

GEORGE WULF DIED IN WYOMING

Mr. George Wulf died in Albion, Wyoming on Saturday October 28th, only two hours after the death of his brother, Columbus Wulf of Blair.

He is survived by his wife Tina, three daughters, Mrs. Patricia Beggs of Phoenix, Arizona, Mrs. Georgia Hansen and Mrs. Catherine Smith, both of Pine Bluffs, Wyoming and 12 grandchildren. Also two sisters, Mrs. Martha Schwock of Waterloo, Nebraska, Mrs. George Steinart of Omaha, and two brothers, Frank of Omaha and Paul of Kennard.

Burial was in Albion, Wyoming where he had lived for many years.

C. W. CHRISTIANSEN DIED SATURDAY EVE

C. W. Christiansen, known to many as "Slim" Christiansen, died Saturday evening at the Blair Hospital as the result of a heart attack. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Christiansen had undergone an operation several months ago and had recovered satisfactorily but had developed a heart ailment. He had suffered an attack at his home at 2033 Front Street Saturday evening and had called the hospital to state his condition. He had driven his car to the hospital grounds but was unable to walk into the building. Hospital aides gave him care but it was not possible to save his life.

Christian William Christiansen was born May 23rd, 1894 at Herman. He grew up in that area and for many years engaged in farming. Later he left the farm and entered the farm equipment business in Blair, a business which he followed for a number of years.

He is survived by a son, Eugene, of the Herman area and by a daughter, Mrs. Carl Sorensen (Viva Mae) of Blair. There are five grandchildren.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Jaspersen, of Herman and Mrs. Stella Larsen, of Fremont. A brother, Harry, lives in Denver.

Funeral services were held at the First Lutheran Church Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. George Pallesen conducting the service. Burial, under the direction of the Bendorf Funeral Home, was made in the Blair cemetery. Pallbearers were nephews. They were Howard Kubie, Lyle Skov, Vernon Larsen, Milo Larsen, LeRoy Larsen and Allen Larsen.

LIFETIME RESIDENT DIED OCTOBER 23RD

Mrs. Mabel Ladd, 89, passed away on October 23rd at the Blair Community Hospital.

She was born September 14, 1878 to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pease at Blair and was married to Enock Ladd in 1902. They were the parents of eight children. Mr. Ladd died on March 20, 1947. Survivors are Floyd of Gary, Indiana, Earl, Curtis, Mrs. Margaret Bartlett and Mrs. Alice Gustafson of Los Angeles, California, Mrs. Anna Clark of Buel, Idaho and Rennard of Blair, and 28 grandchildren, 49 great-grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren. Also a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Mullen of Portland, Oregon. A son Howard died in 1948.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. at the Campbell Mortuary on Thursday, October 26th. The Rev. Joel Kemmerer will officiate. Burial will be in the Blair Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Milfred and Leslie Campbell, Lenard Sheets, Kenneth Johnson, D. M. Hannah and Claar Millrons.

Mr. Fritz Lorsch Buried In Ft Calhoun

Mr. Fritz Lorsch died October 20th at the Blair Community Memorial Hospital at the age of 85 years. He was born in Omaha January 24, 1882 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorsch and was the last survivor of a family of fourteen children. While still a small boy he came to Washington County with his parents.

On February 10, 1909 he was married to Martha Klabunde. They were the parents of four children.

He farmed for many years and in 1937 moved to Blair and was employed by the City until he retired.

Survivors besides his wife Martha are two daughters, Mrs. Asmus Wiese (Esther) of Blair and Mrs. George Charron (Ella) of Omaha and a son, Walter, of Blair. Also six grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Emma, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, October 23rd, at the Presbyterian Church in Fort Calhoun. The Rev. Keith Sackett officiated. The Sievers Mortuary was in charge of arrangements and burial was in the Ft. Calhoun Cemetery.

Pallbearers were five grandsons, Larry Charron and Mike Reiff of Omaha, Ronald Wiese, Franklin Young and Richard Sedenburg of Blair, and a great-nephew, Jack Lorsch of Kennard.

SERVICES FOR LENA AYE HELD MONDAY

Mrs. Lena Aye, widow of the late Adolph (Ed) Aye, who for many years operated the Aye Bros. Seed Company in Blair, died at the home of her son Adolph and wife at Renton, Washington on October 26th.

Lena M. Dixon was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Dixon in Blair on January 3, 1887 and was married to Ed Aye in 1910.

Mr. Aye died in 1926 and Mrs. Aye left Blair in 1929 to live with her sister Mrs. Della Steed in Kansas City, Kansas until a year ago.

Funeral services were held Monday at the St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Blair. The Rev. Wm. Shattuck officiated and burial was in the Blair Cemetery with the Campbell Mortuary in charge.

Survivors are Hans Aye of Neosha, Missouri, Adolph of Renton, Washington and Mrs. T. W. Wendell (Lena) of Chicago. Also seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Besides her husband, a daughter, Mrs. George Luken (Caroline) and a son John preceded her in death.

Jones, Alberta

AYE—Mrs. Lena, age 80 years, formerly of Omaha, and Blair, Neb., died October 26, 1967 in Seattle, Wash. Survivors: 2 sons, Hans Aye, Neosho, Mo., and Adolph Aye, Renton, Wash.; 1 daughter, Mrs. Lena Wendell of Chicago, Ill.; 7 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; sisters, Mrs. Della Steed, Kansas City, Kans., Mrs. Carolyn Quattrocchi, New York City, N. Y., Mrs. June McMahon, Portland, Ore.; brothers, Richard Dixon, Corona, Cal., Willard Dixon, Louis Dixon. Funeral Monday 2 p. m. St. Marys Episcopal Church, Blair, Neb. Interment Blair Cemetery, Campbell Mortuary, Blair, Neb., in charge.

FORMER BLAIR WOMAN DIED IN CALIFORNIA

Grace A. Nagler, the former Grace Hindley, died October 15th at Lakewood, California. The Enterprise has learned this week. Mrs. Nagler will be remembered by a number of the older residents here.

Mrs. Nagler was born at Blair March 19th, 1905 and had lived at Lakewood, California for a number of years. She is survived by her husband, 2 daughters and six grandsons.

Leon and George Hindley, both of Blair, are brothers of the deceased woman as is Edwin Hindley, of Long Beach, California.

She is also survived by four sisters, Mrs. Bernice Frazier, of Grant's Pass, Oregon, Mrs. Helen Hopple, of North Platte, Nebraska, Mrs. Stella Brock, of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Lillian Chapman,