We learn to study anywhere anytime.

Life at Dana . . .
There are times when we must study. But there are times when we can be ourself and chew bubble gum or add our initials to everyone else's.

Do you always watch T.V. with the set off?

Pollution happens everywhere!

Boy, does she get a bang out of that!

"Is it for me?" "No." "Me?" "No." "Who volunteers to run to the other end of the hall?"

The dorm is our home away from home. Do you ever wonder what goes on behind the scenes?

I'm going to wash that man right out of my hair!

Being remembered with a cake and sharing it with your friends puts the "Happy" in Birthday.

Too weary to start another day of classes, this typical student catches an extra ten minutes of sleep.

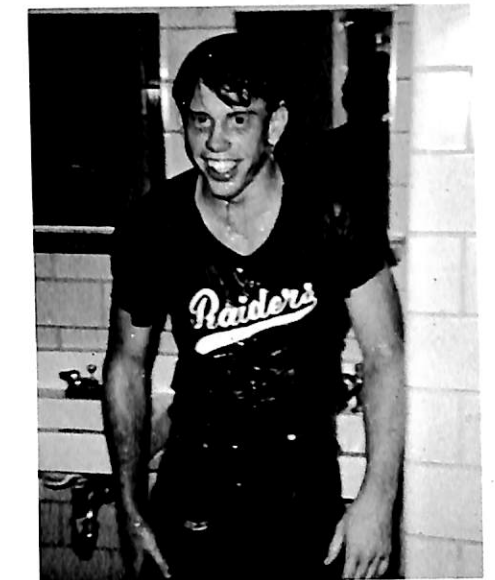

Something in there we don't know about?

Orders from headquarters.

It's "plane" to see that this pilot is ready for take-off.

Your friends will eagerly throw a shower for those special events in your life, but it's hard telling the cause for Jerry's treat!

Dorm life really gets to you, doesn't it?!

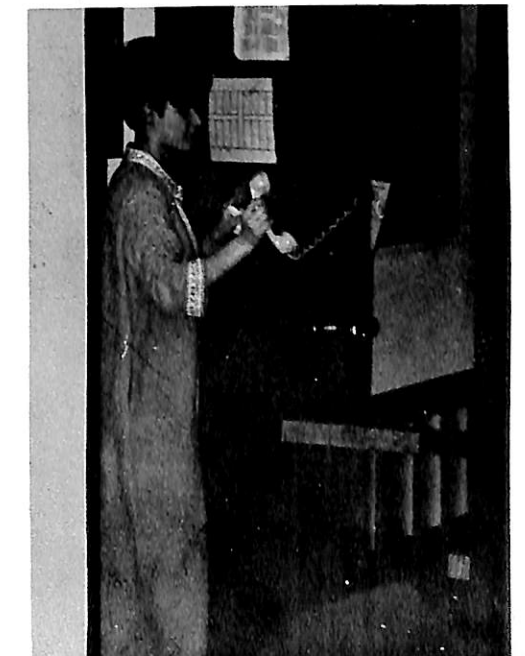

You never know what your friends are going to do when you leave your room.

Using the hair drier to shut out the noise of her friends, this co-ed finds it easy to catch a double dose of beauty sleep.

Blair Hall's unique telephone booths are ideal for a private conversation with your honey.

Some students really blow up over finals—or birthdays.

But Ouija, I have to have a date this weekend!

This cheery co-ed awoke to find the morning paper right outside her door.

We've had enough of that monkey business girls!

And then, in 1899, the first car crossed the Missouri River!

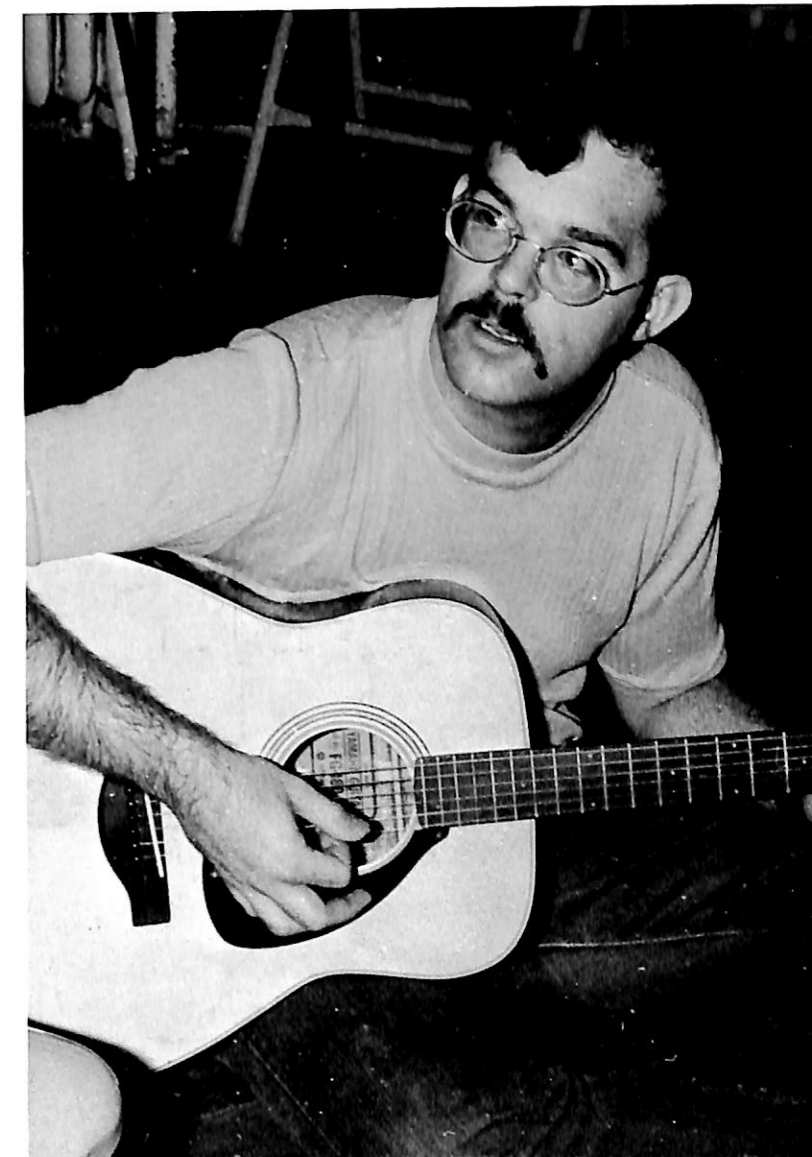

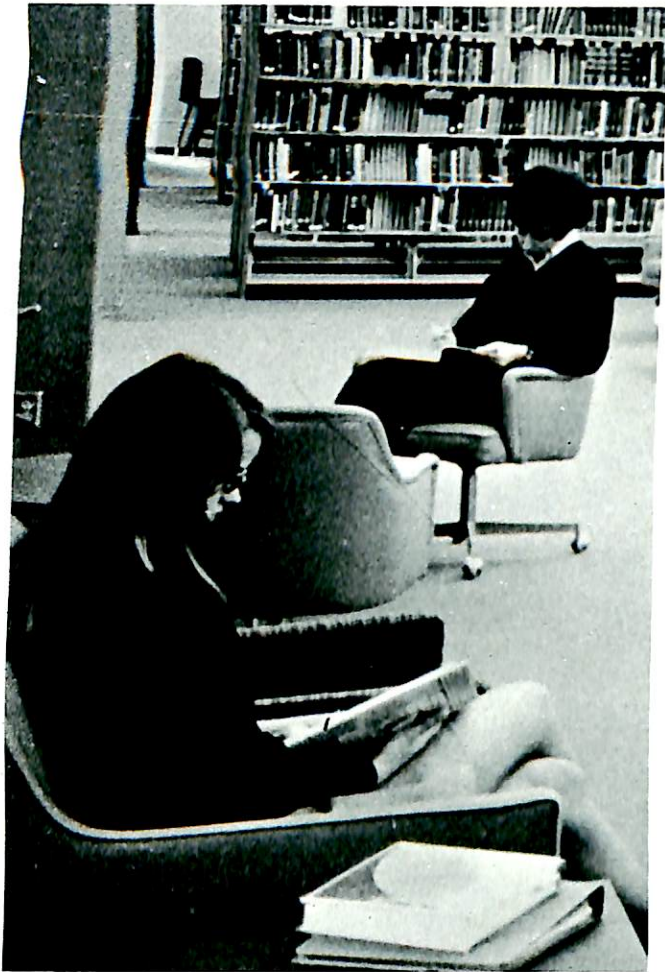

One look is worth a thousand words!

People:
Dialogue,
Relationships,
Fun

Enjoyment can come from just being with a person, providing it's the right person.

The popular sound of guitar strumming livens-up any floor.

Studying is easier in an easy chair.

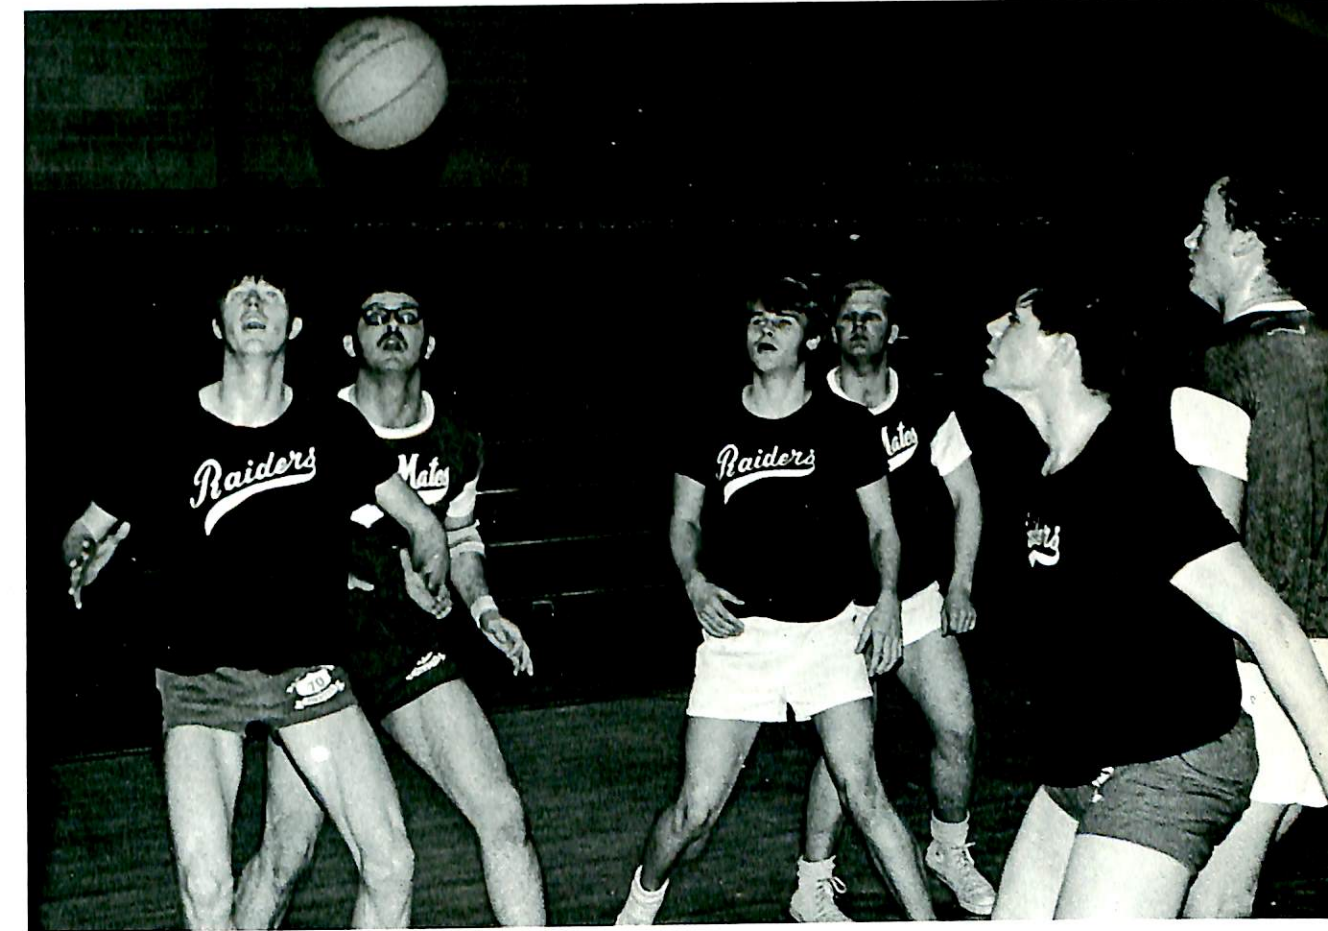

The many individual booths in the new library are very conducive to studying. You never know what might be happening around you. Someone may even be chasing a bird!

It sure is TOUGH to eat after 12:20!

Do you ever wonder if the basketball enjoys being the center of attention?!

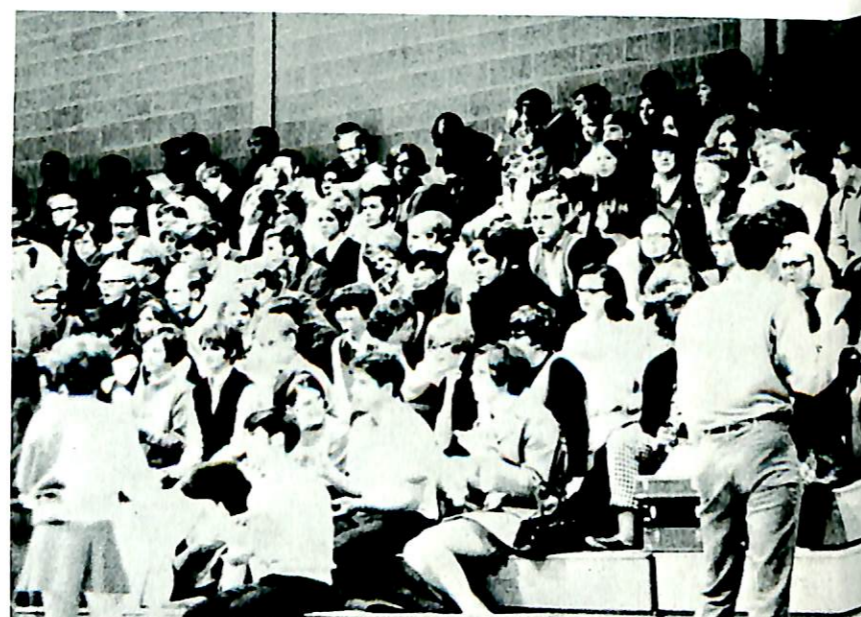

Ho, Hum . . . I think I should cram just a few more minutes longer.

Dana joined the many colleges and universities across the United States in the Viet Nam War Moratorium on October 15, 1969.

Activities

A college that offers only academic development is not complete. Although not as clearly defined, development under the general heading of activities is just as necessary. Whether lending talent to the show or being crowned Homecoming queen, a student is suddenly more than a machine that spews back facts and figures on a test. He can respond to others with his own joys and fears, victories and defeats.

Freshmen

Initiation

So your passenger was too much for you to carry, huh?

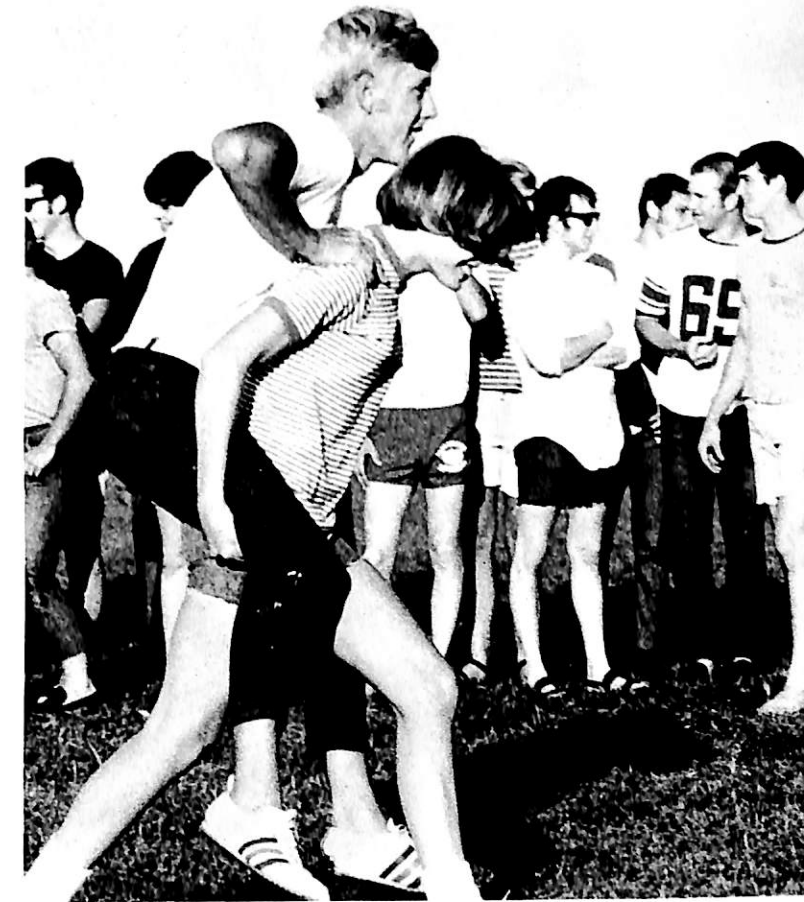

There must be better ways to make mud pies.

Now what are you doing behind my back?

Will you please get off my back?

Go Girl, Go!

I've heard of holding hands but this is ridiculous!

Last one in is—Mr. Clean?

I'm a mudhole beauty!

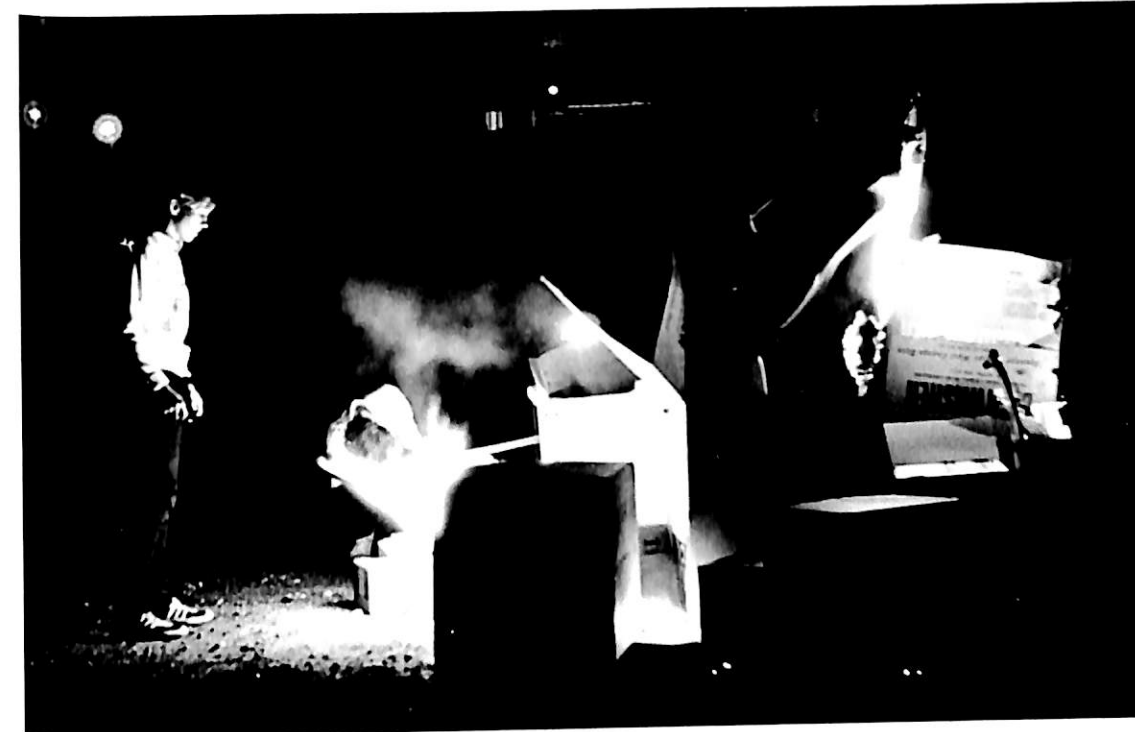

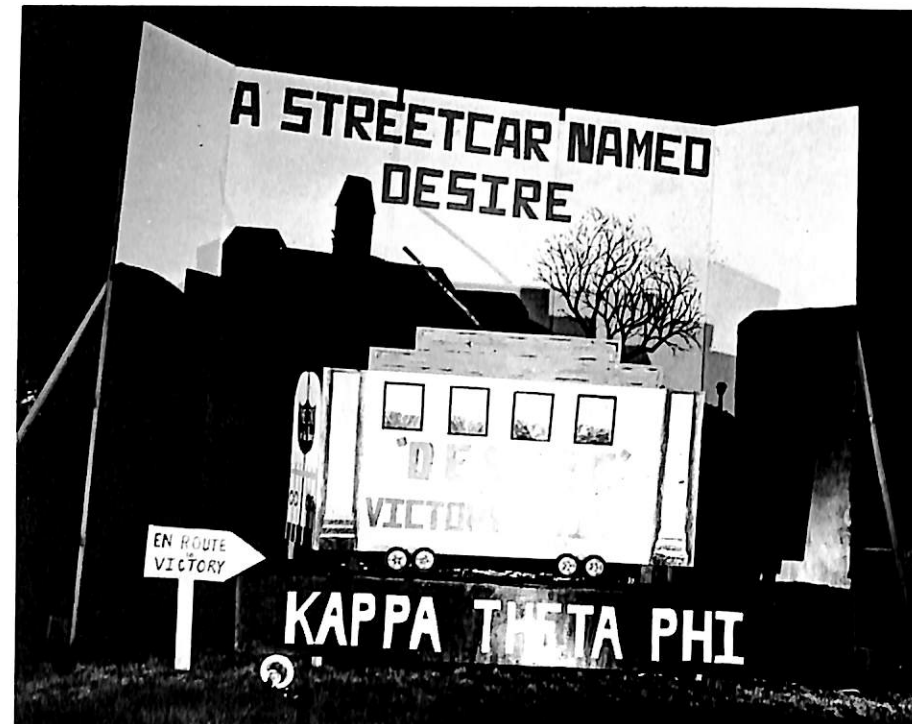

The highlight of initiation was the erection of a new cross on the hill to replace the one destroyed by vandals two years ago. Students carried the cross from AMA parking lot, across campus, and up the hill. The procession was followed by a brief dedication service held under the cross. The sophomore class was responsible for the new cross.

Homecoming 1969

A lot of hard work and homecoming spirit went into the seven displays which were constructed on the oval. The Tri-D's were awarded first prize for their giant garter and "Vikings Can-Can Win" theme. The Kappa Theta Phi "Streetcar Named Desire" won second prize and third prize was won by the freshman class' depiction of a Viking ship.

The pep rally Friday night, the Kappa Chi victory bell, the Homecoming royalty, and the large crowd of alumni and students cheered the Vikings to a thrilling Homecoming Victory as they defeated Sioux Falls 24-20.

Candidate Diane Schmidt and her escort, senior class president, Tim Wiggins, were first to descend the royal stairway in the ceremony.

"On Broadway"

The first dance following the coronation was dedicated to the Queen and her court.

Homecoming Royalty

- Queen Sandy Grevlos
- Princess Karen Bansen
- Princess Jean Brehm
- Princess Rikki Forney
- Princess Diane Schmidt

The Review opened with the scene "We've Come a Long Way Baby."

Viking Review

Genie Greg Hayes held the audience under his spell, with his introductions, and his camel, "Seymor."

Bill Pikor sang "I've Grown Accustomed to her Face" as he escorted his date Jan Sorensen home after hours to the fearful encounter with Mrs. Laaker. The audience was touched by Mrs. Laaker's response, "I've Grown Accustomed to the Pace."

Passing the president's home on his way back to the dorm from an evening of study at the library, Pastor Jensen sang "I Wonder What C.C. is Doing Tonight."

Despite the wintery weather, a large crowd of parents, friends, faculty, and students filled Borup Coliseum December 7 for the Christmas music concert. Numbers by the band, freshman and concert choirs, and freshman madrigal put everyone in the Christmas spirit.

Christmas Activities for Everyone

The traditional Festival of Santa Lucia was presented with Gloria Paulsen reigning as Santa Lucia. Other maidens were Susan Jensen, Lois Neve, Betty Jorth, Karen Evenson, Becky Nielsen, Dorothy Paulsen, Lena Elbek, Shirley Petersen, Kathy Rohrer, Sue Thompson, Judy Duke, and Juel Neve.

"Ho—Ho—HO—who wouldn't know."

"With stockings all hung on the fireplace with care. In hopes . . ."

"Goody, goody . . . Santa has come early!"

Winterfest—Snow Odyssey

Frosty the Snowman

Winter Wonderland

Larry and Judy "move" to the music

Due to an early spring thawing in January, Dana was not a winterland for Winterfest Weekend. There wasn't even enough snow to make one miniature snowman for the snow sculpture contest. However, the Social Committee made their own snowman and hung him in the center so he wouldn't melt.

Good food and tablecloths at the Friday night banquet begin the festive weekend.

The after-the-game dance Saturday night with music by the Chevrons put the final touch to the weekend.

The thirteen Miss Winterfest candidates were: Jolene Bundt, Miss Freshman Class; Marsha Degner, Miss Senior Class; Lexy Spencer, Miss Kappa Chi Lambda; Charlotte Thomsen, Miss Sophomore Class; Karen Bansen, Miss Junior Class; Judy Duncan, Miss P.E.M. Club; Judy Duke, Miss Pep Club; Lynn Stewart, Miss S.A.M.; Carri Dumke, Miss Hermes; Karen Tellefsen, Miss Tau Gamma Rho; Jean Brehm, Miss Kappa Theta Phi; Jan Sorenson, Miss D-Club.

Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, Dennis Weidler and Joyce Jensen, with pianist Dennis Schmidt, entertain the audience while the judges make the important decision.

Typical of the great talent displayed by the thirteen girls was Judy Duncan's modern dance routine.

Queen Cathy Hansen was in a "Winterworld of Love" as Greg Witte sang to her following her coronation. First runner-up was Jan Sorensen, second runner-up was Karen Bansen, third runner-up was Judy Duke, and Miss Congeniality was Marsha Degner.

Clarence Smith, who represented fourth north, was chosen Ugly Man in the judging before the Miss Winterfest contest. Joel Bohling, who represented Fourth west, was first runner-up. The Ugly Man's prize chicken was a special guest at the game Saturday night.

With a crown to match her sparkling eyes, Queen Cathy appears calm and collected. But inside she is bubbling with excitement. Cathy awed the judges and audience with her talent act, as she gracefully performed Danish ball and modern dance routines.

Madam Xenia is using her extra-sensory powers.

The Dana College Choir under the direction of Dr. Paul Neve, completed its 45th annual tour over semester break this year. The tour was from January 16th to January 23rd and included concerts in the Iowa towns of Sheldon, Graettinger, Ringsted, Emmetsburg, Mason City, Cedar Falls, Strawberry Point, Irwin, and Onawa; in Albert Lee, Minnesota; and in Decatur and Randolph, Nebraska. Many of the towns visited are home towns of this years choir members. Although it may not have been the most exciting tour ever, (what do you expect after Japan?!) it was a successful tour with fun for all.

"Oh Goody! Casseroles again!" is Carol Lund's comment—"I knew they wouldn't break our record."

Mail call was an exciting time of the day, until all the letters were distributed and you discovered he didn't write you today either! Here Carroll Hornbuckle is doing the honors.

Waiting at the church got rather old fast, but at one church Mark and Dick entertained themselves with this challenging game.

Claudia and Linda had fun trying to solve this puzzle. No, they never did get it finished!

Members of the Orient Choir were: Al Andersen, Sue Angell, Bob Bair, Sharon Boone, Elaine Bringewatt, Kathy Busse, Leona Carlsen, Norma Carlsen, Linda Collett, Debbie Davis, Judy Duke, Tracy Fischer, Charles Gilmore, Carol Goos, John Groesser, Carol Hansen, Paula Hansen, Barb Heap, Carroll Hornbuckle, Diane Howland, Ruth Jacobsen, Barb Jensen, Betty Jorth, Sally Kirkwood, Chris Korsgaard, Barb Krause, Rich Larsen, Carol Maresh, Lois Neve, Becky Nielsen, Gary Panko, Dorothy Paulsen, Jim Pierce, Darlene Probst, Lanny Rulla, Rita Sandvold, Nancy Shaner, Ivan Schlichting, Dennis Schmidt, Diane Schmidt, Janice Schneider, Susan Schweer, Charlotte Thomsen, Dick Tryon, Greg Witte. Two alumni, Donna Heuke, and Jayne Petersen; two folk dancers, Twyla Drummond, and Dianna Lauritsen; the photographer, Marv Richardson; and the director, Dr. Paul Neve and his wife completed the touring group.

The choir members enjoyed the Japanese custom of giving flowers after the concerts. They received as many as ten bouquets a night!

Assuming the role of celebrities was a common occurrence for choir members as they were mobbed for autographs following the concerts. The instant friendship of the Japanese people impressed the students.

If you haven't seen 50 students with at least two suitcases apiece board a Japanese train in two minutes or less, you've really missed something. With Smiley, the unforgettable tour guide, to help them, they made it. But how we'll never know!

Orient Choir Tour

The choir members found the moving time between concerts a good time to catch some much needed rest. The first morning on the return trip from the West Coast to Blair, the entire choir slept from loading time to the noon lunch stop!

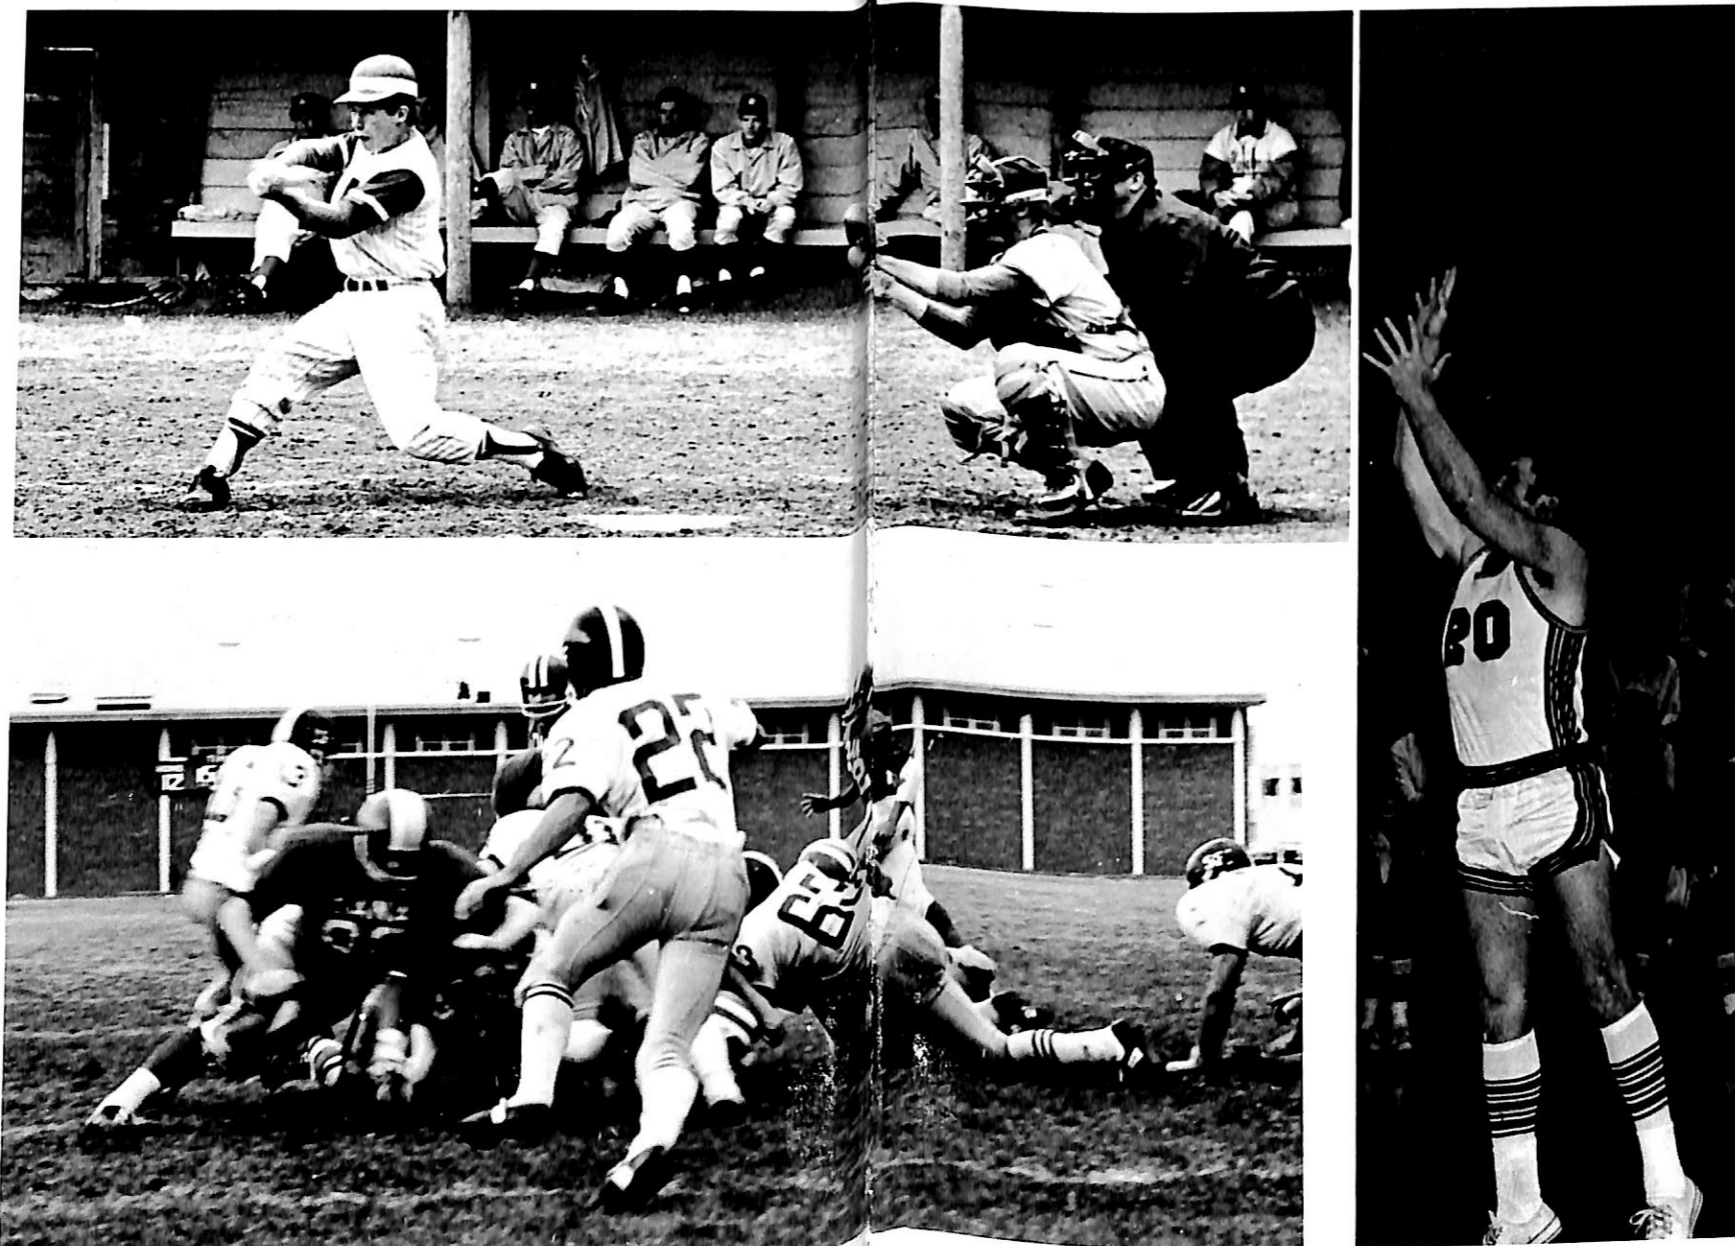

The choir members boarded many different buses for sightseeing tours as they traveled from city to city.

Uniformly dressed in red, white, and blue, the 50 voice choir left San Francisco on the first Orient Tour in the history of Dana College Choir. They performed for audiences ranging in size from 50 to 8,000. At one time they sang for some 13 million people over the Japanese television network. The tour was entirely self-supporting with the individual students paying most of the cost, the remainder being paid by concerts. The tour took the choir to Japan, Okinawa, Hong Kong, Taipei, Manila, and Hawaii. The choir members agree that it is an experience they will never forget.

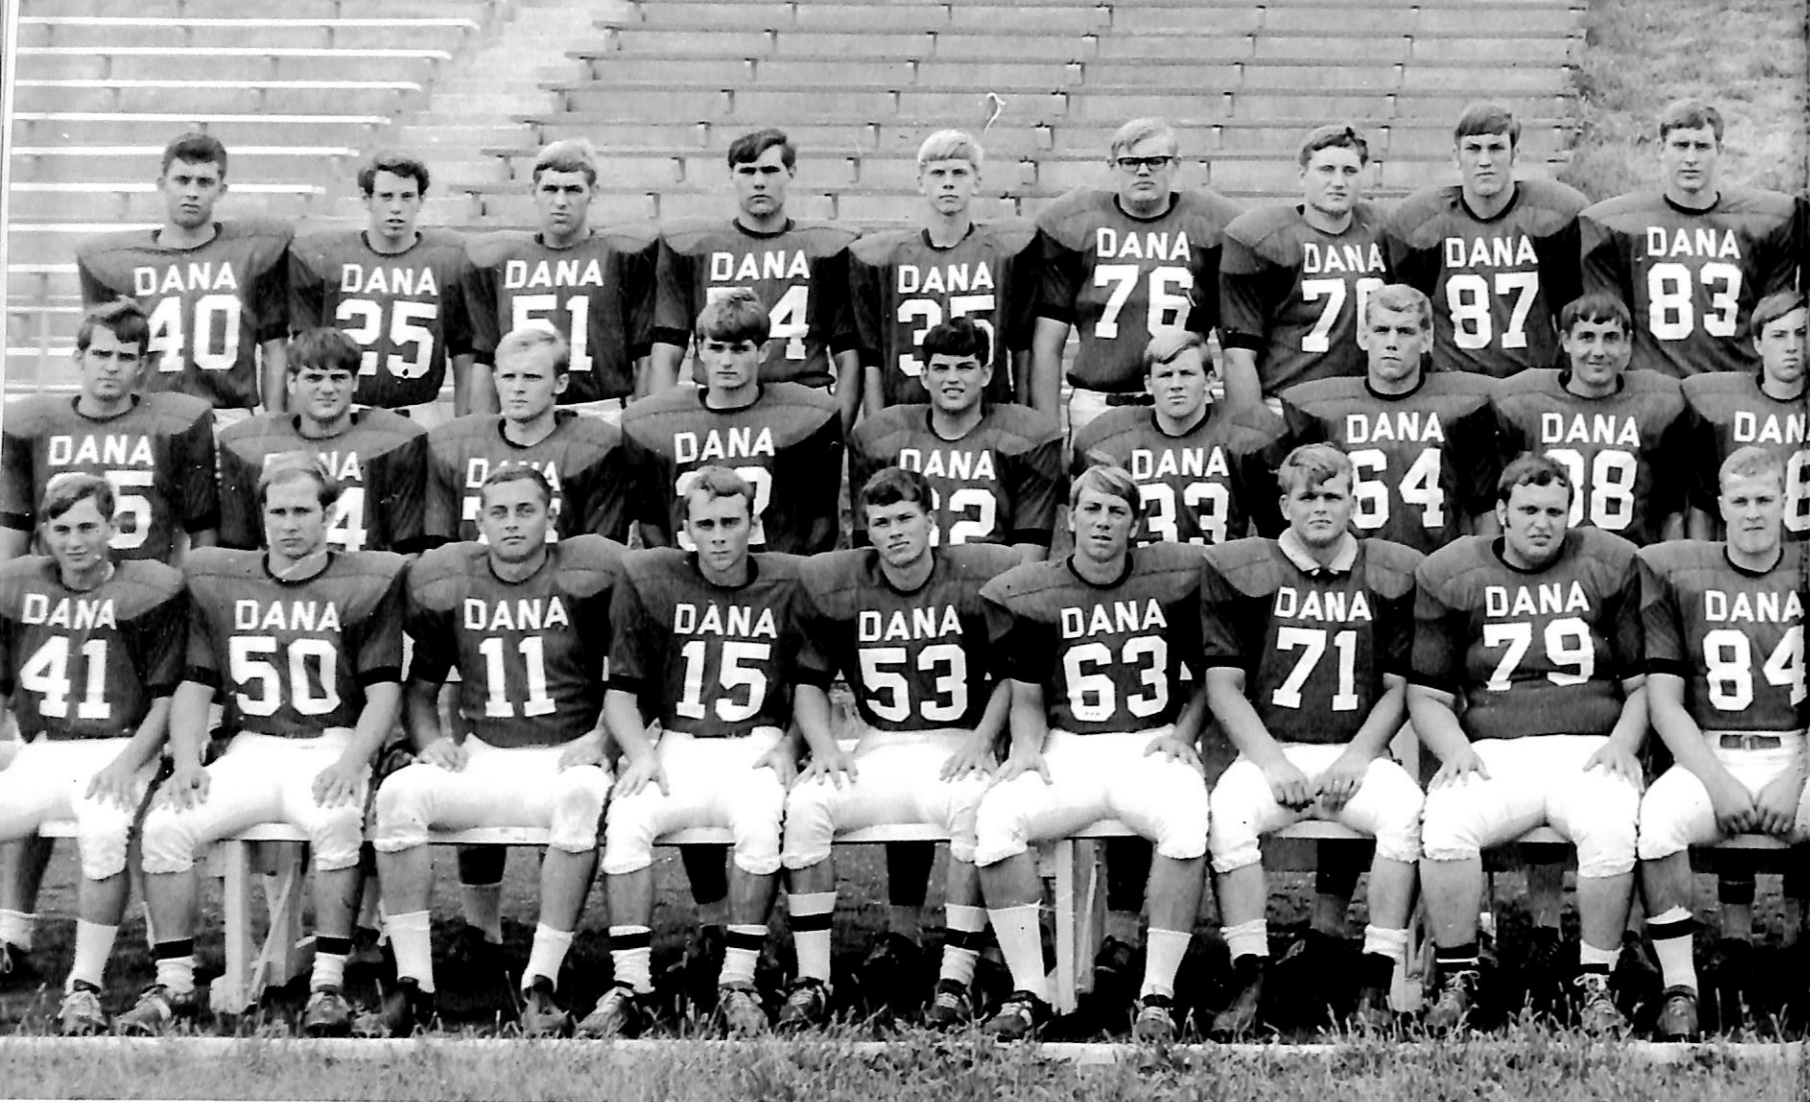

The choir had the opportunity to sing in large, elaborate concert halls. At this concert in Kobe, Japan, the choir had the opportunity to meet the oldest Dana alumni, Dr. Winther, a 91-year-old missionary to Japan.

Athletics

The stuffy atmosphere of a classroom explodes in the spirit of athletic competition. From a varsity contest to an intramural brawl to the observer on the sidelines . . . each student has felt the thrill of this competition and each has benefitted from this development which teaches lessons the books can only tell. In each contest one hopes for victory, for team cooperation, for school spirit. But even in the face of total defeat, one hopes for his best.

Coach Rainforth

'Hey, You there. That wasn't quite what I told you in practice.'

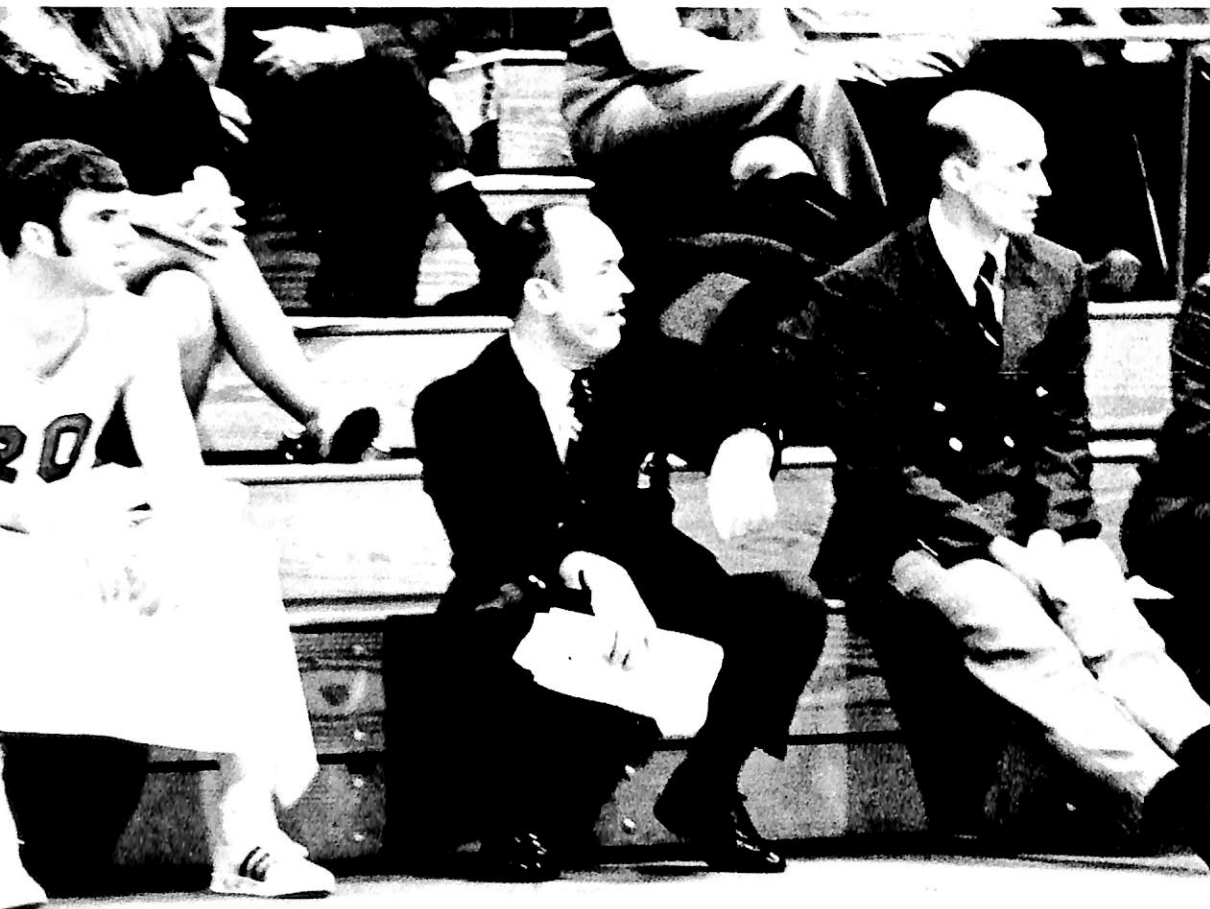

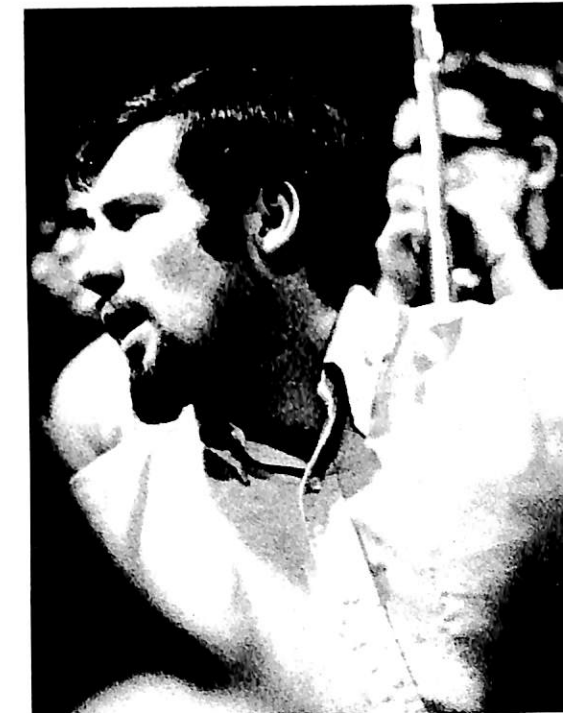

"Now boys, Let's just take a deep breath and go to it."

The team and fans alike enjoy the flavor added by the pep band.

The cheer is sure to be witty coming from Greg.

"That's right ref. The basket was good."

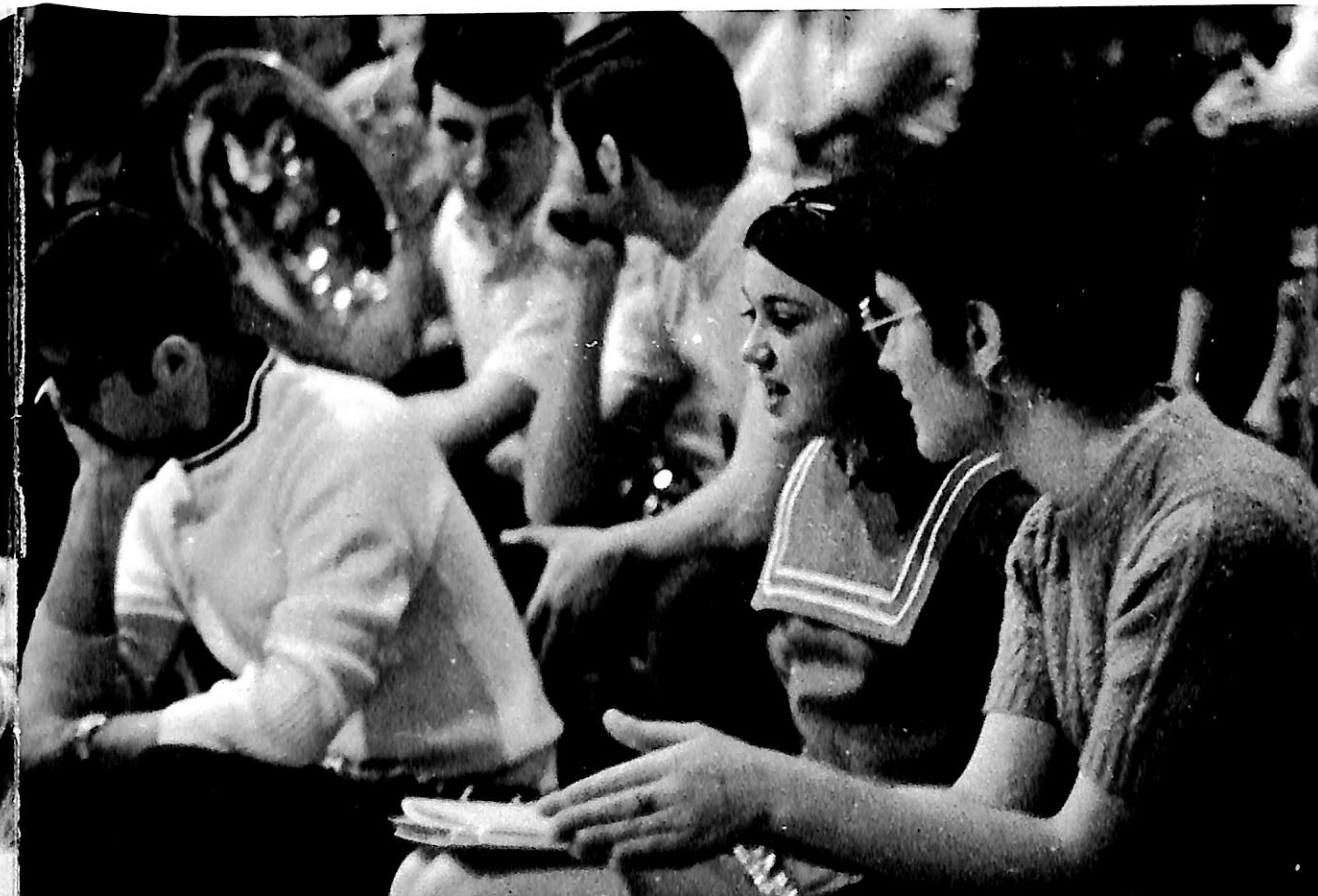

A basketball game is more than just the five players on a team. There must be a man behind this team. And if the game isn't too exciting (because the Vikings are way ahead), just let coach Jerry Rainforth entertain you during the game.

"Let's just meditate on that for a minute guys."

Fans Add Spirit

Organizations

Dedication to something—a purpose, an ideal . . . What causes one to affiliate himself to a certain group? Perhaps it is the need to involve oneself with others and become part of their cause. For a variety of reasons people organize, and through a cooperative effort they attempt to get things done. In this way, development through organizations is one step closer to the total development of the student.

Delta Sigma Omega is a social fraternity and this year it held many enjoyable functions. The Christmas formal was a great success, as was the spring picnic and the numerous parties. Fraternity is more than parties however, it is fellowship. With the addition of a fired up pledge class this year the DSO's strive to maintain and increase their brotherhood and feeling of fellowship.

Tau Gamma Rho— —

Dedicated to Sisterhood, Service, and Fun.

Our pledges are all American beauties. Don't you agree?

Tau Gamma Rho sponsored many functions during the year; among these were dances, bake sales, selling mistletoe, decorating for Christmas and having a cake raffle. The highlight of the year was our wonderful, first pledging experience, and we're looking to many more.

Pledges and their Moms enjoyed many activities together. One was this gathering on the hill.

Our pledges really go all out when they dine out—

Administration

Just as the individual must develop so must the college. Physically Dana College attempts to meet this need by providing new facilities, such as the new library and women's dormitory. The faculty and administration also play an important part in our learning. Dana is honored to have such a well educated faculty, and is known for its good student-faculty ratio.

Students

Although one develops through academics, organizations, and athletics, there is still another step to total development. One cannot really give to others until he is satisfied with himself. His outlook, his goals, all must be defined in his own mind. He must know what is important to him in order to be an individual that is distinguished somehow from the other face in the crowd. It is how he establishes the rules that he will follow for the rest of his life. This, the final step, is perhaps the most difficult to take.
