

*A pause for regrets or pride,
preparation or procrastination.
The need to break away.
Then . . . weariness.*

DANIAN 1967

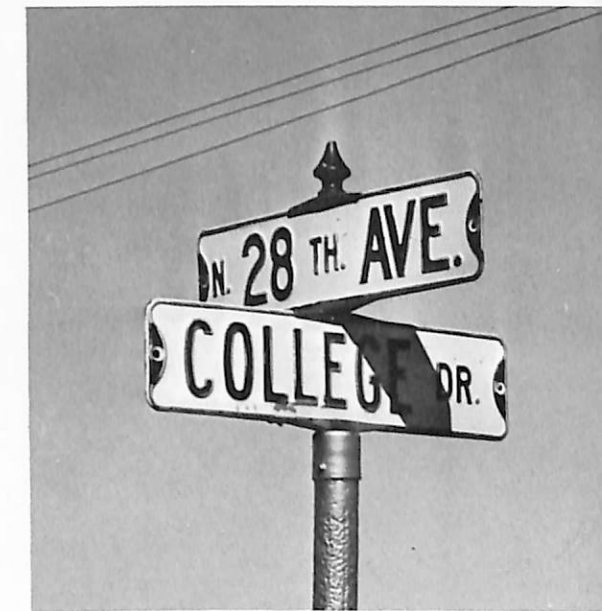

DANA COLLEGE
Blair, Nebraska

*DANA . . . each year a beginning built from time-worn foundations,
in a few moments alone or in quiet conversation.
Rushing with a myriad of plans materialized in noise and lights, laughter and tears.
The individual becomes a JOINER . . . page 14.
The patience and exasperation of creating, the struggle for self-expression won in moments of fulfillment and glory.
Individual talent is cultivated by the ARTISTS . . . page 50.
Victories from grueling work-outs, noisy encouragement, pulling together or striving alone.
But sometimes the sting of defeat as the Individual emerges an ATHLETE . . . page 70.
Diverse backgrounds and interests blend to make up a campus, mold it into a community.
Deans, professors, students compose pieces of the puzzle known as PERSONALITIES . . . page 92.*

Danian nineteen sixty seven - an attempt to capture the essence of your year.

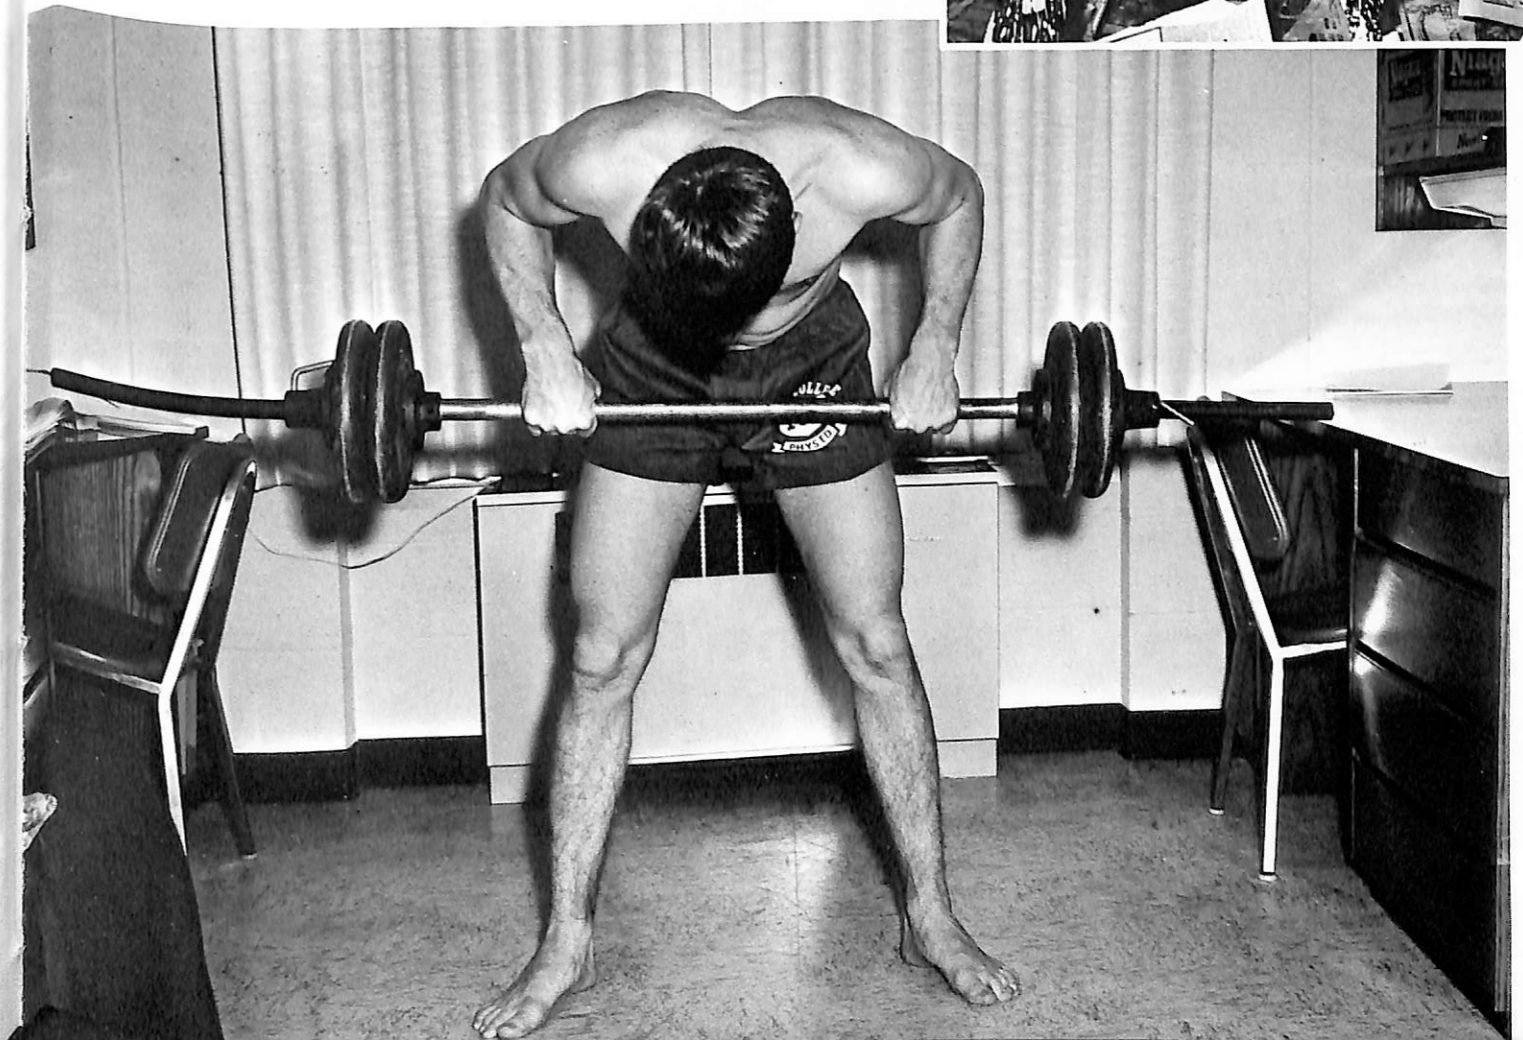

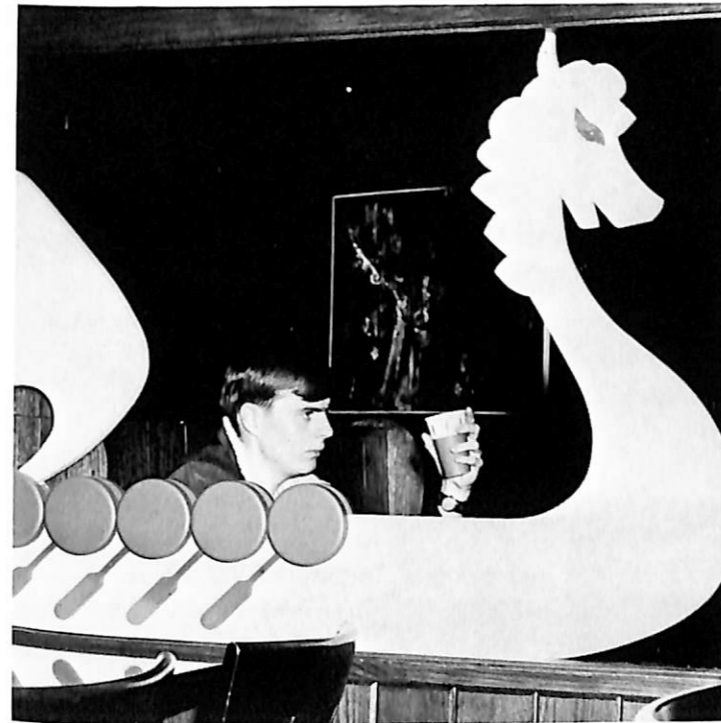

*Alarm. Rush. Rolls for breakfast?
Worry, reluctance and opportunity.
Morning stillness is broken by preparation for a new day.*

*Apart from the crowd, the realization of the individual.
Learning to know the most complicated of persons—oneself.*

The importance of being not just one in a crowd, a desire to be special, singled out. The most important find—a friend.

*The inescapable crowd, to relate, cooperate and tolerate.
Lines, classes, roommates, people
. . . People.*

JOINERS

For some the feeling has come; for others, a year of learning, doing, and striving brings unity.

A weekend give-away instills excitement in an expectant campus. An evening of crowning fulfills months of planning. An elegant banquet in a newly dedicated campus center . . . HOMECOMING '66

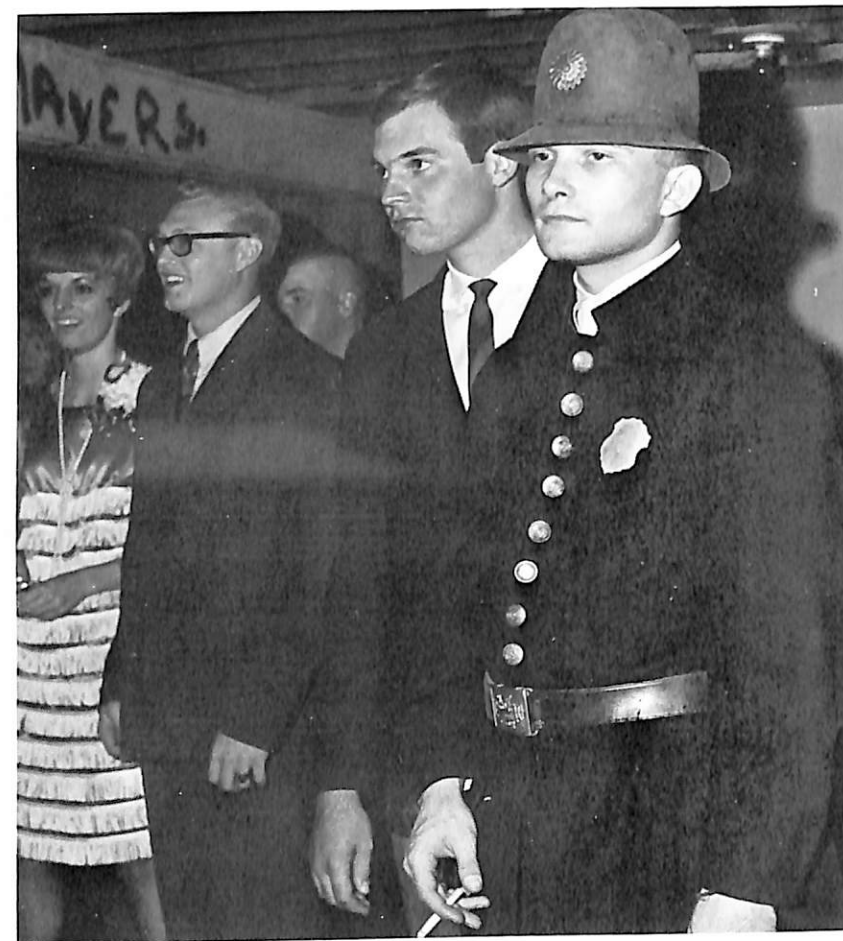

A night for tribute—to Dr. Madsen for a decade of progress, a "Salute to the President;" and to Miss Hoidahl for being more than a librarian.

All ages captivated by the wit of Sam Levenson.

Diamond Jim's— a return to the speak-easy, low lights, bathtub gin, black-jack, flappers and spats, a mirrored reflection of the charleston . . . a campus caught up in the swing of THE ROARING TWENTIES.

EKKLESIA KOINONIAS—a campus congregation to open minds and shed light on an ancient path.

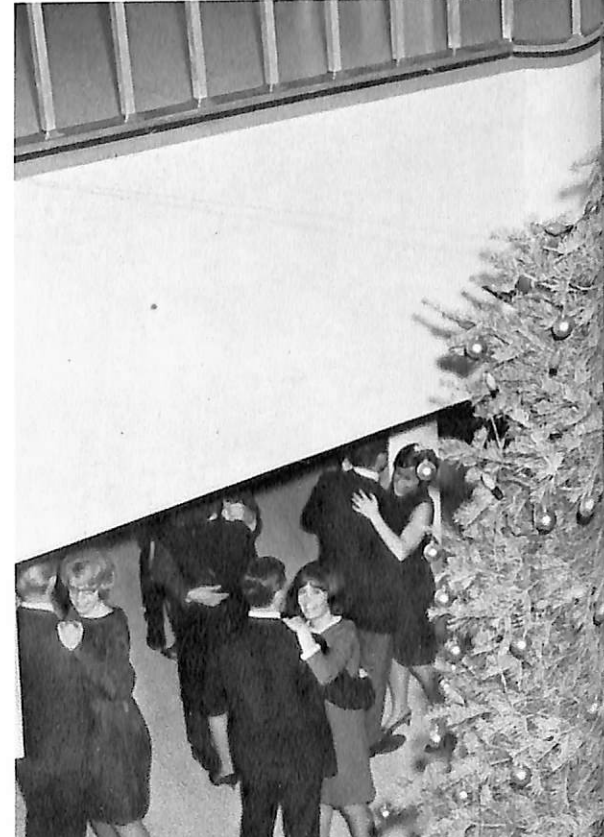

*A place to converse with friends,
To dwell on existensial thoughts,
To find the deeper meanings over a cup of coffee,

Pfc. and Mrs. Dallas Opfer—the first to solemnize marriage vows in EKKLESIA KOIONIAS.

Mounting anticipation is symbolized by a partially lighted advent wreath. The festival of Santa Lucia is again recalled in the old Scandinavian tradition. A campus dons its Christmas dress of colored lights and pine boughs. And after the halls are decked, a time to be jolly. Candlelight, soft music and a tree trimmed in blue and gold highlight a campus celebration . . .
CHRISTMAS, 1966.

In retrospect . . .

A year of cooperation or at times the lack of it, satisfaction, regrets, and afterthoughts, gratitude to our staff and patient photographer. The final realization that mere words and pictures

are just an attempt to capture the essence of your year.
