

So, what about Argo Hall?

It is the oldest dorm on campus. It is liked for its spacious rooms and wood-en floors. The people in Argo are very fun-loving. Granted, we are all girls, but living alone doesn't necessarily imply that we do things without members of the opposite sex! No siree!! Did I mention that we are fun-loving? During homecoming we sponsored a tuck-in, where one night, members of our hall council and those from other halls went around campus to read people be-time stories and tuck them in — and find out what many people look like in their nighties! Right before second semester started, we again hosted a campus activity. This time it was a Clash Bash dance, where everyone who attended was to wear clothes that clashed to help start the semester with a bash! Many of the students who came wore real interesting clothing combinations! (Where did you get those outfits? Can I borrow one sometime?) During second semester certain Argo residents, who shall remain nameless, got a little wild! (Maybe it was because some of them were finally through with student-teaching and could let all of their bottled-up energy out!!!) These Argo residents ran around campus in their swimming suits-at night-in 40 degree weather! Now how crazy is that? These girls also had a birthday party for one of them! What a wild night! Also during second semester, our Hall Director and R.A.'s planned an "Un-birthday party" for all of us. They had our parents send us "un-birthday" presents. As the presents were passed out, we were to tell about a memorable birthday that we each had had. When we had finished up with that, we all had "un-birthday" cake and ice cream. That made for a special evening — and a nice study break!

So, as you can see, we really do have a lot of fun here in Argo! There are some people that we would like to thank for helping to make Argo what it is (a fun place to live in)! Our Hall Council: Kris Reinart (president), Jeralyn Holling (secretary), and Michelle Krenke (treasurer); our R.A.'s: Joyce Brockmeier, Ann Burgard, Angie Johnson, and Laurie Nielsen; and our Hall Director, Wendy Nilson.
