

McClellan Services Wednesday

Arlington Business Man Was Active In Community Affairs

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for H. C. McClellan, long-time Arlington business man and community worker. He had died at his home Sunday at the age of 84.

Mr. McClellan was born at Salem, Indiana January 17, 1883 but

H. C. McClellan

had lived at Arlington for many years.

He had held an active interest in numerous community activities. For a number of years he served as Secretary of the Washington County Fair and he had been Secretary of the Nebraska Fair Managers Association for a long term. He had at one time been a member of the Nebraska State Fair board. He was an officer of the Arlington State Bank and at various times had served numerous other community posts.

He is survived by his wife, Gertrude, of Arlington; one daughter, Mrs. Carroll (Rachel) Unland of Lincoln; two sons, Merritt of Rolla, Missouri and Harry Jr. of Lincoln.

A sister, Mrs. Mabel Fleenor, resides at Kokomo, Indiana. There are three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Interment was made in the Arlington Cemetery with Eastern Star Graveside Services.

Services For Mrs. N. P. Nielsen To Be Friday

Maren Christina (Mrs. N. P.) Nielsen died at the Good Shepherd Home, Blair, on Tuesday, March 14, at the age of 79 years, four months and thirteen days.

She was born to Peter and Sophie (Andersen) Olsen at Poy Sippi, Wisconsin, on November 1, 1887.

She was united in marriage with the Reverend N. P. Nielsen at Poy Sippi on September 11, 1913.

They made their home where he served parishes at Clinton, Wisconsin, at Atlantic, Iowa, at Plainview and Winetoon, Nebraska, at Luck and North Luck, Wis., at Viborg, Spring Valley and Turkey Valley, South Dakota, again at Clinton, Wis., and at Laurel, Nebr. They retired to Blair in 1946, after which Mr. Nielsen died on March 31, 1952, and Mrs. Nielsen took residence in the Good Shepherd Home on April 18, 1958.

Nine children were born to their union, of whom one son, Rudolph, died in childhood. They are survived by the following sons and daughters: Dagmar (Mrs. Kieth) Knudsen of Lincoln; Lydia (Mrs. Otto) Stave of Blair; Lela (Mrs. Paul) Neve of Blair; Adolph of Cedar Falls, Iowa; Merle Dean of St. Cloud, Minnesota; LeVern of Stoughton, Wisconsin; Carl of Creighton, and Vera Mae (Mrs. Charles) Doidge of Redwood Falls, Minn. Thirty grandchildren and three great grandchildren survive her, as do a sister, Mrs. Andrew Nielsen of Glendale, Arizona, and two brothers, Alfred Olsen of Poy Sippi and Andrew Olsen of San Clemente, California, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Friday, March 17, 2:00 p.m., in the First Lutheran Church, Blair, and at the Blair cemetery.

Pallbearers will be grandsons. They are Herbert Knudsen, Dennis Stave, Leon Neve, Lynn Nielsen, Larry Nielsen and Loyd Neve.

The family requests that any memorials be given to the Good Shepherd Home, Blair.

Bendorf Funeral Home is in charge.

Casket Bearers were Lee Unland, Robert Schenkel, Robert Mitchell Jr., Henry Wulf, Andrew Svendgaard Jr., Richard Melvern.

Honorary Casketbearers were Clarence Rockwell, Arthur Gifford, Arthur Sidner, and Merle S. Newkirk.

Curtis L. Dixon Died In Arizona

Mr. Curtis Lee Dixon died in a hospital in Phoenix, Arizona on February 28th following a heart attack.

He was born April 19, 1895, north of Blair to Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon.

For many years he farmed near Ft. Calhoun, but retired about two years ago. He was active in the work of the Presbyterian Church in Ft. Calhoun and served as an elder.

He and his wife, Clementine Rody were the parents of three children. Mrs. Dixon died in 1958.

Mr. Dixon later married, December 12, 1960, Margaret Lathrop, who survives him. Other survivors are his two daughters, Dorothy Dixon of Omaha, Mrs. Jack Smith (Maxine) of El Centro, California and a son Gerald of Lakeport, California. Also seven grandchildren and one great grandchild and a brother Fred of Fremont.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 4th at the Presbyterian Church in Ft. Calhoun. The Rev. Keith Sackett of Ft. Calhoun and Rev. Don Killen, former pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Ft. Calhoun Cemetery. The Sievers Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were George Rohwer, Paul Kruger, Harvey Wilson, Harold Swanson, Clarence Smith and Dale Deifenbaugh

Services For Katt Infant Held Wed.

Services were held for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Katt, of Arlington, on Wednesday, March 15.

The infant was born earlier the same day at the Blair Memorial Community Hospital. Interment was in the Orum Cemetery with the Rev. Harold C. Jorgensen officiating. The Reckmeyer Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.