

"I'd like to know
what this whole
show is about
before its out."

—Piet Hein

THE DANIAN

The road to wisdom? — well, it's plain and simple to express:

Err
and err
and err again
but less
and less
and less.

THE DANIAN 1974 Dana College
Blair, Nebraska

Coexistence
or no
existence.

Living is a thing you do
now or never —
which do you?

Knowing what thou knowest not is in a sense omniscience.

As eternity is reckoned there's a lifetime in a second.

Nobody can be lucky all the time;
so when your luck deserts you in some fashion don't think you've been abandoned in your prime,
but rather that you're saving up your ration.

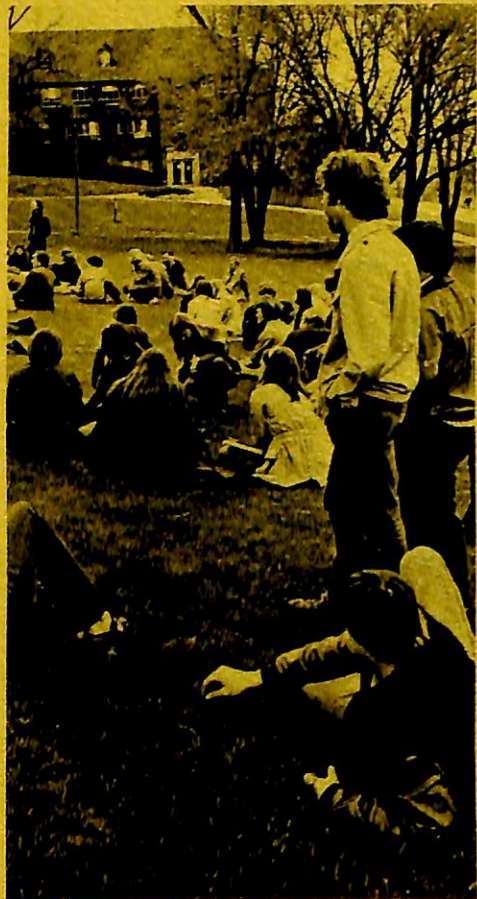

Man's a kind
of Missing Link,
fondly thinking
he can think.

Sure, money's all wrong,
and the Devil decreed it!
It doesn't belong
to the people who need it.

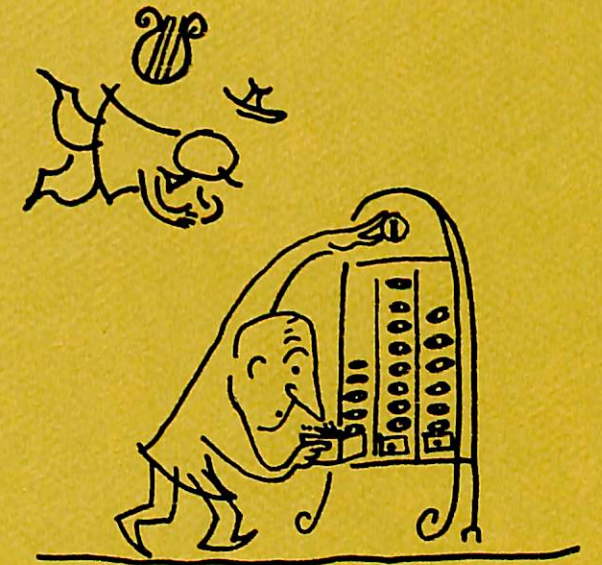

He that lets
the small things bind him leaves the great
undone behind him.

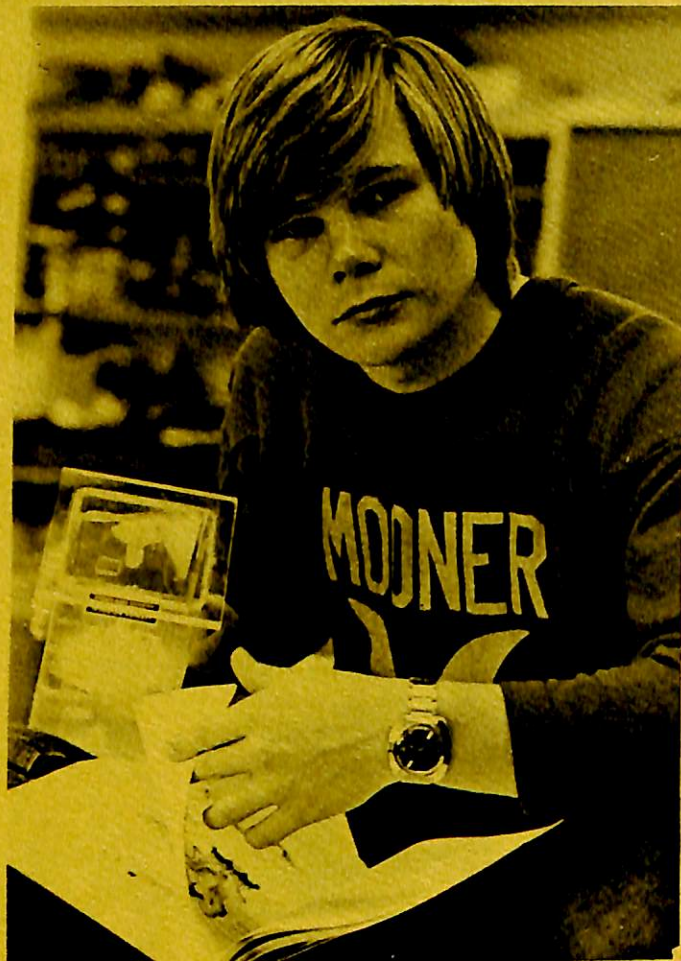

You'll probably find that it suits your book to be a bit cleverer than you look.

Observe that the easiest method by far is to look a bit stupider than you are.

Yes, life is a gamble; but isn't it mean that you're never the one to win it, when the thing is coin-in-the-slot machine, and you did put a shirt-button in.

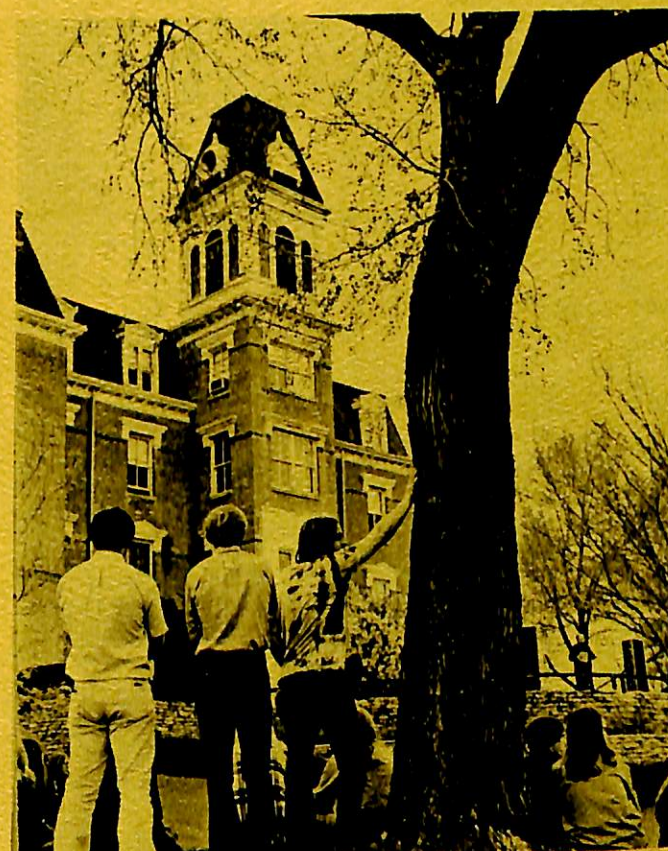

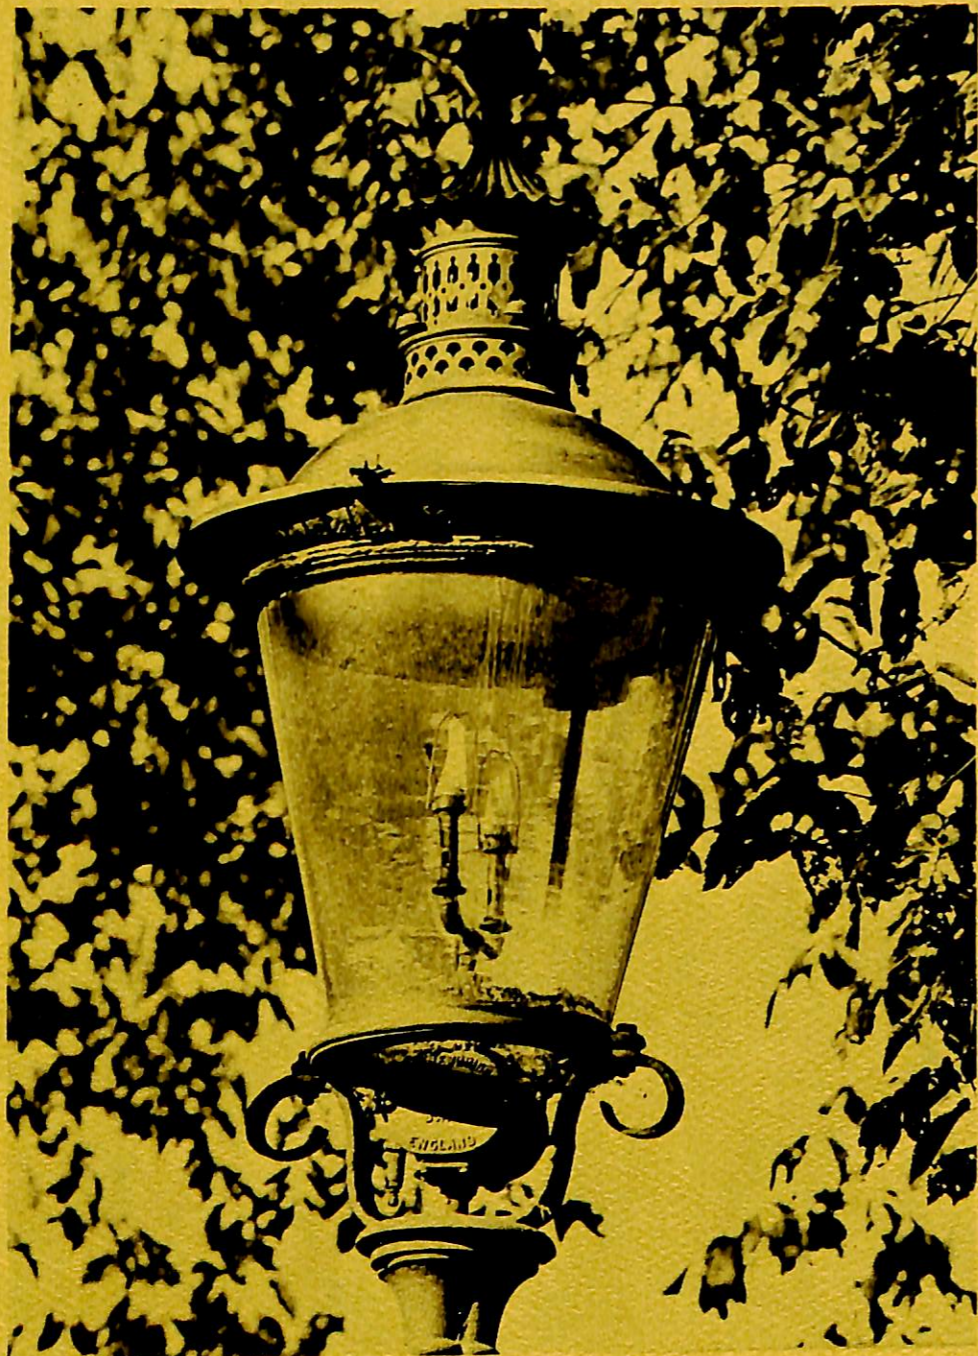

Sometimes, exhausted
with toil and endeavor,
I wish I could sleep
for ever and ever;
but then this reflection
my longing allays:
I shall be doing it
one of these days.

To keep an
ever-open door
is wisdom's true advancer;
so they're fools
who don't ask more than ten wise men can answer.

If you knew
what you will know
when your candle
has burnt low,
it would greatly
ease your plight
while your candle
still burns bright.

If we want Peace,
the things we must
accomplish
to preserve it
are, first,
to win each other's trust;
and, second,
to deserve it.

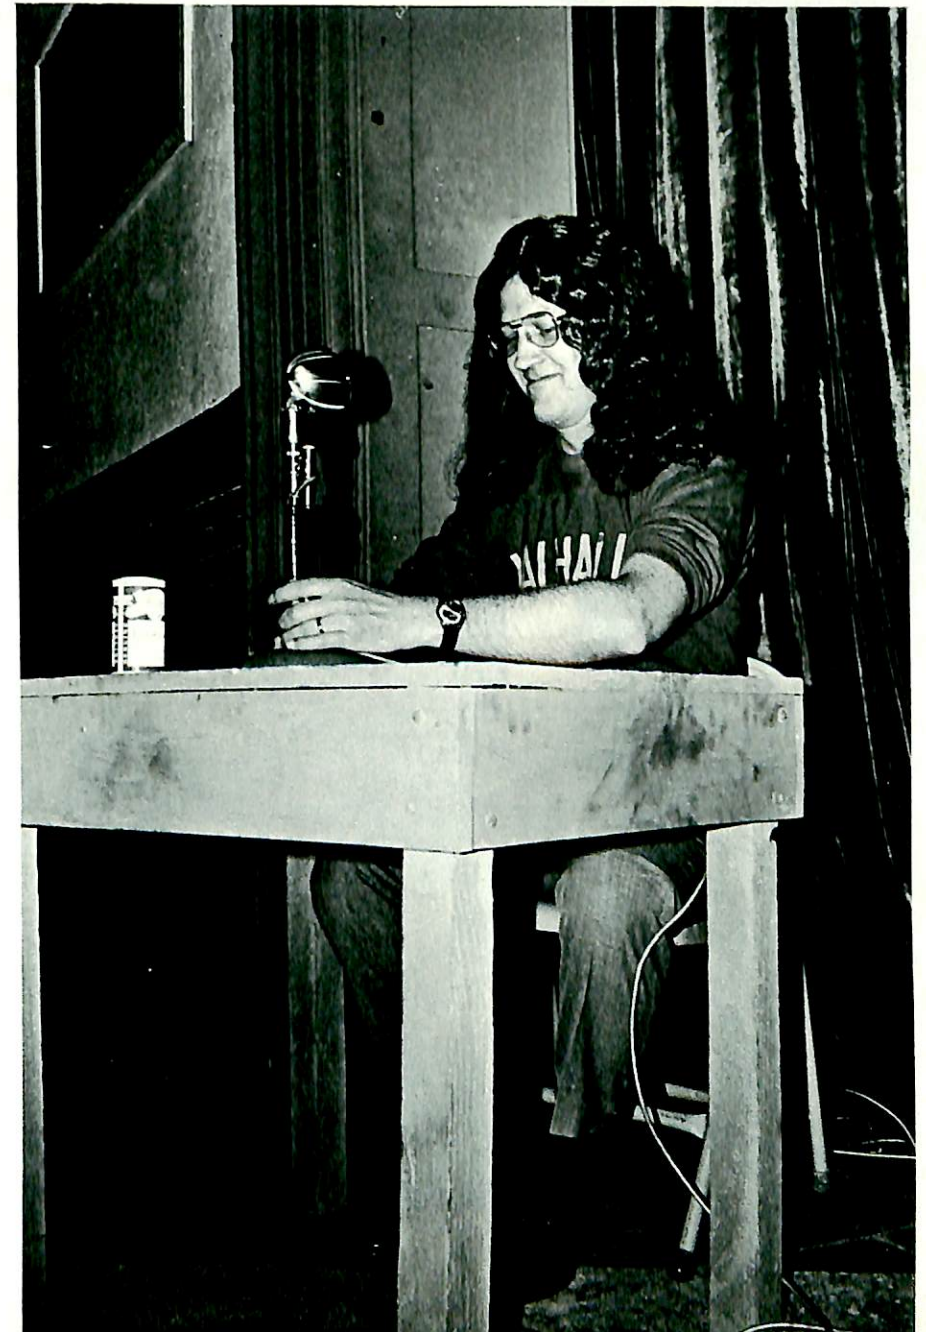

Love is like
a pineapple
sweet and undefineable.
