ANTIAN

Vol. XXXVIII
DANA COLLEGE
BLAIR, NEBR.

On this the fiftieth anniversary of the Dana College Choir, we wish to dedicate the Danian to the members of the choir, past and present, who have helped to preserve our Danish culture.

It is also dedicated to the many others who have so richly enjoyed the fine performances of the choirs.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

Oh, no! not worms!

Early in the year an "Activities Rush Night" was sponsored by the Student Council. Each club or organization on campus was represented by a display. Students had a chance to learn about the organizations and their purposes. Pictured is the display for the Sociology-Anthropology Club.

This picture is typical of the "Hootenannies" held on campus this year. Mr. Welsch is pictured singing one of his many folk songs. Campus entertainment was featured at these events.

"TO THEE WE SING"

The royal court: Princess Sharon Olsen, Queen Roxanne Marquette, and Princess Elizabeth Nielsen.

The featured entertainment at the coronation was the humorist-pianist, Stan Freeman.

"Our Song to Thee We Sing" was the theme of the 1963 Homecoming, which celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the Dana College Choir. Chosen as the royal court for this event were Princess Sharon Olsen, Princess Elizabeth Nielsen, and Queen Roxanne Marquette.

Doctor Madsen introduced Mrs. Silas Andersen, the first Director of the Dana College Choir.

An award for Distinguished Service was presented to Waldo Nielsen, another former Dana College Choir Director.

Tim Brown comes in to help Ken Quirk and Lowell Larson in trying to stop the Raiders.

The Seniors' treble clef sign.

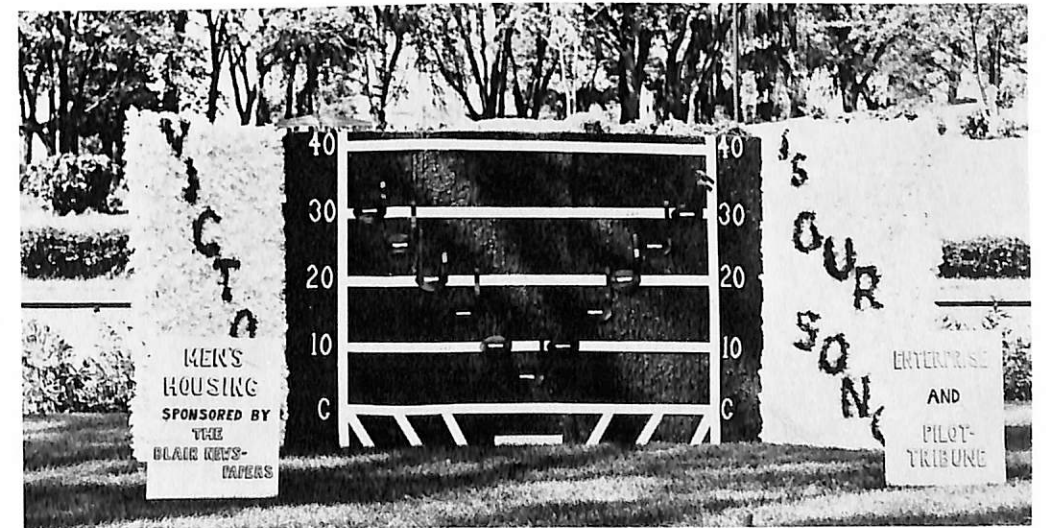

L.S.A.'s "Christ to the World We Sing."

The Sophomores' winning display.

Mr. Gunner J. Malmin directed a mass choir consisting of all former and present members.

The Men's Housing sings a song of victory!

Let me tell you something, Hornbeck!

And tell me, Mr. Brady, do you ever think about the things you do think about?

"And they will curcify me!"

Deputy Governor Danforth (Richard Jorgensen) argues with stubborn John Proctor (Richard Moosmann).

Abigail Williams (Judy Barnes) shrieks in fear while Susanna Walcott (Barbara Larsen) looks on.

Mary Warren (Jo Ann Urie) describes the scene to Deputy Governor Danforth and Judge Hawthorne (Daniel Aten).

THE CRUCIBLE

The Crucible by Arthur Miller was presented under the direction of Professor Krueger. The setting was the Salem Witchcraft trials of 1692 in which the effects of guilt by association and mass hysteria were shown.

INHERIT THE WIND

And do we call down hell-fire upon this sinner in our midst?

Reverend Parris (Helmut Schaetzle), Reverend John Hale (Dennis Berke), Thomas Putnam (Karl Petersen), and Mrs. Putnam (Loretta Heckathorn) listen to the cries of Tituba (Carol Pedersen).

Elizabeth Proctor (Jane Jensen) faces her husband and Mary Warren.

HOLLING HALL DEDICATION

Pictured in front of the future Holling Hall are Reverend Elmer Ihrig, Marie Holling, Emmanuel Holling, and Doctor Madsen. The cornerstone-laying ceremony ended Homecoming activities.

SUNDAY SOCIAL HOUR

The Sunday Social Hours offer an afternoon of relaxation and cultural opportunities for both students and faculty.

FESTIVAL OF SANTA LUCIA

The Festival of Santa Lucia was again observed during the Advent season. Traditional carols were sung by the bridesmaids and the legend of Santa Lucia was retold. The "Festival of Lights" is indeed a beautiful part of the Christmas season.

LYCEUM PROGRAMS

Dana was very fortunate to have the Chad Mitchell trio appear on campus this past year. They presented a very enjoyable concert of folk songs.

On March 16 the Travelers Three appeared on our campus. This vocal and instrumental group has been touring the country for several years and entertaining all with their delightful program.

This year we were very fortunate to have The New York Baroque Ensemble present a concert on our campus. This group featured the music of the harpsichord and the recorder. The program was co-sponsored by the Blair Friends of Performing Arts.

Through the co-operation of the Blair Friends of Performing Arts we were again able to present the Gregg Smith Singers. All of those present agreed that we were fortunate to have them return in our lyceum series.

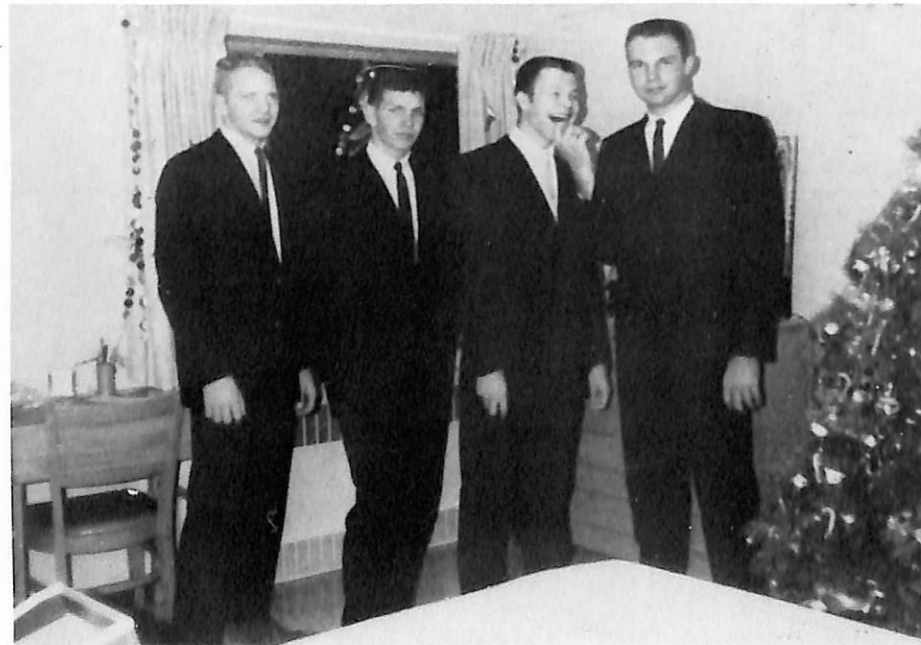

OPEN HOUSE

Twice during the year the girls held "Open House" for the boys. Each time the boys were impressed by the clean rooms, individuality and food.

An indoor picnic?

The Christmas Open House was preceded by a program featuring student talent.

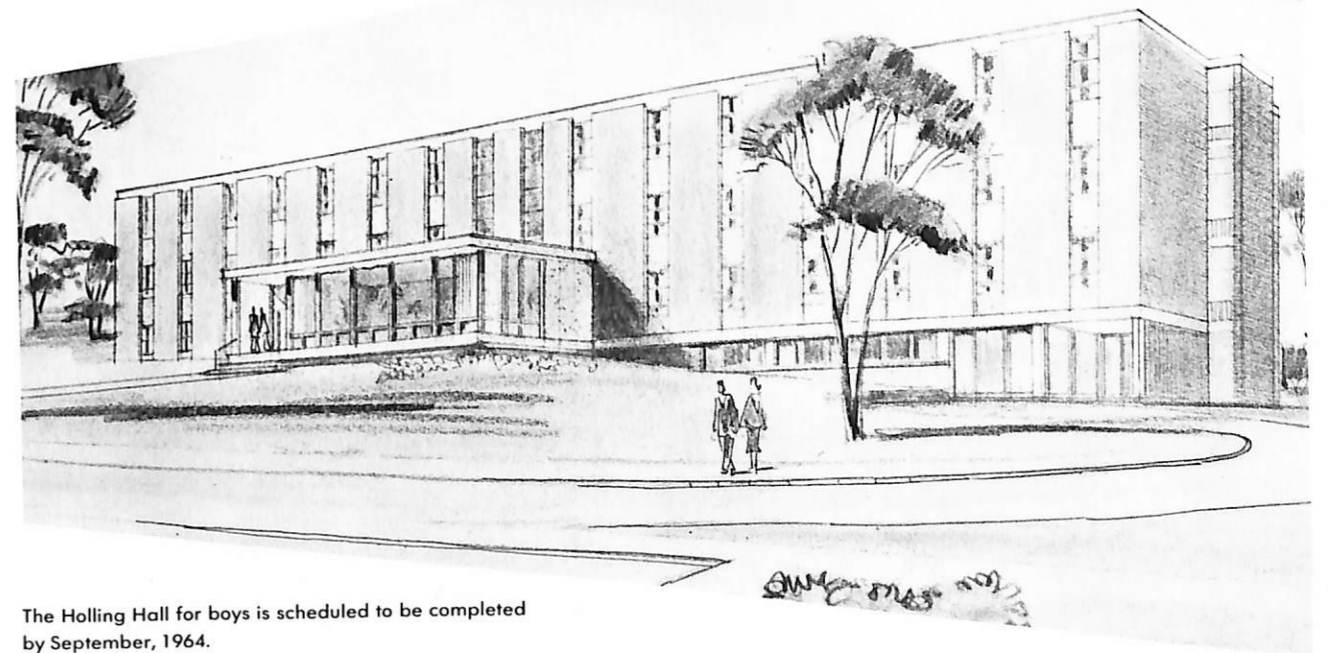

Is there something for me under the tree?

DANA COLLEGE EXPANSION

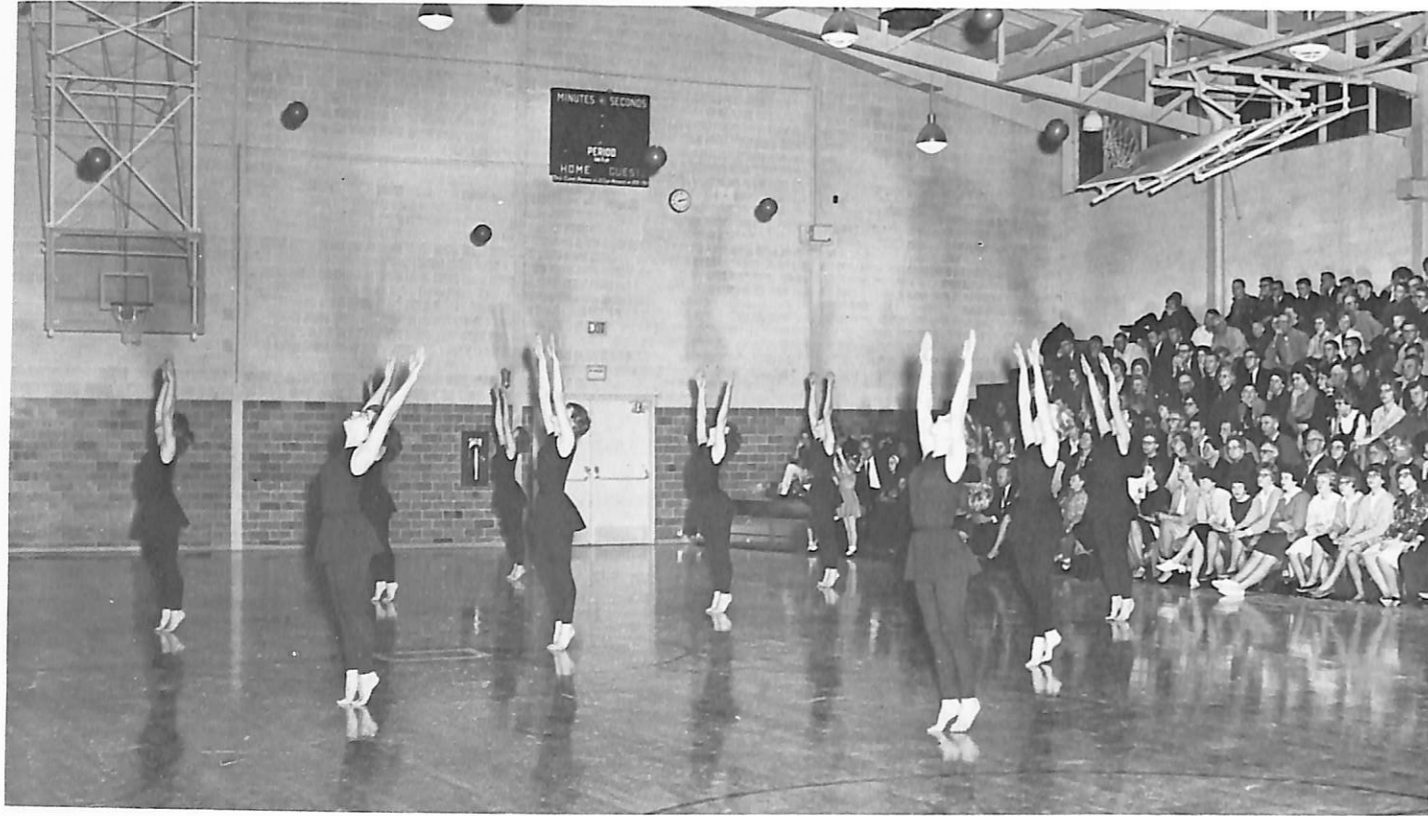

The Charles A. Dana Hall of Science Building has been used very much this year. All of the laboratories and classrooms have been very useful.

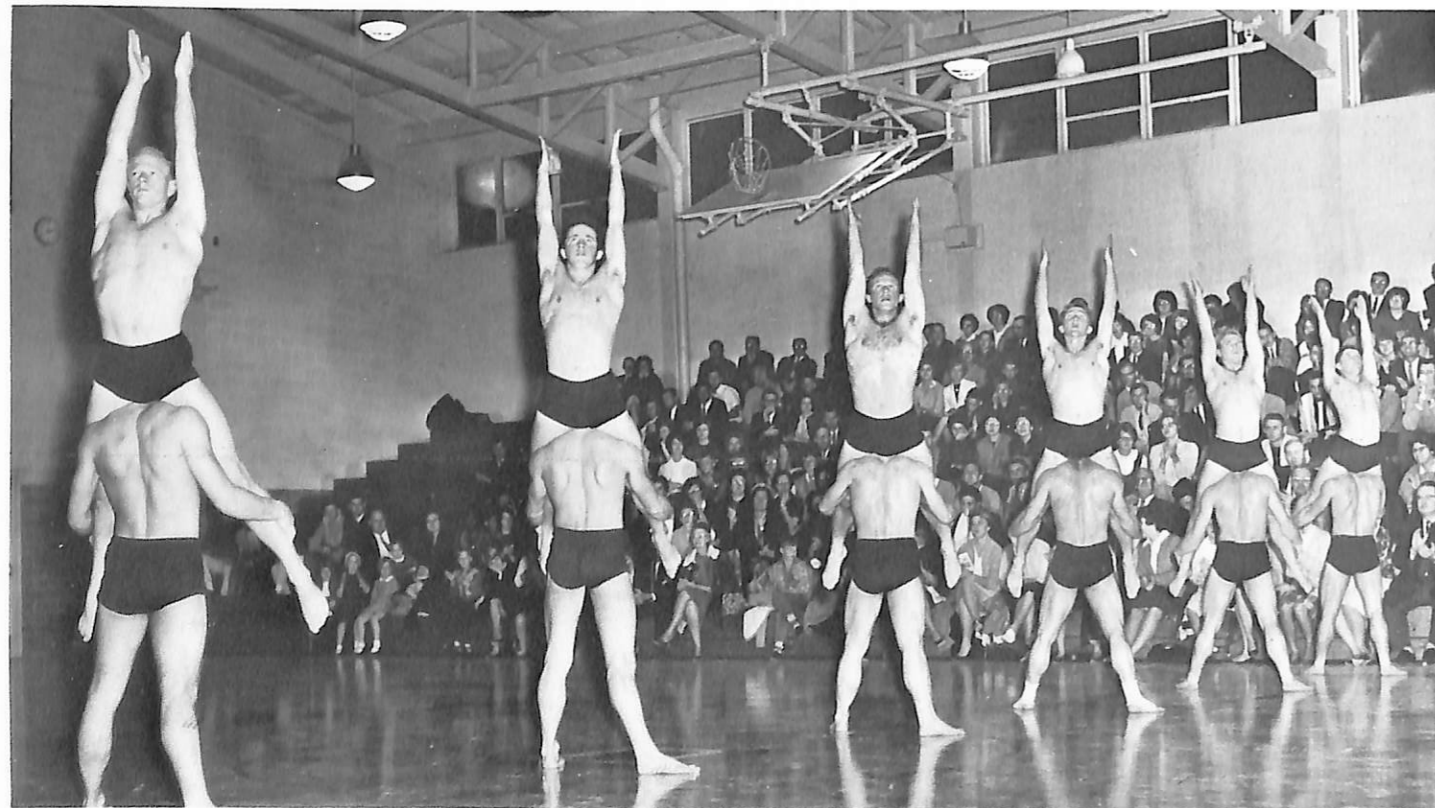

The Holling Hall for boys is scheduled to be completed by September, 1964.

DANISH GYMNASTS

The Danish Gymnastics Team demonstrates physical fitness and grace in an entertaining exhibition in Borup Coliseum.

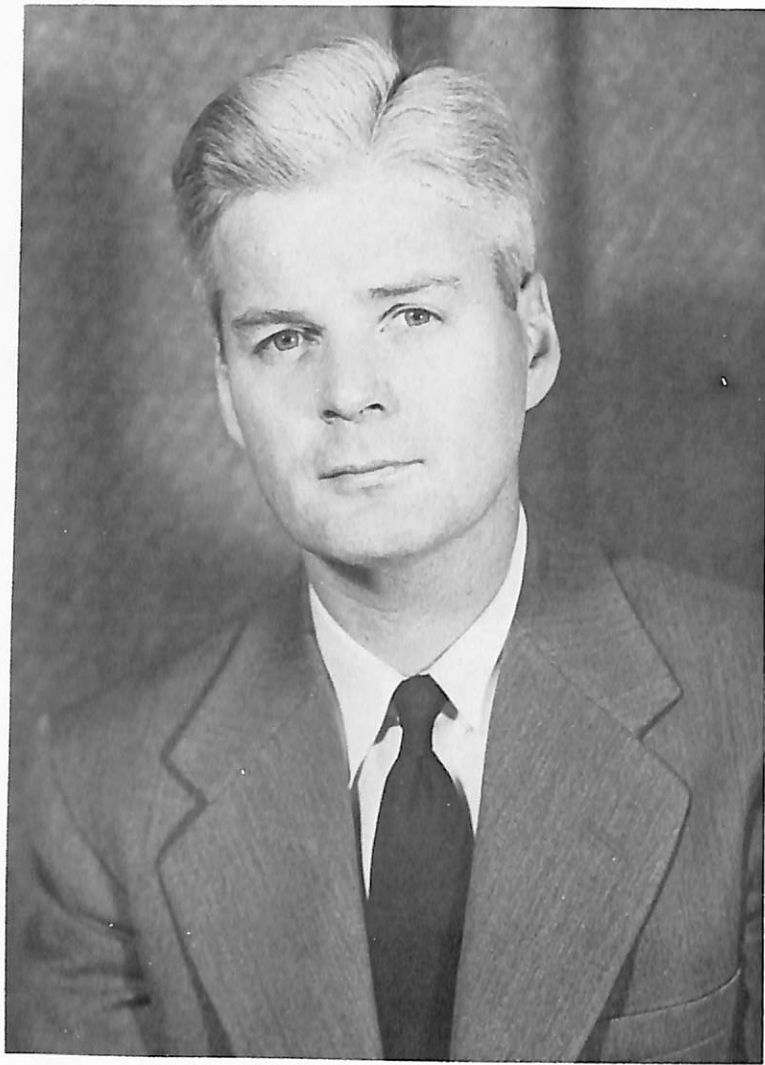

CHOIR TOUR

"Hey, guys, who's in the box?"

"I give up, which one is the nut?"

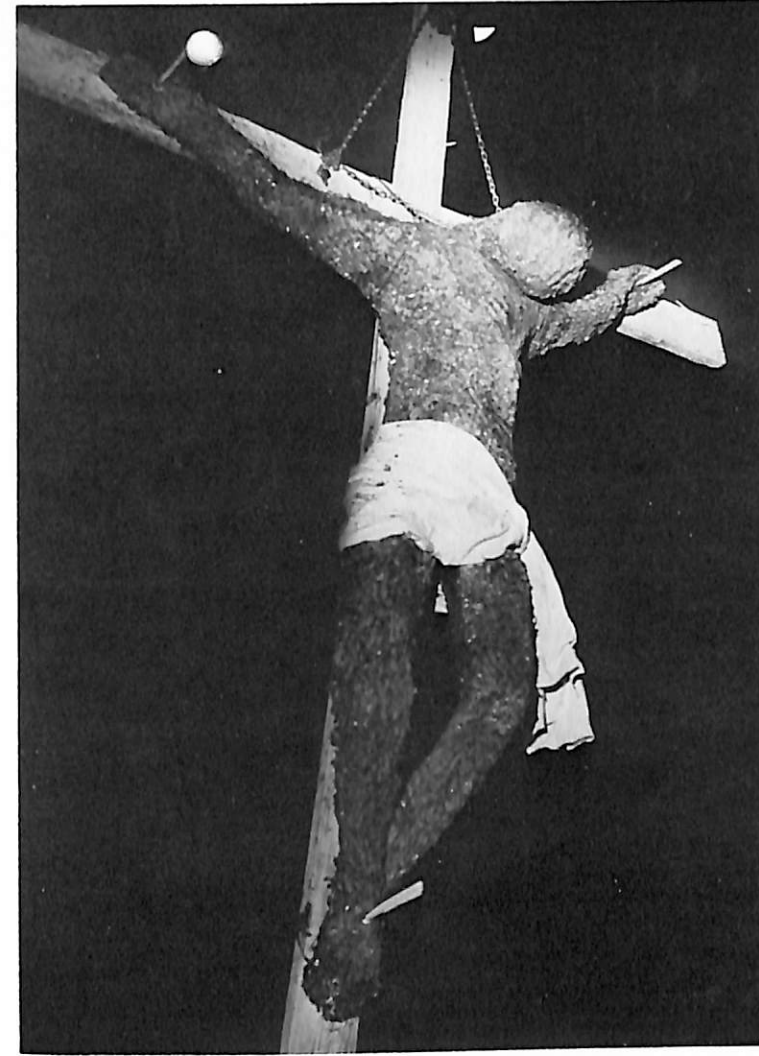

Dr. Howard Hong

KIERKEGAARD LECTURE SERIES

Our fall Spiritual Emphasis concentrated on the works and dynamics of Soren Kierkegaard. This stimulating lecture series was brought to us by Dr. and Mrs. Howard Hong. Dr. Hong is the head of the Philosophy Department of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

Mrs. Howard Hong

NEW NATIONS NEW IDEAS NEW FAITH

The continent of Africa was the main thrust of the Spiritual Emphasis weekend. For concerned students, the weekend became a dialogue between continents.

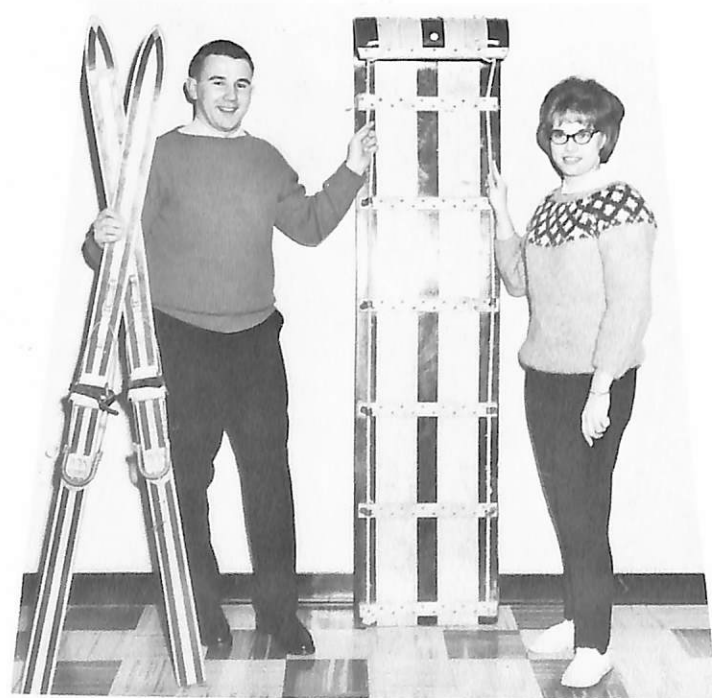

Pictured here between sessions are three of the speakers: Patrick MKandawire, Nyasaland; Mark Thomsen, Missionary to Nigeria; and Joshua Meena, Tanganyika.

"We've planned a holiday."

Equipment's ready . . .

. . . where's the snow?

Just right for pulling!

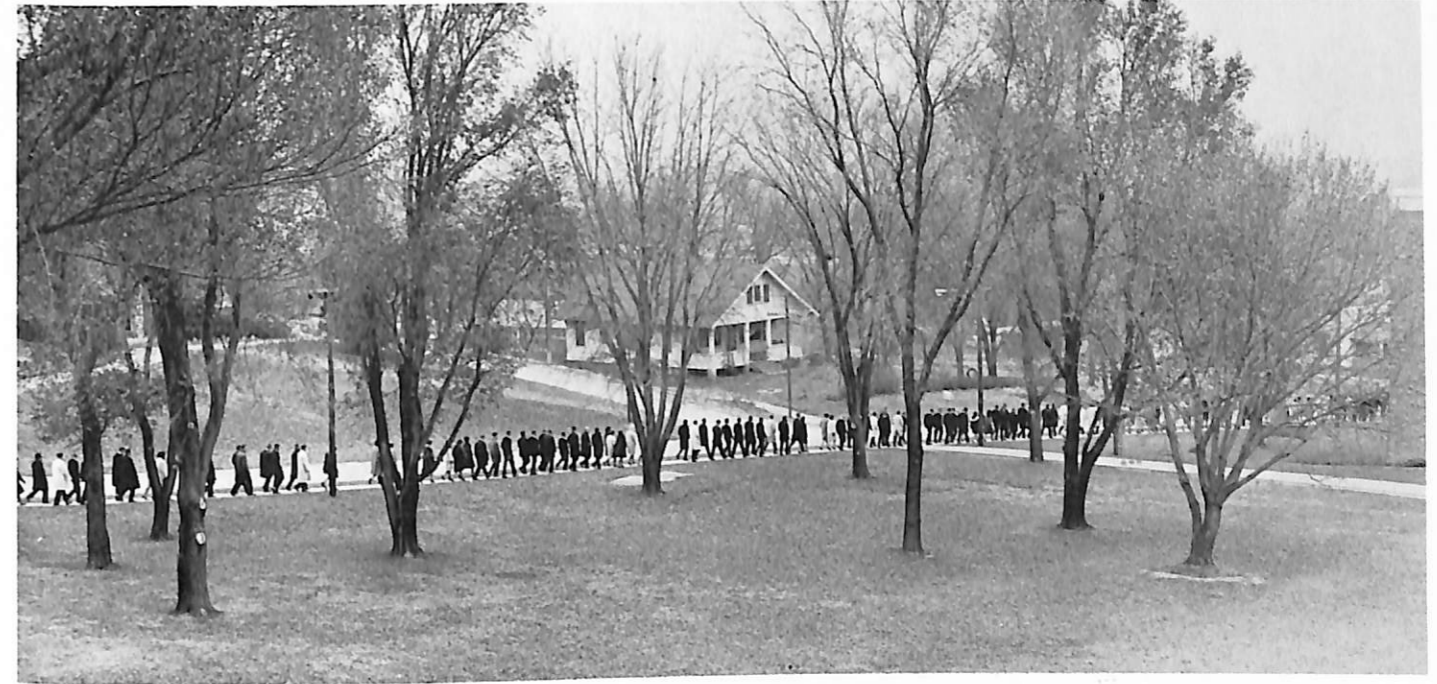

Open your eyes, Jim, there is some snow.

A promise is a promise . . .

John Fitzgerald Kennedy
Thirty-fifth President of the United States
1917-1963

The entire world was shocked by the news of the assassination of our President, John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963.

Dana students and faculty are pictured as they walked to the memorial services held for President Kennedy at First Lutheran Church.

A semi-formal dance followed the coronation ceremony.

The Dana College band presents a concert.

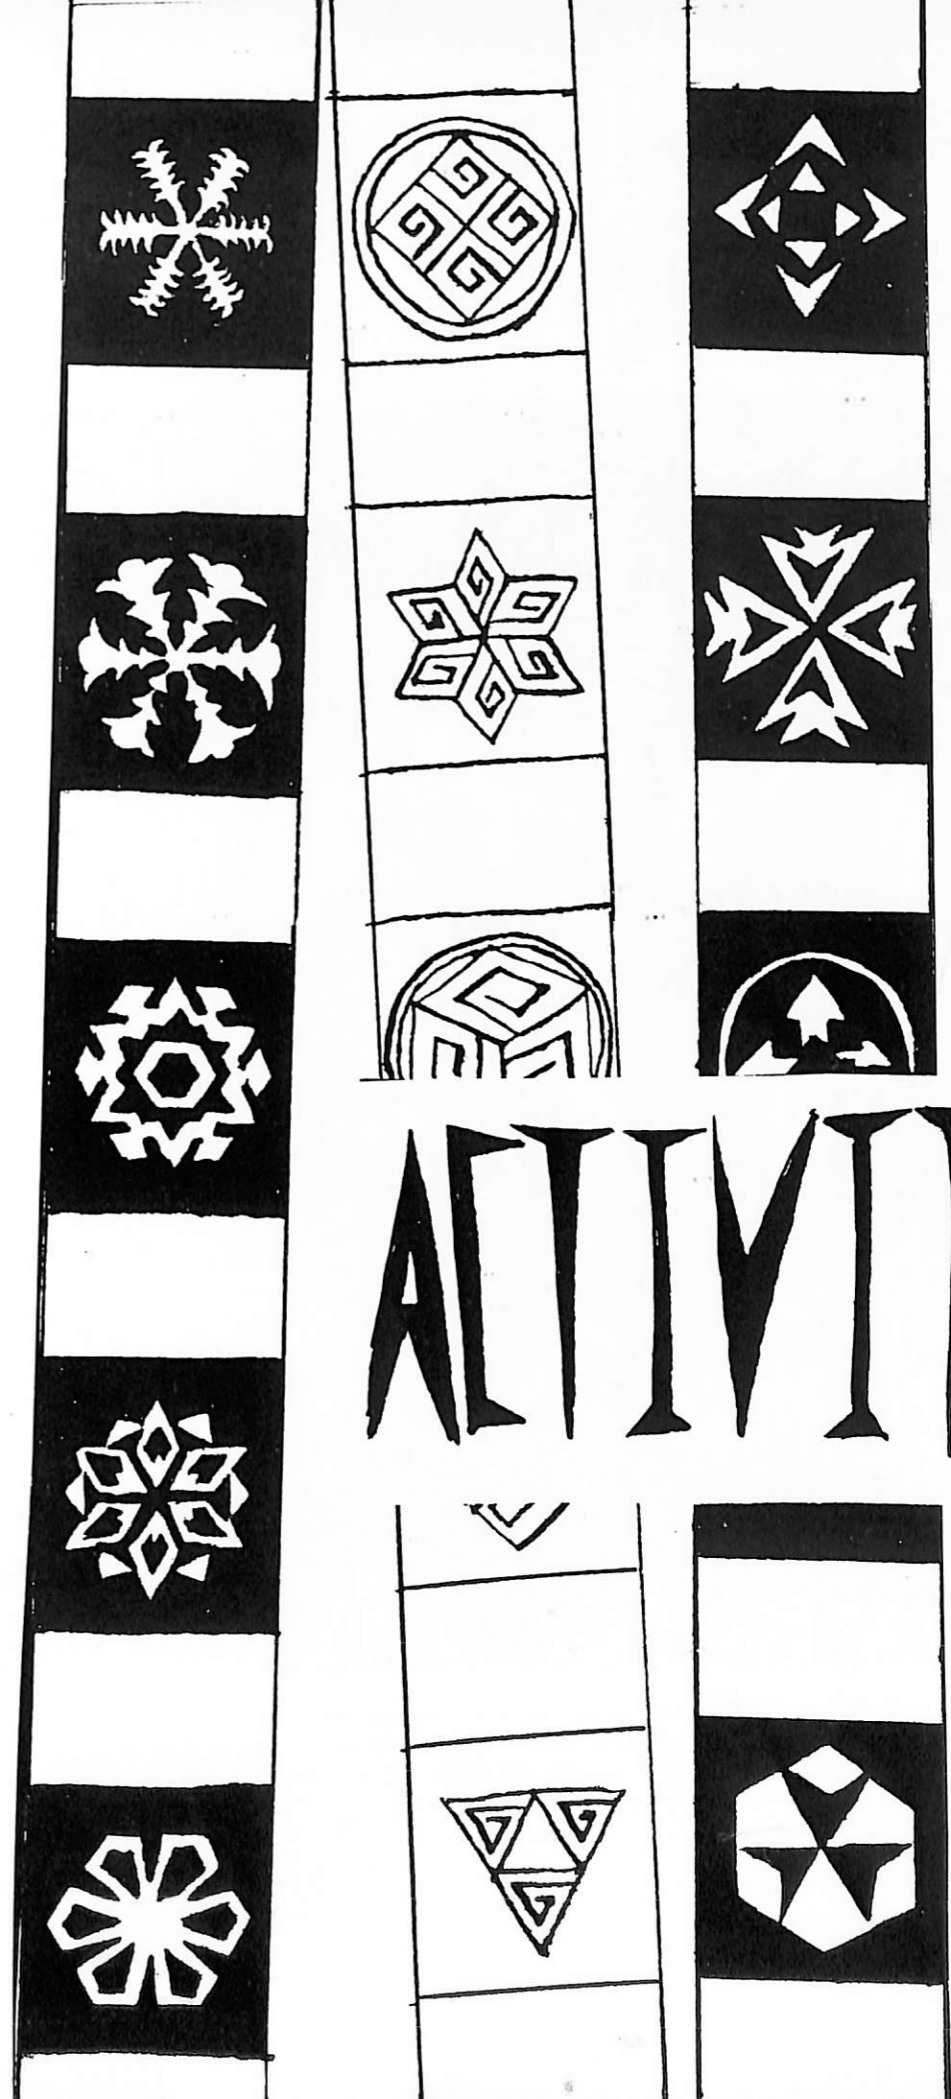

MAY FEST PLAYS

"Trust Me Not," written by Mrs. Donald Warman, presents Harvey Langdon (Richard Moosmann) who has been unfairly accused of a crime and sent to prison. Here we see him getting revenge on his "old friends."

"The Ugly Duckling" is the story of an ugly princess. Her parents (Helmut Schaetzle and Karolyn Scott) are anxious to have her marry. The prince (Dan Aten) is their victim. To insure a trade, the princess changes place with her maid (Eunice Wiebke) and the prince trades with his servant (Paul Dirks).
