

George Neales Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Sixty years ago on December 29th Pauline Kruse became the bride of George Neale and they have resided in or near Ft. Calhoun all their married life. They have seen many changes in that vicinity during their lifetime and have taken an active interest in many community affairs.

They are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Vaughn Shaner (Eleanor) of North Hollywood, California and Mrs. Denning McArthur (Mable) of Ventura, California.

At an Open House celebration held at the Neale home Sunday afternoon both daughters were present. Other close relatives attending the special occasion were Mrs.

Shaner's husband, their son Dr. V. Carl Shaner and wife Vivian of Long Beach, and daughter Miss Susan Shaner of Santa Barbara, California. Also their son Neale Shaner and wife Laura and their daughter Penny of Ft. Calhoun. Also Mrs. McArthur's husband and their children David, Marilyn, Peggy, Polly and Linda and her son Stephan.

Dr. Wm. Anderson and wife Betty and family of Ann Arbor, Michigan are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Kruse, and also attended the anniversary.

Mrs. Neale wore her original wedding gown of Mousseline de soie with a fitted waist line and full skirt. She also wore it at their 50th wedding celebration ten years ago.

Edith Neale of Ft. Calhoun and Bertha Neale of Omaha are sisters of Mr. Neale and served the coffee at the Open House on Sunday. Mrs. Waldo Kruse and Mrs. Hugo Kruse, sisters-in-law, served the cake. All the grandchildren also assisted at the reception.

Other brothers of Mrs. Neale besides Waldo and Hugo Kruse are Ernest Kruse of Ft. Calhoun and Henry Kruse who resides at the Good Shepherd Home in Blair.

Mr. Neale retired from active farming three years ago and his grandson, Neal Shaner, now operates the farm and manages it, as-well-as, being a Trust Officer of the Omaha National Bank.
