

P. S. VIG AND THE DANES IN AMERICA

Peder Sørensen Vig was born into a poor farm family near Egtved, Denmark in 1854. He came to the United States in 1879 and worked a variety of jobs in Chicago. His goal since his youth was to become a Lutheran pastor.

Though he had had some schooling at Askov Folk High School (including theology) he knew it was very unlikely that he would ever attend the University of Copenhagen, where Danish pastors were educated. His chances were much better in America. He was ultimately ordained by the Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in 1885 and eventually served churches in Iowa and Wisconsin. Vig was dedicated to an ever-deepening knowledge of the Bible and the orthodox Lutheran interpretation of Christianity. He was known for his lively and thorough debates with the Seventh-day Adventists and Baptists, both of whom sought to claim Danish Americans for their congregations.

In 1894 P. S. Vig was part of a schism in the DELC that was essentially caused by differing interpretations of scripture. The issues were complex, but perhaps at the heart of the matter was the question: “Was the Bible at the center of Christian life or merely a part of Christian life?” For Vig only the former phrase could be true. Two years later this breakaway group merged with the Danish Lutherans based in Blair, Nebraska to form the United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church. Vig would become the most influential professor at the synod’s school, Trinity Seminary.

Eventually P. S. Vig acquired another scholarly love to stand with his devotion to theology and scripture. As a first-generation Danish American himself, he developed a great desire to preserve the history of these immigrants. As early as 1890 he wrote: “Fathers have fought, mothers have wept, in the building of a new home in a new land. Their history deserves preservation. The sweat and toil of the pioneers must not be forgotten.”

Peder Sørensen Vig—1910

Between 1899 and 1921 Vig wrote numerous Danish language books and shorter articles on the Danes in America. He also authored hundreds of pages in the massive two-volume Danske i Amerika, which was published in Minneapolis from 1908-1916. His works bear such titles as: Dansk Luthersk Mission i Amerika i Tiden før 1884 (Danish Lutheran Mission in America in the time before 1884); Danske i Kamp i og for Amerika (Danes in battle in and for America); Den Danske Udvandring til Amerika (The Danish emigration to America); Danske i Amerika: Nogle Blade af den danske Udvandrings historie (Danes in America: some pages of the Danish emigration story). Unfortunately most of this material has not been translated into English.

In 1921 King Christian X of Denmark made P. S. Vig a Knight of Dannebrog for his work with Danish Americans. He died in 1929. The DAAL has most of P. S. Vig’s titles on the book shelves as well as his shorter works in various publications. His papers are part of a larger extended family collection on the Vigs. ■

AROUND THE ARCHIVE

The new version of the DAAL's Digital Archive is now active at <http://archive.danishamericanarchive.net>. The content from the original version has been added and is available for viewing and searching. Some of the material needs editing and renaming, but the older version can still be used (a link is present on the front page of the new site) while that process continues.

The Digital Archive includes the 'Vig Collection' of genealogical materials covering settlers and citizens of Washington County, Nebraska, from pioneer days to the early 1970s; the P C Jensen files documenting pastors of the United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church (UDELC), later the United Evangelical Lutheran Church (UELC); a large collection of documents, video and audio files associated with Dana College; and hundreds of smaller individual, family and organization collections and well as links to additional related sites.

This version of the site also makes it possible for individuals or families/groups to directly contribute materials to the archive by uploading files remotely, thereby eliminating the need for physically bringing or sending them to the DAAL's office. A typical use of this capability would be for an individual or group of family members to upload family history documents, photos, recordings or other files into a private work area within the Digital Archive. Once organized by the persons submitting the files, DAAL personnel will move them into one of the larger collections where they can be made available to others for viewing and study.

Since it is possible to restrict the use of the materials to specific persons, groups of persons or to open them for general access by the public, persons who contribute the materials will be able request how they are to be used and who can view them. In this way, it will be possible to create small archives of family historical and genealogical information for use by other family members (or the public) in the years to come. Donors should give careful consideration to the opinions of other family members before making such decisions and should, also, be aware of the DAAL's need to guard against exposing information about living persons or other sensitive information to public view.

Please see <http://archive.danishamericanarchive.net/repository/public-articles/remote-contribution/> or contact collections@danishamericanarchive.com for further information about how the contribution process works. ■

The screenshot shows the website's interface. At the top left is the logo for the Danish American Archive & Library. A navigation menu includes Home, News, Events, Repository, Collections, Presentations, and DAAL Home. The main content area is titled 'The Danish American Archive and Library's Digital Archive' and contains an 'Introduction to the Digital Archive' section. This section includes a disclaimer: '[This site is a rebuilding of the original Digital Archive and a consolidation of other repositories within the Danish American Archive and Library. It is under construction but is open for use to the public. The original version will be accessible here.]' Below this, it states that the Collections menu provides access to larger collections. A paragraph explains that the site features digitized versions of collections for historians and genealogists. A list of featured collections follows: 'The Vig papers' (Washington County, Nebraska), 'The P C Jensen files' (pastors of the UELC), 'The archive also contains several collections related to Dana College', and 'The Repository' (access to three large collections: 'Collections In The Stacks', 'Collections - Digital Only', and 'Family Files').

FROM THE DANA ROOM

A STUDENT-FUNDED DREAM... THE SWIMMING POOL AT DANA

By Karen (Nelson) Hansen

In the time span between 1945 and the 1960s, Dana College had an impressive expansion of the campus with the renovation of Old Main, the building of Pioneer Memorial, C. A. Dana Hall of Science, Omaha Village apartments for married students, Mickelsen Hall, Holling Hall and Borup Coliseum. In 1960 a $172,000 gift was made to Dana from the estate of Christian and Maren Borup, Danish immigrants who had settled in Beresford, South Dakota and accumulated great wealth through success in agriculture.

The donation was to be used for a building at Dana, and at the family's request be named for the Borups. The gift was designated by the Trustees and Administration to be used for the construction of a physical education building, accommodating a gym, practice facilities, classrooms and offices. To the disappointment of the students, no plans were included for a swimming pool. Planners believed a new science building to be a more urgent need, and inclusion of a Borup swimming pool would not meet the monetary criteria.

Students then began discussion of a student-funded swimming pool. Led by student body president Myrv Christopherson, Student Body representatives began investigating the possibility of raising $100,000 and presented their proposal to the administration and the trustees. It was agreed if the students could raise $100,000, the pool would be included in Borup Coliseum. The question of taking on such a project was put to the student body in the form of a general election. The students voted to continue with the plan.

Following a model previously used for fundraising by Concordia Teachers College to finance their own pool, and with legal advice from attorney Reed O'Hanlon of Blair, the students formed a corporation named Dana Students Incorporated. The Student Body officers would serve as officers of the corporation. Dana Students, Inc. would borrow funds from donors, promising to repay the loans at 4% from a fund comprised of monies raised with a $7.50 assessment of each student per semester. A huge letter writing campaign was launched to approach businesses and large companies. Students returned to their hometowns throughout the country for the summer of 1960 and presented their requests for loans from family, hometown businesses, alumni and friends of Dana. Each donor was issued a promissory note for the amount of the loan agreed upon. The wheels were in motion! The headline in the January 12, 1961 Hermes shouted "Swimming Pool Drive Passes Halfway Mark!" $51,302.50 had been loaned to the students at that point. In the January 26, 1961 Hermes the headline read "Cool Blue Pool Dream to Become a Reality." By that time $65,000 had been raised. The trustees then voted to include the swimming pool in the revised plans with the stipulation that fundraising would continue to reach the remaining $35,000.

There are many legal and financial pieces which are too involved for this writing; however, some points of note were that, "the interest would accumulate from the 1st month following receipt of the money" and "it is understood that a note may run as long as 12 years." The loans were repaid as promised; however, many donors wrote the loans off as a gift which allowed swifter repayment of remaining loans. Dedication of Borup Coliseum took place on Parents' Day April 29, 1962, and it was noted the building housed a gym with seating for 2500, wrestling facilities, practice areas, offices and "A STUDENT-FUNDED SWIMMING POOL." The Hermes issue of May 3 stated "a shout of joy went up as the pool began to fill!" (continued on page 8)

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

We've enjoyed connecting with so many of you this summer! The statistics on the top of the Archive Report give you an idea of how many visitors and researchers we've talked to from all over the country and the world.

The most distant research request came from Switzerland. A high school student was doing a research paper about immigration and wanted to include some information about her great-grandfather's family. Fortunately, we had plenty of information on Rev. Immanuel Petersen who graduated from Trinity Seminary in Blair, Nebraska, and served congregations in the United Evangelical Lutheran Church (UELC).

It was a pleasure to meet members of the Danish Sisterhood Lodge #15 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin during our Zoom presentation about the institutional history of the DAAL on May 15th.

*Executive Director
Jill Hennick*

Congratulations to former DAAL intern Catrine Kyster Giery, who wrote a children's book about Danish emigration to America that has been published in Denmark.* Rejsen til New York - dengang og nu (The Journey to New York - Then and Now) is a picture book telling the parallel stories of two young Danish girls on their way to New York, one in 1900 and the other in 2024.

Thanks to Lutheran Family Services, the new owners of the Dana College Campus, for allowing us to retrieve some forgotten documents from the Dana College Library. They plan to continue cooperating with us in preserving historic Dana College materials. We, in turn, have been able to answer some of their research questions regarding the buildings and grounds. Representatives of the Archive have also toured the former Blair and Mickelsen dormitories that have been converted into apartments for children aging out of foster care.

We are constantly digitizing materials at the DAAL. This summer our scanning equipment is being used by other organizations to preserve their old records. That includes the archive of Oaks Indian Mission in Oklahoma and a Blair congregation with records going back to 1889.

Two big summer events introduced new friends to the Archive for fellowship and education.

During Dana Volunteer Days in June, twenty-six different individuals worked on Dana projects. Nine of these were new volunteers and some had never even been in the building before. They provided 170 volunteer hours! Some of them also donated materials.

On July 1st, a family reunion of 22 relatives of former Dana President P. S. Vig visited the Archive. Fortunately, Vicki Vig, wife of P. S. Vig's grandson Ron, planned activities to take place at the Archive and provided the supplies. DAAL board member John Mark Nielsen spoke to the family about P. S. Vig. Family members created family trees that included current generations, and they also sorted piles of photos into groups for each of his 15 children and their descendants. The Archive provided coffee and treats. Many family members took photos in front of the painting of P. S. Vig that hangs on the wall in our breakroom.

October is a busy month for us, and we hope to see many of you at our events.

- Saturday, October 5, 9:00 AM-11:00 AM, is our annual Kringle & Mingle. This is the same day that the Dana Alumni and Friends host Homecoming. Stop by to enjoy kringle and coffee, reminisce, and view our “Dana Fun Facts” exhibit.
- Monday, October 7 - Friday October 11 is Fall Volunteer Week. Please let us know if you can join us so we will have projects ready and work space available.
- Tuesday, October 8, 9:30 AM is our annual Meeting of Members. Voting members are those who have donated time, money or materials from January 1, 2023, through the date of the meeting.

At the Archive we’re always busy connecting with people as they visit and volunteer. We’re also busy connecting people to the past as we research in the stories, photos and historical documents being preserved at the DAAL. ■

50/100 Club

The name of the 50/100 Club was inspired by the idea that if 100 members gave $50 per month, most of our operating expenses would be met. Members sustain DAAL by giving a minimum of $600 per year (given monthly, quarterly, or yearly according to the donor's preference). Those at the Founder Level give at least $2,000 per year. An added benefit of being part of the 50/100 club is receiving one donation acknowledgment for tax purposes in January reflecting a yearly total of all donations, rather than getting a separate acknowledgment for each financial contribution. These donations are part of the General Fund.

OLD BOOK ON THE SHELF

Peter M. Hannibal published Uncle Sam's Cabin in 1910. The author was born in Denmark in 1849 and came to America in 1856 with his family. They settled in Wisconsin and then later in Nebraska. Peter was a teacher and a writer. The story takes place, for the most part, among the forests and lakes of Wisconsin, just before and then in the decades after the Civil War. The extended family, friends and foes of Uncle Sam and Aunt Minnie are at the heart of the book. The work has much to say about Christianity, patriotism, slavery, immigrants, work, and, especially, the dangers of alcohol and the "liquor trade." One could easily conclude that Hannibal's reason for writing the book was to aid in the cause of temperance. ■

Throughout the next 48 years the pool was used for recreation, PE instruction, synchronized swimming and other aquatic events. A former football player mentioned that the pool was a great place to cool off after late summer practices. (No further details will be published here.) The pool remained in use until the early 2000s when leaks were detected, and the cost of repairs became prohibitive. There was some thought that the pool could be filled in and the space used for further wrestling facilities; however, the college closed before that proposal was implemented. The special student-funded swimming pool is empty and deserted as are so many treasured places on the Dana campus, filled only with memories and gratitude. It is a reminder of the dedication, initiative and teamwork of the hundreds of students over the 126 years who loved Dana and shared her spirit far beyond that small college on The Hill. ■

In 2020, the DAAL acquired a new logo. Since that time, many of our volunteers have asked whether they could purchase shirts with the attractive design.

For a limited amount of time, an online store is open. You can see all of the available styles at daalstore.itemorder.com.

All of the shirts will be made at one time in a batch. The deadline for ordering is September 8, 2024.

Myrvin and Anne Christopherson

Myrvin F. and Anne C. (Marking) Christopherson served as President and First Lady of Dana College from 1986 to 2005. During Myrv's presidency Anne served as Coordinator of Special Events. Myrv was born in Milltown, WI in 1939 and graduated from Dana College in 1961. He received a Ph.D. from Purdue University, doing his doctoral study on Søren Kierkegaard's Dialectic of Ethical and Religious Communication. Anne was born in Holmen, WI in 1940 and received her B.A. from Luther College in 1962. She worked as Director of Young Adults at Bethel Lutheran Church in Madison, WI, where she met Myrv. They had four children: Kirsten, Berit, Bjorn and Nisse, and four grandchildren: Aleide, Espen, Else and Torben. The family lived in Madison, WI and Stevens Point, WI during the years Myrv was teaching at the University of Wisconsin from 1965 to 1986. After retirement in 2006 they moved from Blair, NE to Decorah, IA. Myrv was awarded Knight of the Order of the Dannebrog by order of Her Majesty Queen Margrethe II of Denmark in 1997 and further honored with Knight First Class in 2006.
