*Velkommentil
DANA*

*1968 Danian
Dana College
Blair, Nebraska*

FOREWORD

We dedicate the 1968 Danian – to Dana College – in a tribute to its Danish heritage – a heritage of strength from a people with high values and a dedicated spirit – who fought for what they believed – despite hardships – struggled for the right to establish, to begin their way with their beliefs.

Founding Fathers – Danish pioneers searching for education – establishing a college – to help shape their destinies and those that would follow in their footsteps.

Christian Education – To develop further a faith that will bring strength to the weary, peace to the distraught, and an answer to the searching – knowing that the Divine Light will guide you – today – tomorrow – and in the years to come.

These ideals were captured in "A Tribute In Verse," by Ida Johnson, a graduate of Dana. Excerpts from this poem are found throughout the Danian, typifying the spirit she discovered that will remain a part of Dana forever.

*... In the forest-covered reaches of the West,
The land of endless vistas,
The desire for learning grew
Like the thirst of a wanderer in the desert;
The mysteries of nature challenged man's intellect,
Stirred his imagination,
Fired his soul;
The challenge was like a trumpet call
To the conquering Vikings;
The army of knowledge claimed their allegiance,
And they flocked to its banners,
But these Vikings fought not with brawn, but with brain,
Not with sword, but with pen,
Not with force, but with faith;
And they triumphed...*

*When the nineteenth century neared its eighty-fifth year;
When Nature changed the verdant robes of summer
For the russet garments of autumn;
When faith languished in the shadow-filled land of doubt,
A dream winged its way from hope's ethereal spheres
To earth and became reality;
And behold! 'Midst hills and dales on western plain,
Beside a river's brink,
Uprose fair Dana, ivy-clad,
Majestic, tower-crowned.
It was the substance of a dream,
A flower from wisdom's soil;
It was the hope of coming years,
The goal of year-long toil .....*

MY THREE ANGELS

DANISH GYMNASTIC TEAM

Dana was privileged to have on campus for several days in November the Danish Gymnastic Team. The members of the team are the top gymnasts in Denmark and a picture of physical fitness. While on campus they worked with the boys physical education classes and the folk-dancers. Topping off their stay was a two hour performance featuring folkdancing, free exercise, balancing, and tumbling.

TIVOLI II

HOMECOMING 1967

Connie Anderson, 1966 Homecoming Queen, ends her reign as she crowns the new queen, Paige Yowell. Paige is a Sophomore from Herman, Nebraska.

Cold weather did not chill the warm hearts of all those who witnessed the Coronation and other festivities of Tivoli II's opening night. Lights, music, cotton candy, games of skill, dancing on the terrace of Old Main, a new Queen . . . . .

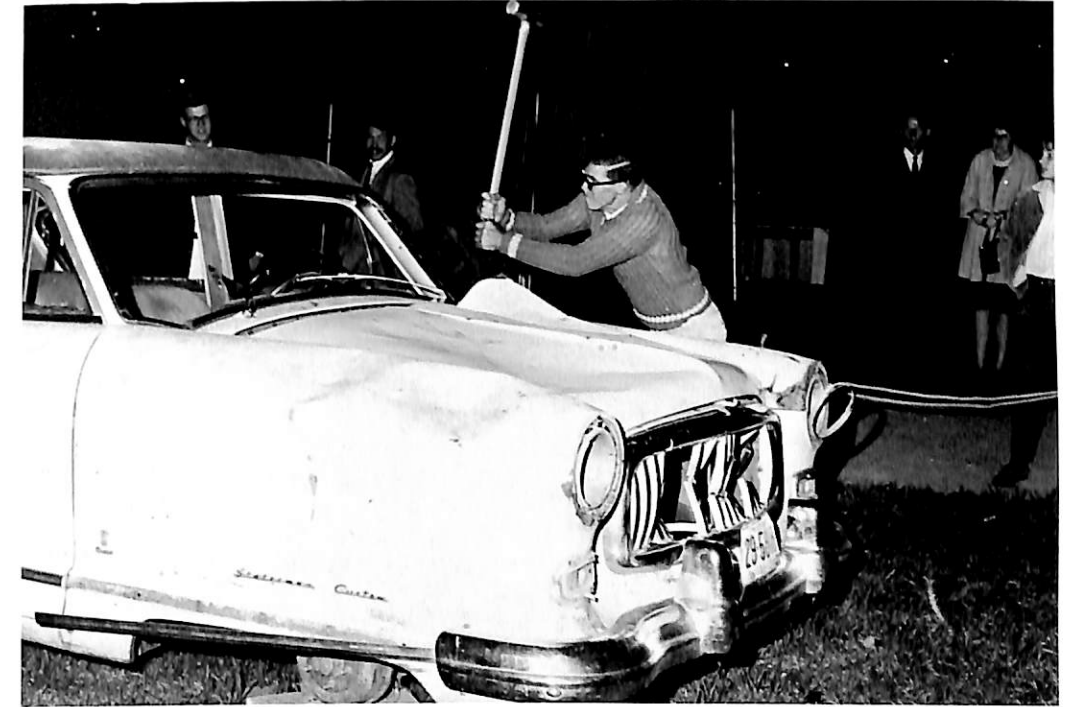

Clare Johnson tries his skill at the Great Danes booth. Looking on are Roger Anderson, Mary Rademaker and Keith Johansen.

The 1967 Homecoming Court: Chris Rueter, Thomsen, Bev Deepe. Tivoli Guard boys: Eric Eileen Taake, Paige Yowell, Ellen George and David Nielsen.

Denny St. Clair patronizes the PEM Club's booth as Leslee Lange challenges his ability.

Men's Dorm Council provided the guys with a chance to show their strength by helping to destroy an old car.

October 13,14,15, Dana's campus was transformed into a miniature version of the famed Tivoli Gardens in Copenhagen. The weekend hosted a double salute—a salute to Nebraska on the Centennial and a salute from Nebraska to Copenhagen on its 800th anniversary.

Ken Lizer and his committee spent many months planning our Homecoming—to them we offer congratulations for a job well-done.

A special feature of the Smorgasbord was authentic Danish pastry prepared in Denmark and flown over here courtesy of Scandinavian Airlines.

Traditional mascot at football games is a Viking and Great Dane dog. In the background, Homecoming fans tried out the new bleachers.

Rog Zieg, Jane Butler, Jim Holtam and Fran Pedersen.

The homecoming dinner was a Danish Smorgasbord served in the cafeteria. Tables were decorated with miniature flower arrangements holding a Danish and an American flag.

The annual Homecoming Dance was held in the concourse of the Student Center

Saturday, Tivoli II provided many opportunities for entertainment; a football game, a Smorgasbord, a stage show featuring Ed Baron, the famed hypnotist, a dance, and at 12:30 Tivoli II closed with a brilliant display of fireworks.

A chef served the main course of the Smorgasbord dinner.

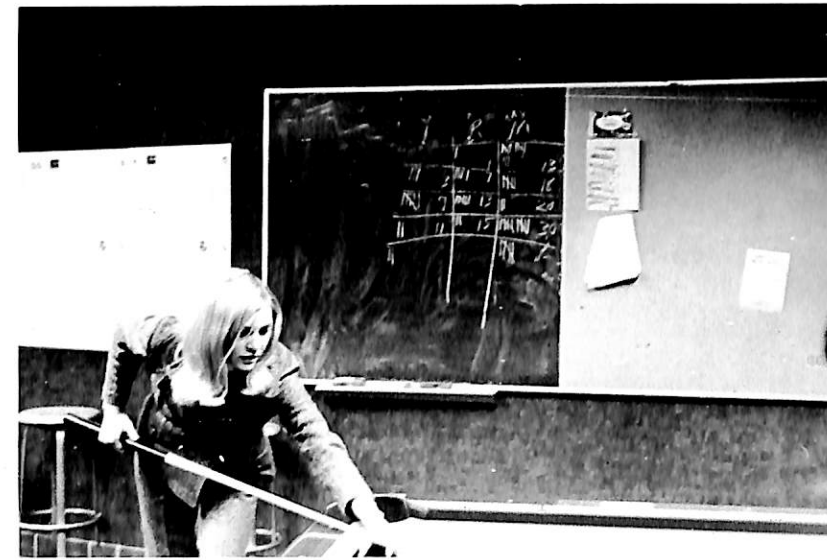

Hypnotized volunteers keep right arm suspended.

Mr. Edwin Baron, a world famous hypnotist was the special entertainment at Tivoli II. He held the attention of the audience with his amazing ability to hypnotize several volunteers showing how versatile hypnotism can be and his great ability in it.

CHRISTMAS AT DANA

Norma Carlson teams up with the orchestra at the Christmas party to entertain the students.

Nancy Alhskog and Shirley Albers exchange gifts in front of the tree in their apartment in Unit A.

Barb, Melanie, Elaine and Marcia teamed up to design cocktail dresses from pillow cases for the campus open house.

Parties, caroling, open houses, trees, gifts, etc. . . . By the time everyone has made it through the last few weeks before Christmas at Dana, they feel as though Christmas has already been. The official holiday usually begins with the erection of the center tree and ends with an all-campus Christmas party.

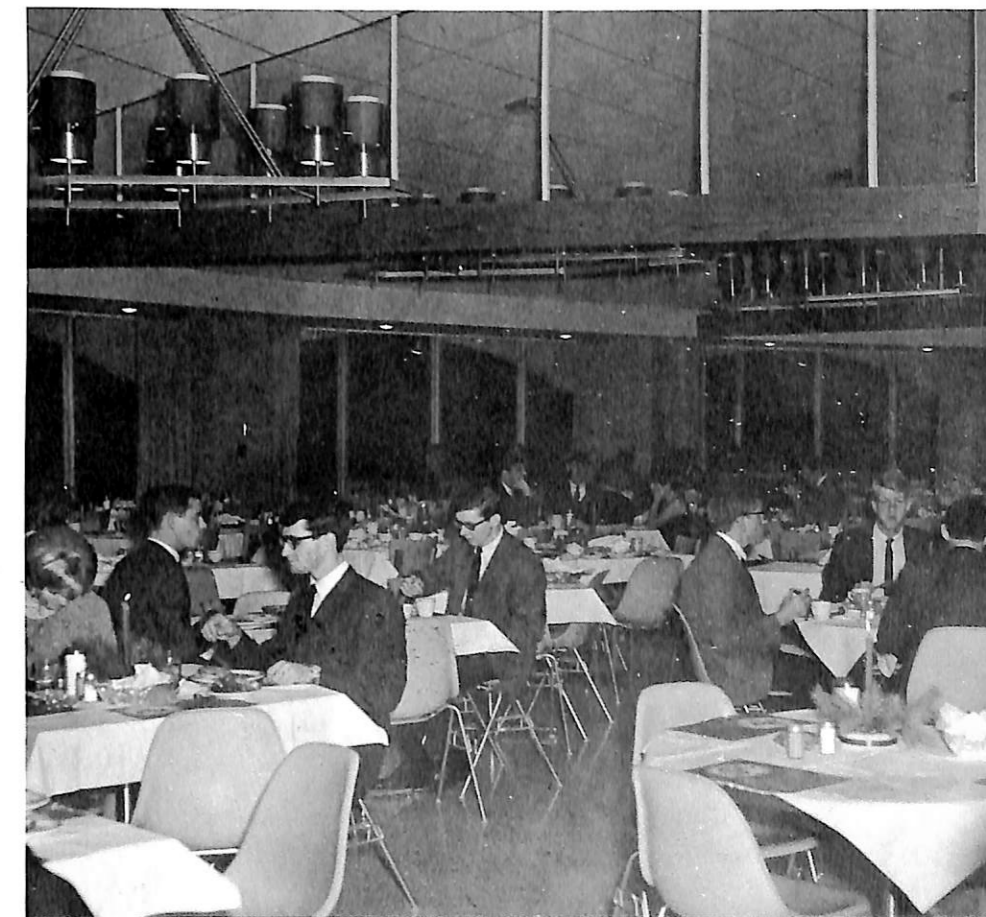

The traditional Festival of Santa Lucia was presented once again in chapel, with Barb Nielson reigning as Santa Lucia.

Barb Nielson

This year Dana kept with her Danish heritage in decorating the center tree with ornaments sent to us from Denmark. Each of the ornaments was hand-made by the handicapped of Denmark. Such things as paper baskets, straw weavings, and strings of miniature Danish flags served to create an interesting spectacle.

Prior to the Campus Christmas Party a banquet dinner was held in the cafeteria.

MISS WINTERFEST

LYNN JOHNSON

Third runner-up, Kathy Reisner; Second runner-up, Marcia Methus; Miss Winterfest, Lynn Johnson; First runner-up, Lyn Marbach.

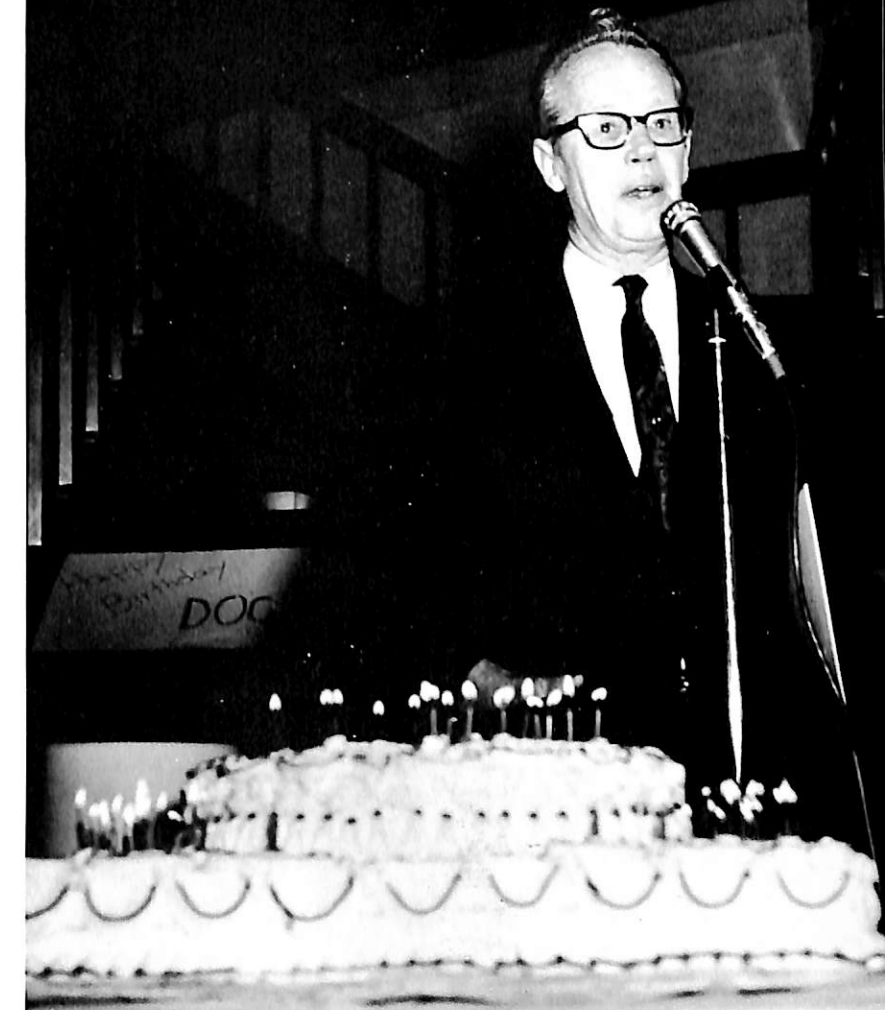

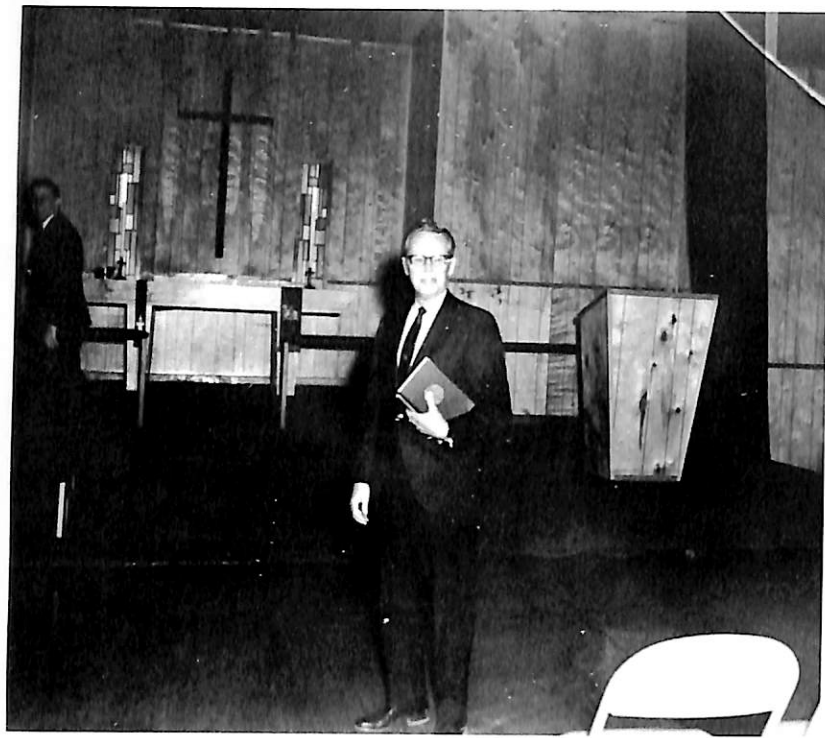

L'Hiver Potpourri was the theme chosen as the theme for this years Winterfest celebration. Friday evening the weekend was launched with a dinner banquet, featuring steak as the entree. Later in the evening, the campus was entertained at the annual Miss Winterfest Pageant with Chuck Emmons as emcee. Saturday evening a dance was held in the Campus Dining Hall. To add spice to the occasion, twelve guys participated in the Ugly Man contest, with Ken Lizer winning as Dana's ugliest man.

The eleven Miss Winterfest Candidates—Paula Westfall, Lynn Johnson, Bobbe Bohan, Kathy Reisner, Lela Hansen, Rita Sandvald, Lynn Marbach, Mary Henningsen, Marcia Methus, Linda Filson, Suzy Fossum. The girls chose Lynn Marbach as Miss Congeniality.

The students marched and waved their posters bearing birthday greetings. In the Campus Center, President Madsen was presented with tokens of appreciation by members of the students and faculty, and then served a huge birthday cake.*

*Sacrifice was its foundation,
Faith, hope, and love its cornerstones;
Its tower, ever pointing to'rd the heights,
Is a perpetual paeon of praise,
A tribute in prayer,
A symbol of worship,
Of him who is of knowledge the source,
In whom dwelleth all wisdom,
In whom is the well-spring of truth
And the glory of perfection
Ever and forever, world without end.
And as the ever-rolling years
Beat out the march of time,
While sun and moon their course pursue;
While stars the sky illumine;
While rolls this sphere in ether mists;
While time shall still endure;
Shall Dana stand, a monument
To truth's eternal might .....*

1967 PLEDGE CLASS

The 1967-68 year was one of building a stronger foundation for the fraternity, and a year of continuing the traditions of the fraternity. As illustrated in some of these pictures, the "Brown Bottle Rock" ceremony of pledges and actives stressed the need of unity and common purpose to the pledge class. The "rock" now stands beneath a tree in the park by the college. Serving the school, the community and the men of the fraternity, the Kappa Chi's continue to contribute to the ideals of the fraternity and work toward the motto of, "Through Service and Scholarship, we grow."

Kappa Chi Lambda celebrated its second birthday this year. Since its founding, there have been over sixty men who have participated as active members. Officers currently serving are:

- Toby Alback ..... President
- Gary Miller ..... Vice-President
- Woody Winchell ..... Secretary
- Jerry Bruning ..... Treasurer

She is of us; we are of her;
She lives in memory's shrine;
She is our pledge, our hope, our all,

Far down the ages, till the world

Till life's last battle has been fought
