Dana Sends $391 In Gifts To Marines In Vietnam

During the week just preceding the Thanksgiving Holidays the Student Council sponsored a campus drive to raise money for Christmas gifts to be sent to a unit of American Marines in Viet Nam. As a result of this three day drive, the council was able to send well over 200 pounds of assorted gifts to Viet Nam. The gifts were purchased and mailed from a fund of $391, the total raised in the drive.

The idea for this campaign arose from the spirit of the season we just passed through. The members of the Student Council felt that giving Christmas gifts to American men in Viet Nam would be a most fitting way for Dana to express its thanks. They also were interested in demonstrating to our men in Viet Nam that the people who are lucky enough to remain in the states are concerned about those who must be there.

Student Body President Steve Bohling said, "Regardless of our feeling about the war we wanted to show our compassion to the men forced to do the fighting. We hope we have expressed, in some way, these ideas to our men in Viet Nam."

The drive began in chapel, Wednesday, Nov. 15.

Bob Siebert related the story of a Christmas he had spent in Viet Nam, and the Student Body President explained the plans and purposes of the drive. Wednesday afternoon a letter was circulated to the Student Body explaining the campaign in greater detail.

After the money came in, the Council was very happy to see the amount the Students and Faculty were able to raise. "We're certain that the men of the Demolition Unit we chose will be more than happy with these gifts," expressed Steve Bohling.

This drive was a success due to the work of many students. The Student Council would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who worked: Karen Larson, Diane Petersen, Debbie Likness, Gordon Putnam, Karen Evenson, Roger Kaldahl and Robert Siebert.

Two Movies Set For Wide Screen

For the first time on Dana's campus, the on-campus movie will be shown in Cinemascope. The Social Committee has purchased a new wide screen to eliminate the overlap problem.

"Ten North Frederick", a color movie based on John O'Hara's novel by the same name, will be the movie this Saturday night.

The movie will be held in A. H. A. at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Admission is only 28¢ or activity card.

Next weekend Frank Sinatra will star in "Von Ryan's Express." Admission will be 50¢ or activity card.

Dance Will Follow Basketball Game

Friday night after the basketball game T. Harrison B. & The Bumbles from The University of Nebraska will play for a dance sponsored by the social committee.

"The Soul and blues group are well known in the Lincoln area and should provide a good rhythmic beat," said Ken Lizer, social committee director.

The dance will be held on the tile floor area from after the game til 12:30. Admission is 75¢ (activities cards are good).

Next Wednesday Is Open Forum

An "Open Forum" will be held Wednesday, December 6, in DHA at 8:00 p.m.

The purpose of the "Open Forum" is to discuss the resolution on "Student Rights and Responsibilities" which was presented to Student Council last month.

Students are urged to attend and give their views on the issues. Questions may be put from the floor at any time.

President C. C. Madsen and Dean of Students Erling Rasmussen will represent the administration. Faculty representatives will be Dr. Bernard Matthies and Miss Luella Nielsen. Student members of the panel will be Dan Busse, moderator; Steve Bohling, Student President; Richard Vierk, Hermes editor, and Marilyn Hansen, Danian co-editor.

Christmas Musicals Will Be Heard Sunday

The music department's annual Christmas program will be presented this Sunday, Dec. 3, at 3:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. in AMA.

The Christmas production is a combined effort of 135 members of the Dana College Choir, Chapel Choir and Dana's Band. The featured number is Paul Christiansen's "Una Sancta" a three part religious narration. Joel Herman is narrator and soloist.

Each group will present its own portion of the program with a combined effort on "Una Sancta."

The Dana College Choir will present three selections: "All Praise to Thee Eternal God", an ancient melody arranged by Matthew Lundquist; "What Child Is This", an English tune; "Green Sleeves", arranged by Parker-Shaw; and "Mary Sat Spinning", a Wendish folk melody arranged by Paul Christiansen, featuring a Soprano solo by Trish Forsberg.

The Band will perform a selection of traditional and novelty Christmas numbers. The Band's program includes: "Walt Disney Overture"; "Alleluia", a vocal solo with band accompaniment by Sharon Boone; "Adeste Fidelis", a Morton Gould arrangement; "Toy Trumpet", a Trumpet Section novelty; "Christmas Festival", which features audience participation; and "The Hallejah Chorus", a combined choir and band arrangement.

The Chapel Choir will also present three numbers: "Brother John's Noel" (trad.); "In The Bleak Midwinter", by Rossetti-Holst; and "The Virgin Mary Had A Baby Boy", a West Indian spiritual arranged by Robert De Cormier.

Students and Faculty are urged to attend this special Christmas program. A freewill offering will be collected.

Marty To Deal With Reshuffle Of Religions

Dr. Martin Marty, one of the leading theologians in the United States, will be on Dana's campus next week. Dr. Marty will speak on "The Reshuffling of Religious Forces in America." The free lecture will be given on December 4 at 7:30 P.M. in DHA.

Dr. Marty, a native Nebraskan, is currently associate editor of "The Christian Century" magazine and is chairman of the Historical Field of the University of Chicago's Divinity School. These are only two of his many significant positions.

As an author, Dr. Marty has contributions in over fifty books and more than five hundred of his articles have been published in periodicals.

All students are urged to hear Dr. Marty's lecture. As stated by Pastor Jensen "surely we will not have a bigger name on campus in many a year!"

CHAPEL SCHEDULE

- Dec. 4 Student Chapel, DHA, 9:30 p.m.
- Dec. 5 Pastor Youngquist, Chapelain, Midland College
- Dec. 6 Christmas Carols, Students of Mrs. Slocum
- Dec. 8 Mr. Conrad Warner

Annual Christmas Party Offers Dinner and Dance

According to Ken Lizer, chairman of the social committee, Dana's annual Christmas party will be held Dec. 13 in the Student Center.

The Christmas party idea was initiated last year and due to its success it was decided to continue the event annually. The party includes not only a dance, but also a special dinner and raffle contest.

The center will be closed at 5:00 p.m. on the thirteenth to prepare for the party. Dinner will be served from 7-8:30 with the dance starting at 8:00 o'clock and running till 11:00. The Dave Kavitch Orchestra will provide the music for the evening.

There will be a raffle contest for prizes. Each chance will cost 25¢. All other events of the evening are free.

Students are requested to wear coats and ties for men and cocktail dresses for women. No one will be admitted without a coat and tie.

The Canteen will remain open during the evening for those who wish refreshments or want to utilize the games available.

Anyone interested in helping to decorate the campus for Christmas should meet at the Student Center Public Relations office Saturday, December 2, at 10:00 A.M. Those helping will receive free passes to Saturday evening's on-campus movie.

Rumpelstiltskin To Be Presented

Many children will be taking a trip to the edge of the world to see what Rumpelstiltskin is brewing in his pot. This all-time favorite fairy tale will be presented on December 12th thru the 14th at 1 o'clock in Alumni Memorial Auditorium.

The play is the drama department's annual Christmas program for the children of Blair and Surrounding towns. "Rumpelstiltskin" was dramatized by Margery Evernden and will be directed by Mr. Henneman.

Children everywhere have delighted in seeing this popular fairy tale dramatized. They are thrilled by the magic of Rumpel's boiling pot and Rumpel's influence on the beautiful Miller's daughter. Even sophisticated adults will enjoy returning to childhood years and seeing this favorite fairy tale performed.

The cast for the childrens play is as follows: The Snow Fairy, Norma Carlson; Rumpelstiltskin, Mike Beech; Toby, The Miller's Apprentice, Mike Schutte; The Miller, Lowell Thomsen; Marianne, the Miller's Daughter, Candy Holverson; The King, A. John Peters; The Chamberlain, Ron Hutton; The Queen Mother, Carolyn Scholl; The Lady-in-Waiting, Norma Wilkins.

PASS — FAIL —

Many schools across the country are now trying a new "pass-fail" option on a few lower-division courses in order to relieve academic pressure on students.

A student taking one of these courses receives credit for the course, but the grade is not figured in his grade-point-averages. This enables students to take electives in various fields without worrying whether it will affect their G. P. A.

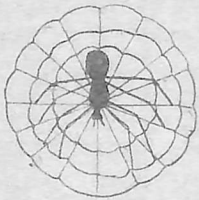

Wartburg College, in Waverly, Iowa, is typical of colleges offering the pass-fail option. Students are permitted to take one of these courses per term.

"Many students find a pass-fail course a welcome relief from the academic pressure cooker," Waverly Dean of Faculty, Mahlon H. Hellerich said.

EDITOR'S LAMENT

Getting out a student newspaper is no easy task - just ask anyone on the Hermes. If we print jokes, people say we're silly. If we don't, we are too serious. If we study all day, we ought to be getting the news. If we go out and try to get the news, we ought to be studying.

If we don't print contributions, we are stifling the creativity of students; if we print them ours is amateurish. If we make a change in the other fellow's write-up, we're too critical. If we don't, we're accused of sloppy editing. If we clip things from other papers, we're too lazy to write our own material. If we don't, we're too stuck on our own stuff. Likely as not some guy will say we got the idea for this from some other paper--well, we did!

The Spider Speaks

By Bob Siebert

This week I'm going to pull a 180 degree turn from usual column.

Has anyone ever noticed how many outstanding things (Sorry, Mrs. George) this campus has to offer?

We have what is probably one of the most modern campus centers of any small college, and even though it isn't exactly a student center yet, the Administration seems to be on our side or at least neutral in our attempt to change it.

As to the Administration, although most of us seem to have the opinion that they're forty years behind times they are a darn sight better than the Administration at other colleges. Did you know that the student body of Morningside College has to go to Chapel? Accepted that our administration is not a fire-breathing liberal; at least they're trying.

The Student Council? It is better than average. They at least make an effort to improve the lot of the students (which is no easy job with the obvious "don't give a damn" attitude of said students as a whole).

This paper is completely uncensored by administration and faculty; quite a few school papers are. O. K., so anyone is welcome to say what he or she likes (too bad no one will take us up on that!)

About the dorms, well, no school is perfect. They may be falling apart, but at least they're comfortable now. Besides, they look good anyway.

The general feeling on the faculty seems to be that they are very good and in some cases even brilliantly inspired. (I should definitely pick up a few points on that statement). Like the administration, some of the teachers may be a bit old-fashioned, but as a whole they get there skull stuffing across.

The student body, while apathetic, is at least not over-run with bums and pseudo-intellectuals. This of course (at least, in my opinion) makes it a hundred percent better than some loud and active campus! (But, then again, the C. I. A. recruiters seemed to miss us this year, so I really can't say that we don't have any mutton-headed rabble-rowsers aboard.)

Anyway, over-all, this campus can be compared to any other school and come out ahead in almost all aspects.

By the way, since I never got any mail except "hate" junk on my other columns cutting the campus down, maybe this one will inspire some of you to write your opinions on the good things of our school. (Even hate notes are better than a dusty mail box).

Letters To The Editor

Too Many "Powers" Turns Word Sour

Dear Mr. Vierk,

I was one of Dana's representatives at the Iowa-Nebraska regional meeting of the United States National Student Association, and it was brought to my attention there that the NSA was receiving a lot of adverse publicity because of a poor choice of terms. It is the purpose of this letter to clear up the misconceptions arising from the use of one of these particular terms.--STUDENT POWER.

Black Power, Flower Power, and now Student Power!

Black Power is a deliberate attempt on the part of some militant Negroes to greatly enlarge the gulf between the black and the white, in order that their conquest of any community spirit which might happen to exist might begin.

Flower Power is the name applied to the (now non-existent) Hippies. This, too, has taken on bad connotations, although these have not been directly solicited.

Throughout the history of mankind, there has been a tendency for the larger portion of humanity to misconstrue the intentions of the vocal minority. In many cases this misunderstanding has been directly or indirectly solicited. In others, it occurs in spite of all intentions to the contrary. It is intended in this letter to clear up one of the misunderstandings of the last type mentioned.

Now, students, the most highly educated group of the American populace, ask for power, and the connotations applied to the other groups are immediately slapped on us. We try to behave in such a manner as to alleviate the fears which this misnomer arouses in those who are not deeply involved in our way of life.

We, as students, are merely requesting that our rights as mature persons be granted to us. We are being trained in the many areas which deal with our future vocations. We are not, however, recipient of any training in making decisions which will occur in our day to day lives. It is the opportunity to learn to make those decisions which we now seek.

We realize that we are not infallible and that we will bungle some of our decisions. We also realize that man profits from his blunders, and we feel that it would be far better to err in a relatively protected environment than to wait until we get out into the world where the consequences of our mistakes are uncontrollable.

Perhaps it seems from the preceding paragraph that we seek over-protection, but I do not think this is so. It is not possible for humans to avoid errors, but we young adults of today are far more prepared (because of our education) to shoulder than has ever been the case before.

The power we students seek is the responsibility of making decisions which are pertinent to our college lives. It seems therefore, that rather than appealing for student power, we should advocate the term "student responsibility", since it is this which we are striving for. We do not wish to usurp that which is not rightfully ours. We only want to widen our educational opportunities to include decision-making which affects our lives as students.

Henry E. Thornberg

DANA PROBLEMS

Ever since the beginning of the school year Dana students have been discussing the problems with Dana College. They have discussed these problems with their friends in the Dragon's Head, the Linden Room, and other places known to be gathering place of students. They are expecting something to be done about these problems, but they aren't doing anything about them except talking them over. Now is the time for us to do something about them!

Revising the dress code, getting the student center back for us, and other reforms will never be possible if we don't take action now. Making our feelings public will help, but we must make them very public and let the administration become aware of our discontent. I am but a lowly freshman, but I am definitely aware of the problems we, as students, are facing. If we don't do something now, the freshman class will be graduating in 4 years under the same rules.

An Awakening Freshman

PROF'S VIEWPOINT

In regard to the recent column by Spyder, I would like to make the following observations.

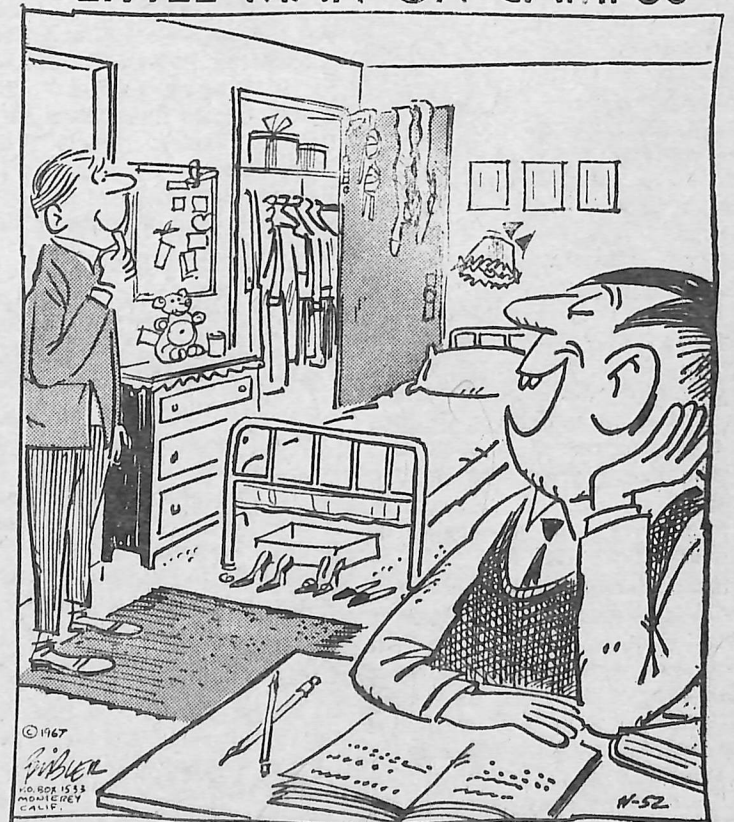

One, criticism of the Administration's foreign and military policy in Vietnam has nothing whatsoever to do with one's sympathy and support of men fighting in Vietnam. Yesterday noon I was the guest of a family whose son arrived in Vietnam two weeks ago as an infantryman. The mother of that G. I. believes our present policy in Vietnam is unwise and immoral. Sympathy and support of her son have not prevented her from condemning the men who have sent him there. Is it not possible that the best way to support the G. I.'s in Vietnam is to attempt to change our foreign policy?

Two, one would wish that the concern which Spider obviously has for his fellow-Americans would also in a small way be extended to the Vietnamese civilians who have suffered most because of this war and to the Viet Cong who are impersonally tagged as "Charlie".

Three, Spyder's intimation that Hawks have more guts than Doves needs no comment.

Matmen Hope For Better Year

With the end of football season, practice for the winter sports can now begin in earnest. Both the wrestling and basketball squads will be augmented by football players. The wrestling squad, under Coach Simpson, especially needs these men.

Last year's record was none too impressive, losing all the meets and having only one man, Dean Ness, place in the Tri-Conference meet. Last year's squad was hampered by a lack of players and the fact that the coach was borrowed from Blair.

Returning from this squad will be: Tom Bisbee, a senior from Arlington, Nebr.; Stu Schettler, a junior from Blair; Dean Ness, a sophomore from Underwood, Ia.; and Ron Briggs, a sophomore from Neligh. With the others who are out, the squad now numbers 30. The team must look forward to a year of rebuilding, but its main problems have been remedied and some success can be expected.

P.E.M. Defeat Varsity Cagers

November the 13th the basketball Varsity tangled with the P. E. M. Club, and came out second best, 31-29. The men rolled up an early 10-0 lead, and stayed in front until the third quarter. Forced to play catch-up ball, the women, sparked by Karen , with seven field goals and three out of five free throws, wore down the varsity with their superior ball-handling.

Though they were fairly decent in the first two quarters the men couldn't hold on to the ball in the second half; they probably use the excuse that they had to wear their boxing gloves backward.

In an exciting fourth quarter, with the two teams trading the lead, the varsity bench grew quite careless about the number of men on the court, often using two extra players. Coach Lemon was even seen attempting to force gratuities upon the referee; but being a fine, upstanding, all-American referee, he told the Coach to wait until no one was watching.

After the game several scouts were seen leaving the field house chortling with glee. Coach Lemon, take heed!

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS GIVEN

By Charles Eastland

This is the time of football's post-season awards, given to those players and teams whose extra effort put them head and shoulders above the rest. High among these coveted honors is a berth on the All-Conference Team.

Chosen from Dana for this honor are Bob Longacre, a senior from Omaha and an offensive tackle; Gary Hansen, a senior from Blair and a defensive linebacker; and Steve Cook, as sophomore defensive end.

Those given Honorable Mention by the conference are Bob Buss, Bill Sorenson, John Knight, Brent Petersen, Bob Hansen and Dennis Keefer.

An intra-squad honor is that of Most Valuable Player. The MVP on Dana's offense was Bill Sorenson, defensively it was Gary Hansen. Jim Revels was chosen the outstanding freshman and also won the Shiotz Award, given by Dr. Shiotz, Pres. of the ALC, to the outstanding freshmen on the teams of the Lutheran Colleges.

The Honorary Co-Captains, elected by the team, are Paul Ahrendt, a senior from LeMars, Iowa and Gary Hansen.

The Viking pass defense was rated rationally, being 14th in the NAIA. The entire team deserves a rousing cheer for a gallant and hard-fought season.

GIRLS INTRAMURALS

Tuesday night, November 7, started the round of volley ball intramurals for Dana's girls.

Second Mickelsen won the first game, beating third Argo. Third Mickelsen then beat fourth Mickelsen, and the Off-Campus and Units forfeited to 2-4th Argo.

All girls are invited to participate in the intramurals every Tuesday night.

Dana Student Elected At Regional Conference

On November 10-11, Henry Thorberg, John Shonts, Douglas Hansen, and I attended the Iowa-Nebraska Regional Conference of the National Student Association at Des Moines, Iowa. The conference was centered around student rights and responsibilities, and the role of student government on campus.

Friday evening Glenn Roberts, chairman of the National Supervisory Board of NSA, spoke to a general assembly on what he called, "student power". Mr. Roberts defined student power as students having a greater say in the policy-making areas of their college which affect them. He felt that students must learn while they are in college to take responsibility and to make decisions, because there will be no college to protect them in later life.

He said colleges owe to the students every opportunity to help decide the situations in which they have to live. He did not advocate demonstrations as a means for gaining student rights, but formulated a policy very similar to that being used on our own campus right now. He seemed to stress one thing throughout his speech--reform will not come easy.

Saturday morning we attended various workshops dealing with educational programs, student rights, and student government. We felt we gained some ideas from some of these workshops which may be applicable to our campus. Reports on these workshops were given during the Student Council meeting November 16.

After dinner the business meeting was held, and the basic item of discussion was whether or not to disaffiliate the Iowa-Nebraska region from NSA, and form our own conference. After an extensive discussion, it was evident that a majority of the schools were in favor of remaining with NSA, but felt that we must take steps to increase the strength of our region.

During the elections to fill vacant offices, Douglas Hansen was elected vice-chairman of the western division, giving Dana a member on the executive board of the Iowa-Nebraska region. Various resolutions were proposed and voted upon.

We felt that we learned many new ideas from this conference, and hope that we can put these ideas to work for us on the Dana campus. We would be glad to talk with anyone about this conference. A lot can be gained from the NSA, but first we must be willing to work for it.

ALC Students Find A Solution To Hunger

Students in colleges of The American Lutheran Church favor a moratorium on church building in order to make funds available to meet the crisis of world hunger, and they propose an austerity program of their own to help the cause.

Representatives of student bodies of 12 colleges at a conference here voted to ask the 1968 convention of the ALC to recommend a two year moratorium on building projects by local congregations. The action followed the annual Thanksgiving week-end meeting of student body presidents and coordinators.

The conference, attended by 150 students at Augsburg College, dealt with the theme "Hunger as an obstacle to world peace."

After favoring suspension of church building as a step toward providing food for starving millions, the conference voted to ask students on their respective campuses to limit themselves in such things as cars, clothing, food, social activities and other luxuries and to channel their savings toward alleviation of world hunger.

"As members of the Church we must confess that our greatest sins both as individuals and as a corporate body have been apathy and indifference to the plight of other human beings," the conference said.

The resolution called on the Church to re-evaluate the role of Communism and to confront it in terms of present realities, "rather in outdated conceptions and categories."

"As members of the Church we have too long categorically invoked God's name to condemn the Communist world and bless our actions in opposition to it," the document said.

"We condemn those views held both in the Church and in society at large that insist the world is two: East and West, rich and poor, black and white, capitalistic and communistic, because as Christians we believe the present world is one world, and one community of men," the conference resolution said.

The conference recommended that the ALC at its October, 1968 convention apply for membership in the National Council of Churches, which it described as "a significant ecumenical vehicle for confronting national and international issues such as world hunger."

Noting that more American money has been spent on the war in Viet Nam than all foreign aid that has been given since World War II, the students voted a statement that "The U. S. Government should do all in its power to bring the conflict to a negotiated settlement."

In its concluding resolution the conference voted "to call every student to responsible action by giving a year or two years of their lives to work on one or another of the facets of the hunger problem."

Presiding at the conference was Ralph Falkenberg, of Texas Lutheran College, Seguin, Texas.

Other colleges represented included: Augsburg, Minneapolis, host; Augustana, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; California Lutheran, Thousand Oaks, Calif.; Capital, Columbus, O.; Concordia, Moorhead, Minn.; Dana, Blair, Nebr.; Luther, Decorah, Ia.; Pacific Lutheran, Tacoma, Wash.; St. Olaf, Northfield, Minn.; Waldorf, Forest City, Ia.; and Wartburg, Waverly, Ia.

Danish Delta Initiated

Per Stoholm Christiansen, one of the Danish gymnasts recently on campus, is shown receiving his initiation swat from Chuck Emons. Per, a 24 yr. old auto mechanic from Denmark was made an honorary D. S. O. before his departure Thursday, November the 16th.

As part of the ceremonies he received a Delta paddle inscribed with his name. The Deltas got to know Per through an invitation extended to the gym team to spend the night in the dorm. When they learned that Per would be leaving the tour at Christmas time to return to Denmark, the fraternity thought this goodwill gesture would let Per know how much they enjoyed the team's performance.

Although Per could not speak English his beaming smile let everyone know he understood.

The Delta Sig's will hold their Christmas formal Friday, December 8th at the Hotel Pathfinder in Fremont. The dinner and dance will be exclusively for Deltas and their dates.

At the formal, the Delta Sig Sweetheart will be chosen from the following candidates: Nancy Jo Simmons, Beth Arhens, Alice Christiansen, and Pat Bro.
