

MITCHELL TRIO TO BE ON CAMPUS

Folk Group To Provide Big Name Entertainment

On Wednesday, the 29th of November, one of the foremost entertaining groups in the field of folk music will be performing on our campus - The Mitchell Trio. Tickets will be on sale from the 13th of this month at $2.00 for students with activity cards, and $3.00 for all others. However students using activity cards must purchase tickets in advance. The performance will be at 8:00 in Borup Coliseum.

"Sex Society" Retreat Theme

"Man in a Sex Centered Society" will be the theme of a joint Dana-Midland Retreat to be held at the Circle R Bible Camp on November 10-12.

Topics to be discussed are: the Biblical point on sex--both in the New and Old Testament; marriage problems and their sociological aspects; abortion and genetic manipulation; and points on sex as presented in the Secular City by Harvey Cox.

A limit of ten boys and ten girls per college has been set for the retreat. Those wishing to attend should sign the list in the Student Center. A non-refundable registration fee of $3.50 must be paid to David Larsen before November 8. Those attending are required to read the chapter on sex in the Secular City by Harvey Cox.

Omaha Artist To Show His Works In November

On November 5-30, Omaha artist Tom Norwood will have his work shown in the Linden Room.

The artist is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana and a graduate of Southern University. He holds a "Bachelor's Degree---plus" in Education with Art as a major and English as a minor teaching field.

Norwood has been with the Omaha Schools since 1964. He worked as a Traveling Art Teacher during the 1964-65 school term at Lothrop, Lake, Kellom and Saratoga elementary schools. Preceding the Federally financed Extended Day Program--with the approval and encouragement of the Principal (Eugene W. Skinner)--the artist conducted several classes after school for youngsters who showed potential and interest in Art at Lothrop Elementary. The following year the artist was assigned to Horace Mann Junior High School and was appointed Department Head for the 1966-67 school term.

As an "artist" Norwood believes that communication via the visual arts is limited only by (1) the imagination and skill of the artist and (2) by the competence and imagination of the observer. As an "educator" he believes in the (1) universality of expression, (2) that youngsters should be afforded every opportunity to express themselves and realize the significance of their ideas as they are reflective of their individuality, and (3) that Art not only contributes to the realization of the complete individual but also provides experiences whereby the individual may become more conversant in the expression of emotions.

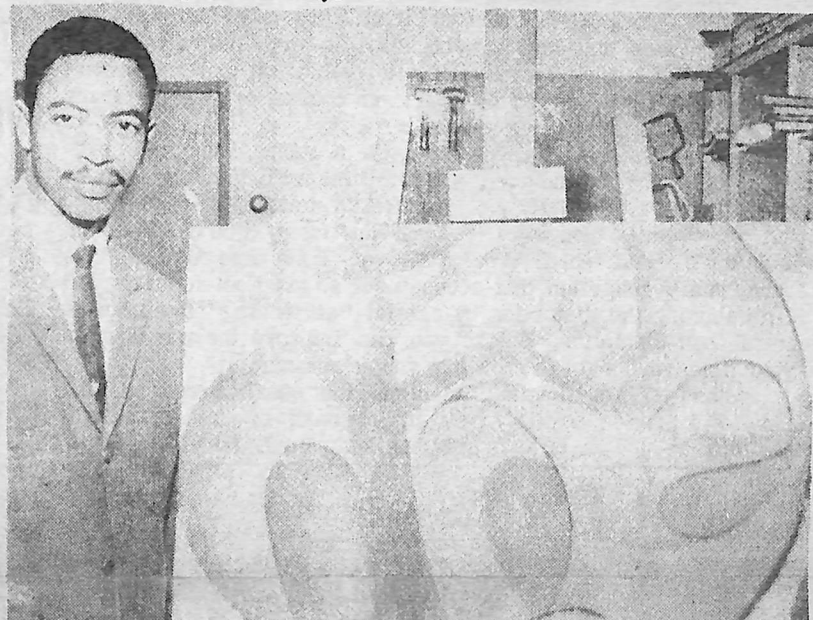

Chapel Schedule

Monday, Nov. 6: Student Chapel 9:30--D. H. A.

Tuesday, Nov. 7: Mr. Mark Thomsen.

Wednesday, Nov. 8: The Psalms in Solo form.

Friday, Nov. 10: Father Shorn, Omaha. "A Roman Catholic View of Reformation"

Tom Norwood communicates via the visual arts. He feels that art enables true expression of the individual.

A French Comedy, "My Three Angels," To Be The First Dramatics Presentation

"My Three Angels," a rollicking comedy about a trio of convicts in a French penal colony who earn themselves halos to wear with their stripes, will open a 3 night engagement at the Alumni Memorial Auditorium beginning November 10, 1967. John Leitel, John Dalton, and Charles Emmons will portray the three engaging rogues who intrigue to set a naughty world to rights.

The locale of "My Three Angels" is Cayenne, French Guiana, in 1910, a penal colony where prisoners are allowed the freedom of the island. Three of them, doing repair work on the community's modest general store, become vital influences in salvaging the destiny of the shopkeeper and his family.

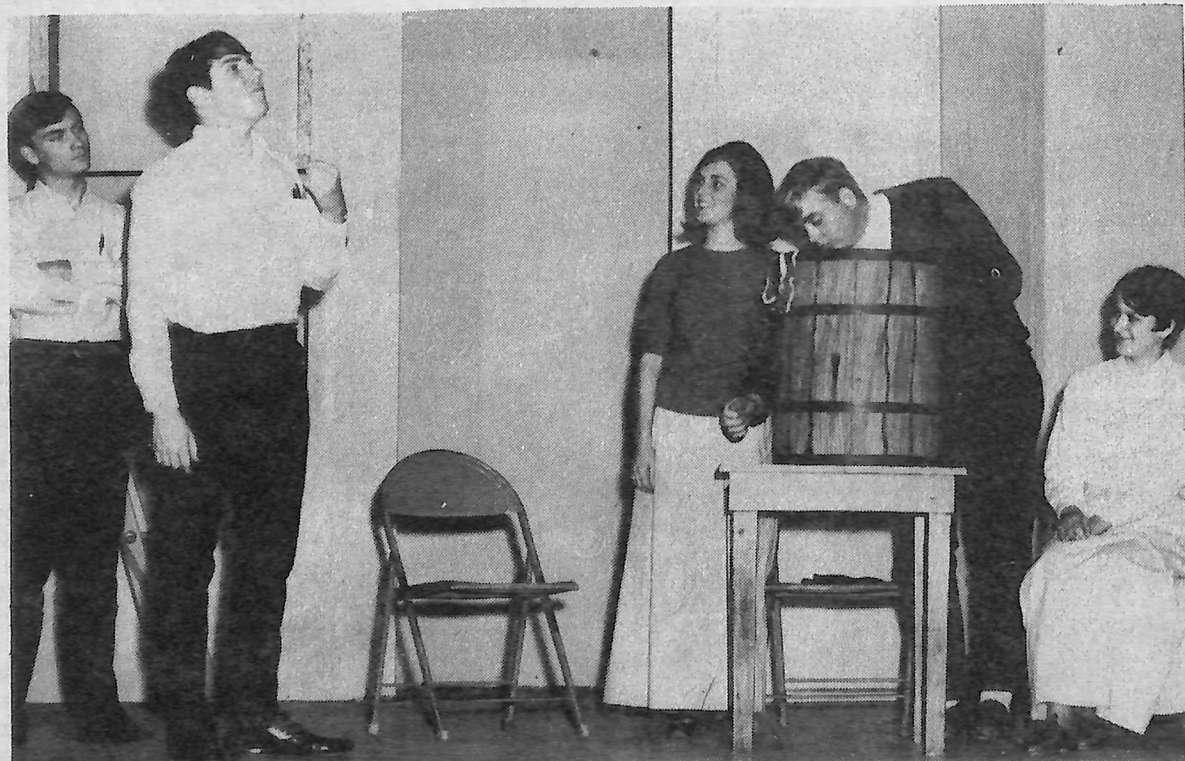

Two of the helpful criminals are gentlemanly murderers serving life terms and the leader of the group is a cheery embezzler of high resourcefulness.

When on Christmas Eve, the store and the finances of the honest, bumbling merchant, Lowell Thomson, are threatened by the arrival from France of his hard-hearted relative, whose intent is to swindle the tradesman, the convicts quickly rally to their own ideas of justice.

By accomplishing "a perfect crime" these beneficent criminals succeed in neatly doing away with the evil menace, and also his most unpleasant cad of a nephew, who is dangerous to the happiness of the daughter of the house. It is an ingenious double erasure that the "angelic" threesome devises, including the forging of a will of the murdered villain. In the end everyone is happier for the intervention of the three convicts.

Pat Darling, Lynn Johnson, and Lowell Thompson will portray the family aided by the convicts' efforts, Jim Lippold, and John Prouty will be seen as the menaces whom the convicts deal with, and Kay Ringhand and Chris Eastland make up the remainder of the cast.

Chuck Emmons, John Leitel, Lynn Johnson, John Dalton and Pat Darling prepare for 'My Three Angels.'

Voice Students Sing In Chapel

Six of the voice students under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Slocum will be featured in the November 8 Chapel period. Each student will present a solo version of selected Psalms as follows: Sharon Boone, Ps. 100; Ed Piner, Ps. 23; Naomi Kenyon, Ps. 84; Ed Olson, Ps. 56; Patricia Foresburg, Ps. 130; Joel Herman, Ps. 25.

PROF. GEORGE SPEAKS AT I. R. C. MEETING

Prof. Walter George, a native of Germany, will be the speaker at the first meeting of the International Relations Club, Monday, Nov. 6, in D. H. A. at 8 p.m.

Video Equipment Getting Good Use

Video has come to Dana! Now in its second month of use on campus, the new video "set up," vidicon camera, video amplifier, four monitors (television sets), and video tape, is stationed in Old Main. The equipment works on the same principles as television recording and transmitting, using electrical impulses to tape and reproduce sight and sound.

So far, closed circuit television has dominated the field of use. Video tapings have been used in speech classes, in dramatic production rehearsals and in teaching methods classes for students presently in the teaching block. It has also been used by faculty to tape a lecture to be given at a time he is not able to attend class.

Open circuit television uses will allow the equipment to be used to record a commercial television program or a presentation of E. T. V. for future replay to students.

The video uses are seen as unlimited and there are future plans to include receiving stations in the new library and every classroom building. These stations will be "hooked up" to a central transmitting center, presently Old Main.

Delta Sig Sweetheart Candidates

Editorially Speaking - - - - -

A Matter Of Time

A basic question which students often ask is "Where is my time going?" It might be surprising to note that the student who works at a regular job can probably answer it in more detail and with more certainty than one who does not, because his study time already has a limitation. For many, it is a shock to realize that they really don't know how much time they spend on a given course, or even how many hours they spend doing anything at all.

In a recent issue of Harpers Magazine a comparison of how executives thought they spend their working time with their secretaries records of how they really did revealed an amazing subjective distortion. What they thought they spent the most time on turned out in fact to be that which they spent very little time on at all. It is this involuntary distortion that accounts for so much wasted time, and it is eliminating the distortion by careful "accounting" that informs a careful self-discipline. Before you can improve the way that you use your time, you've got to know how you're not using it.

Regardless of its original intention, the question reminds the student to examine carefully his management of time as a basis for deciding on his own if he is spending too many hours elsewhere.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

A subject of discussion among many student groups at many colleges is "Student Rights." Should students be allowed a part in making the decisions which affect them as students? Should students be allowed to determine policies which are considered purely student affairs? This year the Student Council has decided that one of its objectives shall be to try to answer these and other related questions.

At the Council meeting of October 19, after the reports received from the questionnaire and after a rather spirited discussion, it was decided that the Student Body President ought to initiate this program. I was then mandated to draft a resolution concerning Student Rights and Responsibilities. This resulted in the four page resolution which is now posted on the Student Council Bulletin Board just outside the Student Office.

It seems to me that with this step we have begun a program which may in time result in dynamic changes for the College. The resolution advocates such things as student government supervision and financing of student publications, student determination of their own dress code, student determination of dormitory rules, student participation in setting policy for the center, student participation in academic committees (with voting rights), and a student count system. But, along with these things the resolution makes the point that all these rights we want carry a great deal of responsibility. If we are going to be permitted to establish our own rules, then we must be ready to show that we have the responsibility to carry these out.

If we are going to ask for responsibility, we must be ready to accept it. For that reason I am asking the Student Body to realize their responsibility and also to realize that your individual irresponsibility reflects on the whole student body, whether you like it or not. Let's begin working to show that we are adult and that we are ready to enter into the decision making of the college. If each student does this, he will do more than he is able to believe to aid the cause of student council this year.

Miss Penick, Mr. Brandeis Receive Their Doctorates

Miss Sarah Penick and Mr. Allan Brandeis received their doctoral degrees this summer.

Sarah Penick

Miss Penick received a Ph.D from the University of Missouri at Columbia. After graduating from Park College, Miss Penick completed her master's degree in French literature at the University of Missouri in 1963.

Miss Penick wrote her dissertation on Charles Pinot Duclos. She has been assistant professor of French at Dana for one year.

Mr. Allan Brandeis graduated from the St. Louis Institute of Music and then began graduate work at Boston University. He received a Doctor of Music Arts (D. Mus. A.) from Boston University. The emphasis of this degree is on performance. Four public recitals and qualifying examinations in the literature of music, music theory, orchestration, and counterpoint are part of the degree requirements. Mr. Brandeis' dissertation was an analysis of the solo piano variations of Johannes Brahms.

Mr. Brandeis taught at the University of North Dakota before coming to Dana last year.

Delta Sigmas Celebrate Second Year of Pledging

The second annual appearance of large wooden paddles inscribed with three Greek letters-Delta Sigma Omega-announced the members of the '67-'68 pledge class of the fraternity Delta Sigma Omega, now in its third year as a campus organization.

These paddles are to be applied to the carrier's backside by the current members of the fraternity, who each have one "swat" he can wield on each pledge. After which "swat" he must sign his name to the back of the paddle. Each pledge is to have all the frat members' signatures.

These paddles are not the only part of the initiation program. Two other of the various pledge requirements and rituals are that a pledge must address his potential fraternity brothers as "Sir" and he must be able to recite the Greek Alphabet at least once and ideally twice before a lighted match he is holding burns down.

Pledging will end December 9 with the Christmas Formal, sponsored by the Delta Sigma Omegas and the Kappi Chi Lambdas. The pledging program for the Kappa Chi Lambda fraternity will also close with the event.

Delta Sigma Omega Pledges rally around the huge second year birthday cake.

Vikings Roll Over Red Raiders , 7-0 In Second Tri-Conference Victory

Last week the Vikings rolled over the Red Raiders of Northwestern 7-0. The strong Vike defense made the single tally good as they had their way with Northwestern. The Red Raiders threatened only 3 times, once on a blocked Viking punt and twice under their own steam.

The Red Raiders threatened early in the first quarter, marching 46 yards in 8 plays to the Dana 10, where a field goal attempt was wide. Then, as they were nearing the end of the quarter, Northwestern recovered a Viking fumble on the 41 of Dana. Unable to move past the 39, they attempted a field goal. It fell short and Dana had the ball on their own 16.

The Vikings picked up steam, aided by a twenty-eight yard pass to Jerry Voll that ended the first quarter. Dana started the second quarter with a fumble, recovered for a loss of 5, an incomplete pass, and a loss of 5 yards when Ralph Mayer was caught attempting to pass.

Ten minutes into the second quarter Dennis Sellon intercepted a Northwestern pass and ran the ball to their 44. Screen plays and a 15 yard Northwestern penalty later the Vikings were on the three yard line with first and goal. Ralph Mayer went in from the two, the extra point was good, and the Vikings led 7-0. Four plays later the half ended.

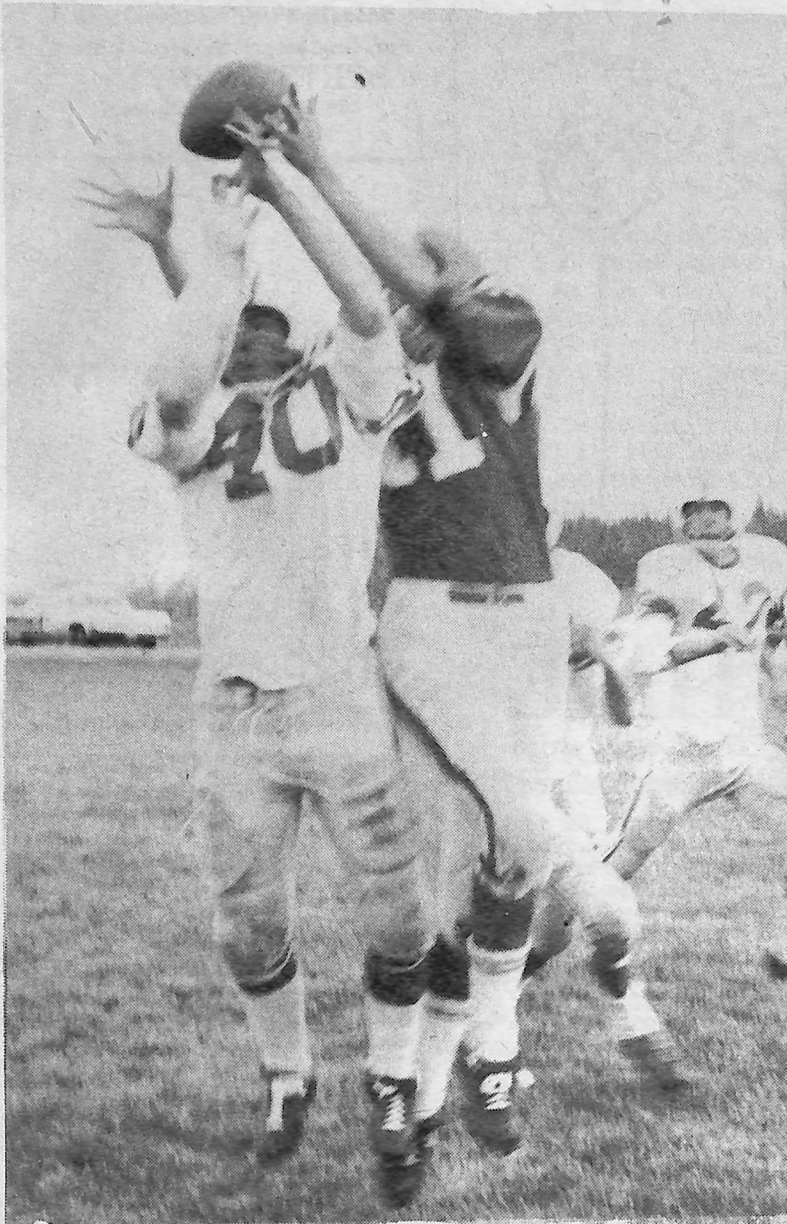

Neither team was able to move very much until 14 minutes had elapsed. Then a high pass from center, a blocked Dana punt, and the Red Raiders had possession on the Viking 16. The quarter ended after one play. Northwestern was unable to do anything from their threatening position. Dennis Sellon then intercepted another pass and ran it to the 38 of Northwestern.

Dana immediately proceeded to fumble, but Northwestern was unable to move. The Red Raiders threatened once more, moving 39 yards in 12 plays to the Viking 18, and fumbling the ball to Dana. Both teams were unable to mount any sort of a drive for the rest of the game.

Practice Begins For Basketball

Basketball practice started Tuesday Oct. 17, with a turnout of 25 hopeful Vikings. Among these were seven returning lettermen and one returning squad man; also present were two Junior College transfers and fifteen Freshmen. An unknown number of players will join the squad after completion of the football season.

Coach Lemon refused to comment on prospects this early in the season. The first game is at Wayne State Nov. 29, while the first home game is Dec. 1 against Doane.

Last Football Game At Westmar Saturday

Dana plays Westmar at Lemars, Ia., Saturday. Westmar is trying to do something that has never been done by any team in the Tri-State Conference; that is, complete an undefeated season. Now only the Vikings can stop them.

Their big gun has been a back named Ferguson. In four years he has rushed for more than 1,000 yards annually. It is probable he will be chosen All-American this year. Also likelihoods for Westmar are an invitation to a post-season, small-college, bowl game and a National NAIA ranking.

The Vikings do not plan to roll over and die for Westmar. Dana's defensive secondary is tenth nationally in pass defense. They also plan to have a few tricks up their collective sleeve. Dan Bryan and Langston Bradley could see action as offensive backs, to give the back field a little more power and speed. Langston started at defensive half back until an injury in the Midland game sidelined him.

Bob Lawhead and Steve Miller have been looking good in practice; they give Dana the possibility of fielding two backfields. This would be done to keep Westmar off-balance and in hopes that one of them will be able to move.

So far this year the Vikings have been cursed with a sputtering offense. Coupled with this year's consistently good defense a good offensive game could stop Westmar cold and hand them an upset defeat.

Intramural Tournament

Lack of time will prohibit the completion of the regular Intramural Football schedule. Instead, a tournament will be held among the top five teams for the Championship. Two teams are undefeated, the other three have one loss apiece. This situation will be off set by allowing the undefeated teams two losses before elimination.

This Sunday's games will be as follows:

1:30 p.m. C A's vs 3 W
3:00 p.m. 2 W vs Marrieds
Off Campus - Bye

Should the winner between 2W and Married lose to Off-Campus, that team would then be allowed to play another game.

Bob Simpson Is New Coach

By Gordon Putnam

Newest face in the Viking Athletic staff is that of Bob Simpson. He is currently line coach with the football team and teaches P.E. and Health classes. He will also coach the wrestling Squad and work with the track team.

After earning his Bachelor's at Peru State, Coach Simpson went on for his Master's at the University of Nebraska. He also hopes to receive his Doctorate there. Since leaving the Navy ten years ago he has taught at Cambridge, Wimor and Harlan; giving instruction in almost every sport.

Coach Bob Simpson

Married twelve years, and with two children he hopes to be able to settle down here at Dana. He finds the atmosphere exciting, and already knows most of the students. He has found that college students are different than High School students in that they come here for an education, are more willing to work and so, easier to teach.

BOARD OF REGENTS MEETING

Dana's Board of Regents had a very successful meeting here on October 12 and 13. Last year's officers were re-elected. They are: Mr. Lorentz Thorngren, President; Mr. James R. Hansen, Vice-president, Mr. Ben E. Krantz, Secretary; and Mr. A. J. Snowbeck, Treasurer. An Executive Committee to assist the Board was elected. These members consist of: Dr. Erwin H. Goldenstein; Miss Margaret R. Fischer; Mr. Harold A. Miller; and Mr. Irving F. Jensen.

The Board received and approved plans for the new Library-Learning Resources Center. Bids will be let as soon as necessary requirements for connections with the Federal Government can be met.

Directions for the Administration to make long-range plans for a women's dormitory and an Auditorium-Fine Arts Center were given. Also, they were given permission to work with a professional landscaping architect to discuss plans for the plaza between the Center and Borup, and between the oval and the new library.

The constitution of Ekklesia Koinonias, Dana's student congregation, was given the Board's final approval.

The Board continues in its effort to maintain a good salary schedule for the faculty. This must be done in order to keep competent professors on campus.

A resolution was made directing the administration in a long-range fund raising program. This will involve endowed professorships presented by individual donors.

Much appreciation was expressed by members of the Board for the apparent good spirit of the student body and the outstanding work of the Homecoming chairman and committee.

Associated Union Meet At K.S.U.

Representatives from Dana College will attend the Regional Conference of the Association of College Unions - International, to be held at Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas, on November 2nd through 4th. They will attend program sessions and problem bazaars to discuss the cultural, social, recreational and educational programs provided by college unions.

Colleges and universities from Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Missouri will be represented. Of major interest at the conference will be "A Challenge from Your Association", delivered by Mr. Richard Blackburn, International President of the Association. Among the many program sessions are those entitled "Controversy as a Program Element", "The Underground Film", and "Built-in Competition on a College Campus", the last a session concerned with offering alternatives, to drugs, sex, and alcohol.

The Association, founded in 1914, is officially represented on over 650 campuses throughout the world. The purpose of the Association is to provide an opportunity for unions to join studying and improving their services, and to assist in the development of new college unions. The college union on each campus is regarded as an integral part of the total educational program of the institution.

Representing Dana will be Ken Lizer, Social Director and Phil Pagel, Director Public Relations

TIME

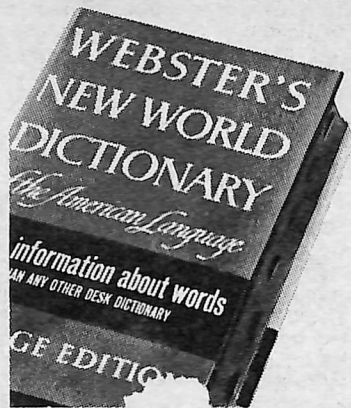

The longest word in the language?

By letter count, the longest word may be pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis, a rare lung disease. You won't find it in Webster's New World Dictionary, College Edition. But you will find more useful information about words than in any other desk dictionary.

Take the word time. In addition to its derivation and an illustration showing U.S. time zones, you'll find 48 clear definitions of the different meanings of time and 27 idiomatic uses, such as time of one's life. In sum, everything you want to know about time.
