ASCOT GAVOTTE HOMECOMING 1968

Homecoming 1968 opened with "The Viking Revue", a program of comedy and entertainment presented on both Friday and Saturday evenings. Mr. Rod Whitaker, former director of theater at Dana and now at the University of Texas, appeared as master of ceremonies. The 1968 Queen Miss Ellen Thomsen of Racine, Wisconsin, together with her Court and twelve former Dana Homecoming Queens, were presented during Coronation Ceremonies Friday evening.

CASINO ROYALE!

The Dragon's Head of the Campus Center was transformed into a Casino Royale Saturday evening for a Dana First—gambling tables, refreshments and prizes for the big money winners. "Ascot Gavotte", which was the first formal Homecoming dance in Dana's history, had a fine attendance of students and faculty, Music was provided by the Carl Manne Septet. The weekend ended with the Sunday Worship service and dedication of the James R. Hansen Memorial Road and Cornerstone Laying Ceremony at the C.A. Dana Library.

The winning display by the Kappa Theta Phi Sorority.

Delta Sigma Omega

Delta Sigma Omega of brotherhood we speak Enlightenment and knowledge together we all seek.

To us, lives filled with honor, we solemnly now pledge.

With wisdom as our guideline and God above,
judge.

The year began for the Deltas with Rush Night for prospective pledges and the formation of a pledge class. The fraternity spent many sleepless nights, time, and effort in building a Viking ship for the Homecoming display.

The Executive Council members are, left to right, Jim Scopac, Social Chairman; Eric Peterson, Treasurer; Carroll Hornbuckle, Secretary; Mr. Bill Wakefield, Advisor; Jim Brehm, President; Doug Hansen, Vice-President; Calvin
Pohl, Scholastic Chairman, and Niels Rasmussen, Sargent at Arms.

The Delta Sigs happily celebrated their third birthday by rolling the fraternity keg from Herman to Fremont for a new WORLD RECORD of 37.6 miles.
Plans for the remainder of the year include the spring picnic, fraternity golf match, Greek Dance, and the Interfraternity basketball game, which is an annual event.
