It revolves around the story of two sweet elderly ladies who offer lonely old men the peaceful reward found in a glass of home-made Elderberry wine laced with arsenic, strychnine, and cyanide. The play has other interesting characters including their nephew who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt, a homicidal maniac, a policeman who wants to be a playwright and a plastic surgeon.

Khigh Dhiagh is conversant in such areas as Taoist Philosophy, Psychology, Theatre, Radio, Acupuncture and other aspects of Chinese Health Systems.

Human Rights and Concerns is bringing Dr. Dhiagh to Dana College. Further details will be reported in the next Hermes.

Dr. Dhiagh will be lecturing in Doctor's Hall Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, the 25th.

Dana Homecoming Queen To Be Named

Homecoming Queen candidates Jeanmarie Nielsen, Carol Arnvig, Lisa Damrow, Iris Frey, and Kim Shipley have a hope for the crown in common, but here the similarities end. They are a diverse group with different pastimes and goals.

Jeanmarie is a senior from Creighton, Nebraska. Her major is music with a vocal emphasis. Her hobbies include sewing, refinishing furniture, swimming, and reading. Jeanmarie's favorite book is Captains and King by Taylor Caldwell; favorite magazines are People and Time. Opera and symphony are her favorite kinds of music. Among her future plans are a trip to Europe this summer, attending graduate school next fall, and perhaps someday teaching music at the college level. If not headed for a musical career, Jeanmarie would like to enter nursing.

Carol is a senior art education major from Harlan, Iowa. In her spare time she enjoys working with ceramics and painting. Her favorite rock groups are Kansas and ELO. Cosmopolitan and Glamour are her favorite magazines, and The Deep is her favorite book. Carol would like to teach art at either the elementary or secondary levels.

Lisa, a senior majoring in social work and psychology, names Bruning, Nebraska, as her hometown. She plays the piano, organ, and guitar in extra hours and also enjoys backpacking and hiking. Lisa likes most music under the easy-listening category; her favorite magazines are Psychology Today and Good Housekeeping. She would like to find a job counseling adolescents after graduation, and has dreamed of someday opening a home for orphans and other homeless youth.

Iris is a senior majoring in music with an emphasis on piano. Her hometown is Lyons, Nebraska. Some of her hobbies include reading, handcrafts such as crocheting and embroidery, and indoor gardening.

Iris's favorite book is The Complete Adventures of the Borrowers. Her favorite magazine is Time, and she especially likes Baroque music. She plans on graduate school; her second career choice would be running a greenhouse.

The only junior candidate, Kim is a special education major from Ralston, Nebraska. A few of her pastimes are playing the piano and involvement in campus organizations. Kim's favorite book is The Woman He Loved, Seventeen is her favorite magazine, and Rod Stewart and Leo Sayers are her favorite singers. She hopes for a career in her major field, but if circumstances permitted she would take all her money and see everything in Europe first.

Fortunately, the student body selects their Homecoming Queen by the voting process, for a difficult time would be had by those attempting to select the right girl on the basis of personal ideas and interests—they are so varied.

Homecoming Fair Will Be In Circus Tent

A crafts fair held inside a circus tent will be a special feature of Dana College's Homecoming Renaissance Faire this weekend, October 7-9.

broidery), Carla Payne (Needlepoint-crewel), Nancy Schmitz (broomstick lace), and Linda Wulf (latch-hooked rugs, quilts).

The exhibit will open Friday, October 7, at 7 p.m. and reopen at 9 the following morning, and again at 4:30 p.m. after the football game. Coffee and doughnuts will be served. The public is cordially invited; there is no charge for admission.

October 31: Exhibit and sale of prints, Roten Galleries, Baltimore, Maryland.

November 6-22: Exhibit by Omaha World-Herald photographer James Denney, "Focus on Nebraska."

Danish Days Observed October 29

Blair, Nebraska, will celebrate its third annual Danish Day Saturday, October 29, with Danish food served at Kafebord, Smorrebrod and Forretning, craft displays and demonstrations, and Danish baking and costume contests.

Other events will include performances by the Dana College Folk Dancers, a Danish vesper service at Blair's 100-year-old Congregational Church, a story hour and "Big Wheel" races for children, tours of the Lauritz Melchior and Heritage Rooms at Dana College, and tours of Blair and Black Elk-Neihardt Park.

Danish Day is sponsored by Blair's Danish Brotherhood lodge and by the city's Chamber of Commerce and Women's Chamber.

According to general chairman Mr. and Mrs. J. Merton Kuhr, the contests are open to everyone. Winners in the five classes of the baking contest will receive Danish plates.

Fiddlers Delight Audience With Fast Fingering

Announcer Paul Moss visits with the audience while Sound Man Randy Fergusson adjusts the sound system for Harry Hansen, Gordon, Nebraska, at the Bluegrass Fiddler's Contest. Mr. Hansen won First Place in the contest.

The setting was downtown Blair and Dana College. The cast included musicians from Iowa, Kansas, and Nebraska; Chamber of Commerce members, Bluegrass fans, and those who came to see if they would like 'Bluegrass'. The event was the First Bluegrass weekend in Blair, Nebraska.

People, from babes in arms to Senior Citizens, gathered the weekend of September 30-October 2, to listen to the pickin' and fiddlin' at the Festival. They listened to Champion fiddlers, banjo players and mandolin players and heard bands from three states play familiar tunes along with those they had never heard before. A well-linked feature of the weekend was the Onion Creek Cloggers who danced to Bluegrass music on Saturday night.

The weekend was set up so that families could attend and enjoy an evening of entertainment together. Parents put babies to sleep to the "down home" music using the risers on the bleachers in Borup Coliseum as cribs, youngsters bounced and kept time to the music with their heads while in a back pack or on their mother's knee, and school children listened and clapped, chewed their gum and made faces at those behind them in time to the music. Flattop guitars, Doghouse Basses, mandolins, banjos and Dobros joined fiddles in providing tunes which kept the toes tapping and the hands moving in time to the music throughout the weekend. Audience and musicians joined together to create a feeling of comradery and, inspite of the weather which did its best to dampen the spirits of those involved, enthusiasm remained high throughout the Festival.

Approximately 150-200 persons attended the Fiddlers Contest which was held Friday, September 30. Six Fiddlers from Lincoln, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Gordon, Anita, Iowa, and Onawa, Iowa, competed for top honors and prize money in the contest.

Shoppers in the downtown area and at the Blair Plaza heard Bluegrass Bands on Saturday during the Bar-B-Que which was held downtown. Approximately 300 persons lined up, inspite of the rain, for gigantic bar-b-que sandwiches, beans and cole slaw at noon.

The Six band concert which took place Saturday, October 1 drew between 400-500 people. The bands played a little of the old and new. Great White Possum String Company, Kansas City, showed up with a opossum hanging from one of the guitars and sang of how they got their name. Bluegrass Crusade, Lincoln, featured Dave Fowler, one of the fiddlers from Friday night, received a standing ovation at the end of their performance. The musicians, who entertained the audience until after midnight on Saturday, got together after the concert and "jammed" until six a.m., according to those connected with the Festival.

The Onion Creek Cloggers, who also received a standing ovation, performed several dances learned in the Appalachians for the crowd Saturday night. Many of the movements were reminiscent of the square-folk dance steps learned by youngsters and elders alike in the process of growing up.

Organizers of the Festival (Dana, Blair Chamber of Commerce, and The Crescent Bluegrass Association) have already started the evaluation process of the Festival. They plan to learn from the errors they made which can be corrected so that next year's Festival can be bigger and better than the one they brought to Blair this year. They hope to attract a nationally known bluegrass band to the Festival next year and hope that the weather will cooperate but realize that it is one factor they have little control over.

NEWS BRIEF

The class will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Dana Hall of Science on October 4, 11, 18 and 25. The fee for the course is $15.

The Dana College Folk Dancers and Choir performed at the Nebraska State Fair as part of the fair's recognition of the contributions of Danish immigrants to the state and country.

Dana and the Dana chapter of the American Scandinavian Foundation also had exhibits in the Exposition Hall.

The program was coordinated by the national office of the Danish Brotherhood in Omaha.

Two Dana College students have won awards in the 19th Annual National Lutheran Student Art Award Program.

Dana award winners include: Susan Chapman, who received a purchase award and $100 and Bruce Winter, who received an exhibition award and a $25 savings bond.

Winning entries are being featured through May 27 in Minneapolis during Lutheran Brotherhood's 19th Annual Fine Arts Festival. The Minneapolis-based fraternal benefit society sponsors the competition.

Students submitted over 600 entries in this year's combined junior and senior programs, and nearly $3,000 was awarded to winners. The Lutheran schools attended by purchase winners also receive matching funds.

Dana Has 2-1 Record Going Into Homecoming

After starting their season with two straight victories, the Dana Viking football was defeated by Dakota Wesleyan 12-0. The Tigers, from Mitchell, South Dakota were ranked fifth in the nation in the N.A.I.A. division 11 ratings going into the game.

The first quarter was a matter of who could punt the ball the farthest. Dakota Wesleyan fumbled the ball several times in the first quarter. The score at the end of the first quarter was 0 to 0.

In the following quarter Dakota started moving the ball on Dana. They moved the ball all the way down to Dana's eight yard line but Dana's defense took charge. They held Dakota, so Dakota was forced to attempt a field goal. The field goal was no good so Dakota's drive was thwarted. Dana also had their best drive of the day in the second quarter. After the Vikes got down to the 35 yard line they were forced to punt. At halftime the score was tied at 0.

The third quarter was climaxed by many punts. Both teams were unable to move the ball against the defense and also against the adverse conditions.

In the final stanza, the Tigers were finally able to score against a tough Dana defense. Through succession of plays Tim Johnson made it possible for Kevin Johnson and Frank Caputo to score the Dakota touchdowns.

Although the first loss of any season is disappointing, Dana played an exceptional game; their defense was outstanding.

Volleyball girls play hard

The girls volleyball season opened Wednesday, September 21, at Concordia Teachers College, Seward, Nebraska. The first match was Dana vs Hastings. Hastings won 15-2, 15-0. The second match was Dana vs Concordia. Concordia won 15-6, 15-6.

The second group of matches for the season was held in Hastings, Nebraska, on Saturday, September 24. The first match found Dana vs Hastings. Hastings won the match 15-8, 3-15, 15-3. The second match was Dana vs College of St. Mary with CSM winning 7-15, 15-8, 15-6. The final match of the day was Dana vs Creighton. Creighton won 15-8, 15-5.

The first home matches were held Thursday, September 29. In the first match we saw Dana vs Peru. Peru pulled the right strings and decided the match

Dana College has a record of 2 and 1 so far. They defeated Westmar 7-6 and Martin Luther 7-3. They were beaten last week by Dakota Wesleyan 12-0. The following is an interview with Gary Eavers, the Head Coach of Dana's Vikings.

How do you compare Hastings team with yours?

Hastings is much bigger defensively and offensively they are a little bigger, also. They should be a little tougher defensively because of their size. They have good speed at the skilled positions. The ends, receivers, and backs are very fast.

Will your strategy against Hastings be different then in the three previous games?

Not really, but we hope that our offensive line can give the backs more running room. We hope to establish our running game early which will complement our passing attack.

Did you sustain any injuries to some key players?

We had our share of injuries from the previous three games but everyone will be able to play. We suffered some leg injuries and the flu is going around. Everyone should be about 100%.

How does this team rate with teams of the past?

We feel that we are better than we have been in previous years. The morale of the team has been excellent. We are very fortunate to have good senior leaders which helps alot.

with scores of 15-4, and 15-8. Following that Dana watched as Peru stopped CSM 15-12, 15-8. Then Dana jumped back out onto the court to play the final match of the evening against CSM, CSM won 15-3, 10-15, and 15-8.

October 3, the team traveled to CSM to battle Doane in the first match. Doane won 15-2, 15-10. Then Dana volleyed against CSM. CSM decided the match 13-15, 15-6, and 15-6.

October 12, Dana will play against Peru at 7:00 at Peru. Dana will play Midland here at 6:30 October 17. The last match of the season will be played against Bellevue at 7:30 there.

The players on this year's 1977-78 team are: Karen Allison, Janelle Anderson, Lyn Bakken, Renell Bondo, Denise Braun, Patty Clary, Maria Davie, Mary Erickson, Marilyn Gengenbach, Chris Mulinix, Eva Riley, Joanne Roberts, Lynee Vanderwiell.

This year's team has a lot of spunky spirit and desire to play, but they need our support as well! If you haven't seen the team play yet, remember, there are still three more matches this season! Good luck, girls!

Bansen Attends Scanpresence II Conference

Professor Norman C. Bansen is an active participant in the international Scanpresence II Conference being held in Minneapolis October 6-8. At the several working sessions of the conference Bansen will assist in the review and discussion of the task force reports that are to be presented.

Another Dana alumnus, Dr. Edward A. Hansen, Bishop of Southwest Minnesota District, American Lutheran Church, was a member of the task force studying aspects of the influence of Scandinavian religious groups in North America. In his report he wrote, "The Danish background colleges have the best resources for helping to assert the Danish-American ingredients of the American 'salad bowl'--a more aptly descriptive and contemporary metaphor than 'melting pot.' I favor strengthening their efforts, perhaps by endowing chairs of Danish literature on the faculty, establishment of archives for Danish records and artifacts, fostering exchange study programs for American and Danish students, etc."

The late Professor Paul C. Nyholm and Professor Bansen were participants in Scanpresence I, held in 1973. Their papers presented at that conference were included in a book published last year by Harper's Press, The Scandinavian Presence in North America.

These conferences concerned with all aspects of the influence of the Scandinavian presence, cultural, scholarly, religious, fraternal, economic and journalistic, are the largest convocations of Scandinavian specialists ever held.

Professor Joshua A. Fishman of the Graduate School of Yeshiva University, an authority on ethnicity, points out that the organization and intellectual content of the Scanpresence is the most advanced and sophisticated effort among heritage groups in America.

SOLID WASTE...

MUST BE SEEN AS A SOURCE OF ACCUMULATING URBAN ORE... IF NOT PROPERLY UTILIZED ITS DISPOSAL WILL GROW INTO A HERCULEAN TASK.

AN IMPORTANT SOURCE OF ENERGY...

TODAY SOLID WASTE IS BEING USED BY UTILITY COMPANIES IN A NUMBER OF CITIES AS A BOILER FUEL TO PROVIDE POWER TO HOMES AND BUSINESSES. IN SAUGUS, MASSACHUSETTS, SOLID WASTE IS CONVERTED TO STEAM WHICH IS PIPED TO A GENERAL ELECTRIC FACILITY TO POWER IN-PLANT INDUSTRIAL PROCESSES.

METHANOL, A FUEL WHICH IS EXPERIMENTALLY BEING CREATED FROM SOLID WASTE, CAN BE USED AS A BLEND WITH GASOLINE TO POWER AUTOMOBILES. IT REPRESENTS A POTENTIAL ENERGY SOURCE WHICH CAN REDUCE EMISSIONS AND PROVIDE ATTRACTIVE MEANS OF RESOURCE RE-UTILIZATION.
