Activities

Every new school year the activities and special events on the Dana campus increase and provide a wider variety of entertainment for Dana students, faculty, administration, and residents of Blair. Outside of campus organizations, S.A.B. movies and dances, and sporting events, campus activities were supplemented by Homecoming and its special attractions, an expanding and exciting calendar of events sponsored by the Humanities Department, and highlighted by the inauguration of our new president.

Saturday on Third South

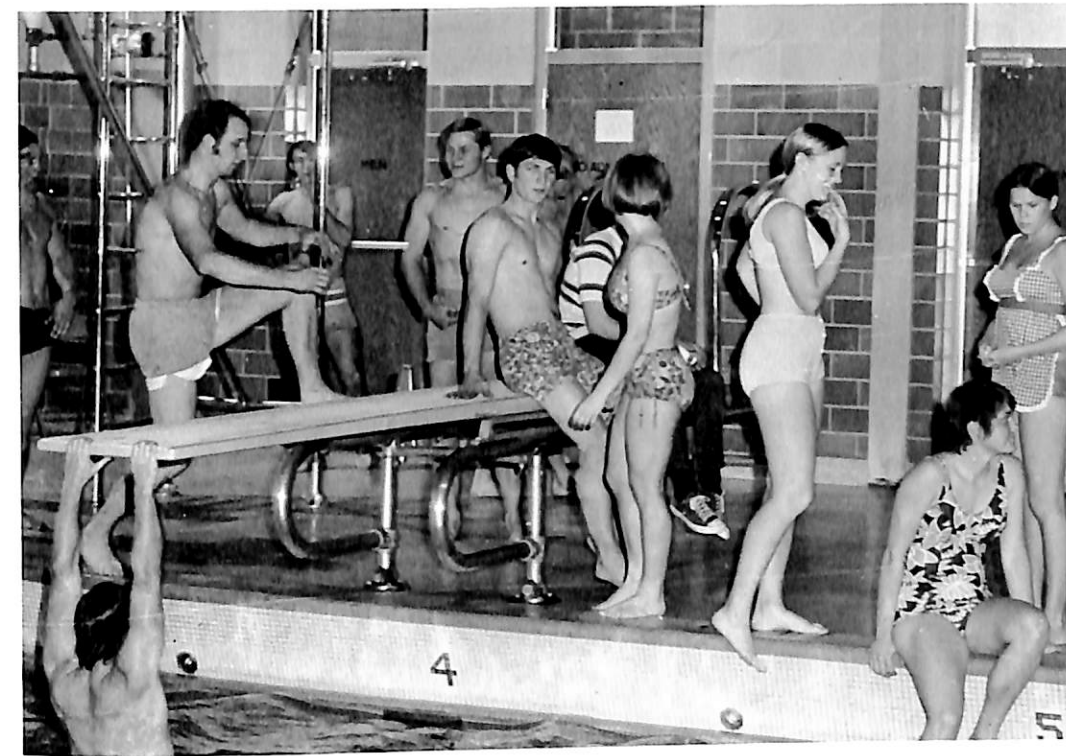

The cats went out to serenade
 And on a banjo sweetly played;
 And summer nights they climbed a tree,
 And sang, "My love, oh, come to me!"

The cats went out to serenade

A little bit of powdered beef,
 And a great net of cabbage,
 The best meal I have had today
 Is a good bowl of porridge.

A little bit of powdered beef

Mother, May I Go Out To Swim?

Mother, may I go out to swim? Yes, my darling daughter.
 Hang your clothes on a hickory limb
 But don't go near to water.

Good Advice

Come when you're called,
 Do what you're bid,
 Shut the door after you,
 And never be chid.

For Every Evil Under The Sun

For every evil under the sun
 There is a remedy or there is none.
 If there is one, seek till you find it;
 If there be none, never mind it.

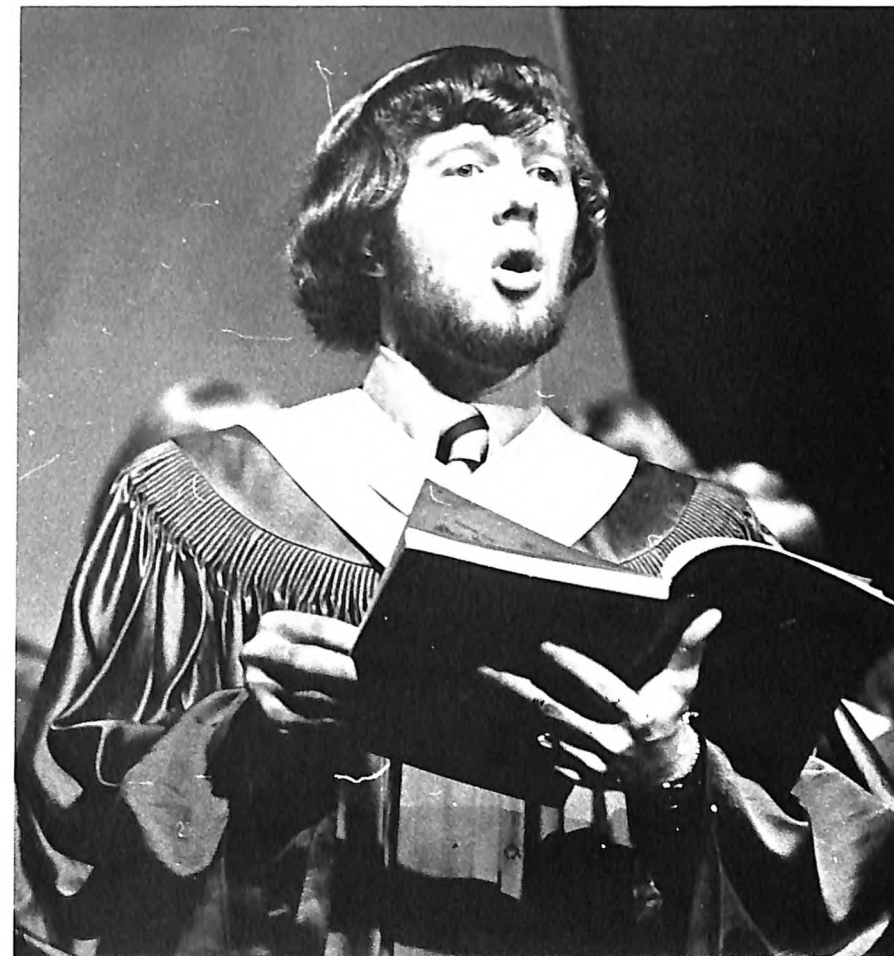

Who Comes Here?

Who Comes here?
 "A grenadier."
 What do you want?
 "A pot of beer."
 Where is your money?
 "I've forgot."
 Get you gone,
 You can't have a drop.

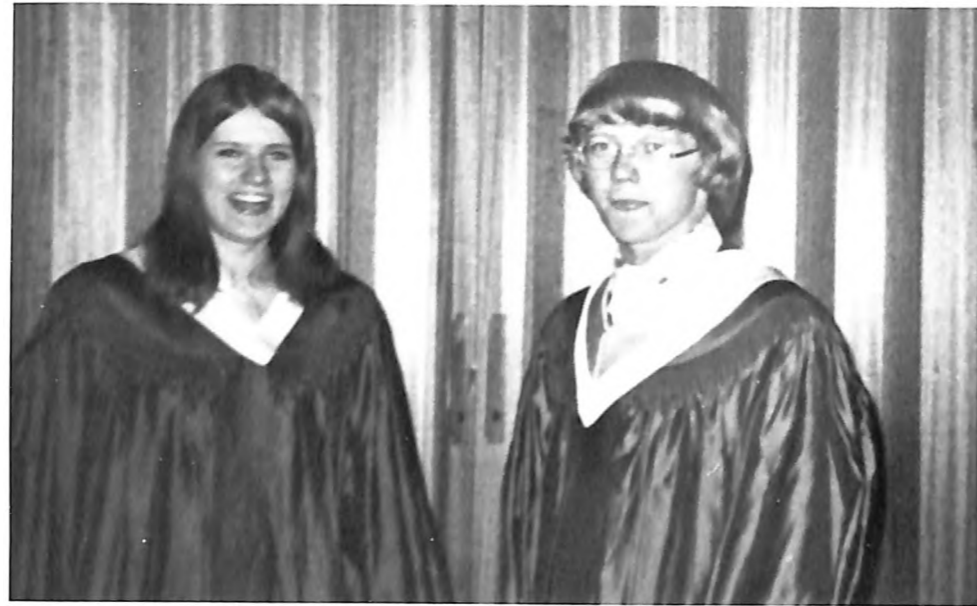

We're All Jolly Boys

We're all jolly boys, and we're coming with a noise,
 Our stockings shall be made of the finest sild,
 And our tails shall trail the ground.

I'll Sing You A Song

I'll sing you a song—
 Though not very long
 Yet I think it as pretty as any;
 Put your hand in your purse,
 You'll never be worse
 And give the poor singer a penny.

You want us to sing . . . a duet?!

In His Memory

Hmmm . . . shows promise!

Now today we're going to play Taido!

It's hard to know where to start to praise a man who has filled so many lives with so much joy. I not only speak for myself, but for the hundreds of students who have lived with and have known Mr. Laaker.

Through the years he acquired the name, "Papa Laaker." That's just what he was to us . . . a father away from home. He had a genuine want to please us. He was there in the mornings to give us weather predictions, like: "It's gonna be a beaut out today," or "Button up girls . . . it's cold out there."

He constantly ran errands for us, going out of his way so we got what we needed. All these things add up to show a very deep love he had for all of us.

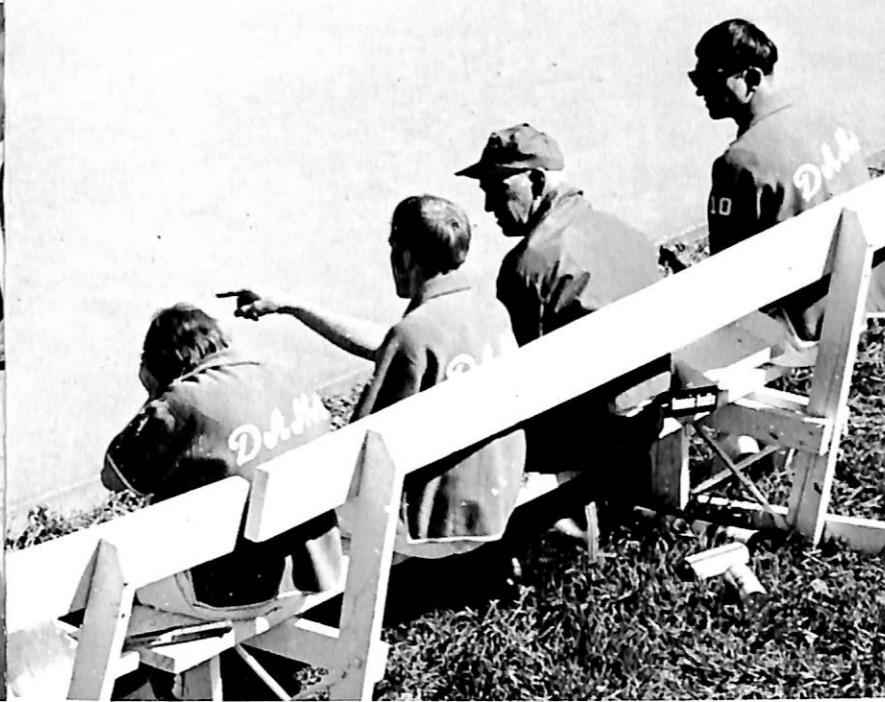

At this particularly sad time we can find a happy note in the fact that he lived a true faith in God.

We've had good times and bad times, but Mr. Laaker helped us through the rough ones.

I don't really think I need to say anything else, his life spoke for everything I could say.

Papa Laaker and Mrs. Laaker together radiated a strength that was so great, and it is on this strength that I, speaking for many, pay tribute to this man, "Papa Laaker."

Viking Football '71
 "Season of Changes"

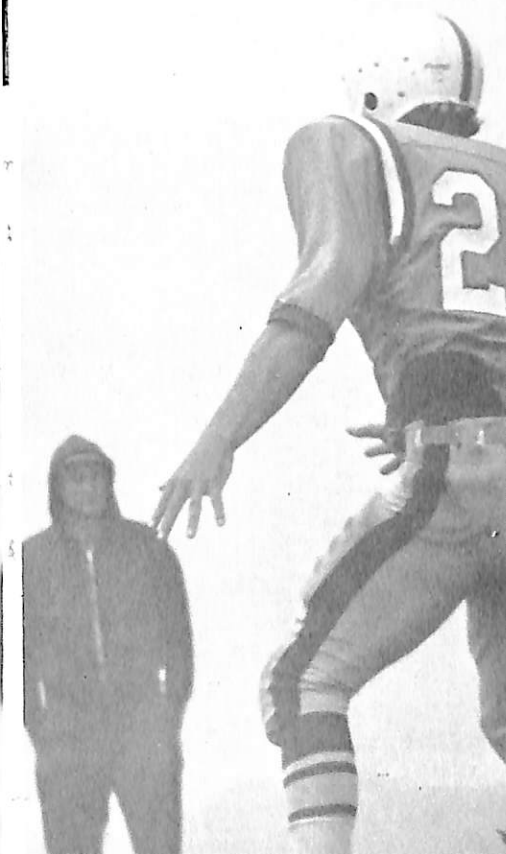

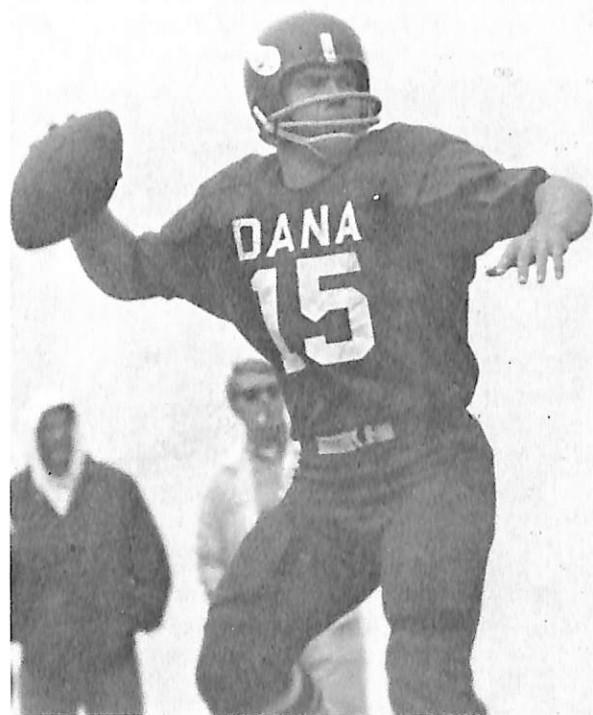

The 1971 football season was indeed a season of changes. Bob Simpson, in his first season as head coach at Dana, gave the school its first successful season since 1962. After a slow start, Dana sparked up and showed a tough driving spirit. Dana's grudging defense, which finally won the respect it deserved, showed opponents it had not lost any of its stonewall disposition.

Dana's offense had a shaky start, showing inexperience in some areas at the beginning of the year. Then, towards midseason, the Vikings metamorphosed into a winning combination and won five of their last seven games.

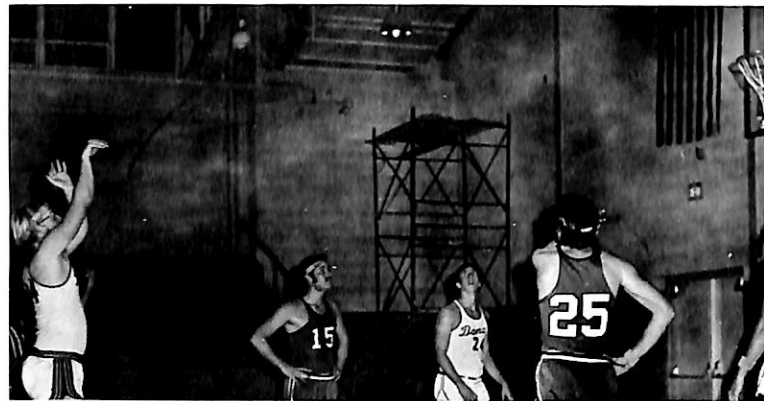

Throughout the season Dana's fine defense proved to be an invaluable asset, especially for the several rainy games, giving Dana the winning edge.

Dana showed some of its Norse heritage by terrorizing its last three opponents. The defense and offense worked together like a well-oiled machine, shutting out Midland 19-0 during Homecoming and Sioux Falls 14-0 the following week.

Dana took on the spoiler role in the final game of the season by beating a heavily-favored and nationally-ranked Doane College team 24-14.

BASKETBALL

This year's team felt both heartache and gladness as it suffered from player sickness and injuries. However, the roundballers captured first place at the Westmar Tournament, January 7 and 8 to show their capacities.

Led by Tom Lauritsen, junior, in the back court, Dana started Gary Bott, Jr., Terry Miner, Jr.; Dennis Riley, fr., and Bryan Traylor, soph. Other frequent starters were Bill Hansen, sr., Gary Kratina, jr., and Ed Johnson, jr. Rounding up the squad were Kirk McLaughlin, sr., Steve Woitock, soph., Jerry Wilson, soph., Rkon Miller, fr., Jim Huseman, fr., and Mark Taft, fr. Coaches were Paul Petersen, Asst., and Jerry Rainforth, head coach.

Gary Gray strives for a takedown.

Led by returning lettermen Gary Gray, Mike Todd, Phil Tegler, Bill Kruse, Gary McMullin, and Lew Houser, Coach Bob Simpson's wrestlers performed well, despite several drawbacks and injuries. Dana's grapplers took first place at the Midland Invitational, defeating a talented field of opponents. Several talented freshmen showed promise for coming years. These are Ed Grube, Stan Johnson and Bob Coffey. Dana will host the NIAC Conference Meet this year, with a strong change of becoming NIAC champions. Seniors Gary Gray, Mike Todd, and Phil Tegler will complete 4 outstanding years of competition heavily favored to win their weight classes.

Coach Rafe Ander's harriers logged valuable experience and showed sheer "guts" by participating in one of the toughest endurance sports offered by today's colleges. Braving everything from windy, cold courses to high speed auto-accidents, they met many obstacles.

Highest point winners for the season were Bob Coffey and Tom Van Steenhoven.

Send 'em back to the bus, Vikes.

Dana's consistently good baseball team completed another successful season last spring with an overall record of 22 wins and 13 losses. Coach Dale Lemon's team won the NIAC Conference for the second consecutive year with a 9 and 1 record. In the Tri-State Conference Dana placed second with an 8 and 4 record to 9 and 3 Westmar. For the third straight year, Dana's baseball team competed in the NAIA District 11 playoffs, its fourth time in six years.

During the tour of Oklahoma and Kansas over Easter vacation, the baseball team won seven and lost four.

Coach Lemon lettered 19 men for the season which tied with the highest number of lettermen for one season. Those who received honors other than letters were: Phil Facendola, best defensive catcher in Coach Lemon's 9 seasons at Dana and Brian Moerer, most outstanding third baseman. All-Conference honors went to Tom Lauritsen, first base, Brian Moerer, utility man and Dan Jackson, pitcher for Tri-State Conference. All-NIAC selections were: First team—Steve Hines, pitcher; Jeff Maddocks, pitcher; Phil Facendola, catcher; Brian Moerer, third base. Second team—Bryan Traylor, outfield; Dan Jackson, right field. Those on All-NAIA District 11 Team were: Steve Hines, pitcher; Phil Facendola, catcher. Second team selection was Brian Moerer, third base.

The 1971 team proved overall to be the best in the history of the college. Seniors Paul Refsell, Val Heim, Joel Dickinson, Roger Lorsch, junior Rod Appel, sophomore Tim Kuiken freshman Bill Yates and Coach Paul Peterson formed the team, which finished with a dual record of 9 wins and 5 losses.

Rod Appel led the team for the third consecutive year as the season's medalist. Rod had a record of 10 wins and 3 losses in dual competition. The highlight of the year came when Val Heim took medalist honors for the NIAC Conference meet by firing a one under par 70.

TENNIS

Dana's 1971 tennis team was its first team to go undefeated in dual competition. The season was successful in meet competition also. Dana placed second in both the Tri-State and N.I.A.C. conference meets, and fourth in the N.A.I.A. District 11 meet. At the N.I.A.C. conference meet Ralph Mayer and Gaylan Miller were Doubles Champions. The lettermen for the season were Captain Ralph Mayer, Gaylan Miller, Terry Thomas, Jim Musick, Steve Gross, and Greg Rodgers.

Christ and Dana

"As a college of the American Lutheran Church Dana is committed to the conviction that a true liberal education deals with all Truth, Truth about the Creator as well as about the Creation, Truth which reckons with soul, spirit and eternal destinies as well as with facts and forces of physical existence."

Dr. C.C. Madsen

These words begin the Dana catalogue. In these next few pages we'd like to look at some of these convictions of the Christian about faith, hope, love and brotherhood. We hope you enjoy it.

The Editors

“... For truly, I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move hence to yonder place’, and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.” (Matt. 17: 20b)

“And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have Faith.” (Matt. 21: 22)

“So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes by the preaching of Christ.” (Romans 10: 17)

“I have been crucified with Christ; it is not longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.” (Galatians 2: 20)

“For through the Spirit, by faith, we wait for the hope of righteousness.” (Galatians 5: 5)

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing, it is the gift of God—not because of works lest any man should boast.” (Ephesians 2: 8,9)

“What we both wanted now was more of a sense of direction, more faith. Both of us were groping and searching. I knew Paul had said in Romans 10: 17 that ‘faith comes by hearing the Word of God.’ We were doing that literally! Then one day Shirley came to me with a statement she’d found: ‘Hope is the antechamber to faith.’

This was a ray of light. You start out by hoping, and you feel that hope a batch of God’s word, especially His promises to a believer. Then while you’re waiting for something to happen, as you continue to hope, God has opportunity to turn that hope into FAITH! Later, I discovered that the author of the book of Hebrews had said it even better. “Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the convictions of things not seen.” (Hebrews 11: 1).”

Pat Boone A NEW SONG

For in this hope we were saved, Now hope that is seen is not hope,
For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see,
we wait for it with patience. (Romans 8: 24,25)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through Him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us. (Romans 5: 1-5)

Through the centuries men have displayed many different symbols to show that they are Christians. They have worn marks in the lapels of their coats, hung chains about their necks, even had special haircuts.

Of course, there is nothing wrong with any of this, if one feels it is his calling. But there is a much better sign—a mark that has not been thought up just as a matter of expediency for use on some special occasion or in some specific era. It is a universal mark that is to last through all the ages of the church 'til Jesus comes back.

What is this mark?

At the close of His ministry, Jesus looks forward to His death on the cross, the open tomb and the ascension. Knowing that He is about to leave, Jesus prepares His disciples for what is to come. It is here that He makes clear what will be the distinguishing mark of the Christian:

Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going you cannot come.' A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (John 13:33-35)

Francis Schaeffer THE MARK OF THE CHRISTIAN

If I had the gift of being able to speak in other languages without learning them, and could speak in every language there is in all of heaven and earth, but didn't love others, I would only be making noise. If I had the gift of prophecy and knew all about what is going to happen in the future, knew everything about EVERYTHING, but didn't love others, what good would it do? Even if I had the gift of faith so that I could speak to a mountain and make it move, I would still be worth nothing at all without love. If I gave everything I have to poor people, and if I were burned alive for preaching the Gospel but didn't love others, it would be of no value whatever.

Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong. It is never glad about injustice, but rejoices whenever truth wins out. If you love someone you will be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You will always believe him, always expect the best of him, always stand your ground in defending him.

(I Cor. 13:1-7) LIVING BIBLE

Dear friends, let us love another, because love is from God. Everyone who loves is a child of God and knows God, but the unloving know nothing of God. For God is love; and His love was disclosed to us in this, that He sent His only Son into the world to bring us life. (I John 4: 7-9)

Save me, God!

The water is up to my neck;
I am sinking in deep mud
and there is no solid ground;
I am out in deep water,
and the waves are about to drown me.
I am worn out from calling for help,
and my throat is aching;
my eyes are strained
from looking for your help.
Those who hate me for no reason are more numerous than the hairs on my head.
Those who lie about why they are my enemies are strong and want to kill me.

But as for me, I will pray to you, Lord;
answer me, God, at a time you choose,
because of your great love,
because you keep your promise to save.
Save me from sinking in the mud;
keep me safe from my enemies,
and from deep water.
Don't let the flood come over me;
don't let me drown in the depths,
or sink into the grave.
Answer me, Lord, in the goodness of your constant love,
in your great compassion, turn to me!
Don't hide yourself from your servant;
I am in great trouble—answer me now.

I will praise God with a song
I will proclaim His greatness by giving Him thanks.

(Psalm 69: 1-4, 13-17, 30)

Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!
(Psalm 133:1)

“For the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot should say, (Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,) that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear should say, ‘Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,’ that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? But as it is, God arranged the organs in the body, each one of them, as He chose. If all were a single organ, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I have no need of you.’ or again the head to the feet, ‘I have no need of you.’ On the contrary, the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those parts of the body which we think less honorable we invest with the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so adjusted the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior part, that there may be no discord in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.”

(I Cor. 12: 14-27)

May it be so!
