New And Improved

There's a different feeling in the air at Dana College this year. New faces and strong school spirit give Dana an underlying feeling of excitement. Could this feeling of excitement have evolved from a New and Improved Dana? Well . . . enrollment is up, an exciting improvement. The interior of Borup received a face-lift and the football field a new scoreboard, these are just the beginning of the New and Improved Dana. The dorms are improved with new candy machines and microwaves, the student center with a computer that advertises daily happenings, and the food service with a computer for meal records. Excitement runs especially high through the individuals and teams who have improved in the area of sports. Excited faculty and staff members, a new dean, an excited president, the dedication of the Tower of the Four Winds all add to this feeling of the New and Improved. But, most of all, the excitement comes from the students—the people who make Dana tick through their spirit, support, and actions; and have made this college what it should be in this year of 1987-88 — NEW and IMPROVED!

Dana's New Dean

Dr. Kathleen O'Connor arrived on Dana campus in July, 1987, to start her new position as Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean. Dr. O'Connor came to Dana from Pacific Lutheran University in Washington where she was a chairperson to the sociology department. She has helped the sociology department to complete the process for accreditation, and the social work program was accredited in the fall of '87. She would like to see growth in internships for students in the Blair area, an increase in resources for faculty, and the fulfillment of doctorates for faculty who have not received their Ph.D.s. Dr. O'Connor has 'dug in her heels' to meet the needs for everyone on the Dana campus.

Social Work Program Accredited

During the fall of 1987, Dana's social work program received full accreditation by the Council for Social Work Education in Washington, D.C. Social work majors could now be given advanced standing in many graduate schools. It, also, helps graduates in finding jobs. The case for accreditation was presented by Jan Potter, Richard Potter, Ruth Sather, and Dr. Kathleen O'Connor. congratulations go out to these people who spent many hours working for this honor. It is work like this that makes Dana what it is and a place to be proud of.

At Dana, Your Future's So Bright, You'll Need Sunglasses!

This catchy phrase, the main theme for Dana's new promotional campaign, was launched during the fall of '87'. The campaign aimed at providing greater identity to Dana as a four-year liberal arts college in Blair. The campaign was a result of two surveys. Both surveys showed that Dana was known of by parents and churches, but was not recognized as much by high school-age youth. The results of the campaign had brought back exceptional responses and had exceeded all expectations. Meanwhile, back on the Dana campus, you can find students wearing their Dana sunglasses because the future is very bright, indeed!

A Bright Future

"Hall life at Dana College can be very interesting at times. When you want to study in your room, the hall is full of activity, fun, music, and noise — which is great, but, since, you are trying to study, this may distract you from getting your A, but then on the other hand, when you have no homework then there is nothing to do on the floor. This is a sarcastic view, overall, I love the hall life, but at times I could use some time to be alone."

Yes, our R.A.'s and Hall Directors are the iron hands of the dorm halls. They strive to keep the justice, peace, and order for weeks on end. But, besides this, they're the ears for anyone who wants to talk and the sources for advice/help. The R.A.'s and Directors are the best that we could ask for.

Positive Points From The Coach

The 1987 Dana College Vikings football team was ranked fourteenth Nationally and played second ranked Baker University a very close game in the National play-offs, losing 37 to 35. The team can be known as the All-time best football team in the history of Dana College. They proved they can play with the best in the country in the NAIA Division II. Dana's football team had the type of unselfish, dedicated, and determined young men that makes a winning team. Several individuals were selected to All-Conference, All-District, and All-American teams. This team had talent, were exciting to watch and never gave up. The seniors on this 1987 football team will long be remembered by Dana athletic followers.

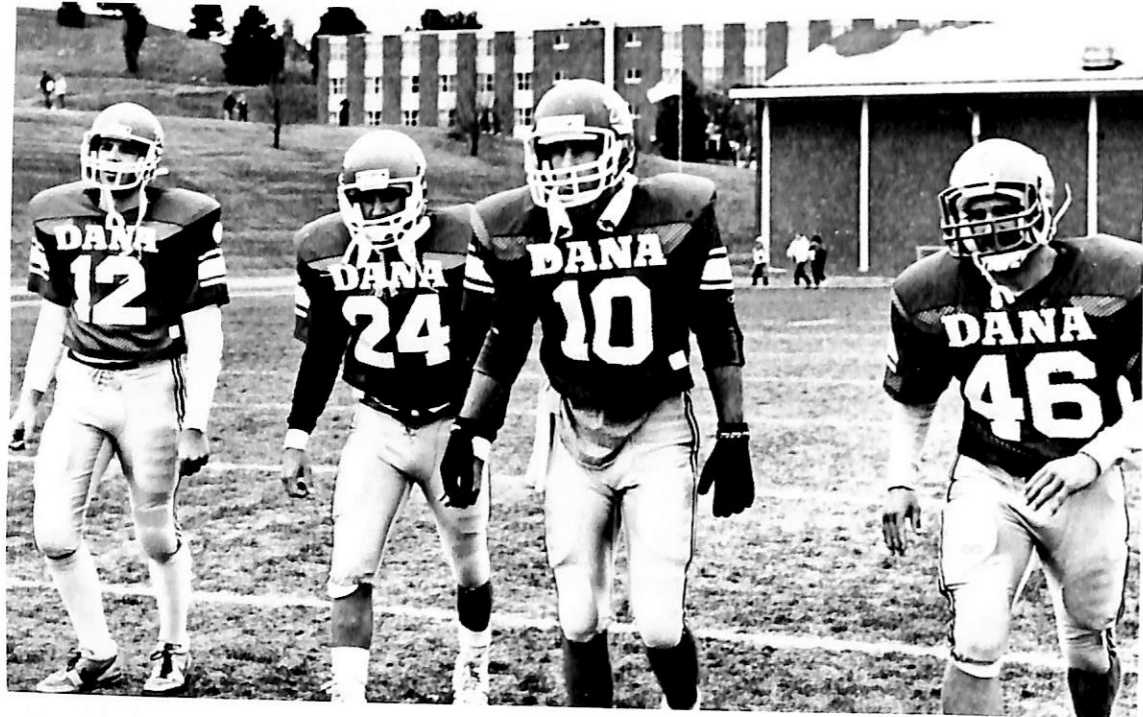

Coach McKillip was raised in McCook, Nebraska and attended Notre Dame University. He was a part of their National Championship team in 1949. He began his coaching career in Kimball Nebraska and then a year later he went to Idaho State University. He was head football coach there for fifteen years, then moved on to St. Mary's College in California. After four years, he went to Edmonton to coach in the CFL and then on to the Washington Federals in the USFL for two years. He has coached one year in high school, twenty two years in college and eleven years in professional football.

Women Take Conference Crown

A New And Improved Volleyball Team Goes To The Top

What a year! The Lady Vikes had a tremendous year according to Coach Kathy Foley. The Vikes finished 34-12 overall and had a record of 8-2 in the Conference. The team had set a goal. They were striving for the NIAC championship and they felt this was the year to do it. The team made it to the district playoffs but fell short, losing in the first round. Coach Foley still felt this was the best team Dana has ever had. Three players gained recognition for their talent and effort. Amy Nissen was named Conference Player of the Year. Laurie Christensen was named to All Conference and Patti Stevenson received Honorable Mention. Laurie was also named Academic All-American.

Lady Vikes Shoot For Victory

The 1987-88 women's basketball team faced a big challenge this year as their roster was filled with 10 freshmen and 13 total athletes. The young Viking team competed well throughout the year and showed much promise for the future. The highlight of the year was an upset victory over league leading Midland in February. "In this game our younger players really showed what they will be able to do on a more consistent basis in the future."

The vikings were led in scoring by Freshmen Lori McMullen with 263 points (10.5 per game). Assists with 73 (3.04 per game), Steals with 53 (2.2 per game), and Free Throw percentage with 70.0% (49-70). Heidi Jacobsen led the team in rebounding with 161 (7.0 per game). Shelley Edwards led the team in Field Goal percentage with 41.3% (31-75).

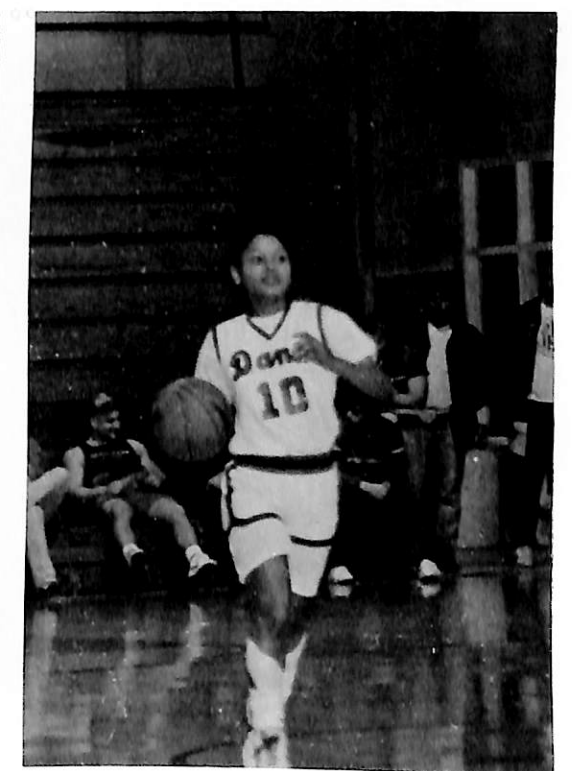

Lori McMullen was named to the 2nd team All-Conference, Honorable Mention All-District, and was selected for the District All-Star Game.

One might ask, "What more can such an unbelievable, stupendous, dazzling, noble, brave, honest, and modest organization do than they have done in the past?" Alot!, when you are asking this question about Dana College's Student Senate.

This year has been a building year for the Senate. Second semester of last year started it off and that start has continued on into this year. A major building block was that the Senate finally found a home in the Campus Center, where they are more visible to the Student Body.

The Senate helps fund organizations on campus and tries to keep the communication lines open between the administration and the students.

The Senate continues with many old traditions but has started many worthwhile new ones.

SAB Hosts Many Performers

The Student Activities Board many activities such as movies, dances and entertainers throughout 1987-88. The student body enjoyed a great variety of performances. President Jae Tharp and members of SAB put a lot of work into these activities.

Many entertainers from comedians to musical artists were on campus during the year: Scott Jones, music and comedy; Edward Jackman, musical artist; Jill Holly, vocalist and performer; Electric Zoot Suit, and Jim Barber, unique comedy.

Read All About It! Student Publications

Many changes took place in the publications department during 1987-88. Lack of interest and/or dedication seemed to be a problem for the publications getting people to join the staffs. The people who were recruited to put these publications out were very dedicated, and they did their best job that they could in getting their publications out for the student body. All three of the publications received new editors: Sower, Amy Thomas; newspaper, Jeff Probasco; and the Danian, Kellee Siemers. One of the goals for the next year is to make the production of these three publications into a class for credit. Hopefully, this will create interest and larger staffs. A whole lot of work goes into these publications, and the people who put their time into making these publications should be proud.

Dana College Choir

The Favorite Musical Group Of Presidential Candidate, Senator Paul Simon

This year's Dana Choir began, not in September, but in May with a highly successful tour of California and Oregon. The ensemble flew to San Diego the day after Commencement and sang their way through Los Angeles and San Francisco into northern California and concluded a ten concert, ten-day tour with high spirits and rave reviews! The Dana Choir has also brought great attention to itself through the thoughtful praise of Presidential Candidate Senator Paul Simon who stated publicly that the ensemble is his personal favorite. Both the printed and the television media followed up on these comments, providing the choir with its time in print and on the air. Both the Dana Choir and the selected ensemble "The New Day" continue to exemplify the ideals of musical excellence with important and prestigious performances both on and off campus.

The Dana Band: Instrumental Harmony Created By Old And New Members

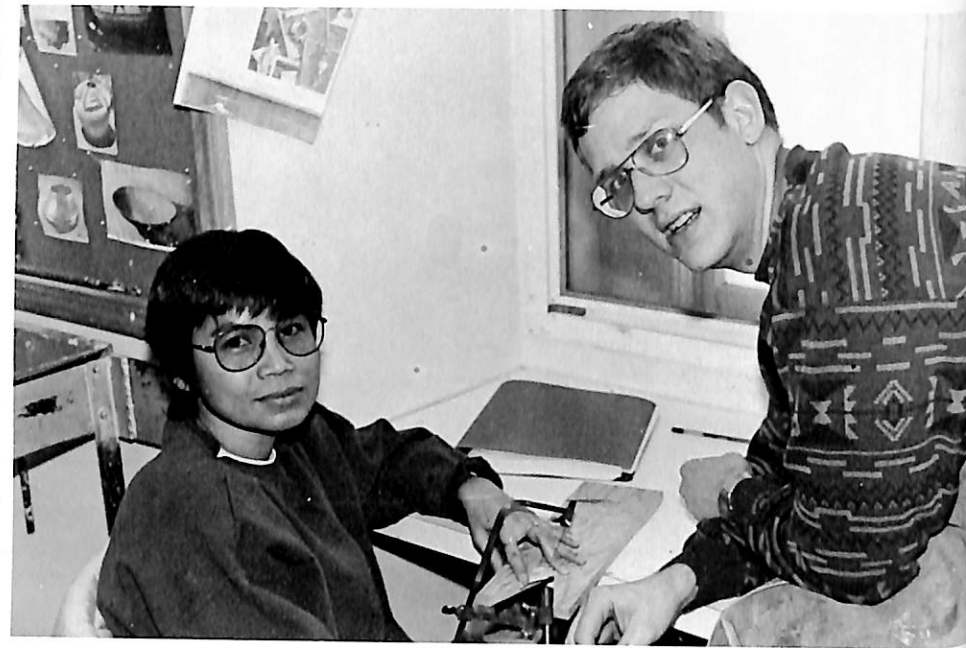

The Dana Band performed many wonderful concerts throughout the school year. The band played a most beautiful selection of music at the big event of the day at the Sights & Sounds of X-Mas, which drew close to 5000 people.

The Fusion Of The New Art Guild

The representational, the nonrepresentational, the conscious, the subconscious, the dreams, the hopes, the fears---fuse all of these together and what do you get? An EXPLOSION of creativity. You can find this creativity in many of the different forms of art made by the students of the newly founded art guild. The founders of the art guild were Nathan Kramer and Napawan Harold. The purpose of the guild is to bring artists together. Most art ideas and designs are created individually by the artist, as a result, many artists become isolated from new ideas. The art guild's purpose is to get the artists to share ideas — to fuse and create new ideas. The art guild held an overnight party in October of '87' to get the artists together for a project for the Linden Room in the Campus Center. The result was a fusion of creativity from each artist. The art guild has gotten a lot of positive results and is off to an excellent start.

Dana's Professional Organizations Prepare Students For The Work World

Student Educators Association (SEA), ARS Medica, KDCV Radio, Society for the Advancement of Management (SAM), and the Association of Future Accountants are all Professional Organizations on Dana campus. These organizations provide programs, speakers related to the field, and some hands on experience for their members.

Organizations like KDCV Radio offer their members practical experience in such things as public speaking and some programming. Each organization has something unique to offer to its members and also provides an opportunity for socialization.

Foolish Vision

Foolish Vision is the Dana College clown troop. Formerly under the name of Clown White, the troop has undergone some structural and leadership changes, which spurred the name change. The intent of the group is to help spread the word of God in a new & foolish way. The troop performs worship services, skits, and leads workshops for area churches and social groups. Faculty sponsors are Pastor Linda Walz and Sieghard Krueger.

BACCHUS

Front: Cathy Keck & Karla Jensen. Back: Kendrick White & Chris Keck. Absent: Cari Albus & Becca Brabec.

It began as an idea . . . an idea conceived in the warmth of the Oregon sun and within the confines of a thirty-five hour bus ride. The idea grew into reality and now BACCHUS serves as Dana's first Alcohol Awareness program. It was a birth, it was a breakthrough, and it was bold. BACCHUS stands for Boosting Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University Students. Instigated through Dana's Student Services Office, Karla Jensen and Cathy Keck participated in a week long national safety convention in Canby, Oregon. The objectives that BACCHUS adopted for Dana do not deal in disciplinary measures. Instead, BACCHUS concentrates on alcohol responsibility.

Campus Ministry Organization-

Front: Tina Zayat, Noelle Miller, Lisa Beck & Karla Jensen. Back: Kipp Harris, Betty Hernes, Arvin Hernes, & Pastor Linda Walz.

Campus Ministry Organization is a newly formed organization. The purpose of CMO is to meet the campus' needs spiritually. Dana has gone through some transformation, as far as the campus congregation. Last spring it was decided not to have worship on Sundays, to hire a new campus pastor, and to try to get our feet back on the ground. The organization meets once a month to discuss the upcoming events in the Dana community. The committees listed make up CMO: worship and music, concerns, publicity, special events, and others of necessity. It is anticipated that the organization will change according to the needs which are expected to be served.

Homecoming 1987

Homecoming 1987, October 9-11, had many reunions and traditional activities for the alumni, and the current Dana students were celebrating the tradition also.

One of the first events that took place was the decorating of the dorms. Each floor decorated their hall to add to the spirit. Friday night was the pep rally boasting the second annual Dana Dating Game, and also, a male cheerleader contest. Saturday brought cold, cloudy weather and a Dana football victory over Hastings with a score of 16 to 14. Halftime brought coronation and the crowning of Queen Amy Nissen and King Steve Krieg. "A Dana Victory is as Plain as Black and White" was the theme for the dance. A jungle of black and white balloons filled the dance floor where students danced to the band Great Nation. On a cold but sunny Sunday morning a hot air balloon race for the first time in 3 years was launched from the oval. An impressive sight to end an impressive Homecoming.

Sights And Sounds

Sights and Sounds of Christmas, Dana's annual celebration of the season, marked it's 15th annual year. Every year, students and professors alike busily work to carry on the tradition of this annual institution. This year was no different. Highlights of the day were The Dana Players' "The Business of Good Government", The Band and Choir Concert, The Smorgasbord, and The Dances of Scandinavia by the Danish Dancers, just to name a few of the activities going on during the day. Some new additions to the festivities were the Christmas tree on top of Old Main and J.B. and Co. from AFM gave a new twist to the Smorgasbord. The tradition and hardwork will continue with number 16.

Dana Drama Has No Rivals

Well actually the Dana Players had rivals this year, that is they performed "The Rivals" with a lot of fresh new faces. Freshman Christa Johnson stepped into the role of Lydia one week before curtain, as Emily Kurth was unable to perform. Mark Olsen also returned in R.B.

Sheridan's romantic comedy about a young man who leads two lives in an attempt to woo the woman he loves. Jae Tharp as Mrs. Malaprop and Peter Sierant as Sir Anthony also provided many humorous moments by showing us how some things, like parents, don't change with time.

Faulkland (Mark Smeby) becomes highly upset at hearing that his mistress has been so merry in his absence, while Jack (Olsen) stares in disbelief.

Finally the two rivals square off in a dual for the hand of the lovely Miss Lydia Languish.

Sir Anthony (Peter Sierant) ogles the specious features of Mrs. Malaprop (Jae Tharp) (top), while Capt. Jack Absolute (Mark Olsen) berates Fag (Thom Morrow) (above).

Mark Smeby as Faulkland dreams of his true love, Julia.

Bob Acres (Gary Korisko) shows off his new curls which have been in training some time.

Lydia dictates instructions to her hand-maid Lucy (Kirsten Christopherson).

If you explored Dana in the school year of 1987-88, you found some things improved and some things new. It was a great year for the areas of academics, sports, and the college as a whole. Many thanks should go to a faculty and staff for making Dana what it is and always striving to make it better. But, thanks should, also, go to the students for making Dana a fun place to live, a place to make friends, and a college to be proud of.

Dana is a "World Above Everyone Else," just as the hot air balloon is when it has climbed thousands of feet into the air.

Special thanks go to these people for helping me out on the yearbook: Richie Prosch for doing the cover artwork, Mr. Heinrich for getting the yearbook off the ground at the beginning of the year and for all the advice, Mr. Fullerton for all the time and help in keeping the staff going, Mark Olsen for doing almost all of the photography work, Mark Weber for helping out with photography when we were in a bind, Rocki Vance for doing some late night typing; and most of all, I'd like to thank all the staff members, the ones who knew what to do and the ones who knew not a thing but jumped right in. I couldn't have asked for a better staff, thank you!
