More Reaction At Schools

With Higher Admissions Standards

Boulder, Colo. (CPS)--America's entry into Cambodia and the Jackson and Kent State shootings produced the most intense reaction on colleges and universities with the highest academic admission policies, according to a survey by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education.

The commission survey of 2,551 college and university presidents, with 73 percent responding, also concluded that colleges and universities in the Northeast showed greater reaction than elsewhere.

The commission said colleges and universities that admit freshmen from the top 10 percent of high school classes had more reaction than schools with open admission policies. The study made no comment on this finding.

HUM EVENTS

Monday, November 2: "Humanities in Stamps," a collection, exhibited by Mrs. Lloyd Neve in Parnassus from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Monday, November 2: "A Sonata Recital" by Elaine Grove, violin, and Alan Brandes, piano, in AMA at 8 p.m. The program consists of Mozart's "Sonata for Violin and Piano in C Major, K296," Grieg's "Sonata for Violin and Piano in F Major, Op. 8" and Brahms' "Sonata for Violin and Piano No. 3 in D Minor, Op. 108."

Israeli Ambassador On ETV

NETCHE will broadcast its second televised convocation on November 5 at 2:00 p.m.

The Israeli Ambassador to the United States, Yitzhak Rabin, has agreed to be the featured speaker at this event. It will originate from the Lincoln campus of the University of Nebraska and will be broadcast live over the Nebraska Educational Television Network.

The approach that was followed for last May's convocation with David Brinkley will again be utilized. Ambassador Rabin will present a forty-minute speech on the Israeli-Arab conflict. Following the speech, students at five different colleges will question the Ambassador on various appropriate areas relative to his speech. These questions will be received and broadcast via a special telephone interconnection from the following institutions: College of St. Mary, York College, Doane College, Peru State College. Questions will also be received from students in the audience at the Lincoln campuses of the University of Nebraska. The convocation will conclude at 3:30 p.m.

A biographical sketch is on the

PM bulletin board. The program will be telecast in the TV studio in the Library at broadcast time.

Regents Meeting

The Board of Regents of Dana College will be holding its first meeting of the 1970-1971 academic year here on Dana's campus on November 5th and 6th, preceding Homecoming Weekend. According to Dean C. A. Christiansen, the agenda will probably include such concerns as the Danforth Study on the Retention of Students at Dana, a report from the Search Committee headed by Dr. Clifford Hanson and various other items. Also included in the Regents' plans is an informal meeting with student leaders in the Student Center scheduled for Thursday the 5th at 6:30 p.m.

ALC Elect New President

(San Antonio)

A top-ranking young theologian was elected Thursday, October 22, as president of the American Lutheran Church.

At the ALC's fifth biennial convention here, the Rev. Dr. Kent S. Knutson, 45-year-old president of Wartburg Theological Seminary

Placement Seminar

November 12, 1970 will be placement night at Dana College. The program will be held in the President's Room from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. for all Juniors and Seniors who are, or will be seeking employment.

Dr. Richard Bourne from the University of Nebraska will speak about interviewing from both sides of the table. From his discussion of what the interviewer is looking for and what the student should look for, one should be better prepared for taking interviews. Mrs. Lemon will describe Dana Placement Services followed by discussions of particular placement problems. Dr. Weckmuller will present education placement, Dr. Dean the particulars of business placement, and Dr. Rasmussen will explain graduate school admission.

Following the formal program there will be an informal coffee where discussion with representatives of various areas will be encouraged. This program is open to all Dana Junior and Senior students, faculty, and administration at no cost.

Marines Visit Campus

A United States Marine Corps Officer Selection Team will visit the Dana College campus on November 2 and 3 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. First Lieutenant B. V. Taylor, Officer Selection Officer from Omaha, will be interviewing in the Campus Center. The Marine Corps has officer programs available for freshman through seniors. All lead to a second lieutenant's commission upon graduation. While attending college, the student attends no meetings or drills, is draft deferred, and receives longevity which results in much higher pay (as much as $150 extra per month).

at Dubuque, Iowa, was named on the fourth and final ballot of an election marked by open political campaigning unprecedented in the annals of American Protestantism. Only a simple majority was required as he defeated the Rev. Dr. David W. Preus, the last survivor of nine other candidates for the office, by a decisive vote of 566 to 411. Dr. Preus, 48, is the current vice president of the ALC and a parish pastor in Minneapolis, Minn.

Government Asks For More Money

Student Senate last week moved towards raising Student Body dues from the present level of 6 dollars to possibly one of three proposed levels; 15, 20 or 25 dollars.

On the basis of 800 students, the total dues are:
$6-$ 4,800 (actual this semester is $4,900)
$15-$12,000
$20-$16,000
$25-$20,000

The dues raise proposal, brought before the Senate by Student Body President Edd Ezekian, was met by the general approval of the Senate members, although the level at which to raise the dues was in question.

A number of Senators were apprehensive about the optimum spending of a dues budget 2 1/2 to 4 times greater than the present budget. When a motion was made to accept the $20 level, it was tabled until the next meeting, pending formulation of budgets showing where the new found wealth would be spent to the students' greatest advantage.

Homecoming Festivities Near

As November 6-8 draws closer, final preparations for Homecoming 1970 are taking shape. Following is a summary of the activities for Homecoming weekend.

The festivities will officially start with classes ending at noon on Friday, November 6th. This will allow time for clubs to complete their displays and for everyone to get ready for the Viking Revue that night at 8:00 P.M. Included in the entertainment at the Revue is the coronation of the 1970 Homecoming Queen. She will be selected from the five finalists, Lorene Akland, Karen Banse, Diane Schmidt, Janis Schneider, and Charlotte Thomsen.

Saturday's activities include the football game, Dana vs. Yankton, at 2:15. The half-time show consists of the presentation of the Queen, parade of the displays, and a performance by the Dana Vikettes. A variation of the Viking Revue will begin again at 8:00 P.M. followed by a dance at Borup Coliseum featuring the Chevrons.

ASF Announces Scholarship Program

The American-Scandinavian Foundation, through its Chapter at Dana College, has announced the opening of competition for its 1971-72 scholarships for graduate study in Scandinavia. Over 40 grants, ranging up to $3500.00 are available, in support of the Foundation's educational exchange program between the United States and the countries of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden. The scholarships are awarded in a broad range of fields. Applications for its George C. Marshall Memorial Fellowships to Denmark are due by November 1, 1970, while others must be received by Deember 1.

The American-Scandinavian Foundation, with chapters in major cities throughout the United States, was founded in 1910 to advance cultural and intellectual relations between this country and Scandinavia. It is publicly supported by membership contributions and gifts. In addition to scholarships, it sponsors trainee exchange, supports a major publication program, and provides grants for lecturers and artists. Persons interested in further information may contact the American-Scandinavian Foundation's Midwestern Office at Augsburg College, Minneapolis, Minn. 55404, or the national headquarters at 127 E. 73rd, New York, New York 10021.

SAM Coffee Planned

The Dana College Chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management has announced plans for a S.A.M. coffee to be held November 7 during Homecoming from 10 to 11:30 in the Campus Center Blue Room. Special invitations have been sent to charter members of the local chapter, but all past and present members of S.A.M. are welcome.

The coffee is planned to provide a forum for discussion among past and present members and as a celebration of the Dana Chapter's 10th anniversary.

Building A Tradition With Regents

The Board of Regents are again providing time in their meeting at Dana next week to talk with the students. This is a recent tradition which is tending to gain in popularity each year. This semester's meeting in the shadows of the Homecoming celebration seems to be dampening the usual importance associated with the Regents being on campus. Only once a semester are the students handed the opportunity to confront the Regents face-to-face. Rather than viewing the importance of the meeting in itself, it is tacked on as an event of Homecoming by many individuals.

More disturbing is the fact that our esteemed Senators and other members of Student Government have made little or no mention of the Regents' meeting to the general student body, they may not even be aware of it themselves.

Being the spokesmen and governing persons of the students, Senate members should be concerned with formulating some kind of agenda or list of topics to discuss with the Regents. It would be advantageous to the students if the Regents were made aware of the arguments in favor of the new Women's Hours Proposal. Gaining their sympathy could bring more pressure for serious consideration of the proposal by the Administration.

Students, in the face of rising costs, are more concerned about how their money is spent for them, where it is spent first and why. Meeting with the Regents is one way of expressing these concerns while discovering their views and insights on particular issues.

Prospective Student Warned

By John Gebuhr

Names of prospective students were asked for by the admissions office a couple of weeks ago. What makes them think anyone around here would want to recommend anybody? In my three years here, and this semester especially, I see less and less about this place to recommend. The college has a great potential with a good faculty and academics, but the treatment of students (by the business office especially) is at best reproachable. Conservatism is fine and I am somewhat inclined that way myself but some of the things going on around here are not only wrong but just plain stupid.

If one expects students to recruit and/or recommend new ones, he better be sure those already here are satisfied.

The Canteen is closed from 10 till 10:30 Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings with the ulterior motive of getting people to go to chapel. Does this mean that on Friday and Saturday nights when it closes at 11:30 that the students are supposed to go to the bars downtown?

Preventive maintenance is unheard of on campus. (vis. TV set in the Linden room, vis. PA system, same place, vis. swimming pool, water conditioning equipment and the diving board, vis. certain air conditioning units, vis. elevator, DH.)

Snow removal is ridiculous. It may get plowed but what about the thin layer left afterward? This inch (or fraction thereof) is more dangerous than if it were six inches deep. A little salt and/or sand judiciously applied, might prevent a law suit someday.

Most women of age and most upper class women don't like the hours that they must keep. This idea of "in loco parentis" should not apply to anyone who is of legal age. Also, if a girl is planning to go out and get seduced, she can do it equally well before 10 P.M. as after.

Now, for a bit of fantasy. (But maybe not) supposing that student rights get worse as the semester wears on? Suppose as a result everybody registers a day late second semester? (Even half of everybody) It would be worth a $10 late fee (if they have the guts to charge it) to see walls climbed and ceilings trod to show the power of the student and to point out the fact that the student has a bit to say about his environment. He pays a price at the business office and should get something for it. (Education, of course, but college is much more! Should be much more, than just the academic angle for a broad field of learning.)

When one goes to the business office with a problem involving money, it doesn't do any good to talk and present logical arguments. After he has presented the problem and the argument connected with it, he is then handed down an inflexible edict which is usually negative. I know, it's happened to me as well as to friends of mine. (To this I should recommend prospective students?)

All this I've said, not for the sake of complaining, but because I believe that Dana has a great potential but it's going to take guts to develop it.

Non-Violent Rallies Urged Oct. 31

KENT, OHIO (CPS) -- Craig Morgan, President of Kent State Student Body/ October 22, 1970.

"I would like to address myself briefly to the nation as a whole. Not to those student and faculty members who already agree with us, but to those students who are apprehensive about the concerns expressed. It is understandable how much a college education means to you. This opportunity may seem too precious for you to jeopardize by becoming involved with what appears to be extra-curricular activities.

"But let me ask, once you have your degree, what kind of a life do you want to lead? Do you support a political system based on trust and reconciliation, or do you accept political rhetoric which divides and polarizes your country, and turns the resultant fears into hatred for unpopular minority groups?"

"We all understand the pressure which exists in a giant university. Sympathy must be given to those who fear that the system may reject them altogether, through the tyranny of the grade-point averages, bringing catastrophe to future career and personal advancement.

"But we ask each student if he can find it in his conscience to take the risks inherent in becoming involved in the greater issues, which threaten tragedy to our traditions of freedom and equality.

"To this end we at Kent State are asking for a nationwide moratorium on business as usual. We are asking that for one day that students don't go to classes, don't spend their time drinking beer or playing football, but spend the day talking among themselves, with faculty members, with parents, and with college administrators about what is happening to civil liberties in America today. We are asking that students across the nation demonstrate their unity in whatever manner they desire, whether that be by fasts, teach-ins, rallies, or whatever; with only one restriction, it must be done non-violently. There are politicians in this nation who are banking on a violent upheaval on any campus in America in order to get themselves elected. We can't give them that opportunity.

"In addition, the student government of KSU calls upon university communities and other citizens across the country to show their concerns over increasing political repression through a manifestation of unity on Oct. 31, by participating in the non-violent mass demonstrations."

Fifty years after the 19th Amendment granted women the right to vote, the Women's Liberation movement is coming of age. For the first time, American women all across the country are banding together in search of common goals.

You have a long way to go, Baby. The status of women, who by the way make up 51% of our population, remain more second class than any minority group. A third of the American work force is made up of women, usually in the relatively low-paying jobs. Very few women have been able to enter the professions. There are no women in President Nixon's Cabinet; and there is only one woman Senator.

Sexual discrimination is seen in all walks of American life. However, that realization should not justify the inequality right here at Dana. The most obvious example of unfair treatment toward women is seen in the fact that Dana women have dorm hours -- but the men do not. A closer look at Dana's sexual discrimination reveals that off-campus housing is made available to men only; forgetting the fact that some women prefer not to live in dormitories.

Last week the Student Senate unanimously supported the proposal that no Sophomore, Junior, or Senior girl shall have any hours, and Freshman hours should be extended. This proposal is to take effect immediately after Administrative approval. This will not make Dana a utopia, but it most certainly is a step in the right direction.

NSGA Constitution Revised At Conference

The Nebraska Student Government Association's Fall Conference was held at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln on October 16th and 17th. Representatives from most of Nebraska's member institutions were present, including Chadron State, Peru State, Hastings College, Kearney State, Northeastern Nebraska, UNO, the University of Nebraska, and Dana. Dana's representatives were Edd Ezekian and NSGA coordinator

Judy Zimmerman. The main purpose of this conference was to write the final draft for the new NSGA constitution. The document will now be sent to the member schools for their approval and for those schools who accept the constitution. The purpose of NSGA is to further understanding and cooperation among Nebraska colleges and universities and to exchange ideas and programs on student government and campus life.

Dana Streak Threatened

by Russ Eppenbaugh

The Dana College Football Vikings will try to make it 3 straight homecoming victories, when they host the powerful Yankton Greyhounds.

Two years ago Dana beat Yankton 10-7; and last year defeated Sioux Falls 24-20.

To beat Yankton the Vikings will have to play their best brand of football. According to the latest NAIA statistics Yankton is leading the nation with their rushing defense - - - holding their opponents to an average of 33 rushing yards per game. The Greyhounds on offense are ranked 9th in the NAIA. To lead their offense, they have an outstanding runner in Les Goodman, who is presently averaging 230 rushing yards per game.

There is a lot of hope for a third straight Homecoming win. Dana traveled to Yankton late last year and lost to the Greyhounds by 1 point, 14-13.

Langston Bradley, recent "College Player of the Week," moves against Midland. The Warriors fell to Dana in the Viking's first win, 19-0.

Bradley's Prowess Heralded

Dana College's Langston Bradley has been named as a "Player of the Week" in Nebraska State College ranks last Wednesday. The honor came as a result of his defensive work in Dana's 28-14 loss to Hastings two Saturdays ago. The six foot, 180 pound Omaha North graduate and a Viking senior had a most unusual first half against the Broncos.

Bradley, who was the "monster man" of Dana's defense, recovered 3 fumbles and had one pass interception in that first 30 minutes to help the Vikings to a 14-7 half-time lead. His pass interception and return of 20 yards developed Dana's first threat which was stopped on the Bronco's goal line--one foot away. Moments later, he recovered a fumble on the Hastings 4 yard line that resulted in Dana's first score. One play after the ensuing kick-off he picked off a fumble in mid-air and went 53 yards to give Dana a 14-0 bulge. Langston also had 5 unassisted tackles and made 11 assists to share the team leadership in that department with Sam Christiansen. Coach Grant Walls commented that he has been playing football like this all year long. Bradley has a cumulative total in 5 games of 22 unassisted tackles and 52 assisted.

Women's Volleyball

With women's intramural volleyball coming to an end, we find the battle and spirit reaching its peak. Everyone is in the struggle to get their team on top. Victories are getting to be more difficult to end up with as all are trying to get on the top of team standings.

With only one more week of volleyball intramurals scheduled, the teams are really working at winning. The way the team standings look now next week's games will be the deciding vote in where the teams stand. Right now 2A Mickelsen is on top with a record of five wins and only one loss. A three way tie for second place exists between 4A, Blair and Argo, each with a 4-2 record. 3A has third place with a 3-3 season. Mickelsen 4B is holding on to fourth place with its 2-4 record. A battle for fifth place is going on between 2B and 3B, each having a 1-5 season. With only one more game, the struggle still isn't over as each team is looking for just one more victory.

Vikings Ramble For First Big Win

The Dana College Vikings wrecked Midland's homecoming game Saturday with a 19-0 victory in Fremont. Dana used a great second half offensive effort in winning their first game of the season, a game which counts in both the Tri-State Conference and Nebraska Intercollegiate Athletic Conference races. It was by far the Viking's best offensive show of 1970, even though they looked good for only 30 minutes. Praises were due for the defensive unit in gaining the shut out.

The Vikings' second half offense generated 15 first downs for a game total of 20, the Warriors had but 6. Dana had their biggest day on the ground, picking up 225 net yards. Schneider had 85 in 17 tries, Trofholz 63 in 6 carries, Hayes made 38 and Howe got 31. Brady completed 6 of 9 passes in a reserve role, good for 67 yards. Schneider threw a fullback pass for 19 which set up the second quarter threat at the 7 yard line. The Viking defense held Midland to 43 yards on the ground and 40 through the air. Steve Hardiman, Lew Houser, Bob "Smokey" Stover, and Sam Christensen were the defensive giants. Passes were intercepted by Dan Smith, Rick Brandt and Ron Walters.

Dana next travels to Sioux Falls for a 2:00 P.M. game on Saturday. The Braves are winless in 7 starts, having lost Saturday to Concordia 55-13. Midland's lone win of the year was over Sioux Falls 14-0. So the Vikings hope to make it 2 in a row and strengthen their Tri-State ranking.

JV's Edge Midland "B" Team 7-6

The Dana College Junior Varsity edged the Midland B team 7-6. The victory followed the Varsity win Saturday over the Midland Warriors to cap a successful week-end of football. The one point margin came from the perfect extra point placement boot by Luther Heller. The usual spot of kicking, directly in front of the goal posts, was a sea of mud, so the ball was moved to the right hash mark where holder Ralph Mayer could put it down in a grassy area. Heller then split the up-rights.

The Vikings engineered a 55 yard drive which began in the first quarter for their touchdown. Tackle Chris Wagner recovered a Midland fumble to get the Vikings started. The ground attack, featuring running by Alan Boozikee, Jim Waters and Randy Cornell took it to the goal line. Mayer used a quarterback sneak for the score early in the second quarter.

Wilhelm Excels; Harriers Win

In a double-dual cross country meeting held at Dana, the Vikings defeated both Midland and Creighton. Dana outran Midland 20-35 and stopped Creighton 24-31.

The Vikings' Tom Wilhelm won first place honors over the four mile route with a fine time of 22 minutes and 40.9 seconds. Tom Van Steenhoven with a time of 23:38, came in third to help solidify the Vikings' chances. Jim Maxwell finished a strong 6th in 24:39. Arden Rakosky came in 9th and John Tjomsland 10th.

The Dana College Cross Country team sped to a 4 mile win over the Midland Warriors. The winning margin was by a slim two points, 17-19, the low score winning.

A one-two finish by Viking runners Tom Wilhelm and Tom Van Steenhoven made the difference as Midland picked up the next three spots. Wilhelm won in a time of 21:55.7 which was 30 seconds ahead of Van Steenhoven. Wilhelm's winning time betters his own school record of 22:01 over 4 miles which he set as a freshman last year.

Only 4 runners from each team scored points, thus Jim Maxwell and Arden Rakosky aided the Dana cause. The final order was as follows as the Vikings evened out their dual mark at 4 wins and 4 losses.

Former Dana Student Raps Social Disaster

A clergyman from New York has taken one of the nation's largest companies to task for its alleged part in perpetuating a segregated housing pattern. In a book published by New York University Press, Arthur Simon, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church on Manhattan's Lower East Side, (Reverend Simon is a former Dana student. He served as President of the Dana Student Body in 1950-51.) charges the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company with a "skillfully executed social disaster" in building Stuyvesant Town, the nation's first urban redevelopment project. Built by private enterprise (with special government incentives) to replace residential slums, Stuyvesant Town houses more than 22,000 people at middle income rentals on Manhattan's East Side.

Simon's book, Stuyvesant Town, USA, maintains that the Metropolitan formula for Stuyvesant Town not only was hostile to black and poor people, but it also gave direction to our multi-billion dollar urban renewal program. Consequently it had widespread influence in helping to shape America's housing pattern. Stuyvesant Town uprooted 11,000 slum-dwellers who could not afford to rent the new apartments, and it opened without a single black resident, Simon reports. In 1943 Metropolitan's top executive said flatly, "Negroes and whites don't mix. Perhaps they will in a hundred years, but not now."

Metropolitan successfully fought court challenges to its no-Negro renting policy, although the litigation did have an impact on constitutional thought. The company even brought eviction proceedings against white tenants who organized to integrate Stuyvesant Town. But it failed to prevent fair housing legislation --- the first in the country aimed at private housing --- and reluctantly Metropolitan opened apartments to what it called "some qualified Negro families" in 1950. By 1960 Stuyvesant Town had 47 Negroes among its 22,405 residents, and in 1968, when the City Commission on Human Rights threatened court action against Metropolitan, the figure grew to 84. Simon contends that this history reflects "Metropolitan's vision of building a suburb in the city, a white refuge isolated from its surroundings."

The book asserts that social planning, including sometimes racial quotas, is necessary, particularly for new towns and cities, in order to arrange a clear departure from fencing blacks into the ghetto and out of white neighborhoods. "The government not only possesses the means, but is required by its own laws, to carry out an intricate, comprehensive, interdepartmental program to oversee the development of an open America."

The TGR's are enthusiastically anticipating another year. We are presently working on our Homecoming display in hope of a winning float.

Besides having our weekly meetings, we went to the Pizza Hut for a night of fun and frolic. Sunday, November 1, we will celebrate our October birthdays and also have a Halloween party. It should be a real spooker! For our service project this month, we are collecting in Blair for the Salvation Army. Don't forget to buy your Homecoming tickets from any Greek before Friday, November 6.
