

Chemists Discuss Biogenesis

Mr. Hengeveld and Dr. Matthews of Monsanto Laboratories discuss recent ideas in evolution while Don Nelson takes a look into one of the microscopes that was set up for the biogenesis experiments conducted by science students in the Center Thursday. Dr. Matthews lectured on the "Origin of Life" Thursday.

"Nebr. Folklore" By Past Danian

Roger Welsch, assistant professor in folklore and German at Nebraska Wesleyan University, will be presented by the Faculty Women's Club on March 17 at 8 p.m. in DHA. Mr. Welsch is a native Nebraskan and was at Dana 1960-1964.

He has two successful books, Treasury of Nebraska Pioneer Folklore and Sod Walls. In addition to his books Mr. Welsch has a folksong album Sweet Nebraska-land. His topic here will be Nebraska Pioneer Folksongs from 1840's to the 1890's.

Mr. Welsch is an adopted member of the Omaha Indian Tribe, and has requested that appreciation for his visit be in the form of clothing donations for the Omaha Indians. Clothing will be collected on campus by the Tri-D's who will place donation boxes in each living unit. Students are urged to give any type of warm and durable clothing which will then be collected on March 16.

Danish Dancers Perform In Omaha

On March 8 the Dana folk dancers will be hosted at the Our Saviors Lutheran Church at 30th and Izard in Omaha. They will attend a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. and perform for a home builders group.

Those participating are: Hans Hermansen, John Nelson, John Prouty, Chuck Knight, Twyla Drummond, Lois Neve, Kathy McCormick, and Lene Elbek.

Margretta Borchorst will narrate and Nona Heetland will play the piano.

Henneman Production In Church Sunday

"Were You There?", a chorologue written by Mr. Dennis Henneman of the Dana Drama Department, will be presented March 2 during the church service in AMA.

It is a historical drama which shows how man has come to persecute his fellow man. Characters from the Bible are used as points of illustration.

The cast includes: Ken Olsen, Joel Hermann, Doug Witte, Dick Tobin, Lee Hedstrom, Joe Anderson, Sharon Boone, Janet Winkel, Mary Jacobsen, Norma Schafersman, Jean Brehm, and Kathy Christensen. The choir from First Methodist of Blair will also participate.

The drama was given last Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

Award Winner And W. C. Fields Contrast Fridays

Tonight is the time to see one of this year's most highly recommended Academy Award winning movies. A Man For All Seasons, sponsored by the Social Committee.

The film portrays the life of Thomas More, a statesman, scholar, philosopher, and an example of wit and an extra-ordinary model of Renaissance genius.

Admission will be fifty cents per person at the two showings. One showing is at 7:30 p.m. and the other at 9:15 p.m. in DHA.

The Social Committee is trying something new; next Friday, March 7th, has been declared TGIF Day. It all begins at 6:00 p.m. in the Linden Room. Six W.C. Fields movies will be shown continually throughout the evening. The movies to be shown are: California Sound, Great Chase, Great Magnolia, Hurry Hurry, Pharmacists and Circus Sticker.

During this time there will also be dancing in the dragon's Tail. All chairs will be moved out into the concourse and the Social Committee will provide music from the juke box for three hours.

Chairs and tables moved out to the concourse of the Center will enable you to play table games. Students will also be able to play such games as "Twister" and "Pass the Bode". The ping pong table will also be set up.

The freshman talent show has been changed to the date, March 14th.

Food Problem Talk March 13

On March 13 Dana will present Dr. J. M. Poehlman, Professor of Agronomy at the University of Missouri, in a lecture on "The World Food Problem," will focus on India at 8:00 p.m. in DHA. Dr. Poehlman is highly experienced with this problem, having served as Research Advisor at the Orissa University of Agriculture and Technology, Bhubaneswar, India.

Dr. Poehlman will speak to Dana science majors, and others interested, on "The Utilization of Hybrid Vigor in Plant Breeding" at 4:00 p.m. on March 13.

Professor Poehlman is project leader for the small grains breeding research at the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station. Improved varieties of wheat, oats, barley and rice and over 70 research publications are the product of his research.

Palmerton Visits Dana Today

Dana students will get an opportunity to meet Thomas D. Palmerton, whose paintings have been in the Linden Room since the beginning of February. He will be in Linden room on Friday between the hours of 2:45 and 4:00 p.m.

Mr. Palmerton is a well-known artist in this area. He and his wife own the Gallery at the Market in Omaha.

Malik Speaks Sunday On "The World In Revolution"

Dr. Malik

"Out-revolutionizing their revolution and out-subverting their subversion" is the only way the West can answer the challenge of Communism in the opinion of Dr. Charles Malik, former President of the UN General Assembly and ex-Lebanese Foreign Minister.

Dr. Malik, who will be presented in a lecture here on Sunday, March 2, at 8 p.m. in Alumni Memorial Auditorium, is concerned over what he regards as the tendency of the West to settle for a vague and flabby "co-existence" with an enemy that is "willing to settle only for complete victory."

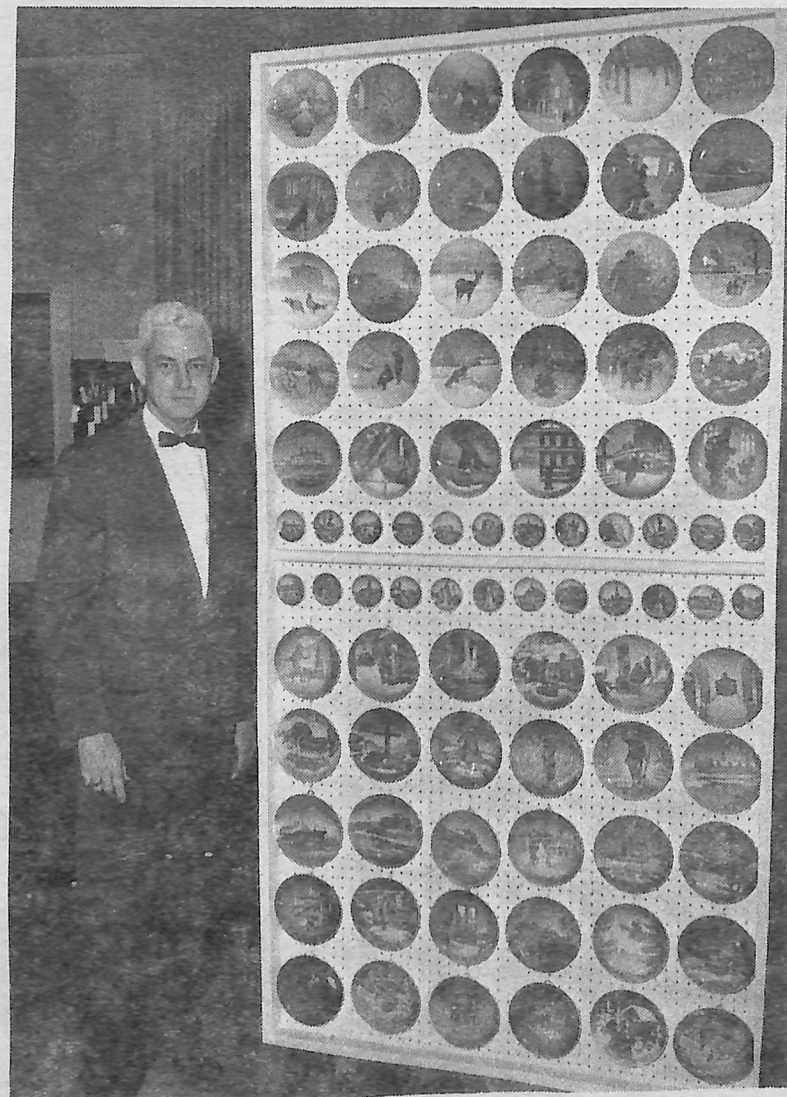

Dr. Malik's topic Sunday will be "The World in Revolution." He urges a spiritual and intellectual revolution, not one of violence, that will return the West to faith in its highest values, which he defines as Freedom, Truth, and God. Dr. Malik says that in a revolutionary age such as this "For the West to exist-as-usual and not to develop its own distinctive revolution -- this is the tragedy of our time."

During his years in the UN. Dr. Malik helped to draft the Declaration of Human Rights. Currently he is Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at the American University of Beirut in Lebanon. His Lecture here is free to Dana students.

Omahan Gives Christmas Plates To Dana

George P. Christiansen, Jr., shown by his plate display, which he has donated to Dana.

George P. Christiansen, Jr., owner and operator of Christiansen's Jewelry Company in Omaha, presented Dana with thirty-seven Danish Christmas plates in memory of his father.

The blue and white Christmas plates were made by two porcelain companies in Copenhagen, Bing & Grondahl and Royal Copenhagen.

Each year each of the companies designs new plates with Christmas scenes, make a limited number, and then destroy the mold so the plates become collectors' items.

Bing & Grondahl started the tradition in 1895 and Royal Copenhagen followed suit in 1908.

Plates for some of the years have become quite scarce and consequently have increased in value. One of the plates donated by Christiansen was made by Bing & Grondahl in 1896 and is valued at $900.00.

The plates will be displayed in special cabinets in the Heritage Room of the new library and will be known as the "George Christiansen Sr. Memorial Collection."

The plates donated by Christiansen to begin the collection are listed below.

Bing & Grondahl: 1896, 1910, 1911, 1918, 1920, 1921, 1923, 1924, 1931, 1936, 1937, 1940, 1943, 1944, 1945, 1946, 1951, 1952, 1962, 1964, 1966, and 1967.

Royal Copenhagen: 1910, 1915, 1922, 1925, 1930, 1939, 1941, 1942, 1951, 1953, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966 and 1967.

What The United States Should Do In Biafra

By John Ojie Ukandu

Biafra is a place in Africa where 10 million men, women and children may starve to death. You probably have seen the pictures and read the grizzly statistics in the New York Life, and elsewhere in the newspapers across the country.

Because the Biafran food problem is killing more people far faster than the Vietnam War, and because the U.S. Government has the power to alleviate it, this problem merits the understanding and consideration of all Americans.

Will the Biafrans give up? Biafra seceded because of a series of massacres in which thousands of Biafrans were killed in Nigeria and millions fled for their lives. The inauguration of Biafra was seen as a means of the Ibos' survival. Since the conflict, at no point has the fears of the Biafrans been alleviated.

Far from it, the methods being used by the Nigerians (bombing of civilian targets, slaughtering of prisoners, the mass starvation directed against the total population) has served only to harden Biafran resistance. Now every bomb that falls, every baby that dies, only makes Biafra's independence more inevitable. Thus to support the concept of unification with force is not only inhuman but totally unrealistic.

Nigeria can never win this war. The human spirit is stronger than Russian bombs and bullets. Even if all the Biafran towns were occupied, Biafra's determination is such that guerilla warfare would make occupation impossible and unbearable.

Many eye-witnesses testify to the fact that Biafran resistance comes from every sector of the community and even includes the minorities, the "liberation" of which was supposed to be one of the justifications for the Nigerian invasion. To make the point clearer, the person in charge of Biafran armed-forces is from Calabar, a minority area.

Thus we are left with the gruesome calculus of a very powerful force bent on killing a very proud and determined people, the result of which can only mean death on a scale more horrifying than World War II unless the sleeping nations bring Nigeria to its senses.

What United States Should Do In Biafra. The United States should recognize Biafra diplomatically -- which would make it clear that U.S. is not prepared to let 10 million people die because of red tape. The U.S. should set up a food air lift, comparable to the one she set up in Berlin in 1948. If necessary she can fly the food in under the American flag. And if necessary she should build another air strip in Biafra to get in day time flights.

The U.S. should pressure Britain to stop sending arms to Nigeria. Likewise it should exert what influence it can with the Soviet Union and Egypt. It should refuse to send additional financial, technical, and Peace Corps assistance to Nigeria until Nigeria agrees to a political solution to the conflict.

Why U.S. Should Recognize Biafra. This is humane, just, and realistic. Biafrans have paid a great price in their struggle for nationhood. They had died in massacres, civilian bombings and by starvation never paralleled in the annals of man. They have no food left. Relief experts are unanimous in calling for a political solution. Recognition alone will end their suffering and realize the goal of the suffering. Long before and after independence, Biafrans were the chief proponents of one Nigeria. Because of this, they allowed their sons and daughters to scatter all over the federation for the cause of national building. They were rejected, murdered, and forced out of Nigeria.

Justice, freedom, and self-protection, is the basis of all political activity. Justice demands that the Biafrans, denied equal protection as citizens of Nigeria, be allowed to form their own state to guarantee the survival of their people.

Biafrans have suffered impossible agony in their defense of sovereignty. Surrender is unspeakable and tantamount to extermination. They will suffer genocide rather than permit re-absorption into Nigeria. To graft back Biafra onto Nigeria will only create a chaotic, bitter, political artifice, not in any sense a "larger union", and will insure later hostilities. Biafrans have paid a price for nationhood that few nations in the world had to pay. Recognition of Biafra will make a political and emotional reality an official one.

America has repeatedly intervened in the affairs of other nations. It has intervened on behalf of its national interests. The issue, therefore, is how national interest is defined. Why is it in the national interest to intervene for the purpose of installing or supporting a government friendly to U.S., but not in the national interest to help spare millions of people from deliberate starvation? Why is the national interest so often associated with power plays and not with those great thrusts of the moral imagination that in the end determine a people's place in history? The essential struggle in the world today is a struggle of values. If U.S. cannot command the respect and support of most of the world peoples, then it will make little difference how many megatons of nuclear power she has accumulated. Moral isolation is the ultimate defeat.

Swift Diplomatic move by the United States today could avert further escalation of this conflict tomorrow. The moral challenge is too great: She has to act.

Lapsus Linguae

By Dick Zion

Another dispute has arisen with our friendly antagonists in Pioneer Memorial, and it's time everyone was aware of what is to be won or lost by the upcoming decision. The problem is that the student council voted unanimously in favor of having final examinations before Christmas vacation and certain members of the administration dislike the plan and don't think the student body as a whole know what is going on.

The plan calls for slight revisions in the calendar for the school year (complete details will be distributed in campus mail soon, so that finals will be over before vacation and we won't be plagued by a lost week before finals begin.

This plan would allow for combining Christmas vacation and semester break into one gloriously long vacation, free from study and open for that much deserved trip. This idea would also give the business office a chance to get the previous semester's work finished before starting on the next semester's work.

The main administrative gripe is that a pre-Christmas final week will destroy the spirit and hurt the attendance at our Christmas programs. If I remember right, we had a large number of tests and papers due that week, and if it had been final week I would have had the papers done and been more ready for the tests. As it was I had very little time to attend the programs, and nothing-not even finals-is going to destroy the Christmas spirit. Another point was that we wouldn't have the vacation to catch up on our studies. Show me a person who actually studies over Christmas vacation, and I'll show you a person who would rather not.

The purpose of this article is to inform that a change is possible and would be beneficial to all concerned. Watch for complete details in your mail box and form an opinion. Then if someone from the administration asks your opinion you can state it, and he can't say the student body doesn't know what's going on around here.

Regents Meet March 16-18

The Spring meeting of the Dana College Board of Regents will be held March 16-18 on Dana's campus.

The Board of Regents is meeting in a three day session to adopt the budget for the coming year, approve the contracts of the faculty, and to discuss promotions for the college.

On Sunday evening, March 16, the Regents will meet in a joint session with the faculty.

On Monday, the Student Council has arranged a session with the Board of Regents beginning at 12:00 for the purpose of acquainting the students with the members of the Board and for the students to ask questions of the Regents. This will be an open and informal session for all students.

President Madsen To ALC Meeting

President C. C. Madsen, along with a representative from the Board of Regents, will be attending the annual meeting of the American Lutheran Church Board of College Education to be held March 9-10 in Minneapolis.

Chief Justice Urges Due Process Of Law

It has been brought to my attention that there are students on the Dana campus who are not aware of the workings of the campus court. There is the set up.

Under the judicial constitution of Dana, a student is innocent until proven guilty. This was O.K'd by the Dean of Students, the Faculty-Student Personnel Committee,

Co-operation Needed For Danian Work

Dear Editor:

"I don't have time."

"I'm taking hard classes and have to study all the time."

"I don't know anything about a yearbook."

"I have so many other things to do that I can't spare the time."

These are only some of the excuses I get when I ask for help on the Danian. This past year a total of about 8 out of over 750 students has helped. Sometimes students don't even know what the Danian is!

During this past year as Danian co-editor, I have begun to wonder if there is even enough interest on campus to keep publishing an annual. Maye YOU, the students of Dana, don't want one! Maybe it should be discontinued!

I've heard so many complaints this past year about one thing or another that I feel that the Danian is not worth the headaches and sleepless nights it cause! You complain because pictures are scheduled at the wrong time. You complain because pictures have to be retaken because of a faulty camera. You complain when the annuals come out late. Yet no one offers to help get it finished. You complain because there are misspelled names and misnamed pictures, but no one offers to help. Eight people CAN NOT publish a yearbook and expect to have everything perfect! It takes more people and that includes you!

In March, new editors are chosen by the Board of Publications. As it stands now there is NO ONE on campus who has expressed the slightest interest in becoming a co-editor. Will the Danian be discontinued due to lack of interest? Or is there someone somewhere who cares?

Co-editor of Danian

and the faculty. This means that no student can be punished at Dana unless he or she (girls take note) is sentenced by the court through due procedure.

Due procedure begins when a person with a complaint puts it in writing, signs it and presents it to the Dean. This procedure should be followed in all cases, from the most horrible crime of wearing slacks to class to an ordinary Drunken and Disorderly.

I know that there have been several cases this year of dormings and camping without due process and the court has not intervened. This is because I believe it is your place to know your rights and insist on them. One last word, Spring elections are approaching and at that time the student body will elect two freshmen to replace the graduating senior judges. The people you choose will be judges until they graduate so weigh your choices carefully.

Students Were Rude To Guest Speaker

Dear Editor:

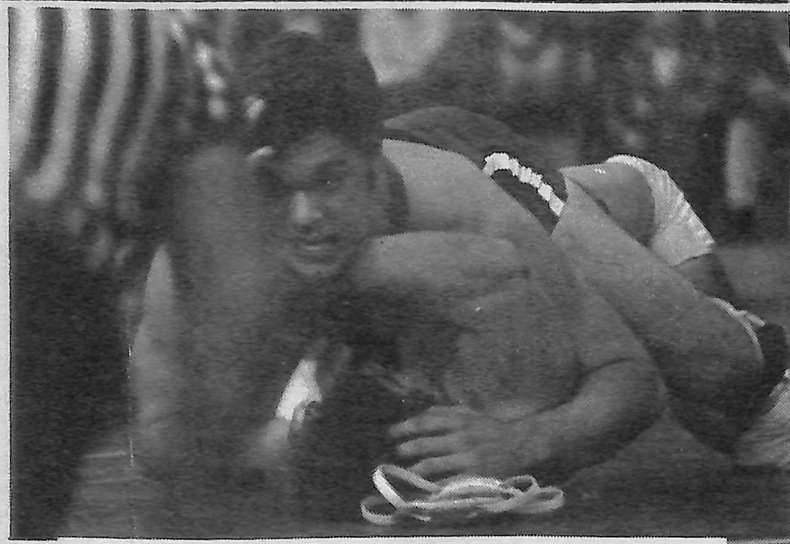

I received fond memories of High School sitting through the Larp lecture today, or should I say Junior High. The actions of a few people in the back brought back these memories.

These few students showed no respect for either the lecturer or their fellow classmates. These self-centered people must be very conceited to think they are important enough to represent the entire feeling of the campus, when the majority of the students were embarrassed by their actions.

It is not everyday that Dana has the privilege to have someone of Dr. Matthew's intelligence and standing.

Even though science may not be the most interesting field to all of us, if one put the least amount of effort into listening, the lecture was very informative and interesting. But if one did get bored and tired of the lecture it is still possible to be courteous at the same time.

Walt Duda defeated Joe Socca of Midland in the first round of the Tri-State Conference meet held here Saturday. Walt went on to prove to be third best heavy-weight in the conference.

Viking Grapplers Pin Midland In 21-14 Match

The Dana Vikings stopped the Midland Warrior wrestling team at Fremont Tuesday afternoon, 21-14. It finishes the dual meet competition for the Vikings, who hosted the conference wrestling tourney Saturday, and leaves them with a 4-5 record for the year. Despite finishing under 500, it still represents a tremendous revival of Viking wrestlers as a year ago they could only win one dual meet. The happy ending is also found in the fact that all but one of the wrestlers are underclassmen and will be back with much desired experience. Half are freshmen and they appeared to be among the outstanding squadmen, so Coach Simpson and his "youngsters" look ahead with much optimism.

Gary Gray, Mike Todd, and Ed Martin all won by forfeits which gave the Vikings a 15-0 edge before setting foot on the mat. Midland won what was left, however, scoring 14 to Dana's 6 as they won 3 decisions and a pin from the Vikings. Conference champ Rudy Ross pinned Ron Johnson of Dana in the 2nd period for the meet's only fall. Jack Knouse (130) and Walt Duda (Hwt.) were winners by decision for Dana, both by shutouts, 6-0 and 4-0 respectively.

Clear Parking Area

The Athletic Department would like to ask a favor of car owners. They ask that the parking areas East of Borup and in front of the dorms be kept clear of cars between the hours of 6:00 and 10:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday of next week, March 1st through March 8. YANKTON WRESTLERS STOP DANA 29-10

The Dana College Grapplers dropped a dual meet with Yankton College Saturday afternoon 29-10 in what was originally billed as a double dual with Sioux Falls scheduled to compete. The Vikings were greatly disappointed in not getting to wrestle Sioux Falls who "could not travel the 80 miles" due to road conditions. The Vikings traveled 165 miles to make the meet.

Dana's Gary Gray (123) drew in the opening match with Jim Johnson who was 2nd in the Midland Invitational earlier in the year. The score was 1-1 in a very fine match. Carl Fredericksen (145) and Phil Tegeler were the only other Vikings to score. Fredericksen had little trouble in winning 13-2. Tegeler was ahead 4-2 when his opponent Tom Judge suffered a chest injury and had to default.

Gary Mims (160) of Yankton, last year's conference champion, pinned Ron Briggs in 4:45. Mike Todd lost a tough one to the Greyhound's Andy Sigl. The score was tied 2-2 late in the match when the 152 pound Sigl got a take down and predicament score to win 7-2. Another '68 champ, at 130 pounds, Dave Mathews decided on Larry Forristal.

Westmar Repeats As Tri-State Wrestling Champs

Westmar Eagle Wrestlers won the Tri-State Conference Championships Saturday at the Borup Coliseum on the Dana College campus for the 4th year in a row. The Eagles claimed 6 of the 11 individual crowns as they amassed 112 points.

9 of 10 Dana wrestlers reached the consolation championships, the battle for 3rd and 4th. Mike Todd (152), Ron Briggs, (160), Ed Martin (167) and Walt Duda (hwt) each won 3rds for the Vikings. Gary Gray (123), Jack Knouse (130), Larry Forristal (137), Carl Fredericksen (145) and Ron Johnson (177) each finished 4th. All of these except Walt Duda and Ron Johnson will be on hand next season.

Westmar Drops Dana Vikings

The Westmar Eagles parlayed some fine shooting and tough rebounding to defeat the Dana Vikings 95-84 in a Tri-State Conference game at LeMars, Iowa Tuesday night. The Eagles starting line-up accounted for 93 of the 95 points, led by Vince Erdmann's 24 points. 6' 10" Roger Moller had 23 points and 17 rebounds to be a thorn in the Vikings' cause.

Rick Jahnke and Jeff Beatty, both sophomores who have been the most consistent scorers as of late, led the Vikings. Jahnke tossed in 10 of 17 field goal attempts for 20 points, Beatty had 17. Rex Mahlman had 16 points and Brian Moerer came off the bench for 14.

Westmar shot 56% for the game from the field and raced to a 10 point half time lead. The Vikings fought back in the second half and gained a 75-75 tie but Westmar pulled away for the final 11 point margin.

It was hands up as Jeff Beatty tried to block a shot against Yankton recently. Dana couldn't block enough shots, however, and fell twice to the Greyhounds in the last two weeks.

Yankton Cagers Beat Dana Twice

Dana lost twice to Yankton in recent basketball games to spoil the Vikings' chances of finishing higher in Tri-State Conference standings.

The Yankton College Greyhounds combined shooting accuracy with control of the rebounds Saturday night to down the Dana Vikings 99-88. Yankton shot 52% from the field, making 39 of 74 field goal attempts. Dana, who got off 95 shots in a Northwestern loss, again took an unusually large number of shots, throwing up 87 attempts but making only 32 for 36%. The Greyhounds with an overwhelming height advantage got 71 rebounds to the hosts' 52.

Monday night saw the Yankton Greyhounds clinch at least a tie for first place in the Tri-State Conference race with a resounding 103-77 victory over Dana's Vikings. Yankton has a 10-1 record and plays Westmar this week for the title. Westmar is 9-2. Dana's final conference record is 3-9 and with one non-conference game to go the season record is 7-15.

Concordia Wins Tri-State Game

The Concordia College Bulldogs won their first basketball game of the year in downing the Dana Vikings 86-71 Saturday night at Seward. It was the first win in 23 games for the Bulldogs and it came in their last regular season game. Their conference mark is 1-11 now. Dana's conference record falls to 3-8 and 7-14 overall. Dana had won two previous games from Concordia, each by one point.

Viking Hoop Records Broken

The records the Vikings broke this season or did break last night show what kind of a game they played. The many team records broken and few individual records broken show that the Vikings played as a team this year as well as a fast game.

Dana single game record, most assists 32, Buena Vista.

Opponents' single game record, most rebounds, 78, Concordia. Most assists, 29, Tarkio and Nebraska Wesleyan.

Dana team records for season, most points need 40 points more, 1,674; most field goals, 651; most field goal attempts, need 52 more, 1,686; most personal fouls, 464; most rebounds need 16 more 1,117; most assists 394.

Opponents' team record for season: most points need 51 points more, 1,872; most free throws 411; most assists need 7 more, 401.

Dana individual season record most assists, Brent Peterson, 100.

Dana career records, most rebounds, Dean Krueger, 731 in 77 games; rebound average for 4 years, Dean Krueger, 9.49 in 77 games.

Dana individual records in single game, most rebounds, John Biddle tied 24.

Opponents' individual single game records, most field goals, Tom Raabe, Concordia, 38 shots, made 17; highest field goal percentage, Arnold Johnson, Buena Vista, 12 out of 13, 92.3%.

Circle R Retreat Planned March 7

On March 7 there will be a retreat at the Circle R. Bible Camp near Elkhorn. It is called R&R at the Circle R, because it is meant to be a true retreat in the sense that it is for rest and relaxation from everyday pressures.

The retreat is open to any student at Dana. The cost is four dollars, which includes transportation, lodging, and meals.

The retreat will begin on Friday at 7:00 P. M. Later that night a film, "Chairy Tale", will be shown and folk songs will be sung.

On Saturday at 9:00 A. M. breakfast will be served, followed by devotions. The rest of the morning is open for outdoor activities. After supper they will show another film, "Road Signs on a Merry-Go-Round." Following the film there will be a discussion and a modern communion.

Sunday morning there will be a breakfast and devotions with a period of reflections.

Anyone who wishes to go or has any questions can contact Chuck Gilmore and avail themselves of the sign-up sheet in the center.

Dana's Congregation Fills Council Posts

Following the service February 2, the Student Congregation held elections to fill a number of council positions.

Tim Wiggins was elected to serve a one semester term replacing Gary Miller, who has transferred. Naomi Kenyon will serve as treasurer for a one semester term replacing Ruth Jacobsen, who resigned as treasurer. Elected for a three semester term on the church council were Art Beckman, Paul Toole, and Linda Valen.

"The Nature Of Management" Was Topic Of S.A.M. Seminar

The annual S.A.M. Seminar was held February 19 in the Presidents' Room. The topic for the day was "The Nature of Management."

The morning session was led by Mr. Val Susilovich and Mr. Ron Oien, who stressed the importance of psychology in management. Managers must know people and relate individual goals to the goals of the company. Communication is needed to gain information about a problem before it can be solved.

The afternoon session was led by the American Management Association, with Mr. Moriarity and Mr. John Johnson in charge. Also, a film was shown explaining management as getting things done through other people. Managers are to motivate and inspire people, because people are the only resource which can increase in value.

Coming events for S.A.M. is a tour to the Storz Brewery March 18 at 2:00 p.m. Members need not be 21 to attend.

Delta Sigma's Elect Officers

The key words for Delta Sigma Omega recently were activation and election. After waiting for the final grades of the pledges the Delta Sigs activated five new members into the active chapter of the fraternity. Those activated were Merlyn Hansen, Audubon, Iowa; Ken Peterson, Ft. Collins, Colorado; Dennis Severyn, North Bend, Nebraska; Jim Clemmenson, Atlantic, Iowa and Larry Henning, Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

Election of officers was also taken care of with Mr. Bill Wakefield of the Sociology Department remaining as the fraternity advisor. The office of President was taken by Jim Brehm, who will be serving his second term; Vice-President, Doug Hansen; Secretary, Carrol Hornbuckle; Treasurer, Eric Peterson, Social Chairman - Corresponding Secretary, Jim Scopac, Sergeant at Arms - Pledge Chairman, Neils Rasmussen, and the new office of Scholastic Chairman was taken by Cal Pohl.

Decisions! Decisions!

One of them should be a buying decision

One of your most important decisions should concern life insurance from Aid Association for Lutherans... a fraternal society for Lutherans.

Lutheran college students can get a bargain... because of age, good health and the fact that AAL's rates are low to begin with. Another reason... Lutheran students can have guaranteed purchase options that assure them of being able to buy additional insurance later on regardless of health.

ing able to buy additional insurance later on regardless of health.

AAL representatives serve all 50 states and five provinces in Canada. Talk to one soon. Let him show you the advantages of starting a life insurance plan at your present age. That's Aid Association for Lutherans, where there's common concern for human worth.
