Indian Students Attend Workshop

Four American Indian Dana students, Le Gibson, Jeff Gilpin, George Smith, and John Blackhawk, recently attended a workshop of the National Family Planning Forum for Indians.

The purpose of the workshop was to enable Indian people to gather together to develop a comprehensive plan for improving health delivery services to the Indian community. Indian students health professionals and users of the health services participated. The speakers and workshop leaders represented more than fifteen American Indian tribes.

The director of the National Family Planning Forum, Sol Bird Mockicin, is a Dana graduate and older brother of Le Gibson.

The Central District of the American Lutheran Church helped in providing travel funds to the four students that attended.

Upcoming Lecturer . . .

DICK GREGORY, one-time comedian and now humanitarian, is slated to present a lecture at Dana on April 15. Related story appears below.

Mezoff: Tuition Increase Set

Dr. Mezoff announced increases in charges to students next year at the all-campus meeting Wednesday, March 12. The increases total $250, bringing the cost of a resident student to $3060. All of the increase in student tuition is to be used in support of the academic program.

Dr. Mezoff has also announced that the administration is investigating the possibility of installing a key-card security system in all of the dorms. According to Mezoff, if a key-card system is economically feasible, if students want this system, and if this system is available, it is conceivable that it could be installed by the time students return from Easter vacation.

Dick Gregory To Speak April 15

Mr. Dick Gregory, the one-time comedian and recording star and now humanitarian, will give a lecture presentation on April 15 in Borup, at 7:30 p.m.

Gregory gained fame as a black comedian working at first in small "black" clubs and theaters. When he played at Chicago's Playboy Club as a last minute replacement, he became a big success. He continued the club scene until he concluded that the time working in the clubs could be spent better in working for human service.

Human Dignity

During the civil rights movement of the 1960's, Gregory participated in every major demonstration for human rights in America. His participation in the struggle for human dignity cost him millions of dollars in bookings, travel expenses, and legal fees. He found himself in prison several times, serving a 45 day sentence in Chicago and the state of Washington. Both times he fasted through his confinement, living only on distilled water.

Then, in 1967, Gregory turned politician when he ran as an independent write-in candidate for mayor of Chicago. The next year he tried unsuccessfully to win the presidential race again as an independent write-in candidate. In 1969, his followers did inaugurate him as president of the United States in Exile.

Gregory contends to be a freelance humanitarian who is non-violent, making him a pacifist who simply does not believe in killing. This was evident when on April 24, 1971, he announced to a group attending an anti-war rally in San Francisco that he would "consume only liquids until the war in Viet Nam has ended."

Moral Pollution

According to Gregory, "There is a great social revolution" taking place in America right now. Not necessarily black against white but "right against wrong." He also contends that the major problem in America today is moral pollution. The same moral pollution, according to Gregory, that keeps the smoke in the skies also "keeps the Indian on the reservation."

His visit to the Dana Campus is sponsored by HRC. According to HRC director, Alan Hanson, an admission charge of $1.00 will be taken at the door in order to help pay costs.

Budget Approval Termed Invalid

By Barb Beck
and Deb Schou

In Wednesday's Senate meeting Senator Berke pointed out the necessity of a required two-thirds majority for budget approval thereby invalidating the vote for approval of the budget in a past meeting of the Senate.

Then a motion to accept the present budget was defeated after discussion. The Senators then discussed desirable changes in the budget. It was decided to have an investigation concerning the carry-over from last semester in each organization. The Senate will reconsider the budget in a special meeting next week.

Other old business considered was:

- repairing the TV in the Linden Room for approximately $24 - $30.

- moving the Student Government room to OM 101 so that the Dragon's Tail can be a game room again.

- a report on "big-name" entertainment.

- accepting the revised cheerleaders' constitution.

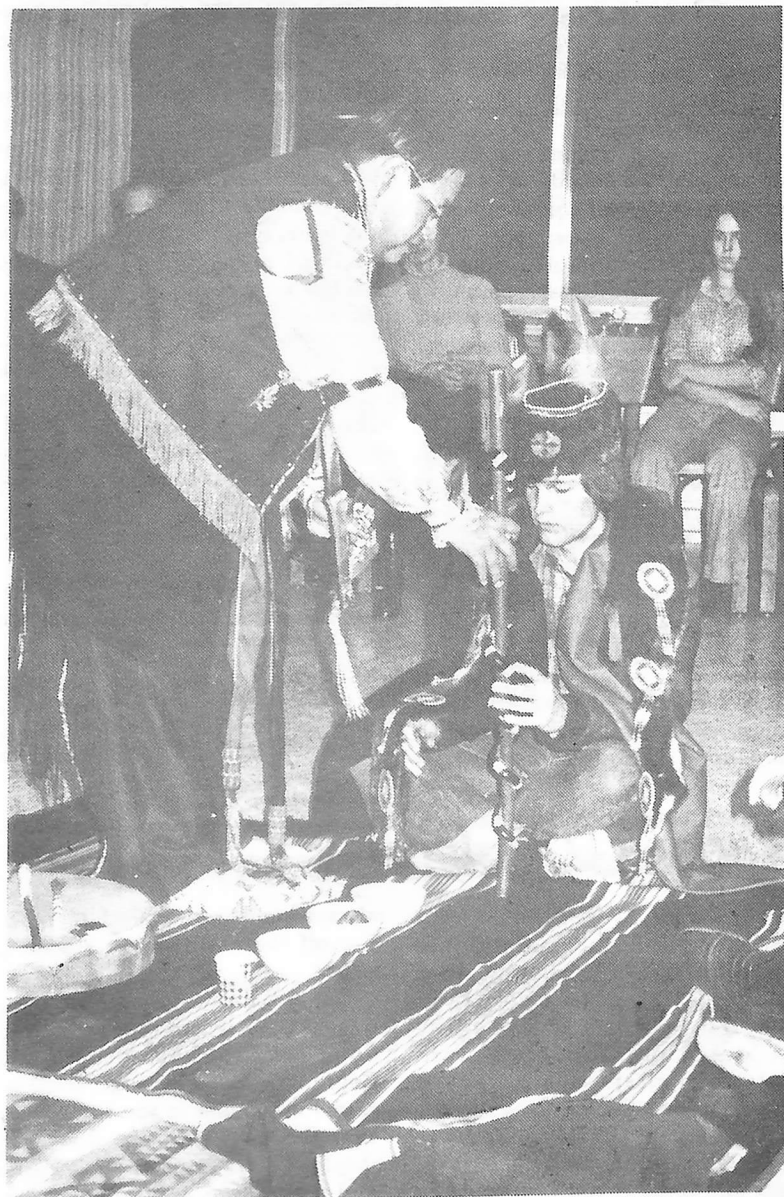

- a report that a jukebox in the Head is contrary to school policy.

The Senate also appropriated $40 to the Women's Intercollegiate Tennis Team.

SAM Meeting

The Society for the Advancement of Management will be having a meeting on Monday, March 24, at 7:30 p.m., in the Business Department's new lounge (2nd Floor Old Main). Mr. Allen Buss, Dana graduate 1973, will present some of his experiences as a corporate auditor for the Union Pacific Railroad in Omaha. Everyone is invited, and we do urge you to participate.

The Society for the Advancement of Management would like to thank all those who made this year's seminar a success. The program was headed by speakers from this area and dealt with the general topic of advertising.

Campus Encounter . . .

KOMAMA encountered Dana faculty and students for three days last week. Through serious dialogue, games, and ceremonies, KOMAMA expressed the Indian culture, and a mutual understanding between Indian and non-Indian resulted. (Staff Photo)

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK . . .

EDITOR'S NOTE: This letter was placed on my desk, and I would like to share it with you.

Fifty copies of this letter were sent with the choir members.

Dear Choir Member,

I would like to take this opportunity to insult your intelligence by sending this letter to you.

You are a representative of Dana College. Don't let it get you down. Try to impress the people, anyway.

Here is a list of things for you to keep in mind.

On The Bus

1. Don't stick your feet out of the window. It attracts attention. Also keep in mind that moons belong in the sky.

2. Don't drink to excess as there is only one bathroom on the bus.

3. Blankets on the bus are for keeping warm and not for hiding activities.

Off The Bus Or When Performing

4. Do not blow your nose while Dr. Neve is talking. There is only one star of this tour. For that matter, do not sing while Dr.

Neve is directing for the same reason.

5. Do not goose the person in front of you during the procession.

6. Remember there are only three levels of risers. Do not attempt to perform from the fourth riser. Any attempt to do so will be in direct violation of rule 2.

7. Tenors: By swift application of a hymnal in the correct place you'll be sure to hit that high G. Sopranos take note. (Pun intended. Wake up out there!)

8. Please leave your hosts the way you found them.

9. Do remember to send your hosts your thank-you cards. They will remember you better that way. They may even take up archery now that you've given them a target!

I hope you will take these suggestions seriously. I have. I'm always serious. Remember, you are a choir member, do not do anything theatrical. You may hurt the reputation of the Drama department.

Have a good time in spite of this letter.

Love and kisses,

Carl R. Mezup

T.W. Quilpen...

Criticism is a double edged knife without a handle. There is no way to cut with it without cutting oneself in the process. In my last article I made an attempt to cut into what I consider some undesirable aspects of our administration. As with any human endeavor, I fell somewhat short. In other earlier articles I have largely been concerned with criticizing the actions and attitudes of our student body. Now I think it is wise to pause momentarily from my constant stream of judgements and anathemas to see if the function I've set up for myself is valid.

Let me put this question to you. Does any man have the right to criticize the actions and attitudes of another individual? There are those people who maintain that no one has the right to criticize another. It seems to me that these people are holding an untenable stance. For if one were to say that no one should criticize another, then one must be critical of those who maintain that criticism is valid and thus they negate their own argument. So only the person who maintains nothing at all can live beyond welts of criticism and criticizing. I don't think this bowl of jello existence is very desirable for men. This, however, does not mean that my criticism is valid, but I think that it does imply that from the common concept of man, as I understand it, I have the right to criticize.

Unanswered

The important question still remains unanswered. Are my criticisms valid? An invalid criticism would be criticizing someone for being what they intend to be or accusing them of not being that which they do not intend to be. If this is what I'm doing then I'm simply a stupid fool, and I should be of no concern to anyone. For instance if I criticize the students saying they drink in the dorm and they feel that this is truly the right thing to do, they shouldn't feel offended by what I say at all. It is merely a statement of the truth. I'm then merely saying that what is right and what should be done is being done. If perhaps I should speak out against what is right and true then I am an idiot, and no one could take offense to what I say. For who takes offense at the babblings of an idiot save another idiot. So if one takes offense at what I say, then maybe he is an idiot or perhaps what I say is true.

On Self-Criticism

In conclusion, I would like to state that I am human, as hard as that is to remember, and I am more than capable of error. So if I am to do what I feel I must, I have to depend immensely on the good judgement of my readers. Absolute truth is far beyond my reach, and if I ever pretend to have grasped it, will you please laugh loud and long in my face.

T.W. Quilpen

Duffy Will Speak

Dr. Leo J. Duffy, Research Supervisor of Analytical Service, Standard Oil of Indiana, will be on Campus as Visiting Industrial Scientist under the auspices of the American Chemical Society's Visiting Scientist Program. He will make a presentation primarily for science students on the scope of chemical research in industry and another to the entire campus on the general topic of energy. The specific times and locations will be announced through campus publicity.

"That Lofty Pen" . . .

To the Editor and Staff:

Up to this point I have refrained from openly criticizing the viewpoint and style of our T.W. Quilpen. This I have done because I have a healthy respect for the individual as an individual (not as a writer) and feel that for the sake of unfettered creativity his work should go uncriticized as long as possible. Now I can no longer hold my peace.

In his not so recent relaxation of artistic standards and ever present lack of creativity and imagination, one of T.W. Quilpen's prime motivations for writing that endless stream of insipid articles is to see his work printed. T.W. Quilpen has nothing whatever to say but unfortunately insists on saying it anyway.

Being boring is sin enough, but being redundant and boring is totally unforgivable. To say nothing with many words may be in style, although lacking in art, but saying nothing without style is devoid of any value at all.

Possibly the fault lies with the editor who so graciously grants T.W. space in the paper regardless of the quality of work he produces. Certainly no quality control is implemented while throwing together each edition. The lack of taste seems to be prevalent throughout the staff. Maybe the entire staff could attempt to develop a sense of base banality. Any improvement would be appreciated.

The content and viewpoint that T.W. expresses without any reasonable facsimile of style is one of self-righteous condescension and outright contempt. I'm not totally in disagreement with his stance and would like that understood. What does irritate me is his attitude. If the students at Dana do not meet T.W.'s expectations, that is unfortunate. What is fortunate is that each and every one of us must experience life in a manner that is most fitted to us as individuals and each of us should be allowed to use the opportunities presented to us in a way that we determine, not someone else. Remember that mistakes, too, are learning experiences.

T.W., please get off that lofty pen of yours and let us rest in peace. Difference is not inferiority!

Respectfully,
Jim Benbow

Parking Lot Woes . . .

Dear Editor,

I commend the maintenance department for the way they keep the sidewalks clear. Even the cafeteria, P.M., and usually A.M.A. parking lots are relatively clear. But have you checked out the parking lot by Borup lately? Going out there to even start your car is a risk to life and limb. If you're lucky, you can move your car, maybe even get it out of the lot! I am referring to the six inches of ice that still remains from the January snowstorm. Even snow tires find it difficult to get a grip on the smooth sheets that have mounted up behind wheels and under vehicles. There isn't always someone around to push you off these miniature glaciers, either.

But all punning aside, it seems like there could be something done about the slickness. Couldn't the parking lot be salted or sanded in the same way that the sidewalks are done? It would, I feel, save many fenders and help keep a few tempers from flaring. Couldn't something be done to make this fall and spring convenience a little more convenient in the winter? 'Nough said.

Sincerely,

Janet Lippert

The Way of Life . . .

The Lutheran School Called Dana??

By Mike Williams

The word of God is like a sharp two-edged sword. Before I stated that the word of God is the sole authority and the Law is made known by the Word. That the law should be maintained at all times by those who wish to live the life that Christ taught us. But this is impossible. As Edward Schlink said "As the law cannot be preached without Christ, so Christ's work cannot be preached without the law." Theology of the Lutheran Confessions

Lost All Touch

Dana College can never be true to itself as long as it remains in its present condition. We have lost all touch with what this school represents. I will go as far as to say that this school in its recruiting, campus church, and all involved, are afraid or ashamed to say that we are a "Lutheran School".

In 1 Cor. 3:7 "Thus it is not the gardeners with their planting and watering who count, but God, who makes it grow." Dana has to realize that to recruit for just numbers sake is degrading the garden of God. And when that garden is degraded should we overlook it?

This Lutheran College should follow that moral and ethical code the scriptures project. We should preach the gospel and Christ is the center.

We should all live that life of freedom in Christ. Basically the one purpose or the most important objective of a Christian is to believe in the moment of Christ on the cross. But we should not deface the cross with our lukewarm apathy. And this apathy comes from watering down the basic standards of this school.

Open To Anyone

Let us realize that as humans, mankind will never be able to reach perfection. But as Christ was perfect, so also does he dwell in us. I believe that Dana College is open to anyone but the school must project what it is and what it believes in. It must not be afraid to lose students for the fact that it can honestly say and do what we as a church school believes in. If it takes the turn of losing students we can't help this.

Christ never backed down, Luther never backed down. Why should Dana College? By faith alone, by grace alone, and by scripture alone.

"Living Water" Has A Message

EDITOR'S NOTE: Due to an oversight this article was left out of the last issue.

Fresh, entertaining, and mellow describe the talent of "Living Water". This musical trio is composed of Steve Berke, from Cozad, Nebraska; Bill Blundell, from Sioux City, Iowa; and Diane Kniep, from Aurora, Colorado, all students at Dana.

The trio began during the 1974 Interim with some "for the fun of it" jamming. With Bill on the piano and Steve and Diane on guitar, the three decided to combine their talents to become a witness to the Christian faith.

Although they are primarily a religious group, they sing songs from the Beatles, Elton John and country and western, as well as gospel rock. They even write some of their own music to perform.

They have performed several times in chapel on campus and also this past Viking Weekend in the Head, and for last year's Junior Class Talent Show. In addition to campus performances, they have sung for several church and community functions. Appearing in front of several ALC - Central District Conferences and for the Central District Luther League Convention in Lincoln this past Thanksgiving, they also went on a weekend tour to Denver during Christmas vacation.

The trio will continue to work together for the remainder of this semester. But although they will be forced to split then, they hope a group similar to "Living Water" will flourish and continue to spread their message.

CARE Campaign

CARE has launched an emergency, nationwide "Empty Plate" campaign to alleviate the world hunger crisis. Concerned Americans are asked for pledges to skip or reduce one meal a week for the rest of the year and send the food dollars saved to CARE. These funds will be used for feeding and food-growing programs for the starving families.

According to the Executive Director Frank L. Gaffio, CARE feeds more than 20 million people daily. But in the present crisis an estimated 10,000 men, women, and children are dying from starvation each day.

With a generous response CARE plans to purchase an additional eight million pounds of wheat, beans, and other food for immediate shipment overseas. For every American's weekly "Empty Plate" CARE will be able to fill many plates overseas and to send seeds, fertilizer, tools, and equipment to be used for growing food.

Contributions and "Empty Plate" pledges should be mailed to: CARE WORLD HUNGER FUND, Room 15, 3600 Broadway, Kansas City, Missouri, 64111.

Regents Meeting

The Dana College Board of Regents are meeting today for the second day of their two day spring meeting. They are expected to discuss next year's budget, the commissioning of a chapel/fine arts building study, and other business. Dr. Charles Maahs of Overland Park, Kansas, will discuss with the board the work of the Long Range Planning Committee.

Danish Art Exhibit Slated

There will be an exhibit of modern Danish wallhangings by the noted Danish artist Arni Frederiksen in Parnassus from April 13 until May 2.

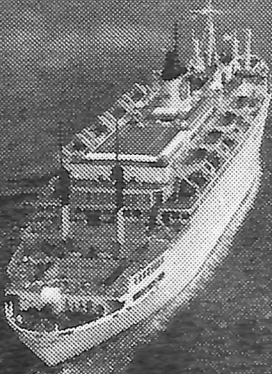

The exhibit reflects the history, art, and culture of Scandinavia. The figures in the wallhangings are sometimes taken from Norse mythology, and the designs often reveal early Christian symbolism of the northern countries.

The large wallhangings are made from a variety of materials -- wools, paint, appliques, gold leaf, and fabrics. Mr. Frederiksen dyes all his own wools which makes possible both an unique subtlety and a vibrancy of color.

He has had several major exhibitions in New York, and his work has been exhibited at the Denver Art Museum and in private showings. The exhibition is sponsored by the Dana Chapter of the American Scandinavian Foundation.

Weller

Second

Two Dana students competed with forty-two other musicians in the Siouxland Youth Symphony Orchestra Concerto Contest held at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, on February 15, with Dennis Weller finishing second among brass instrument players. He and Iris Frey vied for cash prizes and the opportunity to perform as soloist with the Siouxland Youth Symphony at its concert in April.

Miss Frey played Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 3 in C Minor and Mr. Weller performed Morceau Symphonique by Alexander Guilmant. Weller was named first alternate in brass and will perform at the orchestra's concert if the first-place brass player is unable to for any reason. Both performers were accompanied by Dr. Alan Brandes of the Dana Music Department.

'74 Graduate Awarded Fellowship

Rachael Benbow, a 1974 graduate, has been awarded a Danforth Fellowship. Rachael was one of 65 chosen from a total of 1700 candidates for election into the class of 1975 Danforth Fellows.

The Danforth Fellowship Program is a graduate study program that serves as one of its purposes the goal of placing well educated and trained men and women into the secondary education and/or college faculties. The award has been presented each year since 1957 and Rachael is only the second Dana graduate to be honored.

Three Areas

In deciding qualification three areas are given special consideration: 1) Evidence of intellectual ability which is flexible and of wide range; of academic achievement which is a thorough foundation for graduate study; 2) Evidence of personal characteristics which are likely to contribute to effective teaching and to constructive relationships with students; 3) Evidence of a concern for the religion of ethical or religious values to disciplines, the educational process, and to academic and social responsibility.

Rachael plans to use her award, which is for one year and is normally renewable until completion of the doctorate degree in a maximum of four years of graduate study, to study in the field of human genetics. She has been accepted at Oregon State University and University of Michigan, but plans on waiting to hear from several other colleges she has applied to before making her final decision. She will begin her studies in the fall.

Senators Co-Sponsoring State Bill

State Senators James Dickinson of Millard and Walter George of Blair have co-sponsored a bill, LB 244. The bill, if passed, will stop appropriation of state funds into the Papio Dam Project for recreational purposes for all but two of the dams.

In a hearing on Tuesday, March 11, according to George, both factions in the dispute gave their cases for or against the bill. Leading the discussion were the sponsor and co-sponsor of the bill, then when they concluded with their opening comments the opposition presented their side, then again Dickinson and George offered some final statements.

Farmland

The main reason for the opposition to the project, according to George, is the fact that it will be taking out of production valuable farmland. "With 2 1/2 million acres of land being taken out of production annually in the United States we simply cannot afford to do this," the lawmaker added.

The hardest hit county by the Papio project would be Washington County which has offered most of the opposition to the plan. Proponents for the defeat of LB 244 stated at the hearing that Washington County was being hypocritical in fighting the project pointing to the Lakeland Development in Washington County as a basis. Pointing this out, one opponent stated: "That is how much Washington County wants their land."

Twenty different dam sites were to be constructed by the Army Corps of Engineers, but they later reduced that number to ten. According to George, they are now concentrating on site 10, which would, in his opinion, solve nothing. "The best place to put up dams would be where suburbia is now, but that would be impossible," the Senator added.

Alternate Plan

The group that opposes the Papio Project is working on an alternate plan to present to the Corps. George stated that Representative John Y. McCollister has agreed to take the new plan when finished and show it to the Army Engineers in Washington and get their opinions of it. Part of the plan would propose the construction of dry dams, which would not hold water behind them unless out of necessity. This would allow the farmer to plow directly behind the dam. "The farmer then can take the risk of having his crops ruined in a flood," George commented. Some of the reasons Senator George gave for the Corps not using this kind of dam for flood control is that they are not "pretty" and that the Corps likes to do "big projects" on a major level.

On the recreation part of the issue George proposed a plan that would involve the development of three areas not now being used by the area farmers. The plan would consist of parts of the bluffs along the Missouri River, Dodge Park and the Neale woods. One reason for this plan is that Senator George is concerned about getting Omaha to develop toward the river rather than out toward Blair. "I have no intention of helping Omaha develop toward Blair," he concluded.

The Senator does feel that LB 244 has a good chance of passing. "I know of two people against the measure and they are from Omaha," George stated with some concern. If the proposed does pass, it could postpone the project indefinitely.

Senator George is a former professor in Political Science and German.

Summer Study Program Offered

Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania, will offer its sixth biannual summer study program at Oxford University in England, from June 28 to Aug. 30.

"Susquehanna at Oxford," a program of study in British history and culture, is open to undergraduates from Susquehanna and other colleges, recent college graduates, or any seriously interested adult.

Participants usually enroll in either British History, Politics and Society: 1870 to the Present; or British Literature: 1870 to the Present; and either The Oxford Movement: Religion's Impact upon 19th Century British Culture; or History of the Fine Arts in England: 1660-1837.

Upon successful completion of the two courses, Susquehanna awards six hours of undergraduate course credit and a special certificate attesting to completion of the program.

The history and literature courses are part of Oxford University's regular summer school program, with lectures by various British scholars and political and governmental leaders. For "Susquehanna at Oxford" students, the lecture are supplemented by bi-weekly seminars led by S.U. faculty members.

Upon arrival in England, the group will spend one week in London, followed by five weeks in residence in the historic "Durham Quadrangle" at University College, the oldest of Oxford's colleges, founded in 1249. Following the Oxford session, Susquehanna offers an optional 20-day tour of the European continent.

Cost for "Susquehanna at Oxford" is $1,285, which covers all expenses except for lunches and dinners during the first week in London. Cost of the optional continental tour is $555, which covers all expenses except evening meals.

Further information is available from Dr. Robert Bradford at S.U. Selinsgrove, Pa., 17870.

Hong Visit Set

Professor Howard Hong, one of the leading Kierkegaard scholars in the United States, will be on campus Tuesday, April 8.

Professor Hong will meet with Viewpoints at lunch in the Blue Room on Tuesday, and speak at 4:30 and 7 p.m. in D.H.A. The 4:30 lecture will be "The Comic, Satire, Irony and Humor in Kierkegaard" and the 7 p.m. lecture will be "The Importance of Kierkegaard".

Professor Hong's visit is sponsored by HRC, The Philosophy Department, and the Dana Chapter of the American Scandinavian Foundation.

VA Processing Loans

The Veterans Administration in Nebraska is now processing applications for new education loans for veterans attending school under the GI Bill. The loans, up to a maximum of $600 in one academic year, were established by the Vietnam-era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974.

All eligible veterans, wives, widows and children will be considered for initial loans based upon the full amount of their tuition and all other costs of attendance anticipated for the entire 1974-75 academic year.

Those granted loans will be required to execute promissory notes agreeing to repayment of principal plus 8 per cent interest.

Installment payments must start nine months after the student ceases at least half-time enrollment, with full payment within 10 years and nine months after that date. Part or all of the loan may be prepaid without penalty. Interest will not accrue on the loan balance until the required beginning date of repayment.

The new measure provides that applicants must have exhausted all efforts to obtain student loans administered by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Singers to Appear in Blair

The Blair Lions Club has announced that the University of Nebraska Scarlet and Cream Singers will be in Blair April 11th for an evening of Song.

Ray Miller, faculty member at the School of Music of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, has selected 16 vocalists-dancers and a three member instrumental combo from undergraduate auditions held this past spring. "We will feature many selections of current popularity," Miller says, "as well as show tunes and old favorites which will show the flexibility of the SCARLET & CREAM SINGERS in terms of presenting a totally appealing performance."

The show includes rock and folk music from this week's Top Ten and the show tunes and old favorites which never lose their popularity. Many selections feature solo and small group performers which enhances the professionalism of the program.

Blair Lions Club members are selling tickets to the Scarlet and Cream program with the proceeds to be used for the Lions Club Sight Conservation program both locally and nationally. All Blair Lions Club members have tickets for sale.

Diamond Preview . . . Vets, Newcomers Have A Job To Do

By Michael S. Herberj

For the past month, the Dana College baseball team has had to practice indoors, due to the terrible weather conditions. In the daily workout schedule, base running techniques, hitting, and pitching are most emphasized. Each one of these aspects must be combined with team unity to improve on last year's 23-14 won-loss record.

Talented Infield

Gone are all America Steve Woitock, Bryan Traylor, and Jerry Wilson, who supplied most of the punch for the Vikings a year ago. This year, Captain Mike Urdahl, an all-District performer of '74, anchors one of the most talented infields in the conference. Bob Leach and Terry Price, both sophomores, return to handle the 3rd base and shortstop positions, respectively. Right on their heels are hustling freshmen, Bob Mountain and Jerry Haas, one of whom will probably man the vacated 2nd base position.

The outfield is a question, with only Ed Spicer returning as a starter. Lettermen Jeff Maliszewski and Terry Peetz will handle the other two outfield spots.

Winningest Pitcher

Pitcher Barry Olson and catcher Mike Giovanni, both all-District players a year ago, combine for one of the best 1-2 punches in the area. Olson, the winningest pitcher in Dana's baseball history, is back for his third straight year of baffling the opposition with his skills. Giovanni, a take-charge ball player who is a supreme catcher, will have to hit regularly for team success. The back up catcher, Dan Hult, is excellent in his own right, both offensively and defensively. Two of the most improved players on the squad are Rod Jasa and Walter Schacht. Both, in my opinion, will win their share of ball games. Freshmen pitchers Pat Durkin and Brent Kroenke will see a good amount of action.

Before leaving for their southern trip, the team is scheduled to play Creighton University and Huron College (S.D.), if the weather permits.

For the team to be successful in 1975, they must get constant hitting from Urdahl, Giovanni, Spicer, and Hult, and on target pitching from the trio of Olson, Jasa, and Schacht.

Jobs For Summer Look Promising

Informed sources report that summer job opportunities for college students "look good" this year. National Parks, Dude Ranches, Guest Resorts, Private Camps, and other tourist areas throughout the nation are now seeking student applications.

Summer job placement coordinators at Opportunity Research (SAP) report that despite national economics tourist areas are looking for a record season. Polls indicate that people may not go for the big purchases such as new cars, new homes, furniture or appliances, but most appear to be planning for a big vacation.

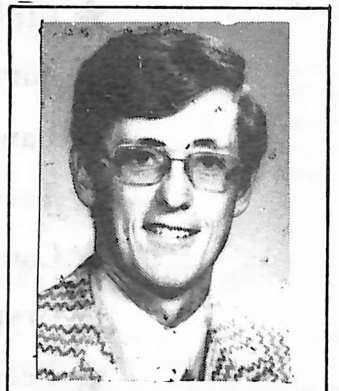

A free booklet on student job assistance may be obtained by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Opportunity Research, Dept. SJO, 55 Flathead Dr., Kalispell, MT 59901. Student job seekers are urged to apply early!
