

Rites For Floyd Nonnamaker To Be Thursday Afternoon

Services for Floyd Nonnamaker, of Arlington, will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 10th. The service will be at the Arlington Methodist Church with Rev. Bratton officiating.

Mr. Nonnamaker passed away at the Dodge County Hospital Annex after a lingering illness. He was 70 years old at the time of his passing on Monday, November 7.

He is survived by a brother, Clair, of Arlington; one sister, Mrs. Herman (Montez) Mueksch of Hays Springs, Nebraska; three nieces and one nephew.

Interment will be in the Arlington Cemetery with the Reckmeyer Funeral Home in charge.

He was born April 12, 1896 on a farm east of Arlington where he grew to manhood & spent his entire life with the exception of the time he served in World War I.

Pallbearers will be Wallace Widener, Glenn Rosenbaum, Don Rhea, Arthur Barton, Art Huerman, Lloyd McCann.

J. Kunneman, 74, Succumbs To Injuries

Chest Crushed in One-Car Accident Thursday Afternoon

John Kunneman, well known Washington County farmer, died Saturday of injuries which he suffered in a one-car accident on a rural Washington County road Thursday afternoon. The elderly man failed to note a corner in time and his pickup truck plunged into a ditch. He was severely injured about the chest.

Mr. Kunneman was 74 years old. He was born at Elkhorn, Nebraska December 7, 1891. All of his life was devoted to farming and he still lived on his farm in the south part of the county at the time of his death.

He had taken an active part in civic affairs and was, perhaps, best known for his leadership a number of years ago of the Washington County Taxpayers League. In recent months he has spent considerable time attempting to revive interest in a similar organization.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret and by a daughter, Ruby, who is Mrs. Donald Cain of Arlington. There are three grand children.

Also living are four brothers. They are Dietrich Kunneman, of Bennington, Fred and George Kunneman of Imperial, Nebraska and Ben Kunneman of Deshler, Nebraska.

Three sisters are Mrs. Carsten Wrich and Mrs. Chris Christensen of Kennard, and Mrs. Clara Hedges of Seldon, Missouri.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at St. John's Lutheran church with the Rev. Norman Schroeder conducting Pall bearers were Walter Wrich, Kenneth Krum, Elmer Kunneman, Dennis Witcofski and Calvin Christensen.

Chester Rosenbaum Died Last Saturday

Chester William Rosenbaum, 64-year-old Kennard man, died last Saturday, November 5th at Memorial Community Hospital. He succumbed to a long illness.

Mr. Rosenbaum was born April 17, 1902 at Kennard. He grew up in the area and turned to farming as a means of livelihood. Later he went into the trucking business.

He is survived by his wife, Dora, and by a daughter and three sons. The daughter is Mrs. John Miller (LaVonne) of Lincoln. The sons are Neil, Donavan and Bruce, all of Kennard. There are 9 grandchildren.

In addition, four brothers and six sisters survive.

The brothers are Leslie Rosenbaum, of Blair, Clyde, of Omaha, Walter of Longmont, Colorado and Merritt, of Omaha.

The sisters are: Mrs. Helena McDonald, of Fremont; Mrs. Marie Pettit, of Blair; Mrs. Herman Kruse (Frieda) of Bennington; Mrs. John Allison (Selma) of Craig, Nebraska; Mrs. Alfred Dickmeyer (Gladys) of Arlington and Mrs. Harland Gottsch (Lola) of Kennard.

Funeral services were held at the Emmaus Lutheran Church at Kennard Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Harold Laursen conducting the service. Burial, under the direction of the Bendorf Funeral Home, was made in the Kennard Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Lloyd Jacob, Harry Andreasen, Alfred S. Nielsen, Roy Rosenbaum, Glen Rosenbaum and Walter Plugge.

Death Takes Earl Burdic

Funeral services for Earl C. Burdic, 79, longtime civic leader at Norfolk, will be at 10:30 a.m. today (Thursday) at the First Congregational Church in Norfolk, Nebraska.

Mr. Burdic died Tuesday in a Norfolk hospital.

A native of Herman, Nebraska, he was associated with his father in the Plateau State Bank there before entering the real estate business at Norfolk in 1932.

Mr. Burdic is a past president of the Nebraska Realtors and the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce.

He is survived by his wife, Maude; a son, Eugene W. of Malvern, Iowa; brother, Lloyd D. of Omaha; sister, Mrs. Robert Daugherty of Omaha; three grandchildren, and four great grandchildren. Burial will be in Herman Ceme-

James Anderson Died Here Monday

James Anderson, Blair Insurance broker and real estate man, died at Memorial Community Hospital Monday at the age of 62. He had been in failing health for a number of months.

He was the son of Theodore and Julia Beck Anderson and was born in Blair July 30th, 1904. He grew to manhood on College Hill in west Blair and this area was still his home at the time of his death.

He attended the Blair schools, graduating from Blair High School in 1922. He attended Dana College, farmed for a time near Blair and then entered the abstracting business.

He was married to Violet Larson at Wausa, Nebraska in 1932 and the couple became the parents of two children, James Oliver and Julie Anne.

He purchased the interest in the real estate and abstracting business of his uncle, Ove T. Anderson and became a partner with his brother-in-law A. Clarence Vig. He also succeeded his uncle as Secretary of the Washington County Mutual Insurance Co. After Mr. Vig's death in 1956, he dropped the abstracting work and continued in the insurance and real estate business.

He is survived by his wife, Violet; son James O. and his daughter Julie Anne. There are two grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Mary Vig; a nephew Ronald S. Vig and many other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the First Lutheran church with the Rev. George Pallesen conducting the service. Burial, under the direction of the Bendorf Funeral Home was made in the Blair cemetery.