainsmen's punt was partially blocked and the Vikings gained possession on their own 16.

The quarter ended after Dana went eight yards in two downs,

Girls' Intramurals

The east end of the practice field was busy Sunday afternoon as the Dana girls again played intramural softball.

The first game between 2-4 Argo and 3 Mickelsen started slowly, but picked up speed as the teams deadlocked in a tie. The game went into an extra inning to break the 16-16 tie in the bottom of the inning, Glean McClannahan hit a home run to give 2-4 Argo a 17-16 victory.

In the second game the Units-Off Campus team picked off 3 Argo by a score of 26-16. Fourth Mickelsen forfeited to 2 Mickelsen for the third game of the day. The standings after three weeks:

	W	L
3 Argo	2	1
2 Mickelsen	2	1
3 Mickelsen	1	2
2-4 Argo	1	2

This victory wagon was part of the fun at last week's pep rally. Rallies are scheduled for the rest of the season, so make plans to attend each one.

Max Boustead is captured from behind by a Wesleyan Plainsmen.

first down of the last quarter Bill Sorensen smashed through for the first down. But, then Max Boustead was dropped for a loss of two, Ralph Mayer was caught for losses of 6 and 1 yards and the Vikes punted to the Wesleyan 48 from their own 18.

Wesleyan started to move again, their momentum built steadily until they had a fourth down and inches situation on the Dana 14. The defense held them to no gain, but an offside against the Vikings gave Wesleyan first from the eight gave the Plainsmen their first score of the game. The extra point attempt was successful, making the score 7-0, Nebraska Wesleyan.

The kick was returned by Don Harper to the Viking 44, where a Wesleyan personal foul made it first down on the Plainsmen's 41. Unable to penetrate beyond the 40 Dana kicked to the Plainsmen 11.

On the first play from scrimmage Terry Stootsberry ran around five Dana tacklers for a twenty-five yard completion. Two downs later a fifteen yard penalty against Dana put the Plainsmen on the Viking 46. A series of running plays later Nebraska Wesleyan had the ball on the Viking 33 when a Dana offside made it first and five on the Viking 18. Five yards later the Plainsmen had a first down on Dana's 13 with only 32 seconds left in the game. Rick Shibata ran the sweep again for 13 yards and his second touchdown of the game. Wesleyan missed the extra point to leave the score at 13-0, Nebraska Wesleyan.

The kick was downed on the Viking 30 Mayers completed a 86 yard pass as time ran out.

Monday Q'backs Recognize Defense

At the Monday morning Quarterback's Breakfast two Dana football players were honored. Steve Cook, a sophomore, plays defensive end and was the outstanding lineman. According to Coach Walls he could be All-Conference if he keeps up his good work. Dennis Sellon, a junior from Randolph, Nebraska, was chosen outstanding back.

Dennis was a halfback who was moved to full-back because of his size. When Bill Sorensen took over Dennis moved to middle linebacker, where he has played exceptionally well.

The choice of players illustrates clearly the role defense played in Saturday's game. Coach Walls said that it was the finest defensive game he has seen since he came to Dana.

Commenting on Saturday's game Coach Walls said that Dana lost and Wesleyan won on bad breaks for the Vikings. Three times the defense had the Plainsmen stopped cold when penalties gave them first downs; especially on their two scoring drives. Also, the Dana offense had three first downs called back because of penalties.

Saturday Dana plays Midland at Viking Field. Although Midland lost its 230 pound scatback, it still has a tough defense and is steadily improving the offense. The game should be tough and hard hitting, but the Vikings have a good chance of winning.

Dana Adds Eight Teachers, 3 Housemothers To Staff

Eight new teachers and three new housemothers joined the Dana College staff this fall.

A Dana alumnus, Mark Thomsen, '53, has returned to campus as assistant professor of religion and philosophy.

From 1957 to 1966, Rev. Thomsen taught in Nigeria—first at a teacher's training college and later at the Theological College of Northern Nigeria. During the past year, he was the Lutheran campus pastor at State College of Iowa at Cedar Falls.

Rev. Thomsen earned his B.D. at Trinity Seminary and his Th.M. at Princeton Theological Seminary in New Jersey. He has done additional graduate work at Garrett Theological Seminary and Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

Dr. Aristides Sosa, assistant professor of Spanish, is an addition to Dana's modern language faculty.

Dr. Sosa earned a B.A., a Doctor in Social Sciences degree and a Doctor of Laws degree at the University of Havana. He also holds an M.S. from Kansas State Teachers College.

Dr. Sosa held many positions in Cuba before coming to the U.S. in 1959. Among these positions were mayor of the city of Havana; attorney general of the Cuban army; and President of the Military Institute of Technology in Havana.

Dr. Sosa has published 28 books and pamphlets. He came to Dana from Atkinson, Nebraska, where he taught in Atkinson High School.

John Fleishans, instructor in business administration, earned his B.B.A. at the Detroit Institute of Technology and his M.B.A. at Wayne State University in Detroit.

Mr. Fleishans replaced Roger Best, who is now Chairman of the Department of Business Administration at Northwestern State College of Louisiana in Natchitoches.

Dennis Henneman, instructor in theatre and speech, earned his B.A. at North Central College, Naperville, Illinois and his M.A. at the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Henneman came to Dana from Joliet, Illinois, where he taught at the Joliet Township High School.

Mrs. Henneman is a full-time student at Dana.

William Wakefield, instructor of sociology, earned his B.M. at Omaha University. He has done graduate work at O.U. and will receive his M.S. in January.

Mr. Wakefield replaced George Griffith, who is now teaching at Bellevue College in Bellevue, Nebraska.

Bob Simpson, instructor of physical education, came to Dana from Harlan, Iowa, where he taught in the high school.

He received his B.S. from Nebraska State College at Peru and his M.P.E. from the University of Nebraska.

In addition to teaching, Mr. Simpson will be coaching wrestling and assisting in football, basketball and track.

Franklin Gold, instructor of education, received his B.A. from Tarkio College, Tarkio, Missouri. He has done graduate work at the University of Alaska and the University of Nebraska.

Mr. Gold is an exchange teacher on the Humanities and Social Sciences Cooperative Program with the University of Nebraska for one year while Mr Ray Weckmuller finishes his doctoral program.

Stephen Morgan, who was a part-time instructor in English last year, has joined the Dana staff on a full-time basis.

Three new housemothers have also been appointed for the current school year. Mrs. Verna Gutschow, well known Blair resident, will assume the duties of head resident in Rasmussen Hall for men. Mrs. Myra Andersen of Harrison, Nebraska, will assume the same duties in Argo Hall for women and Mrs. Marie Oestman, formerly of Peru State College, will serve as housemother in Holling Hall for men.

Mrs. Claude Larsen of Blair has also been appointed manager of the Dragon's Head, campus coffee shop.

M-Print Left On Viking Field

By Don Nelson

Under cover of darkness Monday evening, students from Midland College, Fremont, burned a gigantic monogram in the center of the Viking Field in honor of President Madsen.

This event was greeted enthusiastically by the Dana students who rushed en masse to thank the Midland visitors; however, their untimely departure left hundreds of the students disappointed and a few took it upon themselves to travel to Fremont to show their appreciation.

Unfortunately, the Midland artists left before they had a chance to complete the repainting of the Dana press box, but payment for the work completed will be given on Saturday by the Dana football team.

Chapel Offers Film On Ghetos

This Friday in Chapel Mr. Robert Kuehner, a former Dana Student, will present a film on the Prince of Peace Volunteers.

This organization is sponsored by the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. It sends young people into the hearts and ghettos of the cities to be of aid in the present urban crisis. The program is open to all who are interested.

Running time for the film is 30 minutes. Bob will be available after the film and on campus for the Homecoming weekend to answer questions.

Mr. Kuehner worked with the Prince of Peace Volunteers in Chicago this year.
