

War of 1864 Veterans
American Immigrants
List from 1916, marking the 50th Anniversary

Note: I think the list is from the pension office. This assumption is based on the fact I know Lars Pedersen received a pension from Denmark because he had been a war veteran (see "My Early Years" by Sigurd D. Petersen in box SPE-998) and his address is the bank in Kenmare, North Dakota.

Chapter II

Someone in our family, I think it was Alvin, has traced the Petersen side of our family back to the beginning of the nineteenth century. My great-grandfather on my father's side had the name Peter Petersen (perhaps Pedersen). So also my great-grandfather on mother's side of the family. My paternal grandfather, 1839-1925, married Mary Sorensen, 1837-1908. To this union seven children were born -- two of which immigrated to America -- my father, Peter, and Eiler. My father was born in 1865. He came to the United States in 1886 to escape being drafted into the king's army.

All the great-grandparents and grandparents are listed as farmers. They may have been farm workers. I doubt that any of them were land owners. My grandfather, Lars Pedersen, once contracted to build a road and went broke on the job. He hired men to move the dirt in wheelbarrows. His bid on the job was too low. So, if you have wondered why I never was a financial wizard, there you have the reason. It runs in the family -- or could it be I chose the wrong profession?

In the year 1914, or 1915, we learned that Grandfather Lars found it necessary, at the age of seventy-five, to go to work again. None of his children in Denmark seemed able to give him a home. Father resented the idea, so he sent him a ticket to come to us in America and to make his home with us. It seems to me the ticket cost $200. Just for the record: Grandfather got a yearly veteran's pension from the Danish government. He was in the ill-fated army of Denmark that lost a war to Germany in 1864 and the two southern provinces of Schleswig and Holstein. The pension was 100 Kroner, about $20 in American money. How he spent that money taxes my imagination. He didn't smoke, nor chew, nor drink. His wooden shoes never wore out. Nor did his Sunday shoes. Father bought him one suit of clothes and other necessary apparel. The clothes of heavy woolen material he did bring was made to last. What seemed odd to us boys was that where we males now have zippers in our pants, he had a bib-like affair buttoned on both sides and folded down in front when necessity demanded.

Grandfather lived with us until 1928, having moved with our family from North Dakota to Wyoming and again to Hutchinson, Minnesota.

He was a delight to have in our home. He was a little critical of the piano father bought, and voiced his objections in regard to the war songs we sang during World War I. It seems that he was a freight hauler during the War of 1864, that he had fallen off a wagon breaking a leg. Subsequently he found himself in a hospital ward with battle wounded soldiers. That experience he had never forgotten, and the war songs brought back to him all the misery he had seen. So out of respect for his wishes we did not sing war songs -- at least not the ones the melodies of which he knew.

Grandfather never criticized mother. He was very solicitous of her. He was a deeply religious man. A story once appeared in a Danish paper about an experience he had on his way to a "missionmode" -- evangelistic meeting. It seemed he had no money for the offering and was communing with God as he walked along the road. At that moment a bird blew into his arms. He sold the Da man i Danmark højtideligholdt 50-Aaret for Krigen i 64, glemte man ikke de gamle Veteraner. Fra By og Land drog 64-Krigrerne til Hovedstaden og fejredes med en mægtig Hyldest af et paaskønnende Folk. Undertonen i Festen var at glæde de gamle. Slægten, som nu sidder i Sadlen, gjorde Honnør ved Banketterne, og Ungdommen ofrede sine Sange og Blomster, medens man officielt ved en Regeringsforanstaltning proklamerede med officielle Ord, der frit oversat kunde lyde saaledes:

Krigere fra 64! Herefter skal, saa længe I lever, Fædrelandet hædre Eder med en årlig Gave. I er Landets Hædersbataillon og bærer fremtidig Distinktioner!

Og i en Dagsbefaling bestemtes, at alle Underbefalingsmænd og Menige af Hær og Flaade herefter aflægger Militærhonnør for enhver, hvis Bryst smykes af Erindringsmedaillen fra 1864.

De fjorten Hundrede danske 64-Veteraner, som bor i de Forenede Stater, var ikke med til Festen. Men hvert Aar kommer Hædersgaven til hver af dem — Danmarks Hædersgave i den store Konvolut med det røde Segl. Hvor langt borte de end er, og hvor glemte mange af dem maaske har troet at være — Hædersgaven siger: "Ryg dig en god Cigar hver Dag i Aaret, Kammerat — dit Fædreland!" Eller: "Til Lykke, gamle Ven; forsmå ikke denne lille Erindring fra dine Landsmænd i Danmark!" Det føles som en ekstra Fødselsdag.

Men de fjorten Hundrede af Hædersbataillon herovre var ikke med til Festen i København; til Gengæld holdt Landsmænd Fester for dem paa saadanne Steder, hvor man kunde samle dem i Smaaklynger. Og saa kom man paa den Tanke at skrive til det danske Finansministerium om en Fortegnelse over deres Navne og Adresser. Konsul Bøggild "trykkede paa den hemmelige Knap i Chatollet," og Ministeriet gik i Gang med at gennemgaa den vældige Fortegnelse over hele Hædersbataillon og udskille dem, der bor i Amerika. De kom saa paa en særlig Fortegnelse, der sendtes herover, for at vi Danske i Amerika kunde vide, hvem de er, og hvor de bor — og maaske gøre lidt ekstra Stads af dem. Og kom de altsaa ikke i Kongens Have, saa kommer de nu i Almanakken.

Ja, hvor de bor, er der danske Foreninger, som hvert Aar ser de gamle amerikanske Veteraner møde den 30.
 Maj og ser de amerikanske Medborgere fejre paa festlig Vis deres Veteraner i Minde om Strabadserne for Fædrelandets Sag i Ungdommens Dage. De-res Minder er knyttet til en Borgerkrig;
 vore gamle Soldater kæmpede for vor Nation. Hine stod Broder mod Broder; vore stod Danske mod Tyske.

Skulde vi ikke een Gang om Aaret paa festlig Vis mødes i de danske Foreninger med vore egne Veteraner og sige dem Tak!

ET MEDLEM AF HELGA NO. 3.

1864

Det bedste Aar i mit Liv,
 det Aar, der af alle duede, —
 mit Land, mit Hjem, min Viv, som Fjendens Voldsdaad truede.

Hvad den Gang kom som en Gnist
 og tændte min Hu til Striden,
 har formet min Tro forvist
 og holdt mig i Harnisk siden.

Thi derfra stammer mit Had til Voldsmands Færd mod den svage;
 og derfra regner jeg glad mit Hjems lykkeligste Dage.

Den Tro blev tændt i mit Liv,
 som ikke jeg forhen vidste:
 Sit Land, sit Hjem og sin Viv
 kæmper man for til det sidste.
