THANKS: A sincere thank you to all who sent Christmas greetings during rhis season and ro those who included stamps for my collection.

GREETINGS: After a wonderful Christmas we carry its richness and meaning with us into the New Year. May this be your experience too.

GUESTS: During the past months Birgit Flemming Larsen of the Danish Worldwide Archive in Aalborg and Karsten Michaelsen from the Odense City Museums have both spent a week in the Archive. Everyone benefited from this encounter.

EXPANSION: In January we move into a recently carpeted area east of the Nielsen Room. This will provide needed office and storage space for Lur Publications. Ruth Rasmussen who handles orders, sales and shipping and Harold Wright who keeps the financial records will use the office. The storage area will offer shelving space for our published books. We thank Dana College and the library staff for making this expansion possible.

UNPLEASANT REMINDER: Unless you were an archive volunteer during 2000 or made a contribution of material or money during the year, this will be your last mailing of "Jottings." Hoping to hear from some of you during January and Februsry. We don't want to lose you.

ENDOWMENT Your response to building an archive endowment has been launeched in an impressive way. A good start, however, does not guarantee a successful conclusion. Thanks is deserved even as the challenge continues. Perhaps you can help locate possible donors.

OUR LAST FRONTIERS: After inadvertant delays, Our Last Frontiers is off the press. Join Borge and Lotte Christensen as they travel around the world. Through February the book which sells for $22.50 plus postage will be available to "Jottings" readers for $15.00 postage included.

CONTINUITY: Gazing down from the archive walls are Videbeck's portraits of A.M. Andersen, P.S. Vig, Kristen Anker and G.B. Christiansen, patriarchs of the UELC. In November three archive volunteers (Joan Jensen, Ron Vig, and Ninna Engskow) were photographed beneath their respective grandfathers' portraits. How is that for continuity through the years!
