The Sweethearts of Soul Sing at Dana October 10

On Thursday, October 10, at 8:00 p.m., we will be entertained in Borup Coliseum by The Sweethearts of Soul, Peaches and Herb. They are sponsored by the social committee and will be accompanied by a six-piece combo. George Steven, a comedian from Chicago, will also entertain during the concert.

Both have a varied and interesting musical background. Peaches (Francine Day) and Herb Fame were both born in Washington, D. C. Peaches began singing in elementary school and belonged to neighborhood groups. She joined a trio called The Sweet Things, and they recorded on the Date label.

Herb started singing in his church choir at seven and used to sneak out of the house at night to join friends and practice singing on a street corner. After high school graduation, he went to work in a record shop and waited for a break in his singing career. It came and he recorded one release as a solo performer before joining force with Peaches. One night on the way to a record hop, they began singing and album producer, Dave Kapralik, was so impressed with their voice blend that he said they should sing together.

Their first big hit was "Let's Fall in Love." It started slow but after three months, it hit the top in St. Louis and after that it was only a matter of time until it was a nationwide hit. Their repertoire includes a wide range of music, from the songs of the day to vintage standards.

Peaches and Herb are really three great sounds, two very talented soloists and a great duet with a unique soul sound. It's this blend which keeps Peaches and Herb close to the hearts of soul-lovers all over the country and it's their great sound you will hear.

Dana College faculty and students will be admitted free with identification cards and all other tickets will be $2.00.

The Dragon Head will stay open until 11:00 p.m. for after-the-concert refreshment.

Lectures And A Movie Presented Next Week

"Dialogue in Black and White" will be the theme for the program to be presented next week starting Wednesday, October 2. The chapel period will be extended to cover a lecture of about forty minutes to be given by Father Cunningham. Father Cunningham, who is an instructor of Negro culture at Creighton University in Omaha, will speak on Negro-American history.

The program will continue with an 8:00 P.M. lecture that evening in DHA by Mr. Wilbur Phelps, a Negro lawyer from Omaha. Mr. Phelps, President of the Nebraska Negro Historical Society, will present a lecture on Negro-contemporary America.

The theme, "Dialogue in Black and White", will continue in the film "Nothing But A Man" to be shown Thursday, October 3, in DHA at 8:00 P.M. This film portrays the life of a Negro in southern United States and all the conflicts involved.

Mr. Washington, a recent speaker in chapel, will be a member of the Negro panel from Omaha who will lead the discussion at Kiva, Friday, October 4. The program, which starts at 10:00 P.M., will be centered around the week's lectures involving the Negro in society.

SAM Group Tours Fed. Reserve Bank

SAM members and Mr. Karrow toured the Federal Reserve Bank in Omaha on September 19. The Bank's security system and the flow of large amounts of money were the main points of interest. In one cabinet, SAM members saw $4 1/2 million.

SAM's next meeting will be October 1, with Judge Strassen as guest speaker.

October 15 is SAM's next tour to the Grain Exchange. Forth coming interviews on campus are as follows:

- October 1 - Health, Education and Welfare Audit Agency.
- October 4 - Minnesota National Life Insurance Company.
- October 12 - Federal Service Entrance Exam.

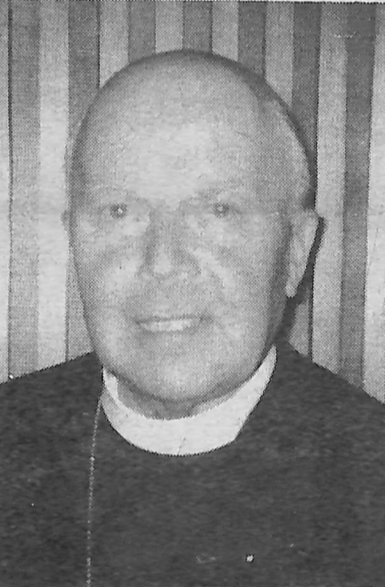

German Bishop Urges Church To Face Future

Wednesday Dana students were privileged to attend a lecture by Dr. Lilje, Bishop of Hanover, a distinguished churchman of world renown.

Dr. Lilje, born in 1899, is a native of Germany, where he received his Doctorate in Theology. He became known as a church leader in Germany and was imprisoned under the regime of Hitler. After the war he was elected bishop. He is also distinguished as an author, having to date, 12 significant books to his credit.

Dr. Lilje emphasized that the church must confront the realities and burning issues of today.

Denoting catholicity as an issue facing the church today, Dr. Lilje pointed out that all churches are open to each other and that no denomination should live secluded.

Dr. Lilje

On the issue of race, he said that the real distinction today has become one of the rich and the poor, rather than white or black, and that the church can influence economic policies to the advantage of the latter.

Dr. Lilje stressed that just as youth frequently protest the administration and machinery of the college campus, they must also be evoked to discontentment with the present church and thus motivated to effect changes which will improve it as an institution in our modern society.

In concluding remarks, Dr. Lilje emphasized the role that the local congregation must play if the church is to expand as an institution. In spite of the scientific advancements of our age, the problems of human existence have remained unchanged, and the church must still strive to answer "How do we as individuals master our existence?"

Fantastic Foods

Once a month Dr. Penick, Mr. and Mrs. Warman, Joel Hermann, Karen Larson, Boyd Horst, and Lynn Johnson have dinner together. Organized by Joel Hermann, they cook a foreign dinner for themselves.

Last week a French dinner was eaten. Russian food will be served next month.

Computer Helps Find Dream Jobs

"A job you never thought of, in a company you never heard of, may have everything you've ever dreamed of."

This is Re-Con, a data processing system that matches your credentials to a job opening of a subscribing company. The service is free since the companies pay for the system through their recruiting budget.

The program is endorsed by the National Student Association, a non-profit making organization, of which Dana is a member.

If you are interested in finding summer employment, part-time work, or a permanent job now or in the future stop at the Student Office to obtain a questionnaire. For questions concerning Re-Con, contact Craig Moran, N.S.A. Coordinator, or Carolyn Scholl.

Danian News

The next meeting for the Danian staff will be held Wed., October 2, at 10:30 A.M. in OM 406. All staff members should attend.

SENIORS: The Danian needs to have your pictures by Dec. 1. They must be a gloss finished black and white of any size available.

The Danian is still looking for a business manager. Anyone interested in this position can contact Barb Gerdes or Lonna Hengeveld through the campus mail.

Flying Club Plans Training School

Dana's Flying Club will soon be getting under way again this year. Plans are being made which will enable students to attend ground school classes on campus once a week and actual flight training at the Blair airport twice a week. Anyone who is interested in obtaining a private pilot's license can begin with these classes and take as much time as needed to complete the requirements.

Anyone wishing further information should contact Mr. George through campus mail, Box 1206, or by calling Ext. 310.

Graphic Prints Come To Dana

London Grafica Arts will present a collection of original graphics in an exhibition and sale on Wednesday, October 2, from 12 noon to 7 p.m. in the Presidents' Room of the Student Center.

The collection of prints is touring colleges and universities throughout the U.S., enabling students and faculty to see about 500 works usually viewed only in major galleries.

Included in the collection are lithographs, etchings, woodcuts, and silkscreens by both old and modern masters. Besides original graphics by such artists as Rembrandt, Degas, Renoir, and Picasso, there is a wide selection of contemporary works.

Between 20 and 125 signed impressions of one work are made before the plate from which it was printed is destroyed. Although the print is not unique, it is somewhat exclusive.

All prints are for sale at prices ranging between $10 and $3000.

A representative of London Arts will be on hand to answer questions about the prints and graphic arts in general.

Students Needed For Viking Days

Are you going home for homecoming? The 1968 Homecoming Committee has been hard at work for the past six months and it would be a shame if all their hard work went to waste.

Viking Days will be November 1, 2, and 3. Just a few of the events of the week-end are the "Viking Review", Coronation of the 1968 Queen, Pep Rally and Bonfire, the game with Yankton, "Ascot Gavotte", Homecoming Dance, and The Casino Royale for those who are not going to the Dance.

This year, outside displays made by the different organizations on campus will help set the mood for the week-end. Let's make this homecoming the best one Dana has ever had. Stay on campus and take part in the many well-planned events.

Dana Ecologists Study In Rockies

A lucky foursome made up of Ron Briggs, Galen Rasmussen, Jim Sams, and Wilbert Sick plus Mr. George Grube, ecology teacher at Dana, left for a field trip to Colorado two week-ends ago. They returned three days later, none the worse for wear, and with observations about four of the eight major biomes of the world -- namely, the short and tall grass prairie, the coniferous forest, and the tundra.

Mr. Grube's class traversed a road that had been closed for 20 years in Rocky Mountain National Park, due to an avalanche. They noted the changing environment -- from the tall grass of central Nebraska and the pine hills of western Nebraska to ponderosa pine, spruce, and alpine tundra of Rocky Mountain National Park.

Editorially Speaking

The World Speeds By: Are You With It?

"We'll live in a world of our own". These are the words of a song that was popular several years ago, but they are quite applicable to some of us here at Dana today. Here we are at Dana College, Blair, Nebraska, living in a world of our own and isolating ourselves from the outside.

We are the leaders of the future, and the future is now. Some of us will graduate next spring and take our place in the world. We go to college to prepare ourselves for this place, but while we are at college we sometimes lose contact with the world outside of our own group and realm of activities.

Students are really very isolated people. Studying, going to classes, and participating in activities takes up a great deal of time. Besides this, our main social contact is with other people of our same age group with similar interests.

Outside of our college world is a big world with many important events occurring each day. In order to be good leaders tomorrow, we must be aware of these events today.

A petition is being circulated at Dana to aid the people of Biafra. Some of us have signed it because it is a plea for humanitarian action. Yet how many of us really know where Biafra is, who they are fighting with, what the issues are, and when this conflict began?

Vietnam is a good topic for discussion -- I'm for staying in; I'm for getting out, etc. But do we know why we are there and how we got there? What ever happened to the Pueblo crew? What is happening in the space program? How are the political campaigns progressing -- what are the issues and stands? What are the new developments in medicines, science, and education? How do churches feel about the legalization of marijuana? How about recent civil rights developments?

The theme of student government this year is student rights. However, before we can take full advantage of our rights we have to be informed -- informed of not only what our rights are, but how they apply to our situation. Most important, we must be informed not only on a local basis, but we must know what is happening everywhere in all fields. Our rights as students are important, but more important are our rights as citizens in a complex world.

Students are the people who should be most informed because they are the ones receiving the training and education to cope with the world's problems.

How can we become informed on more than just "the world of our own"? The next time you have a few minutes and don't feel like studying, pick up a newspaper and glance through it. When you are sitting in the Center and the news comes on, take a few moments to find out what is happening. Glance through the magazines that are in the Linden Room and dorm lounges. Turn on the radio while getting ready for class. Even though we don't always have time to go to the library and read the paper everyday, we can usually take the time to perform these simple tasks. By carrying them out we can be better prepared for the problems and responsibilities we will have to face in the world out there.

BLOODMOBILE THANKS

As out-going chairman of the Red Cross Bloodmobile, I want to personally express my appreciation for all the cooperation Dana students have given in donating blood and helping with our work. Keep up the enthusiasm and good work.

Mrs. Don Reimer

The Wright Way

Why the heck don't we have spring registration rather than our present system of "come and get it while it lasts?" The great majority of our colleges and universities use the spring registration system today.

Explanation! OK. Spring registration merely involves the setting up of class schedules for the following fall term during the spring semester. Right now we have a "pre-registration" in the spring - a rather ridiculous item. We are told it gives the administration ideas and guides to help plan the fall semester, while, in the final sense, we still run into mountains of red tape come fall registration.

What would spring registration do for us? Well, first of all, there would be a much better idea of how many students were taking each course. That would help a great deal when ordering text books. (Ever get to the book store in time to see someone else buy the last copy of the text you want?) It would also cut down a great deal on the last minute room changes, schedule shifts, and difficulties with sectioned classes. Secondly, it gives the advisor a longer period of time to help each of his advisees. He's doing it every spring anyway, why not make it official. Then each student would have the opportunity to discuss his schedule with his advisor without the pressures of trying to get everything done in one day. (Did you really enjoy registration day?) This also cuts down on the chances for graduation because of some mix-up way back when.

Finally, registration day in the fall could be much more relaxed. Upon returning, if you are satisfied with your course set-up, all you need to do is get your mug-shot, car registration, and pay your bill. The rest is already taken care of. If you want to change, fine. Your advisor doesn't have a line of students standing at his table all waiting to set up their schedules. He's probably less fatigued, also, which helps considerably. There is less chance of either or both of you saying, "The hell with it, it's good enough."

What about the freshmen? Well, you can't have everything. Most colleges have a pre-registration by mail during the summer, and set up the final schedule on registration day, much as we do now with the entire student body. Of course, this means a little (actually, a lot) more work for the Dean of the college during the summer, but then he wouldn't get bored, would he?

It works. I attended a college that used this system and found it very satisfactory. Why not Dana? If there is a good reason, I'd like to hear it.

Next issue we're going to discuss school spirit, with a slightly different approach. Those of you who enjoy being offended, be sure to catch it.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"WE'RE DESIGNING IT FOR THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT - IT DOESN'T DO ANYTHING, BUT IT TAKES 40 PEOPLE TO OPERATE IT."

African Student Says:

Biafra Is A Concern For All Humanitarians

By Bruno Amobi Orji

Since the outbreak of the civil war in Nigeria about fifteen months ago, many million lives have perished in cause of the military hostilities. As Nigeria steps up her war of genocide on the people of Biafra, starvation becomes the order of the day.

Biafra is stormed with refugees who have no more claims to their farms or homes thus they stay in the refugee camps starving to death. Your good will as a citizen of the world and lover of human nature may go a long way in giving them life.

The world stood silent while 6 million Jews died. Today the world remains silent while the Nigerian government engages in the genocide of 14 million Biafrans, calling this slaughter an "internal problem" and a political solution. Every 24 hours, 6,000 more women and children die in Biafra from starvation and slaughter. Do not say you didn't know. Each person who remains silent is a partner in genocide.

You can help to save the lives

TRI-D's IS NAME FOR WOMEN'S CLUB

September 19th was the date of the first meeting of the Tri-D's, a new social service club for Dana women. Over fifty coeds attended the meeting and chose their club name. Meetings will be held the first and third Wednesdays of each month, and membership for the semester is open until the next meeting on October 2.

Committees for service, social, financial, devotional, and publicity activities and a temporary cabinet is being set up. A committee is also drawing up a constitution for the club now.

Opening activities for the club will include a fun night for Big and Little Sisters to be held soon.

Acting officers for the club are Sheryl Rasmussen, pres.; Sharon Nelson, vice-pres.; Stephanie Petersen, sec.; and Marcia Degner, treas. Miss Carolyn Eckley is serving as the club's advisor.

of some of these children by donating voluntarily, even a widow's mite, to the Operation to Keep Biafra Alive.

Do not ask why Biafra can not give up her struggle for sovereignty because that will amount to total extermination of fourteen million of her people.

We believe that political consideration should not over-ride human suffering and that neither sovereignty nor unity is sufficiently noble to be won with children's blood.

S.E.A. ELECTS V.P.

The monthly meeting of the Student Education Association was held Wednesday night, Sept. 25. Barbara Gerdes gave a talk on her trip to the national S.E.A. convention in Houston.

The group also had election for Vice President. Candy Peterson was elected to that office. The other officers of the S.E.A. are: President, David Renze; Secretary, Connie Boehr; and Treasurer, Marlene Kaldahl. This organization for perspective teachers is still open to interested persons. Anyone interested in joining can contact one of the officers through campus mail before October 25.

Mrs. Madsen Falls On Friday The 13th

Misfortune struck at the C. C. Madsen home on Friday the 13th when Mrs. Madsen accidentally fell and broke her right hip. Mrs. Madsen was carrying a basket of apples into the house when the family dog crossed her path and tripped her. She underwent surgery at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha and returned to the Blair Hospital last Wednesday to begin a long recuperation. Dr. Madsen reports his wife is resting comfortably and is making good progress.

This is not Mrs. Madsen's first experience with this type of injury as she also had the misfortune of breaking her left hip in an accident eleven years ago.

Dana Looks For Victory In The Future Games

A whole new Dana football team will be entering the Viking football field Saturday, September 28th, at 2 p.m., as they take on the Westmar Eagles.

"Westmar has a tough team," said Coach Walls of the Vikings, "but I think the Vikings will be double-tough." Westmar has the ace quarterback in the tri-conference, who has kept his team rolling on the ground and flying in the air. Dana is out to stop all action, and tighten their bag Saturday and bring one home with their jammin' defense.

Dana has two tough grid-defensive linebackers; Ron Johnson, a 180 pound Junior and Gary McMullin, a 180 pound Freshman. Both players have excelled from the second squad, and should see a lot of action in the coming games.

On Saturday, October 5th, at 2 p.m., the Concordia Bulldogs will be facing the big Dana Viking football team on the Viking field. Coach Walls said, "Concordia will definitely be forced to throw the ball, because the Vikings are out to stop anything moving on the ground."

Dana Loses To Top Rated Doane Tigers

Dana's first game was against Doane. The Tigers, rated 17th in the NAIA last year, beat Dana in the second quarter of their meeting.

After the first quarter of play, there was no score. In the second quarter, Doane broke loose for 28 points. Five minutes into the 2nd quarter half back Mike Sallier went around the end for their first touchdown. Five minutes later left end Jim Welti caught a pass from quarterback Larry Green. Larry Green ran over for their 3rd TD on a fake pass. Then with only 25 sec. left of the 2nd quarter Jim Vopat caught a pass which Langston Bradley had almost intercepted.

Not until the end of the 4th quarter did Doane's offense score again. The TD was run up the middle of the line. The extra point was unsuccessful for the final score of 34-0.

Games that will be played Sunday, October 6:

Ralph Mayer attempts a pass and opponent is blocked by Bob Woods in last Saturday's game against Tarkio.

Tarkio Owls Sank Vikings

The Dana College Vikings opened their home season before a fine crowd and in hot, humid weather lost to Tarkio College 23-0. It was a defensive battle marred by numerous penalties and was still anyone's ball game until early in the 4th period when Ki Harvey scored his second touchdown of the game on a 4 yard run.

Dana received the opening kickoff and had to fight a stiff breeze. Tarkio could only muster one threat and it finished with a 2 yard burst over the middle by Harvey.

In the 2nd quarter, with Dana driving with the wind, the Vikings maintained field position. Twice in this quarter Dana threats were stopped with 4th downs on the Owl 35 yard line. Both times field goal attempts by Phil Vasby failed.

The 3rd quarter continued to be a defensive struggle with neither team generating a serious threat. Harvey's second touchdown early in the 4th period put a serious crimp in Dana's hopes, however. Another Owl threat died on the Dana 20, and Nate Brown booted a field goal for a 16-0 Tarkio lead. The owls closed the scoring when a desperation pass attempt was picked off and returned by Gary Henson from 33 yards out.

Dennis Sellon led the defensive team as he was in on 16 tackles. Dana's best rusher of the day was Gene Williams and he could only muster 24 yards. Dan Jackson again was the top pass receiver, 3 for 44 yards. Quarterback Ralph Mayer connected on 7 of 25 for 71 yards

JV Cheerleaders

Junior Varsity cheerleaders will be chosen by the student body at an assembly held in Borup Coliseum on October 1. Anyone with a 5 point grade average or better can try out at the 7:30 P.M. meeting. All freshmen can try out without grade averages. The J.V. cheerleaders will perform at Junior Varsity basketball games, and at the wrestling meets.

Tarkio Outwinds Viking Harriers

The Dana cross-country team met September 21st, Saturday morning, on home grounds to match their endurance against the Tarkio team. The showing for Dana was not its best due to problems of physical misfortune. John Korzilius, a senior, had a sore ankle.

Tim Wiggins put in a good appearance for Dana, however, as he made it around the three-mile circuit in a time of 17.59, for second-place points. Tarkio's Tom Sullivan ran through the tape in first-place well ahead of other runners at 17.27.

In the end Tarkio outwinded the Vikings 22-34. In cross-country competition low points win.

Future cross-country meets include:

- Sept. 27 - Omaha
- Oct. 1 - at Dordt
- Oct. 5 - at Doane (Invitational)
- Oct. 11 - Concordia
- Oct. 15 - J.F.K.
- Oct. 22 - at Midland
- Oct. 24 - at J.F.K.
- Oct. 27 - at Midland
- Nov. 1 - Tri-State Conference

Flag Football Season Opens

Flag football opened its season this week after losing the first week due to rain. In the week's action:

1) Ron Spilker scored two touchdowns and Rick Holterman scored one in leading the Grinders to a 30 - 8 victory over the F.D.R.'s. Larry Anderson and Jack Martin scored the other touchdowns for the Grinders, while Rick Fischer caught a pass on the last play to score the only touchdown for the F.D.R.'s.

2) John Biddle had four T.D.'s and Larry Eskov had two in the Raiders' romp over 4th East.

3) A safety proved the difference in the game between the Fardquards and 2nd East. Arden Rakosky scored a touchdown with 4 minutes remaining to put the game out of reach. Gary Miller had two touchdowns also for the winners. Ken Gerdes kept 2nd East in the game by scoring two touchdowns in a losing battle.

4) Dean Krueger caught a T.D. pass with one minute left in the game to give the Married Men an 18-12 victory over the Ducks. Krueger caught two passes for touchdowns and Flip Larsen caught the other one for the Married Men. Mike Moore and Gordy Putnam scored for the Ducks.

THE BIG ...

Teachers Plight Featured In Play

The Drama Department's fall play this year is called, "The Male Animal." It is written by James Thurber and Elliot Nugent.

The play revolves around the plight of a college English teacher faced with problems of academic freedom. Confronted by angry trustees and disturbed alumni, he is searching for a way to keep his dignity. An alumni, and ex-football player, comes to homecoming to further the problem. He was the English teacher's wife's "sort of" fiance during college days. This all leads to a furious, but funny, finish.

The cast for the play is: John Leitel, James Lippold, Nancy Blobaum, Dan Bryan, Boyd Horst, Rodney Kastrup, Ken Olsen, Bruce Phillips, John Dennis Wiedler, Kristin Berg, Norma Carlson, Carolyn "Skipper" Scholl, Norma Wilkens, and Lowell Thomsen.

The play will be presented October 18-19-20.

Guitar Night

Everyone interested in folk music is invited to be in the Center at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday for a songfest. All guitar players are welcome to bring their instrument and non-players bring an eager ear and your voice.
