DANIAN

THE TWENTY-SIXTH VOLUME
OF THE YEARBOOK
OF DANA COLLEGE AND
TRINITY SEMINARY
BLAIR, NEBRASKA

FOREWORD

Many students have stood thus—looking at the campus from the garden bridge, basking in the quiet serenity of the spring sunlight. It is our hope that, in the future, many more students will stand on the same spot, enjoying the same sensations. And it is with all these students, past, present, and future, in mind, that the Danian staff presents the 1952 Danian.

To all who have been students here, may it touch a chord of delight in the memories of Their College. To those students who have shared in the year portrayed in this '52 Danian, may it serve to keep alive the warm, friendly memories they have of this past year. And to all those students who are to be, may it give them a glimpse of the joys that will be theirs at Dana.

Students

Seniors

Senior class officers, Bruce Jensen, Melius Bollesen, and Anona Anderson make plans for Class Day and graduation, the big events marking the end of four happy years of college.

Freshmen

The Freshmen class officers, Paul Jahnke, Harris Jorgensen, and Marian Nielsen are discussing plans for that special day of the year—Sadie Hawkins Day—when the Frosh give the signal for Dana's Daisy Maes to get that man, Dogpatch style!

Juniors

Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, "The Mikado," took Dana students to the Orient for an evening of entertainment as the Junior-sponsored musical comedy was presented. Gerald Gorglum, Dale Christensen, Joyce Hayek, and Ruth Wagschal recall memories of fun and work the Juniors and other Dana students had in producing this year's big success, "The Mikado."

Sophomores

Fortune-telling, funny snapshots, caramel apples, hot dogs, floor show, queen contest—all combined to make the Sophomore class "Cotton Carnival" a big hit. Class officers Stan Petersen, Arne Jessen, Joyce Petersen, and Janet Justesen are happy over its success.

Willard Hansen
Student Body President

Marilyn Steffensen
Student Body Secretary

Robert Coffey
Student Body Treasurer

Heading the activities of this year's student council was Willard Hansen; student body prexy. Under his leadership, the council tackled such problems as the negro scholarship, the outside bulletin board, an entrance marker, sponsored the Exchange program; and published the memorial booklet.

Concerts in twelve Wisconsin and two Iowa cities made up the agenda of this year's choir tour. A television appearance in Milwaukee and tours through the Johnson Wax Company in Racine and Jersild Knitting Mills in Neenah, Wisconsin, highlighted the trip. Spring concerts were given in nearby Nebraska and Iowa cities.

PAUL E. NEVE, CONDUCTOR

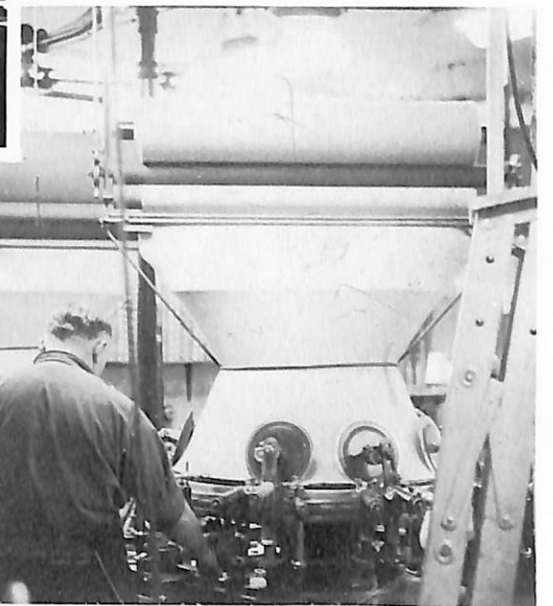

Many favorable comments were received on the choir. Much of the credit of their success is given Professor Paul Neve, conductor.

Mr. Neve, a member of Pi Kappa Lambda, honorary music fraternity, has conducted the Dana Choir since 1943. Several of his original compositions have been included in the choir's repertoire, his "Hold High the Torch" being included this year. Professor Neve received his M.Mu. in 1948 from Northwestern University.

Although the season's record was not too impressive, the Vikings showed great team spirit and fight. With the loss of Mark Thomsen, because of an injury suffered in the first game, extra punch and scoring was lacking when it would have counted most. Jack Allen, Neil Moore, and tackle Bud Johnson added much spark and led the Vikes to a comparatively successful season. Keith Skogman should be complimented on his skillful coaching.

1951-1952 BASKETBALL

The most impressive showing off the 1951-52 basketball season was made by the frosh quintet, who were sent in time and time again to strengthen the Viking's position when older and more experienced players started lagging. The upperclassmen, however, were responsible for most of the point totals by Dana during the entire season. Although the season's record was a comparatively poor one, the team came through in the last two games against Tabor and Wm. Penn to show all the old fighting spirit for which Coach Peterson's teams are famous.

Campus Life

FROSH
"DAZE"

College life to the bewildered freshmen became complicated at the outset with the bother of guidance tests to say nothing of the "farcing" they took at the hands of the upperclassmen. With the survival of the first days they began life anew with an exciting goal in sight—someday they would have to wear their beanies any more!

Top to bottom: First really social function of the year—faculty reception.

Faculty farcing at the reception.

The Frosh turned out in fine style for the Frosh Pep Parade.

Happy riot—the freshmen wearing their beanies for the last time.

Cast of the Frosh Talent Show line up while the audience and director John Bendorf applaud.

HOMECOMING

Queen Joyce Petersen

The return of alumni and old classmates marked one of the first highlights of the exciting Homecoming week end. The rest of the memorable week end of October 26-28 included the game with Friends' University, the coronation of the queen, and the banquet, following the Homecoming theme of "Lights for a Darkened World."

1950 queen, Jean Nielson, crowns her successor.

Attendants Donna Moree and Nancy Ohlsson shiver as the October drizzle makes smiles difficult.

Jackie, Kathe, Bonnie, and Rhoda lead the parade on the Pep Club float.

Some members of the freshman class and their prize-winning float.

Guests, faculty, and student body attend the traditional banquet.

Queen Joyce and the Rev. Lawrence Acker were two of the leading figures of the banquet.

The banquet speaker, the Rev. Acker, of Omaha, and Dr. Morton meet after the banquet.

THE BISHOP'S MANTLE

Dramatic talent at its best—under the direction of Miss Aagot Hoidahl—sponsored by the Viking Players—a hilarious time was had by all.

Top: He's so glad to get rid of his daughter! Lyle Kohler, Jackie Samuels, and Ken Oster-guard.

Middle: Lois Petersen and Jocelyn Thomas—two eccentrics.

Bottom: "She wants to be married." Doris Jacobs, Gunnar Mengers, and Sylvia Siersbeck.

Quartet? Dave Nuland, Carroll Petersen, Gerry Johnson, Jack Allen.

SOPHOMORE CARNIVAL

Fortune tellers, a fun house, stage show, candied apples, hot dogs and all sorts of fun rounded out an exciting evening at the carnival. The sophomores introduced a new idea on campus that provided enjoyment for everyone.

MEN'S OPEN HOUSE

Beata Hauge and Marilyn Steffensen sign their names as visitors during Open House.

Early in the year the men played host to the girls in the annual Open House. Girls inspected for rooms lived in by good housekeepers and the men for once had the whole dorm clean at one time.

Marilyn and Beata keep Al Svendsen and Bob Bertelsen laughing.

DON COSSACKS

The famous Don Cossack Chorus was brought to our campus under the auspices of the Lyceum association. The snappy and unusual singing of this group left the audience clamoring for more at the concert's end.

CHRISTMAS BANQUET

Esther Lank as the "Littlest Angel" highlighted the annual Christmas banquet sponsored by the W.A.A. Group singing of favorite carols helped out the appreciative audience in the holiday spirit.

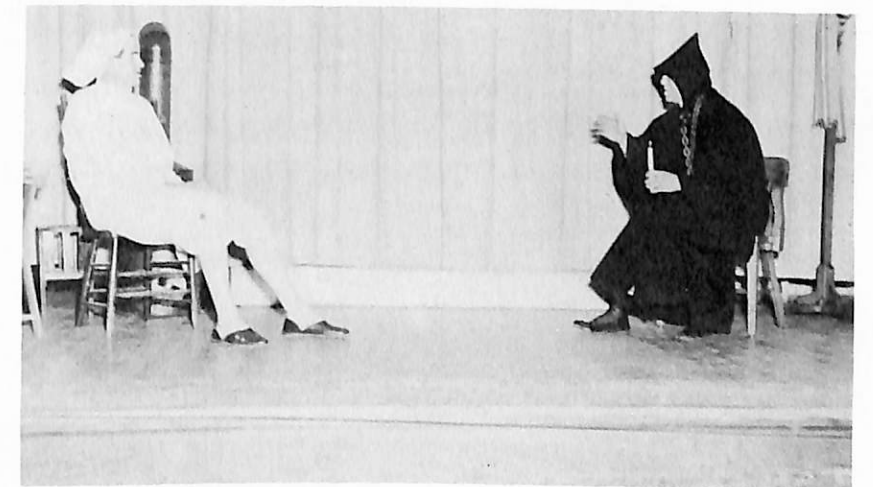

The "Littlest Angel" tells all to the Understanding Angel.

CHRISTMAS CAROL

The History Club once again brought us Scrooge and Dickens' Christmas Carol. Starring many of the Viking Players, it was another outstanding production--one worth while attending.

Scrooge with Marley's ghost.

LSA Candlelight Service.

CHRISTMAS AT DANA

The Christmas season was highlighted by the Christmas tree lighting and the LSA candlelight service. Students shivered as they sang while the tree was being lighted and snow obscured the all-seeing eye of the camera. (See below.) The candlelight service was held in the gym and the choir sang as the light was passed from candle to candle. P. C. Johnsen of Trinity Seminary gave the inspirational message.

WOMEN'S OPEN HOUSE

Comes the time every year when rules are waived and the men invade the Women's Dorm. This year, early in the second semester, after a program in the gym, the Women's Dorm was once more overrun with MEN!

PERCY GRAINGER

Percy Grainger, the pianist, presented a concert in the Lyceum series on the campus to an enthralled audience. His unique invention for turning pages when he plays with music and his antique-looking spectacles, as well as his fascinating personality, made a big hit here on the campus.

He played his own works as well as those of other well-known composers.

Neil Moore

BOXING SHOW

Under the auspices of the new Dana athletic frat P.E.D., boxing was brought to Dana College March 27. Featuring our own Neil Moore and several other Golden Gloves champs, the match was the first in Dana's history.

Action--and plenty of it.

The cast poses happily after a successful performance.

"THE MIKADO"

The campus, Blair, and surrounding communities spent an enjoyable Japanese evening at the biggest musical ever presented at Dana. Sponsored by the junior class, it was the first production of its type in Dana's history.

"Braid the raven hair . . ."

Clarice Fredericksen and Ronald Wilson—most Danish.

DANISH FESTIVAL

Costume and beard contests, Danish community singing, folk gaming, and "imported" Danish kringle provided an evening of fun at the Danish festival. This party was sponsored by the Home Economics Club. An added treat was the imitation gymnast team.

FALL

Spiritual Emphasis days held October 7-10 featured Dr. Phillip S. Dybvig, executive director of the department of home missions of the Evangelical Lutheran church. Dr. Dybvig delivered the message at both services in First Lutheran, Sunday, October 7, as well as conducting services in the college chapel. Besides his duties as executive director, he is chairman of the committee of Negro missions of the National Lutheran Council.

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS

Inspirational messages helped bring students and faculty members alike in closer contact to the mission field and the all-important work there. These days which set aside special time for meditation were of great benefit and emphasized the central theme of Spiritual Emphasis days—"God's World—Our Mission."

SPRING

Rev. J. M. Girtz

Spiritual Emphasis days held January 4-6 brought to the campus well-known and well-liked Rev. J. M. Girtz of this synod. His experiences in India gave him a wide background in the mission field, thus qualifying him to speak on the theme "God's World—Our Mission." At present, Rev. Girtz is the vice-president of the UELC.

"SHUTTER 'N PANE"

Music, drama, and comedy sparked the 1952 Exchange Program. Try-outs were held early in the year and selections made by the Exchange Program committee: Elva Jensen, director; Richard Andersen; and Frank Jespersen. The group travelled to neighboring colleges, who in turn, sponsored programs of their own on our campus.

Girls' sextette: Shirley Anderson, Sylvia Siersbeck, May Skobo, Esther Lank, Clarice Sommers, Elva Jensen.

MARIAN JERSILD

A gifted young American artist and daughter of the president of the synod, Rev. Hans Jersild, Miss Marion Jersild presented a program including numbers from Bach to Bartok in her lyceum-sponsored concert given here in April. At present Miss Jersild is a member of the Kansas University faculty, and is fast becoming well known throughout the Middle West.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' varsity basketball team, under the coaching of Bob Nelson, had a fairly successful second season. The girls travelled to Omaha and Wahoo for games, and played host to teams from Luther and Omaha on our own floor.

THANKS—

Special mention should be made of the splendid cooperation of Jahnke and Harris even though I didn't always appreciate it the way I should have; and also of Fred's and Margaret's willingness to do all the monotonous little tasks I hurled at them one after the other; and Jake's fine job on the advertising. To these, and to all the others whom I haven't space to name, a sincere, heartfelt thank you—the 1952 Danian was possible only through YOUR willing cooperation.

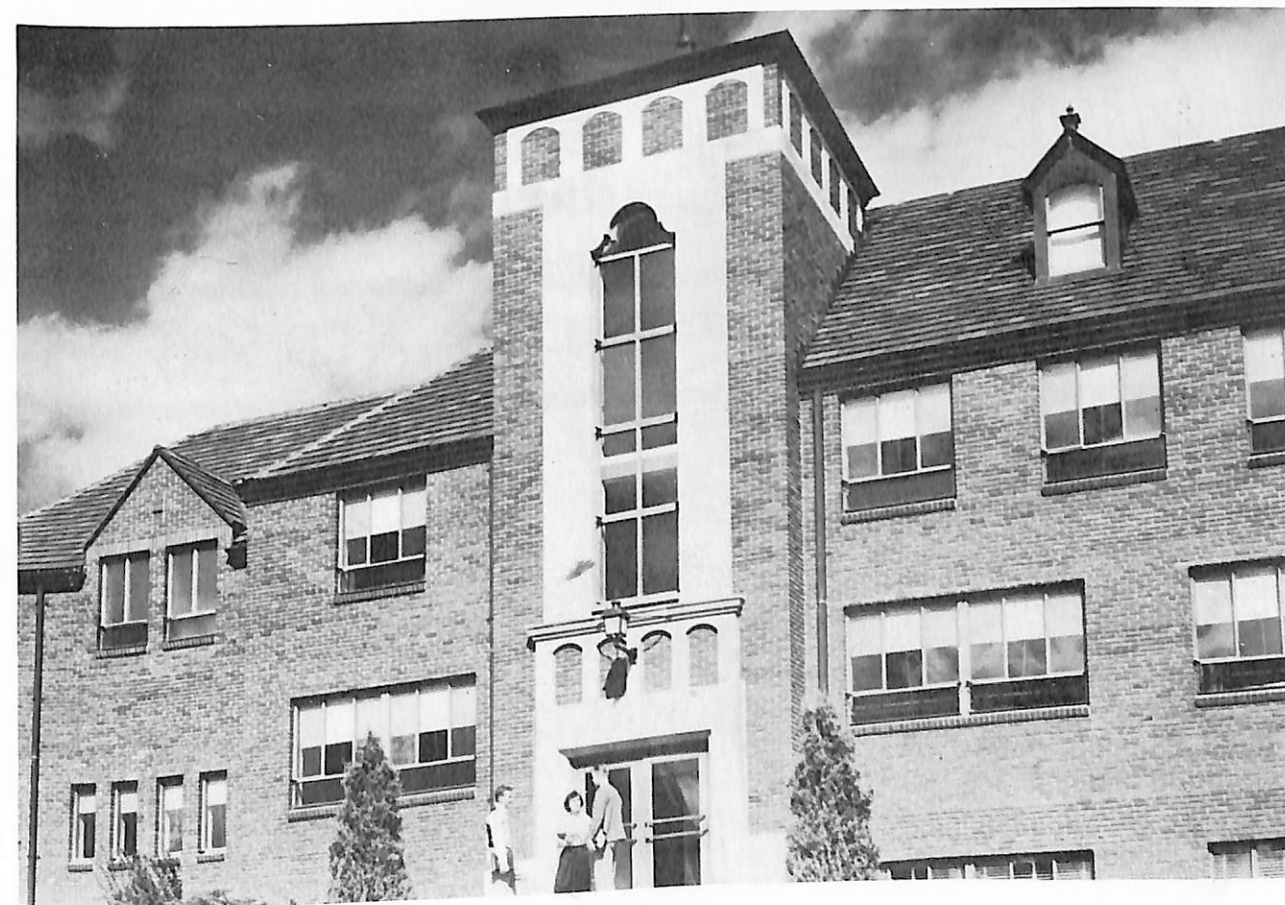

Sincerely,

Elva Jensen, Editor-in-chief

Speaking of Inflation

Everyone is doing it, and some are worrying over what it will do to insurance plans.

At such a time as this it is good to remember that the cost of a policy with the Fund has not been raised since 1948. This makes our contracts the best value that money can buy. Rates still remain the lowest of any company in the land.

As for the future, whatever questions arise, the soundest advice is to put money in savings. A Fund Policy can be considered as a means of protection and a program of savings.
