VOLUNTEER WEEK: October 15-19, the week after Dana's Homecoming, are the dates for the autumn archive volunteer week. Campus housing has all been filled so if you plan on coming and have not informed Dody Johnson of your intentions, you will have to make your own housing arrangements. Those of you who are staying with friends and have not notified Dody, please drop me a line so I know how much work to lineup. Two special events await you this year. On Saturday morning of Homecoming, there will be a Lur Publications presentation in which Inga Larsen and Edward Hansen will be participants, discussing their role in translating Danske i Amerika. On Tuesday evening Dorys Grover who has contributed her rich collection of letters and manuscripts of Sophus Keith Winther will speak on Winther as an author focusing on his Take All To Nebraska. Looking forward to seeing you.

DANEBOD FOLK SCHOOL: Negotiations are in process whereby The Danish Immigrant Archive may become the repository for archival material from Danebod Folk School at Tyler, Minnesota. This would be a valuable addition to our collection, and it would assure them of a site that would be properly housed and open to researchers.

SIGNS OF SUCCESS: I hope that you peruse the following pages and note the large number of archive visitors as well as the many people who use the archive for personal and scholarly purposes. They, together with the many generous donors of material, are important indicators of the success of the archive.

NEW LIBRARY DIRECTOR: Mr. Buz Wehrman has been appointed as the new library director. We are pleased with the appointment because in Mr. Wehrman we have a strong supporter of the archive. Volunteers will meet him in October.

SYMPATHY: Our sympathy is extended to Ruth Herman Nielsen of Omaha who collapsed while in Kansas City and is now in the Montclair Nursing and Rēhabilitation Center, Room 300, 2525 S. 135th Ave., Omaha, NE 68144. I know cards would be appreciated.

m LUR}\colon$ A lightning strike at MicroSmart and certain computer problems are causing a delay in issuing Danes in America. We do anticipate a release before homecoming.
