Musical Personals Cancelled after Cast Vote

By: Jessica Angus
Staff writer

Reading through the personal column is something most everyone does at one time or another. Some go searching for the person of their dreams and some merely pick it up for a laugh.

The Dana theater department planned on doing a musical on just that.

The play "Personals," was about the things you find reading the personal ads. It explored what you may find if some of these individuals found each other. It was a comedy mocking these situations.

The play will not be shown on this campus however. The show scheduled to come out last weekend, was cancelled. This is the first time a play has ever been cancelled at Dana College.

The 10-member cast decided on a nine-vote majority, that the play contained too much questionable content.

The play contained adult, sexually explicit content, according to an anonymous cast member.

One member upon first reading thought that these things would be downplayed in performance, but that was not the case.

Events behind the Cancelling of Personals

- > Cast reads the script
- > The cast finds controversial content
- > Cast votes 9-1 to cancel play
- > Cast members discuss it with director Paul Schneider

"It was too much to cut," several different cast members said.

Paul Schneider, the show's director, was then approached to discuss questions and concerns.

Besides cast members feeling uncomfortable performing these scenes, the final decision was also based on the promotion of the plays and the fact that Dana is a Lutheran College.

Most of the promoting for the plays at Dana is made at high schools, and youth groups, and the audience has many children. This would make promotion difficult with adult content.

After the voting process, one student expressed the views of the cast to Schneider.

Cast members said this was not a personal issue involving the director or the cast. The cast is very supportive of each other and the decision they made. They are ready to put it behind them and start on the next play.

That play is entitled The Delivery Boy. It is an original production by Schneider himself.

Attempts were made to contact Schneider, but were unsuccessful.

Danish Quartet Performs at Dana

By: Jenny Lemmerman
Feature staff

MUSIC REVIEW

On Monday, The Royal Danish Opera Quartet performed in the Trinity Chapel/ Recital Hall of the Dana Classroom Center. Even though admission for the concert was "free", freewill offerings were accepted. The show promptly began at 7:00p.m.

Back in their homeland, the Quartet performs Royal Danish Opera presentations at the Royal Theatre in Copenhagen. At Dana, they performed works from grand and light opera, popular musicals, as well as Danish songs.

The Quartet members include leader of the ensemble and tenor John Venning, baritone Rudi Sisseck, mezzo-soprano Anne Kleinstrup and soprano Marie Kindberg.

Not all the members are Danish as one would maybe think. Venning is of Chinese decent, Sisseck is Hungarian, Kleinstrup is Danish and Kindberg is Swedish.

"I have intentionally picked singers with different ancestral backgrounds to show that music knows no national or geographical boundaries," said Venning.

The audience really seemed to enjoy the group's refreshing and entertaining style.

The ensemble provided both an educational and entertaining experience for the community as well as for Dana students and faculty.

The group had previously performed in various locations in the Twin Cities area and will soon be traveling to Chicago. Their itinerary is full, and their excitement keeps them moving right along.

Football Team Defeats Wesleyan for First Conference Victory

By: Tom Urban
Sports Editor

Coming off of a loss to Doane College, the Dana College football team took to the road on Saturday for a match-up with the Plainsmen of Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The Vikings were looking to pick up their first conference win of the season, and bring their record to 3-3 away from Viking Field.

Dana came into the contest with a record of 2-6 (0-4 NIAC) on the season. The Plainsmen brought a 2-5 (1-4 NIAC) record into the game.

The Vikings got out of the gate quickly, and put the first points of the day on the board, when freshman Chevas Lamoya scored on a 4-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Late in the first half, Dana added to their lead with a 33-yard touchdown pass from Bryan Soukup to fellow senior Joel Carter. This made the score 14-0 in favor of the Vikings, and that would be the score at halftime.

Nebraska Wesleyan began to mount a comeback early in the third quarter with an 11-yard touchdown pass, but the Vikings would not let the Plainsmen back into the contest.

In the fourth quarter, freshman Aaron Farber was inserted at the quarterback position, and he promptly connected with Jeret Pospeshil on a 4-yard touchdown pass.

Wesleyan would score one more time, but it was not enough as Dana hung on to pick up the victory. The final score had Dana winning 21-14.

The Vikings were led in rushing by Lamoya, who gained 77 yards on the day. Senior Jason Mitchell led all Dana and Wesleyan receivers with 98 yards, while Farber and Soukup each had one touchdown pass.

Defensively, Jared Shafer led Dana with 13 tackles, one interception, and a blocked punt. For his effort, Shafer was named defensive player of the week in the NIAC.

The victory raised the Vikings record to 3-6 (1-4 NIAC) for this season. Up next, Dana plays their final game of the year at home against the Concordia University Bulldogs on Saturday.

Concordia brings a record of 5-3 (3-2 NIAC) into Viking Field. Kickoff for Dana's final ever NIAC game is set for 1 p.m.

Volleyball Team Wins Two Matches in Dakota Tournament

By: Tom Urban
Sports Editor

The Lady Viking volleyball team has had a busy couple of weeks, in preparation for the NIAC tournament. They have picked up a couple of victories, giving them some momentum as they enter post season play.

On October 22, Dana traveled to Madison, S.D. to compete in the Dakota State Invitational. In this tournament, they found team success.

In their first game, the Lady Vikings took on Briar Cliff, and fell in straight sets 3-0 (15-6, 15-3, 15-13). They bounced right back though, and defeated the host school, Dakota State in a five set battle.

The score of the Dakota State match was 15-6, 15-12, 8-15, 9-15, 15-10. The next day, Dana came out and picked up another win against the Screaming Eagles of Huron University.

This contest was also decided in a thrilling five set match, won by the score of 15-4, 14-16, 8-15, 15-7, 15-8.

After enduring back to back five set matches, Dana had every right to be fatigued. In their final match of the tournament, Dana lost to Jamestown, N.D. in straight sets (15-5, 15-6, 15-12). For her efforts, senior Amber Weber was named to the All-Tournament Team.

With their tournament behind them, the Lady Vikings came back home for a contest with Doane College at Borup Coliseum on October 26. The Tigers were simply too much for Dana, and were able to overpower them, winning in three straight sets, (15-4, 15-1, 15-2).

On the 29th of October, the Lady Vikings traveled to Orange City, Ia. to face the 8th ranked Red Raiders of Northwestern. Again, Dana was outmatched, falling to the Raiders by a score of 15-4, 15-3, 15-4.

Ending their home campaign for the season, the Lady Vikings took on Hastings College on November 2 in Borup Coliseum.

Hastings came into the match ranked 11th in the NAIA national poll. Dana had the first set against the Broncos in the palm of their hands, leading 8-4 at one point. However, Hastings fought back to win the first set 15-11.

The next two sets were owned by Hastings. The Broncos took the match from Dana in three straight sets, 15-11, 15-3, 15-2. This brought their record to 6-21 (0-11 NIAC) for the season.

Dana played its final regular season game of the year at Nebraska Wesleyan on Thursday. Tomorrow, the Lady Vikings begin their quest for the NIAC championship with a first round playoff contest against Concordia University. The game will be played in Seward and is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

FOCUSED: Dana's volleyball team figures out their strategy for the upcoming set against Doane. The Vikings have improved their record from a year ago, and played their final conference match yesterday against Nebraska Wesleyan. The Vikings play in the post-season tournament tomorrow.

Cross Country Back in Rankings

The men's cross country team jumped back into the national rankings this past week, taking the 21st spot. Concordia, who was rated earlier, fell out of the national rankings.

The men and women's team run in the conference meet tomorrow at Valley View golf course in Fremont. The women begin at 10:30 a.m. and the men at 11:45.

This conference meet will provide plenty of excitement as Dana's senior Scott Stanley attempts to win the meet against conference foe Brandon Seifert of Concordia.

The men's team is chasing a back to back conference championship against Nebraska Wesleyan and the women hope to get nationally ranked in hopes for their first national berth as a team.

The team invites all students to make the 20-minute drive to Fremont to watch what could be the first time in Dana history that both the men's and women's teams qualify for the national meet in Kenosha, Wis. in late November.
