

Emil Krohn, 81 Services Are Today

T-3-18-65

Funeral services are being held this (Thursday) afternoon for Emil Krohn, 81, who died Monday, March 15th at Fremont. He had been hospitalized there for a number of months.

Mr. Krohn was born in Germany, March 20, 1883, and came to this county with his parents in 1889. The family settled in the west part of Washington and this area remained his home through his entire life.

Until 1946 Mr. Krohn farmed 9 miles west of Herman and at that time he retired and moved to Winslow which became his home.

He was married to Margaretha Whittman September 30th, 1914 and to this union four sons were born. He is survived by his wife, and the sons are Elmer and Orland Krohn, of Herman, Harold Krohn of Craig and Rev. Paul Krohn, of Lincoln, Nebraska.

There are nine grandchildren. Mr. Krohn was the last of a family of 8 children, 4 brothers and three sisters having preceded him in death.

Funeral services are at the Emmanuel Lutheran church of which he had been a member for many years. Burial is being made in the church cemetery.

Funeral Ser

3-17-65

Funeral services will be at 11 a. m. Monday at the N. P. Swanson Mortuary for Eyvind M. Neble, retired publisher of the Danish Pioneer weekly newspaper in Omaha.

Mr. Neble, 74, who lived at 5005 Blondo Street, became ill Wednesday and died Thursday at a local hospital of a blood clot.

Born in Omaha in 1890, he established a livestock farm at Springfield, Neb., in 1912 that was considered a rural showplace. Later he joined his father, Sophus F. Neble, a native of Denmark, in publishing the newspaper in Omaha. He took over as publisher on the death of his father in 1931, continuing in that position until retirement in 1955. The newspaper, now published in Chicago, is the country's oldest and largest Danish-American newspaper.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Olivia Neble; wife, Marie; daughter, Mrs. Albert H. Norin, and son, Eyvind S. (Bud), all of Omaha; two sisters, a brother and three grandchildren.

Burial will be at Hillcrest Memorial Park.
