Foreword

Now it is spring, and all the strangers of last fall have become familiar faces and friends. The months spreading from September to May have passed quickly, and we can truthfully say they have been good ones. Danians have much to look back upon with pleasure, and even more to look forward to with anticipation. Dana is growing, and each of us can be sure that we have participated in some way, even though we may feel that we have contributed in a relatively insignificant manner. What is really important is that another year in Dana history is drawing to a close, and that this year has been a significant one. In this book we have tried to present the highlights of Dana, 1957-58. We hope that we have succeeded in our aim, and that you may enjoy this record of your college, your classmates, and you. . .

Dana Development

"We give our fair share for a greater Dana" is the slogan that helped create enthusiasm for the million dollar development program which is designed to increase and improve the college's physical facilities and academic program. The expansion program itself includes the construction of a new dormitory for women, of a new physical education building and gymnasium, of a football field and track, and the improvement and renovation of the campus as a whole. Members of the U.E.L.C., citizens of Blair, people of Danish descent, alumni, and other friends of Dana were asked to contribute to the program. Student and faculty members alike were involved in the work of organizing and soliciting the student body, faculty, and staff, with the hope that the "Greater Dana" program may be completed by 1960.

pus Shots

In every season of the year, Dana's campus has a different face to display to students and to visitors. On these pages we have attempted to portray the campus in a representative manner, knowing that it would be humanly impossible to successfully capture each mood that appears throughout the year.

Administration

Faced with the task of directing college activities on all levels, the administration was again headed by Dr. C. C. Madsen, president. Also returning were Dr. Elmer Rasmussen, registrar, and Mr. A. J. Snowbeck, business manager. A new addition to the staff was Dr. Ruben Poston who filled the newly created position of administrative dean of the college.

Board Of Trustees

Among the frequent visitors to the hill are the body of distinguished men who make up the Board of Trustees of Dana College. These men are given the grave task of forming the budget, authorizing enlargements and changes, and working with the faculty and administration in defining long range objectives and purposes of Dana.

Public Relations

New to our campus this year and acting as the Director of Public Relations, Dave Parrish was responsible for the all-campus Open House.

Student Council

Among the projects of the student council this year was a highly successful exchange program with Midland College. Each college enjoyed an evening's entertainment provided by talented performers of the rival school. Other student council work included providing week-end entertainment on occasional week-ends, electing next year's officers, and generally keeping the campus running as smoothly as possible.

Dormitory Councils

The dormitory councils, elected by members of the respective dormitory residents, bring a sense of responsibility in upholding the regulations of the school, and serve to further the feeling of unity among residents and their deans. Each dormitory held open house twice this year, for which the dormitory councils made most of the plans.

The Hermes

In addition to the usual trials and tribulations involved in the weekly publication of the Hermes — late hours, headlines that didn't want to fit the columns, deadlines that sneaked up with startling rapidity, and a host of similar difficulties — Editor Margaret Meyer and her staff managed a special issue of the paper in observance of its fortieth anniversary. The distribution date was also changed from Friday to Thursday — the first major publication switch in many years — marking the beginning and the end of another epoch in Hermes history.

Another deadline nears — and Editor Margaret Meyer confers with Joan Coffey, feature editor, about needed copy.

Editor Morton slaves "industriously."

The Danian

With one year of editorial experience chalked up to her credit, Editor D'Arlene Morton skillfully directed an enthusiastic staff in the publication of this year's Danian. From fall until early spring, pictures were taken and re-taken, copy was written, and finished pages were mailed to the publisher with sighs of relief. With the publication of this portion of the annual, however, more is yet to come. For the first time in Danian history, a spring supplement will be mailed to Dana students during the summer in order that the entire year may be covered.

Assistant Editor Dave Wulf and other staff members pause for the photographer.

Cooperation does it!

Hardworking fellows, Lyle, Mark, and Worm, relax before beginning "work" again.

The Business Division compares notes.

Tom gives his advice.

This year the student anthology of creative work, the Sower, was edited by senior Marlene Paulsen. With the cooperative efforts of Dick Brink, Ellen Andrews, and Melba Junker, the original efforts of Danians in the fields of art, literature, and music were gathered together and published for the enjoyment of all.

Sower

Who's Who

Each year outstanding members of the senior class are selected by the faculty and administration to be included in the publication "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." This year six students received the coveted award. They are Bill Himmler, Dorothy Willmert Schultz, Delores Petersen, and Joan Coffey. Other award winners who are not pictured are Harry Landbo and David W. Larsen.

Marvin Olson

Attending symphonies or plays in Omaha or in Lincoln, providing entertainment for the campus in the form of a play, and generally promoting interest in cultural activities, the Fine Arts Club continued this year under the leadership of JoAnn West, president.

Fine Arts Club

Homecoming Committee

This year's Homecoming Committee, working with the theme "Rise Up and Sing Our Song," produced a different and enjoyable Homecoming week-end for both alumni and students. Perhaps the greatest variations from the usual tradition were the fact that two banquets were held and that two queens reigned. Committee Chairman was Larry Jorgensen.

LSA

One of the largest organizations on campus, the Lutheran Student Association seeks to further and strengthen student interest and participation in religious service. Members attend weekly meetings on campus and often travel to other cities for L.S.A. conferences and retreats.

An informal L.S.A. meeting takes place in the canteen.

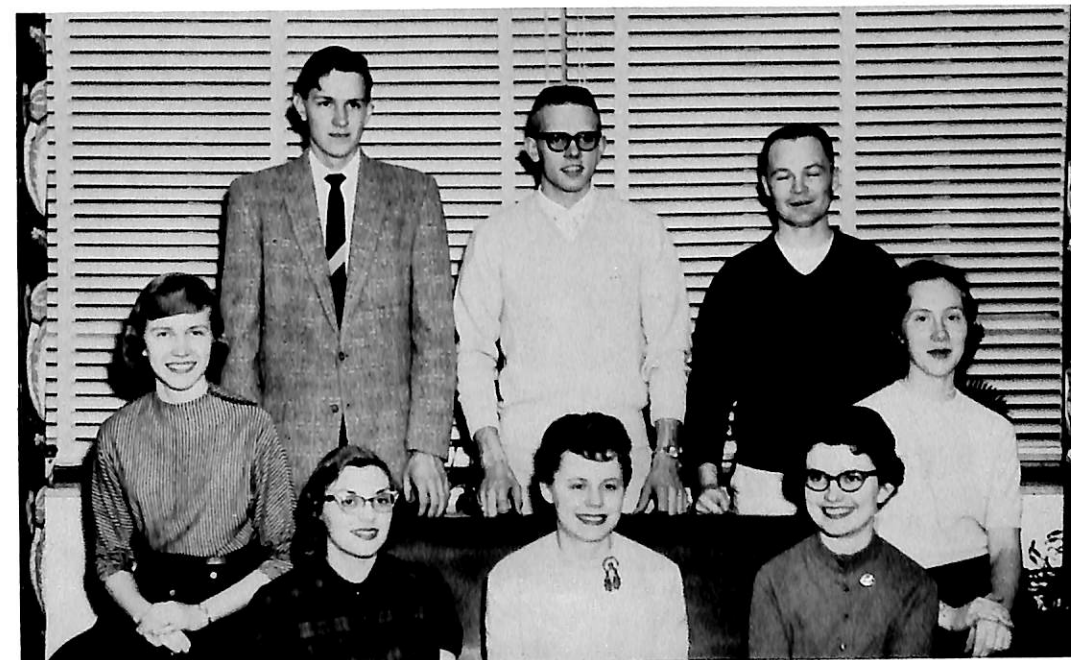

In its second year of organization, the Christian Service Club is designed for students who are particularly interested in such vocations as the ministry, parish work, or general social service. Club officers for this school year were Eugene Menninga, David R. Larsen, Karl Hansen, and Gail Koldenborg.

Christian Service

Honor Society

The Honor Society, composed of students with a 7.5 grade average or above, is relatively new on campus, having been formed in the spring of last year. There are three levels of membership in the organization: associate, active, and life. Each level is attained after certain requirements are met.

Science Club

Under the leadership of President John Henningsen, science club members journeyed to Chicago on a field trip, sponsored a discussion on evolution, and produced a float for the Homecoming parade.

Vets-Club

Members of the Veterans' Club are caught by the candid camera as they relax after completing the painting of the locker rooms in the gymnasium, one of the projects of the club this year. Officers of the club were: Jack Davies, president; Keith Elliott, vice-president; Harry Landbo, secretary-treasurer; and Ray Killion, sergeant-at-arms.

D-Club

D-Club members proudly displayed their hard-earned monograms, jackets, and sweaters while helping to keep life on the hill from being too dull. The lettermen sparked each of the seasons' teams, and helped provide a working nucleus in every sport.

W.A.A.

Sports-minded girls combined their efforts to encourage athletics among Dana co-eds. Officers of the club this year are: Donna Petersen, president; Nancy Horton, vice-president; Beverly Siersbeck, secretary; and Beverly Jessen, treasurer.

The Band

The snappy red and white uniforms of the Dana band were seen many times during the 57-58 year. Half time shows at many of the football games included such oddities as a German band and a Ferris wheel. The band marched in the Homecoming parade, played the processional and recessional at the crowning ceremonies, provided pep bands for home games, gave a concert, participated in the Christmas Program, and went on tour to complete a very busy year.

Band officers helping Dr. Wise were President Isaac Jenkins; Secretary-Treasurer Joanne West; and the hard working librarians Sharon Mardesen and Noel Petersen.

Pep Club

Sponsoring pep rallies before football and basketball games, cheering the team on at games, and generally promoting school spirit, the Dana Pep Club once more made the campus aware of its existence. Odin I, school mascot, appeared at the games with Pep Club members.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The Dana gridders of 1957, under new head football coach Bruce Rolloff, completed a successful season by bringing home the Central Church College Conference championship and placing five members on the all-conference team. Three other team members received honorable mention. Receiving all-conference honors were Ed Ellis, end; Marv Olson, tackle; Jim Heiser, guard; Jack Linahan, center; and Les Pederson, back. Honorable mention honors went to Jan Philby and Jerry McCallum, backs, and Ray Killion, tackle. The Vikings thus make a successful exit from the CCCC into the larger and stronger Nebraska College Conference.

Les Pederson led the '57 Vikings in scoring with 24 points. Ed Ellis and Jerry McCallum each had twelve, Jack Madsen, Tom Leehy, and Bill Chrisman each had six, and Hack Philby scored four. Dana scored 70 points to her opponents 80. In total offense, Dana outgained the opposition 1688 yards to 1498 yards.

In rushing, Les Pederson led with a 6.3 yds.-per-try by gaining 537 yards in 85 carries. Jerry McCallum caught seven passes for 175 yards and one touchdown, while Ed Ellis snagged twelve for 174 yards and two TD's.

Congratulations for a job well done to the team of 1957 and to their coaches, Bruce Rolloff and Paul Peterson!

And so Dana leaves the CCC Conference as undisputed champions. We sincerely believe that the Vikings can and will prove themselves equal to the occasion in the rougher and tougher competition of the NCC. Good luck, Dana Vikings of 1958!

Cross Country

Six candidates turned out for one of Dana's "newer" sports, cross-country. Taking place in the fall of the year, cross-country is exactly what the name implies. The runners follow a course marked by flags and which usually varies in length from two and one-half to four miles.

Dana competed in four meets during the year. They took part in two triangulars: the first consisting of Omaha University, Midland, and Dana; the second with Midland, Doane, and Dana. The Viking harriers met Tarkio, Missouri in a dual meet and entered the Nebraska College Conference run-off at Wayne.

Three candidates completed the season and earned their letters. They were Bill Cornwell, Luther Kloth, and Lyle Rasmussen.

Determination!

Steps toward another victory.

Three graduating seniors.

Basketball

In spite of these two points, Dana is beaten by Hastings 81-64.

A jump ball during the Peru game.

The Vikings, entering the Nebraska College Conference for the first time, found that the caliber of basketball being played was high, and that the going was rough. The loop consists of Chadron, Kearney, Hastings, Wayne, Doane, Concordia, Peru, Nebraska Wesleyan, Midland, and Dana.

Led by captain Bill Davis the Dana squad opened their season on a bright note with a 62-53 non-conference win over Tarkio, Missouri. The honeymoon was short-lived, however, as they went into conference play and suffered successive losses to Wayne, Concordia, Hastings, Peru, and Nebraska Wesleyan. The Vikings refused to let these losses dampen their spirit, and consequently, on January 18 they clipped a respected Doane College five for their first N.C.C. win of the year. The score was 65-60.

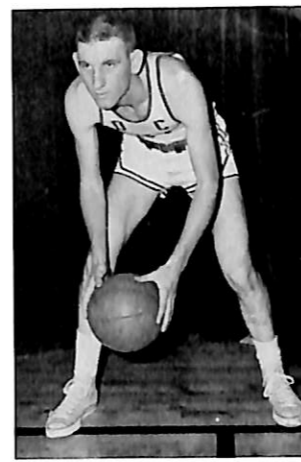

The sledding again became rough and the Vikings dropped a slow game to Concordia, followed by "double-header" losses to Chadron Teachers in the western Nebraska city. However, they found the home court friendlier and the non-conference competition easier by returning home to whip Westmar, 77-71 in a thrilling overtime battle.

With the addition of Mark Thompson, a second semester enrollee, Dana appeared to have new life and scored a repeat win over Doane, 75-72. A strong Peru team again set them back on their heels, however. This was soon forgotten, though, when the team, putting together a terrific effort, rolled over arch-rival Midland to the tune of 81 to 64. This, however, was to be the last time the Vikings were to taste victory for the season. Although putting out some good efforts, they could not pull out another win.

There were two seniors on Dana's squad: Bob Larson and Bill Davis. Davis scored 1208 points in his college career to break the previous four-year record of 1091 points held by Bob Jensen.

Intramural Program

The intramural program at Dana is designed to benefit those students, who, due to various reasons do not take part in inter-collegiate Athletics. Both boys and girls get a chance to participate with most of the events taking place in the evenings or on week-ends so as to not interfere with school work.

Sports being sponsored this year were football and basketball for boys and bowling and softball for both boys and girls.

Seniors, Marv Olson and Milt Jensen, were intramural directors and deserve much credit for putting in many hours of labor and keeping the schedules running smoothly.

When spring returns to the Dana campus, certain young men's thoughts turn to golf. Those who turned out this spring were Jake Jacoby, Ray Dickson, Paul Olson, Bob Steffensen, Howie Christensen, Jack Bosen, Dave Readinger, Harold Holm, Ron Huston, and Mark Thompson. Holm, Christensen, and Huston are lettermen.

The Dana golfers finished second last year in the C.C.C.C. and are third in the N.C.C. Being strictly in the Nebraska College Conference this year, the boys appear headed for a good season.

Tennis

Seven candidates turned out this spring when Coach Paul Peterson sent out the call for a tennis team. Included in the group were three returning lettermen: Bob Larson, John Henningsen, and Dave Hess. Others checking out equipment were Ron Siersbeck, Bob Wilson, Myrvin Christopherson, and Luther Kloth.

Among the schools played by the Dana netmen are Wayne, Westmar, Tarkio, Midland, Concordia, and Wesleyan, with the N.C.C. meet also being on the schedule.

Veteran, Bob Larson, demonstrates the art of handling a tennis racket.

Schedule

- APRIL 1 — Nebraska Wesleyan
- APRIL 5 — at Hastings (2)
- APRIL 12 — at Creighton
- APRIL 15 — at Midland
- APRIL 19 — Concordia
- APRIL 22 — at Peru
- APRIL 25 — at Nebraska Wesleyan
- APRIL 29 — Midland
- MAY 3 — Creighton
- MAY 7 — Peru
- MAY 10 — Westmar
- MAY 13 — at Concordia

The Dana baseball squad, again under the tutelage of Paul Peterson, goes into the season with seven returning lettermen. The list of veterans is led by Bill Davis and Jan Philby, both three year lettermen. Davis, besides being a leading pitcher, also batted .312 during the 1957 season. Philby, a third base-man, hit .272 last year.

Other returning letter-winners included: Ernie Anderson and Bill Saint, out-fielders; Ron Huston, short-stop; and Roger Madsen and Don Joern, catchers. Several good freshmen bolster the squad, especially in the pitching department. The advent of the season will prove how well the team molds into a smooth playing unit.

Dana is a member of the Nebraska College Baseball Conference. This conference includes Nebraska Wesleyan, Hastings, Creighton, Midland, Concordia, Peru, and Dana.

The Vikings finished with a 4-3 conference record last year and an over-all record of 6-6.

Track

Bruce Rolloff is the new track coach as the Red-and-White open the 1958 season. There are five returning lettermen to greet him. They are: Lee Ramage, sprints and hurdles; Tom Nielsen, sprints and 440; Darrell Mertens, sprints; Ron Petrick, weights; and Paul Christensen, distance, Nielsen and Christensen set the school records in the 440 and two-mile, respectively, last season.

However, the team lacks depth and the tracksters will have to be called on for extra duty in the rough Nebraska College Conference. If freshman talent comes through the picture could be much improved, though.

Schedule

Cheerleaders

"Lady Godiva!"

Her mother never told her. . .

Freshman

What freshman will ever forget the smell of an onion 6 inches below his chin, rheumatism in his knees because of "Lady Godiva," and his own little red beanie, which had a disconcerting way of slipping off just as an upperclassman was looking!

Daze

The freshmen, rallying after the humiliations of Beanie Court, splashed into the Dana puddle and startled upperclassmen into the awareness that the "young ones" had something on the ball. "Sensations of '61" showed an organized format, plus outstanding talent, which older Danians promised themselves to use immediately.

"You got'a be a football hero . . ."

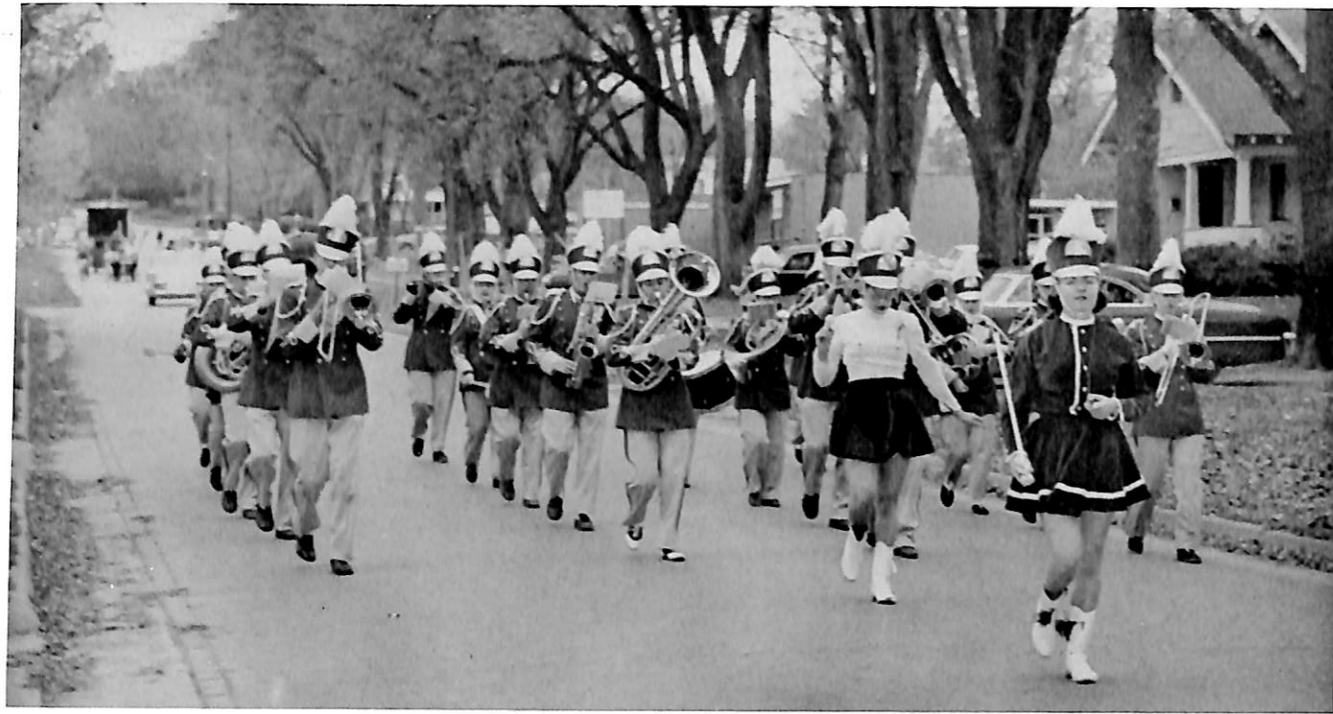

1957 Home Coming

Queen Audrey

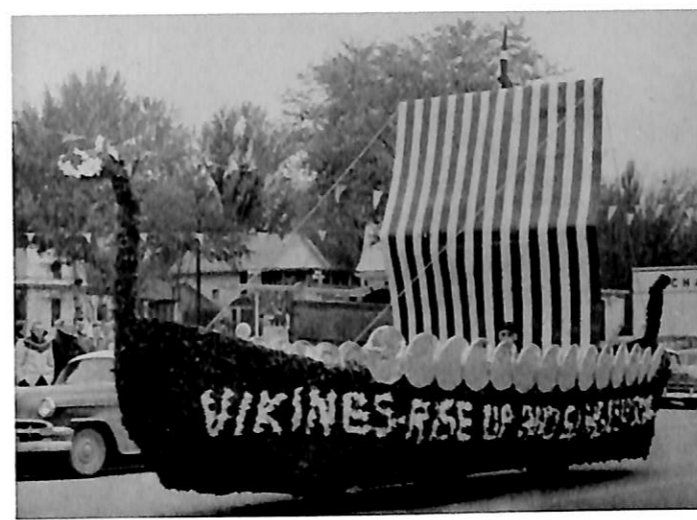

Queen Delores

"Salutation March" blazed forth as the Dana College Marching Band stepped smartly off, leading the 1957 Homecoming parade. Despite frigid weather and murmurings from the flu bug, Danians and Blairites were out to cheer.

Long hours paid off for the sophomore class when they copped first for the second straight year. Their gallant Viking ship carried Dana's colors and Homecoming's theme "Rise Up and Sing Our Song" proudly through Blair.

A silver rocket (not a sputnik!) aimed at victory for the Vikings brought second place honors home to the juniors.

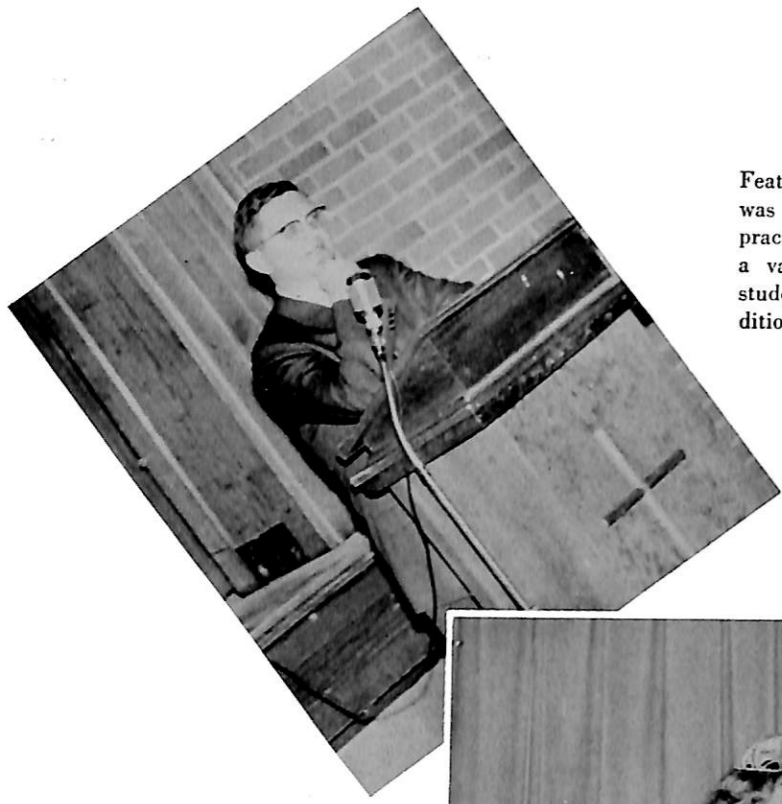

Could be that there were stars of the sizzling '67 Vikings aboard the Blair Cub Scout float. They look formidable with those helmets on!

Seniors Cam Watt and Dave Hess stuffed an endless expanse of chicken wire, and they and their classmates fix the clock to time Dana's growth.

Featured speaker for the evening Homecoming program was Dr. Arnold T. Nielsen, a Dana alumnus currently practicing medicine in Ankeny, Iowa. Dr. Nielsen headed a varied program, which included musical numbers by students and alumni, the Danish dancers, and the traditional choir reunion.

Cheers and applause greeted Delores Petersen, senior from Parsons, Kansas, as retiring queen Arnette Hansen carefully placed the sparkling crown and proclaimed Delores Queen of 1957 Homecoming.

Bedlam broke loose in Alumni Auditorium as senior Audrey Ericksen, from Albert Lea, Minnesota, was also crowned Queen of 1957 Homecoming. Danians realized that TWO fair-haired queens would reign over the Vikings festivities.

Sophomore Donna Petersen, Little Sioux, Iowa, served as a lovely princess to two queens. Donna was chosen during an all-school election earlier in the year.

Art Exhibit

The Dana Art Department, under the guiding hand of Rev. F. William Thomsen, offered students and friends a rare treat last fall when they presented the works of Dana's prize-winning artists, Mr. Thomsen and John Linahan, and varied pieces from well-known Omaha artists, Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews and Herman A. Becker, in a Sunday afternoon exhibit.

Mr. Becker's "The Girl with a Pony Tail," shown at right, was one of the works displayed in the college library.

Herman A. Becker discusses the fine points with two interested art enthusiasts.

. . . And They Saw The Young Child

Christmas on the hill was a precious time this year. Beyond the bustle of classes and extra activities, Danians will remember . . . the inspiring performance of Handel's Messiah by the Dana Choir, the peaceful glow of the Advent wreath as it promised of our Savior's coming, "Christmas by the Cross" and the shimmering beauty of stained-glass windows and the Nativity, but, perhaps most of all, the joy of realizing that here at Dana, just as did the shepherds in Galilee, we truly saw the young Child.

. . . and Mommy got the almond!

Dansk Yul

"Blomkal med ost," carol singing, and a surprise guest from Denmark combined to make the Home Economics Club's Danish Christmas a "Glaede Yul" for everyone. Mr. Alfred Jorgensen, Danish delegate to the United Nations, delighted Danians with his genial personality and witty remarks. He and Mrs. Jorgensen were welcome guests on the Dana hill.

"Here we come a-caroling"

Decorating the west wall of the college library reading room is a scriptural scroll which missionary Paul C. Johnson presented to Dana College as a gift from his parish in Kyoto prefecture, Japan. The Lord's Prayer provided the basis for Rev. Johnson's fall Spiritual Emphasis addresses. Dr. Madsen accepted the scroll on behalf of the college.

Spiritual Emphasis

Dr. Howard V. Hong, chairman of the philosophy department at St. Olaf College, challenged Danians to think through with him as he discussed such vital topics as conformity and personal identity. As the spring Spiritual Emphasis speaker, Dr. Hong successfully drew his audiences closer to a deeper appreciation of the complex individual which God created in each one of us.

Dana's home-grown versions of "the happy Danes" sport their most fetching smiles.

Sandy and Worm show us how.

Danish Dancers

Sponsored by the Dana chapter of the American-Scandinavian Foundation, the Danish Dancers began their initial year as a permanent organization by swinging and polkaing their way through an ambitious program. Under the direction of junior Sandra Thomsen, the group provides another cog in the wheel which blends old and new at Dana.

This is known as the Danish approach to the well-known "Texas star."

Everything from "The man from Laramie" to some spectacular fly-swatting by big game hunter Ron Johnson sparked the Men's Dorm Open House program last fall. The male branch of Dana's student body entertained with a variety of acts, all of them polished, and topped a well-planned evening with hot chocolate and the opportunity to see how the "other half" lives.

Right: "Ike" Jenkins warns of the dangers found in darkest Africa.

Dana coeds went all out to prove that "Man Alive!", the dorm open house program, was guaranteed to liven up any males in the audience. Program chairman Karen Jensen directed a show dedicated to please; acts ranged from Shirley Nielsen's version of "I Cain't Say No" to a style show featuring the sack dress, worn by sacky and not-so-sacky dorm dwellers.

Determined dust searchers were pacified with chocolate cake and the gals' special St. Pat's punch, served in the fine-free atmosphere of the second floor lounge.

Inaugural Ceremonies

Dr. Madsen and Dr. T. I. Jensen join the choir and congregation in singing the Alma Mater. Below: Noel and John lead the colorful procession toward the sanctuary.

Pomp and pageantry marked the inauguration of Dr. C. C. Madsen as the eleventh president of Dana College. The festive event was preceded by an afternoon tour of the campus and the inaugural dinner, served to Danians and guests at First Lutheran Church.

The joy and thanksgiving which filled those who attended the ceremonies were appropriate foretastes of the gratitude with which the college received the news of accreditation by the North Central Association, an achievement reflecting the dedication of the newly installed president and former president Dr. R. E. Morton to the future of Dana College.

Mange Tak . . .

I want to take this opportunity to thank the whole Danian Staff for all the hard work that they have done on this year's Danian. Special thanks go to Bud for all the last minute pictures, to Jake for pinch hitting for Bud, and to Dave for taking over all the pages I shoved off on him at the last minute. We sweated out the deadlines, but somehow always managed to pull through in the end.

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE

In January, 1959, the Fund will celebrate the 200th anniversary of its charter. Organized in 1717, it received this charter from the sons of William Penn. The Fund still operates under this document.

But the Fund is 240 years young! It believes "the best is yet to be." Durability has come through expendability. It has given its best to minister to the minister. Its unique position in the heart of the clergy of America has become a tradition.

Join the Fund family and enjoy its rare privileges.
